THE TECUMSEH HERALD

SERVING TECUMSEH AND AREA SINCE 1850

VOL. 124 OUR 125th YEAR—NO. 16 THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1975 TEN PAGES—20c

Sesquicentennial Top Event in 1974

Year of 1974 will be remembered as one of mixed emotions, a year of prosperity and a year of recession. Many, many events occurred - including the resignation of a United States president - which will make 1974 an important date in history.

For Tecumseh, it marked a Sesquicentennial celebration, an event which provided The Herald with its biggest story of the year. Hundreds participated in the event, climaxed by a week-long celebration in July.

A large mobile home and housing development, called Green Meadows, was finally approved by the Planning Commission and then rejected by Council. Many businesses changed hands, a Tecumseh man was inducted into the Aviation Hall of Fame, and a record 18-inch snowfall paralyzed the area.

And, in November the second strike in the history of the Tecumseh Products Company began and closed down operations at the area's largest industrial plant. The strike remains unsettled.

These and many other events are recorded here, news scanned from the pages of The Herald.

JANUARY

Gas shortages reached Tecumseh. Four local service stations were out of gas and others short of supplies.

Planning commission began consideration of Green Meadows project involving single, multiple family units and mobile home sites.

Six inches of ice made skating perfect at the Pit.

Water in Globe Pond dropped five feet below normal when a tree became entangled in the flood gate, preventing its closing.

Fire extensively damaged the Parnell Coak house on W. Chicago Blvd.

Virgil Tucker was elected to board of directors of Tecumseh Product Co.

Harold Easton was reelected city mayor at an organizational meeting, and Dr. Carlton Cook was elected president pro-tem.

Talent rehearsals began for the annual Jaycee Follies.

Testimony was heard from interested citizens, groups and industry about proposed Russell Road extension.

Report shows that Tecumseh construction in 1973 jumped by nearly $300,000 for a total of $1,561,620.

Citizens attended Russell Road extension hearing and 27 of 54 persons who spoke opposed the project.

Cecil Eby, Tecumseh's resident author, has recently had his sixth book published, "That Disgraceful Affair," dealing with an Indian uprising in Illinois during the 1930s.

Penn Central workmen removed sod from between tracks along Evans St. in the main business area, where local merchants had painstakingly nurtured the grass in front of their shops in a beautification effort.

Payrolls in 1973 were up to $70 million, an increase of $12 million over previous year.

Ten Pin Alley opened, with 24 lanes of bowling, on Occidental Road.

National truck strike caused major layoffs in local plants.

FEBRUARY

Estimate Reactor Fire Loss Below $20,000

A fire in a monomera reactor at Stauffer Chemical on Sutton Rd. caused damages estimated at less than $20,000, according to a company spokesman.

The fire started about 8 a.m. and lasted approximately two hours before Raisin Township firemen and the company's fire fighting personnel extinguished it. Tecumseh's rescue vehicle and three firemen were also at the scene.

Although there were no injuries, deputies from the county's sheriff department closed off Sutton Rd. in the vicinity of the plant as vapor from the chemical, silanes, was irritable to the skin. One family was evacuated from a home next to the plant.

Company spokesman said no other section of the plant was involved and work proceeded with minimal interruption.

Blame for the fire was placed on a defective valve. Company officials checked the reactor and damages later Friday to determine total damages and how long the reactor would be shut down.

DRIVER CLIPS POLE, METER, HYDRANT

Mishaps Continue

Seven mishaps were handled here during the past week with one still under investigation.

Shortly before 6 a.m. Sunday, an unknown motorist, headed west on Chicago Blvd. in the downtown district, jumped the curb in front of Mary Sanchez Beauty Salon and clipped a metal light pole, a parking meter and a fire hydrant.

The driver then veered between two parking meters in front of Gambles and continued west. Chrome pieces at the scene indicated the car was either a Ford or Mercury.

A string of Christmas lights and decorations, attached to the pole, were strung across the boulevard.

Four motorists were cited in the other six accidents. A resume is:

Dec. 24 — Marjorie R. Ball, 24, of 304 E. Shawnee St., was charged with failure to yield the right of way after a mishap with Louetta Turner, 18, of 11536 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., at the intersection of N. Maumee and E. Shawnee.

Dec. 24 — Martha J. Dana, 16, of 704 W. Chicago, was cited for driving left of center after hitting a truck on W. Chicago at Cairns St. Truck driver was Robert A. Houston, 23, Toledo.

Dec. 25 — David B. Faling, 22, Clinton bumped the rear of a car operated by Marvin O. Lipp, 57, Clinton, on N. Evans at Brown St.

Dec. 25 — Douglas F. Aylesworth, 40, of 503 Sutton, and John J. Edwards, 22, of 610 W. Chicago, collided in the intersection of Bidwell and N. Maiden Lane. Aylesworth, local police officer, was driving a city patrol car at the time.

Dec. 26 — Lisa M. Albaugh, 16, of 219 Park St., was charged with failure to have her car under control after hitting a tree on W. Pottawatamie St.

Police Nab Two in B&E

Three breaking and enterings and a purse snatching were investigated by the Tecumseh police during the past week.

Local officers, alerted by neighbors, caught a 19-year-old and a 16-year-old at the Tecumseh Tire Exchange, 210 E. Cummins, Friday night. Both youths are from Ecorse, although one once lived here in the past.

In the county jail and under $2,500 bond is Eric Stanley Samonek. The 16-year-old juvenile was released to the custody of his parents.

One was caught leaving the building and the second a short time later. Police fired two shots at the scene as the youth attempted to flee.

Early Saturday evening, Carson Daulton, Adrian, reported a $115.95 stereo tape deck stolen from his car while he was visiting at 724 Waskin Dr.

For the second time in recent weeks, Airport Bowl was entered and change taken from coin machines. Estimated loss is $100.

Zina Opel, 909 Murray Dr., told police that her purse was grabbed as she was walking up the steps to the Eagles Club.

A 16-year-old Adrian youth is a suspect in the purse snatching. He was apprehended shortly after the incident but denied the charges. He has been released to the custody of his parents.

Drive Nets $1,504

Kettle Drive, jointly sponsored by the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs of Tecumseh, totaled $1,504 this year, almost $400 more than 1973 total of $1,113.

Carl Lamb, Kiwanis chairman said a total of $463.25 was collected; $358 at the kettles and $105 in special collections.

Eugene Cooley, Rotary chairman said $1,040.75 was collected in cash and $20 in merchandise from food distributors. Approximately $800 was raised at the kettles with $240 in special collections.

Last year the Kiwanis raised $297 and Rotary collection totaled $816.64.

Kettle drives are operated by the Salvation Army. Brigadier William Larned said that 40 checks for food orders were distributed in Tecumseh, through the Tecumseh Service Club.

In addition to the food checks, each family was given gifts for the children, clothing, toys, fruit candy and some canned goods.

Thirty other families in need, who were located through the schools, were assisted Thursday before Christmas with fruit, candy and toys for each child, said Mrs. John Baran, Service Club president.

Twenty Boysville young men helped with deliveries in two of the school's vans. "We had so much outside help this year, we were quite pleased with the public response and thank everyone," said Mrs. Baran.

No Talks Planned

No negotiations are presently scheduled between the United Products Workers Union and representatives of the Tecumseh Products Company.

Guy Cox says the Company has been told that the Union was ready to negotiate at any time, but the Company has not contacted the Union about any further sessions.

The Tecumseh plant was struck Nov. 14, the second time in the history of the Company.

Blood Visit Jan. 8

A Bloodmobile for employees of Tecumseh Products Co. and community donors on Wednesday, Jan. 8 at Tecumseh Union Hall, from 12 until 6 p.m., affords this area an opportunity to help forestall blood shortages in Lenawee County's Blood Program.

"Southeastern Michigan may be faced with a critical shortage of blood" states Duane E. Johnson, executive director of Southeastern Michigan chapter of American Red Cross.

"Industrial layoffs forced the cancellation of 18 Bloodmobile visits. This coupled with the traditional slump in blood donations during the holidays have created the very real possibility of a blood shortage early in 1975".

Accused's Murder Trial Set

Robert Billhymer, accused killer of two Lenawee County youths, including Sally Marie Schulze, 19, of Tecumseh, has been extradited to Arizona and is scheduled to stand trial on Jan. 28 at Tucson.

The Ann Arbor youth has been charged with two counts of first degree murder, one count of armed robbery, and one count of auto theft. He's held without bond.

Miss Schulze and Gary Stultz, 24, of Adrian were slain in a trailer in August near Tucson. A few days later, Billhmyer was arrested in Ann Arbor, driving a car owned by Stultz.

You Told Us

by Dorothy Grigg

She made it. Little Amy Ellen went to church with her mama and grandmother, Neola Stephenson Christmas Eve down in Richmond, Ind. As related by our Red Bird, the little tyke got into the pew, took off her coat, climbed on mama's lap and promptly went to sleep.

It was a beautiful Christmas Eve for those who were out to enjoy it and experience the true meaning of the birth of the Saviour.

We're back at the IBM electric and love it. And you, [illegible], are stuck with us, grandchildren and all. It was great to have a respite while lovely Libby took over the duties. We wish her Godspeed in her endeavors with the graduate course.

Mr. and Mrs. John Seay and family have returned from Miami, Okla., where they spent Christmas week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Seay. Sam Seay also spent the holiday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mueller happily entertained their entire family of some 30 children and grandchildren the Sunday preceding Christmas. First time in a while they had all been together at the same time. Happy, happy.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C.O. Butler over Christmas were her sister, Mrs. C.T. Gorham of Battle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. William Conlan and family of Youngstown, Ohio who stayed at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Spooner.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Mohr and sons of Adrian were Saturday night Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Mohr.

Mr. and Mrs. James Yost and three children of Canton, Ohio were Sunday guests for Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William DePuy.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sebring and son, Eric, of Bristol, Va. were guests of her parents, Mrs. Raynor Kerr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlon Boyes entertained for Christmas dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Boyes and children of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Linger.

Johnny Boyes spent the remainder of the week with his grandparents and attended the Warren reunion in Brooklyn at the James Warren residence on Sunday. He returned to Jackson with his parents.

Two daughters of the James Records were home from college for the holidays, Mary, senior at Northern Michigan University at Marquette and Sally, a sophomore at Kalmazoo Valley Community college.

Lynn Peck, home from Interlochen Arts Academy, entertained school friends, Wendy Woodstock of Chicago from Friday to Sunday and Hillary Burchuk of St. Petersburg, Fla. who will arrive Jan. 6 and return with Lynn to Interlochen on Jan. 8.

The Charley Trickeys stayed home and enjoyed Christmas with their little grandson who was just two Dec. 8. Just imagine the fun that the Trickeys Jr. and Sr. and Uncle Kevin had with that little guy.

To The Editor:

To The Editor:

Among my pleasant memories of the Sesquicentennial celebration are the conversations with two elderly persons who recalled their earliest days with enthusiasm.

Mrs. Edna Heilman will be 91 in early January and has always had a Tecumseh address. Her mind is very keen and she has much to offer. We talked together for three hours and she could have kept going but supper time had arrived.

She told me that life was very simple and was centered around the church, its Ladies' Aid with suppers at 10 cents, and the school. Food, too, was simple but plentiful because families had their own source of supply such as gardens, berry patches, fruit trees, poultry, cows and hogs besides the wild game.

A bit of wisdom from Mr. Gaston, Mrs. Heilman's father, "Save a part of every dollar you make and you never will be in want." Mrs. Heilman said it works.

Wilfred Waldron was the other person who recalled with interest his very early days. Life for him seemed very much like Mrs. Heilman's.

He said that the people were too busy providing for their daily needs and storing for the future to do much outside their homes.

Wilfred was an active member of the Sesquicentennial steering committee. I wonder if any tapes were made of interviews with these well known and remarkable citizens. It is not too late.

Cordially,
Mrs. T. Rentshler

GRAB 7 PLACES

Indians Finish Wrestling Tourney

The novice wrestling tournament came to a close on Monday of last week at Ann Arbor Pioneer High School. Tecumseh grabbed two first place berths, one second place, one third and three fourth place finishes.

The tournament is held strictly for freshman and sophomore wrestlers. This year there were 485 wrestlers representing 37 Class A and B high school teams.

Winners for Tecumseh at the freshman level included, first place: Den Williams 198 lbs. and John Silberhorn 155 lbs.; second place: Dave Cuellar 126 lbs.; fourth place: Dan Yoder 126 lbs. and Wendell Withrow 167 lbs.

At the sophomore level Indian winners were, third place: Dan Tilton 138 lbs.; fourth place: Gary Beasley 138 lbs.

Head wrestling coach Pat Connors said of the tournament, "We were very happy. Our kids wrestled well. We could see the effect of the new junior high wrestling program, because this is the best we've ever done in the novice tournament."

Schafer Starts for MCCC Huskies

Al Schafer, a 1974 graduate of Tecumseh High School, is a starting forward on the Monroe County Community College basketbaal team. The Huskies of MCCC are currently undefeated with a 7-0 record and Schafer's contribution to the team has been very significant.

Al is third in scoring on the Huskie squad with a 14.0 ppg. average and he leads the team in rebounding with a 13 rebd. pg. average.

"Al's physical strength and jumping ability have been valuable assets to our squad," said Huskie Coach Lonnie Brunswick. "A pre-season leg injury slowed Al considerably, but now he is coming along just fine," he continued.

Leg injury and all however, Al came off the bench in the opening game of the season to score 21 pts. and grab 10 rebounds as the Huskies defeated Lake Michigan Community College's team when he scored 17 pts., 13 of which came in the second half.

Only a freshman at MCCC, Al Schafer is expected to continue to improve and grow as an influential part of the Huskie basketball program.

Indian Cagers Split Pair

By FRANK WEIR

Tecumseh lost a real squeaker to Saline Friday night, 58-57, but bounced back Saturday to defeat the Blissfield Royals, 44-41.

Both were non-league contests played on the Indian's home boards. Their overall record now stands at 3-5.

It was close all the way in the Saline game with both squads tied at the half, 29-29. Tecumseh took an early second half lead only to lose it with the game again tied at the end of the third quarter.

With just seconds left in the game, Indian Ken Biscupski had a chance to pull out a victory, but Saline's Dan Scotton knocked the ball down along with Tecumseh's hopes for a win.

The Indians connected on 25 of 68 field goal attempts for a 36.8 percentage. Saline went 20 for 68, coming out with 29.3 percent. In the free throw department, Tecumseh went 7 of 15 for 46.7 percent, while the Hornets hit 18 of 25 for 72 percent.

Leading scorer for the Indians was Bruce Hughes with 26 points. Tecumseh outrebounded the Hornets 50-38 led by Jeff Schafer with 18 and Hughes with 17. Tecumseh had 14 turnovers to Saline's nine.

The next night, Tecumseh hosted the Blissfield Royals in what was to be another close one marked by a stalling strategy by Blissfield.

Tecumseh took the first half 27-23. The third quarter was a repeat of the second with the scoring 12-10. In the final quarter, Tecumseh out-scored the Royals 15-8 for a final 44-41 score.

With around six minutes left in the game, the Indians led 38-37. Blissfield took the ball into their territory and began to stall. With the Tecumseh fans booing and Blissfield's cheering, the stall continued.

The Royals worked the clock down to some 40 seconds when their coach called for a time out. When play resumed, Blissfield missed on its attempt to score and Tecumseh kept the lead to the finish.

Indian coach Ron Spagnoli commented on the stalling, "It was what they felt they had to do to win. But our players kept their poise through it. Since we were leading at the time they started to stall, we were willing to take our chances with the time left. But we knew they had to make a move soon.

"Generally, I was pleased with our play. We were aggressive on defense and got some key rebounds. We made some mental errors and lost a few jump balls that we should have had, but I was satisfied with our play."

Tecumseh hit 16 field goals and 12 of 22 free throws in the game. The squad outrebounded Blissfield 21-16 with Bruce Hughes leading with nine. Blissfield lost the ball 16 times to Tecumseh's nine.

Score by Quarters:

Tecumseh	12	17	16	12—57
Saline	16	13	16	13—58

Scoring: Tecumseh, Sisson 3-3-9; Lisenbee 2-1-5; Biscupski 4-1-9; Schafer 4-0-8; Hughes 12-2-26. Totals: 25-7-57.

Saline: Raham 1-0-2; D. Fosdick 4-0-8; S. Fosdick 5-2-12; Slepsky 3-9-15; Kivi 3-0-6; Mitchell 0-1-1; Scotton 3-4-10; Monty 1-2-4. Totals: 20-28-58.

Score by Quarters:

Tecumseh	15	12	12	15—44
Blissfield	13	10	10	8—41

Scoring: Tecumseh, Biscupski 4-0-8; Schafer 1-3-5; Hughes 6-4-15; Lisenbee 4-2-10; Sisson 1-0-2; Burns 0-3-3. Totals: 16-12-44.

Blissfield, Stucker 3-1-7; Kruetzfield 8-2-18; Knoblauch 6-0-12; Jensen 1-2-4. Totals: 18-5-41.

This Friday night the Indians travel to Adrian to meet rival, the Adrian Maples.

The New Year is celebrated throughout the world in a variety of ways and not just necessarily on Jan. 1.

Ancient Babylonians celebrated their new year at the vernal equinox with a passion play representing the death and resurrection of the god of fertility.

Some agricultural peoples celebrated planting time as the year's beginning; others, harvest time.

The Romans honored Janus, the god of doorways and beginnings, for whom the month of January was named.

The Chines celebrate the New Year for 15 days, while we Americans pack it all into one night, complete with noise makers which were used in days of old to frighten away evil spirits.

Eating special foods on New Year's Day is a wide-spread custom, and in parts of the Old World it is thought that if a person eats lentils on that day he will have enough food to eat all year.

In some Southern states, black-eyed peas or hog jowls are eaten for this reason. My husband's aunt, who is Yugoslavian, annually serves goose and cabbage to insure good fortune for her family.

No matter how the New Year is observed, it is a good time to wipe the slate clean, mend fences and make those seldom-kept resolutions. My resolution for 1975? To keep the resolutions I make!

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jordan and their three daughters of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, spent Christmas with their parents and grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jordan.

They arrived Dec. 21, and began their trip back to Iowa on Dec. 27. The Jordan's daughter, Mrs. Eugene Rathbun, and family arrived from Lansing for the day after Christmas.

A special Christmas present for Mary Foster this year was having her mother, Mrs. Jay Warner of Pierce, Ariz. arrive in time for the holidays.

Mrs. Warner spent several days with her daughter's family on Hack Road and plans on staying two or three weeks in Michigan with her other children in Westland and Garden City.

Sargeant and Mrs. Kenny Hughes and children of Ft. Knox, Ky. were also houseguests.

DIFFERENT WINDOWS

In Tecumseh I look at Mother Nature's wonders through large picture windows whereas here in Tarpon Springs my view is through two four-foot sliding glass doors and the rollout type windows of the enclosed porch.

The bird watching is as different as the windows. Actually our southern bird watching began before we crossed the Florida state line. But it too was done through a window, the front windshield of the car to be exact.

It was in Knoxville, Tenn. In late morning. The car was parked facing the side of the motel office, two stories of brick upon which grew a thick covering of pretty green ivy - don't ask what kind - I was just pleased to know that it was loaded with reddish-orange berries. I was even happier to notice that a mockingbird was enjoying either a late breakfast or an early lunch of these berries.

After picking a berry as he flew by, the mocker took it to the corner of the roof. Very reminiscent of the way the red-headed woodpeckers used to pick mulberries on the wing and take them to a particular spot in the long gone old elm.

I was so excited about the fine show being put on by this, our first mocking bird of the winter, that I forgot to watch him eat. Did he gulp or nibble? Probably the former. What I do know for sure is how he posed on the corner of that roof - nothing could have been more perfect.

The sun was shining brightly, one of few such days on our journey down, and sitting in the car, looking at the bird, I saw him against a background of incredibly blue sky.

Mockers may not be the most handsome birds in the world nor the showiest but, under the right conditions, they need take second place to no one. Light gray front, dark gray back, black wings and tail with white markings. Indeed pretty.

Interstate 75, even at 55 or 60 miles per hour, affords little bird watching. However, lower Georgia and all of Florida through which we drove had skies full of turkey buzzards.

These small-headed, large-winged birds soar so gracefully that it is a bit hard to remember their rather unpleasant mission in life. Unpleasant but oh so vitally important. They are the sanitation crew whose vigilant patrol results in cleaning up the carrion which if left 'untaken care of' would soon blight the countryside.

Once across the state line and into the Sunshine State we began to see hawks. Big ones, little ones, and in-between ones; brown, tan, gray and cream.

No opportunity to stop for close looks - just driving by we had only a brief impression of the straight up-right sitting position so characteristic of the hawk family. And to Mom goes the honor of having seen the first anhinga.

He was 'all hung out to dry' at the edge of a small pond just south of Gainesville. These are such peculiar birds - ungainly and unlikely. The folks also saw a huge flock of robins.

In Michigan I watch our beloved Evans Creek and here I am becoming acquainted with a small lake. Egrets, herons, ducks and gulls. Strutting through the yards are huge boat-tail grackles and mockingbird is quite regularly seen on the postlamp in front.

So it is that we three Duncans are all looking forward in a different winter of birds seen through different windows.

Dave Champanois, of 2735 Burwyn Hills, is a member of the first class to graduate from the Middle Management Development Program at Eastern Michigan University. He is a general foreman for Ford Motor Co. in Saline.

Five Area Students from Siena to New York

Five area students of Siena Heights College are among a group which left for a week in New York Sunday.

Jane Gardner and Rene Bauer of Adrian, Philip Campbell of Clinton, Richard LaRowe of Morenci and April Beard of Tecumseh are part of 14 taking the seven day, six night theatrical field trip.

Included on the Siena Heights trip agenda are the productions "Equus", "Sherlock Holmes" and "Grease" plus back-stage visits on Boradway.

Broadway, off-Broadway and avant-garde theatre shows are but three of the happenings available through the theater study program offered by the Field Studies Center of New York. The students may also take a historical theatrical tour of Greenwich Village, attend theater and broadcasting seminars, tour the Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts, take field trips to behind the scenes areas related to the performing arts, and arrange for after performance discussions with cast members.

CLOSING HER BOOKS—Mrs. John Surratt, substitute elementary school teacher with Tecumseh Public Schools closes one chapter of her career with retirement and opens another chapter as a "lady of leisure." She will be missed by a lot of kids and long remembered by the hundreds she watched grow up in 20 years of teaching.

Teacher Retires After 20 Years

Her memories of the children are her happiest. After 20 years as a substitute teacher in the elementary schools of Tecumseh Public Schools, Mrs. John Surratt retires from her career with the close of 1974.

Dolores (Dode) Surratt and her family moved to Tecumseh from Indianapolis, Ind. in 1953. She taught 15 years tull time in Indiana at Tipton City Schools, Elwood, Ind. and Indianapolis Public Schools.

She graduated from Madame Blakers College and attended Butler University, both in Indianapolis, Ind.

Mrs. Surratt said of the family, "It is the original quartet plus," J. Phillip, attorney of Ann Arbor; Dr. Paul R. of Paw Paw; George, tennis pro of Hanalea, Kauai, Hawaii; and Mrs. Michael Osburne, homemaker of Tecumseh. The Surratts have eight grandchildren.

Mrs. Surratt is looking forward to being a lady of leisure. She giggled when she admitted that she is a night person and enjoys watching Johnny Carson when she can. She will spend more time reading, traveling and may even dip into real estate.

THE FIRST STEPS OF OPERATION AWARE

1. AN EARLY WARNING SYSTEM ON PRICE INCREASES: THE AWARE LIST.
Every week we will voluntarily post a list of price increases such as those received from manufacturers a full seven days before we actually change our price. That gives you one week to purchase at the old price—subject, of course, to product availability. You'll also find "Be Aware" shelf tags on many frequently purchased items, with the day of the price increase right on the tag. Of course, the Aware List won't include perishables like meat, eggs or fresh fruit and vegetables, where markets fluctuate daily. Items controlled by law or advertised specials. So before you plan your next week's shopping list, check this week's Aware List.

2. A PRICE FREEZE ON A&P PRIVATE LABELS.
A & P voluntarily has put a ceiling on over 1000 A & P Products. (Smaller stores may not regularly stock all items, but a list is available in all stores.) That means prices will go no higher at least until the end of the year, on many products that you use every day...bread, cheese, pasta, coffee, non-fat dry milk, frozen potatoes, tea, tuna fish, fruit cocktail, frozen dinners and canned peas and corn. Advertised specials below the freeze prices will still be offered. We've put the freeze on our private labels because they represent the best values in our stores. And we'll hold down the prices, even if our ingredient costs go up.

3. OUR 13 POINT CONSUMER PROTECTION POLICY.
It's our continuing commitment to making you an Aware shopper by reminding you of what every A & P store owes you and by informing you of ways to get the most for your money. Look for the signs going up inside A & P stores spelling out all the protection A & P gives you: 1. Guaranteed Satisfaction 2. Exceptional Value & Low Price With Absolutely No Compromise in Quality 3. Rain Check-Product Availability 5. Product-Freshness Through Open Dating 6. Consumer Information 7. Courteous Service 8. Cleanliness 9. Safe And Healthy Products 10. Shopping Convenience 11. The Butcher's Pledge 12. Variety of Choice and 13. People To People Communication.

Anniversary Party for Crutchfields

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield were pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when their children, three older grandchildren and Mr. Crutchfield's mother, Mrs. Claud Crutchfield of Adrian, feted them at the Hathaway House in Blissfield. The occasion marked their 40th wedding anniversary, which was Dec. 27.

Following the dinner the group returned to the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Crutchfield, where the younger grandchildren joined in the celebration.

The Crutchfield home was decorated in red crepe paper and white bells, and the linen covered table was centered with a two-tiered decorated cake with a "40th" on top.

The cake was flanked by ruby colored bud vases with pine and white carnations tipped with red. The children presented the honored couple with a ruby and sterling silver vase as a keepsake of their special day.

Guests who attended were Mrs. Claude Crutchfield, Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Crutchfield, Tonya, Jenny, and Kerry, Tecumseh; Mr. and Mrs. Tim Gibbs of Clinton; Jerry Thigpen, Collingwood, Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. George Cline and Jan; Mark Cline, Linda Pilbeam, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gibbs, Tammy, Terry, Tracy and Troy; and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Todd, Andrea and Scott.

Customers to Benefit

General Telephone customers will again benefit when the Federal Excise Tax on telephone service is reduced next month for the third time in as many years, according to Roger Ray, vice president and controller for the company.

The reduction, from eight to seven percent, is a part of the Excise, Estate and Gift Tax Adjustment Act of 1970, which as first implemented Jan. 1, 1973. Similar reductions in the past two years saved General Telephone customers over $1.6 million.

Under the act, the excise tax is scheduled for continued reductions of one percent the first of each year until Jan. 1, 1982, when the tax will be fully repealed.

General Telephone, which serves 570,000 telephones in 540 Michigan communities, collects the tax for the Federal government. The company provides phone service to all or parts of 61 of Michigan's 83 counties.

Plastic P.V.C. drainage and C.P.V.C. water pipe is easy to use. Make sure your pipe and fittings are clean. Cut your pipe off square — removing all burrs. Apply a cleaner to pipe and fitting and then a solvent to pipe and fitting. When you put them together make sure they are lined up the way you want them. It only takes a few seconds for the fitting to set up. Once it is set up, there is no way to change it. You will have to cut out fitting and install new if it is put in wrong. Use proper solvent for pipe you are working with.

When you have plumbing or heating jobs to be done, it's easier to call on the experienced people at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121 to handle the work. Our many years of experience guarantees you satisfaction with every job we handle. We have been serving the area for over 75 years. Hours: 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. daily, until 9 p.m. Fri., until 5 p.m. Sat.

Year's Review of Clinton

CLINTON'S YEAR WAS UPBEAT

Past year was an exciting one in Clinton beginning with a spirited election for village officers in the spring. Group action during the pre-election had a lasting positive effect as continuing interest resulted in citizen reorganization of a Clinton Area Chamber of Commerce.

Fall Festival project in September enlisted wide ranging support in the community and its huge success had an unifying effect which was continued.

Refurbishing of main street businesses and a new clothing store opening kept Clinton on the upbeat well into the Christmas season.

JANUARY

Several candidates filed for village offices assuring contests for president and three trustee positions in the Republican primary to be held Feb. 18.

Action by council allows the village to continue to elect trustees each year for two terms, on second Monday of March.

The James Shaffers received the $25 first prize from Clinton Area Jaycees in the Christmas Decorating Contest.

Meeting by Citizens for Planned Progress was attended by 80 persons who discussed village issues with candidates for village office. Group went on record as opposing a proposed retirement mobile home village.

A second group of Clinton citizens formed an Action for Progress organization to encourage voter registration, promote additional parking areas, beautify the downtown and secure additional police protection.

James Chapman won $10,000 in Michigan Lottery, Jan. 8.

FEBRUARY

Glenn B. Lewis Jr., 25, of Clinton, was found guilty of arson at the DST, Inc. plant Feb. 26, 1973.

Council voted to begin effort to acquire land owned by Clinton Engines Co. on Tecumseh Road.

Local group sought a retraction of school board's study on mobile homes, suggesting a lawsuit if retraction is not forthcoming.

Lawsuit is filed against Clinton Community School Board for a position statement in opposition to mobile home parks in the school district.

Clayton Strolle was elected as Clinton's new president, and Trustees elected are Richard Peterson, William Stout and Dale Sourbeck.

Council voted to purchase 19.2 acres of Gilman property south of Clinton for a park and water well site.

Mike Moon Day was set for March 8 to help the 19-year-old former high school athlete, who is a paraplegic since an automobile accident.

MARCH

After considerable discussion Clinton School Board decided not to drop the Agriculture program in the high school. A possible substitution of a Lenawee Vo-Tech Agriculture program was considered at length before the decision.

Mike Moon Fund reached $2,727.46 by March 5. By March 11 fund was up to $7,290 with a goal of $10,000 set.

Clinton Area Jaycee Auxiliary was organized.

Historical Society of Clinton was organized by Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bailey.

Clinton Fall Festival Committee was organized.

APRIL

Clinton School Spanish Carnival netted $5,400 with 1,800 persons attending.

Mike Moon fund reached $8,670.23.

Kukini Flowers is sold to Jane Hebert of Tecumseh. Shop will be known as Jane's Flowers and Gifts. John Prible moved his Kukini Travel office to Clintonian Inn.

Steve Bowman is elected president of Clinton Area Jaycees.

Action for Progress group spearheaded organization of Fall Festival plans.

Volunteers built a wheel chair ramp at the home of Mike Moon, who came home after eight months in the hospital.

The Rev. Earl Lawrence was ordained pastor of United Church of Christ at services, April 25.

Sandra Drexler was named valedictoriam and Robert Vogel was named salutatorian of Clinton High School senior class.

MAY

Clinton Chamber of Commerce was officially reinstated May 10.

JUNE

The Rev. David Stout, pastor of Clinton Methodist Church is assigned to Christ United Methodist Church at Bay City.

School election voters approved five mills for operating and re-elected Robert Werner and Robert Way to school board.

The Rev. Earl Lawrence was elected president of Clinton Chamber of Commerce.

JULY

Fifteen members of the Spanish Club traveled to Mexico.

County Road graders began work on Clinton-Macon Road after it was torn up for more than a year.

AUGUST

Court Nighswander purchased Steffens Drug and renamed it Court's Village Pharmacy.

SEPTEMBER

Fall Festival was a big success as all three days of activities and two parades drew good crowds.

Sale of tickets on automobile at Fall Festival raised $2,000 for Clinton's four village churches.

OCTOBER

Robert and Margaret Nolander of Ann Arbor, opened Clinton Fashions in former bank building.

NOVEMBER

Clinton Cemetery Association approached Village Council and Clinton Township Board with a request that the two units assume financial responsibility for the operation of Riverside Cemetery.

Clinton Chamber of Commerce began consideration of a city form of government. Memorial Park improvements were started.

Knight family dairy herd of 120 cows was moved to Florida, where Mr. and Mrs. Charles Knight II moved. Charles Knights, Sr. will move there in the spring.

DECEMBER

Village Council approved use of a rescue service by Clinton Fire Department.

Two Barn Fires Arson Suspected

CLINTON—Arson is suspected in two fires, which destroyed barns in Clinton Township within two hours of each other, Christmas Eve, according to Fire Chief Harlon Ruhl.

Clinton firemen were called at 11:30 p.m. Tuesday to a barn on Arkona Road, owned by Loren Faulhaber of Willis and rented by Ermine Finkbeiner. Loss of the barn and a chopper wagon was estimated at $3,000.

Apparently the fire had been burning for quite a while before firemen arrived.

As the firemen were returning to Clinton about 12:13 a.m. Christmas day, another barn fire was seen on Willow Road.

Damage to the barn, owned by Albert Gall, was kept to about $300, since it was discovered soon after it started.

Clinton State Police tracking dogs were used in an attempt to trace tracks in the area.

Manchester Man Killed in Accident

CLINTON—Larry James Bauer, 18, of Manchester, grandson of Mrs. Jacob Bauer, Clinton, was one of two men killed in a head-on collision Thursday.

Other victim was Bradley Whitaker, 27, also of Manchester.

Clinton State Police investigated the accident which occurred at 8 p.m. on Austin Road, just east of M-52 in Bridgewater Township, Washtenaw county.

Apparently Bauer, westbound, crossed the center line striking Whitaker's eastbound vehicle.

Bauer was born Nov. 20, 1956 in Tecumseh, son of James and Dolores Gonyer Bauer.

He was a senior at Manchester High School, an altar boy at St. Mary's Church, a former Boy Scout, and a former Ann Arbor News carrier.

Besides his parents, he is survived by three brothers, David, Eric and Christopher; a sister Deborah; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gonyer of Manchester and paternal grandmother, Mrs. Jacob Bauer, Clinton.

Services were Monday in St. Mary's Church and burial in the parish cemetery.

City Opens Bids for New Bridge on N. Union St.

Bids were opened Tuesday afternoon at city hall for replacement of the N. Union St. bridge over Evans Creek, and the bids came in below engineering estimates.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says the bids will be presented to Council at its Jan. 20th meeting for action, and if approved, work could start almost immediately.

The new bridge will be the width of the street, or 34 feet, and parts of the present bridge, built early in this century, will also be utilized. Work will be basically widening the present bridge and lowering the surface there.

There is approximately 18 inches of gravel over the bed of the present bridge. The original sidewalk on the west side also has about 18 inches of gravel over it.

A six-foot sidewalk on the west side will be included along with a three-foot walk on the east side. Officials say it may be necessary to close the bridge to traffic for a few weeks during the construction period.

Bids received for concrete box beams were Superior Concrete Products of Southfield, $6,122.19, and Lamar Corporation, Grand Rapids, $6,330.30.

Six bids were received for the construction work with Cunningham-Gooding of Ives Rd., low bidder at $22,526.50. Next low bidder was Goodrich Construction of Adrian at $25,190.

Construction bids ranged as high as $42,456.15.

If work starts this month as expected, a new bridge should be completed and open for traffic in May.

Glass Breakage Continues; Cost Nearly $1,000

Vandals continued their glass breakage spree in Tecumseh Sunday night or early Monday morning with three local businesses reporting breakage, costing nearly $1,000.

Glass breakage also extended to the Tecumseh schools with reports of five windows broken at Herrick Park and a classroom window damaged by a pellet gun.

Local police discovered a large pane broken at Easton's Friendly Service at 1 a.m. Monday. A wheel rim from a Volkswagen had been thrown through the window.

At 2:30 a.m. while on patrol, the police discovered another large pane broken at Bill Hollis Citgo station, and two large panes broken at the Tecumseh Printers - Martinizing building.

Supt. Robert Duhan says two windows were broken in the gym at Herrick Park, two windows in the portable classroom units, and another window in the boiler room. A snowball was thrown through a window at the Junior High Monday.

Since premiums are high for glass breakage, very few businesses, including the schools, carry insurance for replacement costs.

In the past few months, extensive glass breakage and vandalism has occurred at Ken-Ray Drugs, Grey Fox Floral, R.S. Moore Lumber, Auto Parts and the Tecumseh Herald.

Britton Lady, 31, Is Overpowered

BRITTON—Two juveniles overpowered Mary Pritt, 31, at her home in Britton, tied her up and left with her 1965 maroon Chevy 2-door and purse containing $170.

Detective Larry Brenner, Lenawee County Sheriff's Department, said that suspects are known. The family employed them for odd jobs.

The juveniles are still at large.

Dec. 30 at 9 p.m. Mrs. Pritt was getting ready to take the two youths home. She was jumped, forced to the ground and tied, reported Brenner.

Mrs. Pritt was hospitalized for bruises and aches and remains under outpatient care.

The purse was recovered with only personal property, at Milan and was returned Monday.

Charge is strong armed robbery, said Brenner. Motivation is unknown. Brenner was informed that the robbery was planned.

Store Starts Remodeling

Tecumseh's Gambles store has started work towards remodeling the interior of its 28,000-square foot business place along with plans to install a large, new exterior sign.

Remodeling will enable the store to expand many of its lines and departments - sporting goods, plumbing, electrical, lawn and garden, building materials and do-it-yourself tools and equipment.

There will be additional fixtures and interior decor.

Remodeling is expected to take between four and six weeks for completion.

Retaining Paper Bags

Any Council action to change over to the "roll-a-container" refuse collection system has been canned by City Council.

At least until bids are reopened in October, Tecumseh will retain M.H. Weaver bag collection system. Contract with Weaver expires in December.

Several weeks ago, Cal Zorn, city manager, was asked to investigate an alternative system. Monday he told Council that the city received a quotation from USS Chemicals on the cost of the roll-a-waste container in quantities of 2,000 for $40.50 each, not assembled.

Collection system is estimated to cost $4 to $4.50 per month, about three times as much as present system, for a three year contract with amortization of cost of the container over the period of time.

Presently city has 2,068 residential customers on Weaver refuse collection system for which it pays $1.75 per month for the minimum of 50 sacks per year.

"Nothing seems to go back to containers for solid waste disposal," said Zorn citing trends in trade magazines.

"The present system offers cleanlinesss, eliminates washing cans, noise, broken or lost lids and containers left at the curb," Zorn pointed out.

Councilman James Palmer was not convinced that enough bags were distributed throughout the year and was concerned that rising cost of the bags would warrant changing systems later.

Other council members agreed that present system was efficient and satisfactory to customers.

Information Is Lacking

Tecumseh's future membership in the Lenawee Council on Aging (LCOA), offering additional services to the elderly in town, is sketchy at present time.

City manager Cal Zorn said Monday night at Council meeting that he has been trying to acquire a written statement from the LCOA on exactly what kind of services Tecumseh would receive for a definite contribution.

Lack of information seems to have caused a misunderstanding of LCOA program by council members.

Mayor Harold Easton said Monday that the city has tried to have program and benefits explained for over a year now.

He told council, "If there are federal monies and benefits available, we are remiss if we do not get involved and get our share.

"That money will be spent somewhere else. We are not doing a bad job but we could improve. We have a small budget, why not expand it?"

Councilman Raymond Puffer said, "Why upset what we already have. I'm personally satisfied. I don't think we are doing such a bad job. Perhaps ignorance is bliss, but I don't see where we can improve."

Because the LCOA receives federal funds, Tecumseh residents are eligible for programs and just a few are utilizing the afternoon meal program and ride service program.

Pointing this fact out, Ward Eardley, Parks and Recreation director said, "We are already using it; I don't think that its (LCOA) programs should be added."

In addition to these two services, LCOA also offers information and referral on several topics of interest to older citizens, including health, nutrition, legal matters, insurance, taxes, etc.; exercise programs, special trips, a variety of games and activities throughout the week both day and night.

Tecumseh's senior citizen program budget is about $500, said Zorn, plus use of the Community Center.

FOLLIES CHAIRMEN — Kickoff for 1975 Tecumseh Jaycee Follies was Tuesday night at the Community Center as the chairmen became acquainted with the director. Chairmen are, Ken Beevers, general chairman, Jaycees; Vicki Bush, talent; Kris Fliss, costumes. Second row, Terry and Len DeMoss, publicity; Ray Russell, tickets; Della Beevers, secretary; Kathy Hartley, tickets; Pat Bush, Little Miss Follies Contest. Chairmen not shown are: Kathy Demerritt, ads; John Hartley, theater; John Day, props; Laurie Faust, make-up; and Brenda Johnson, cast party.

Plan Follies

Talent rehearsals began this week for the 10th annual Jaycee Follies, Jan. 24-25. Additional talent is still sought. For information, those interested may call Mrs. Dan Bush at 423-7587.

The variety show will be Jan. 24-25 at the Croswell Opera House in Adrian.

Director Jon Brittain arrived in Tecumseh on Tuesday to lead the Follies cast.

Anyone interested in participating is invited to attend rehearsals and auditions held every day at the Grange Hall, Tecumseh.

No special talent is required and anyone from surrounding communities can have a place.

The "Little Miss Follies" contest is already underway with youngsters' pictures and canisters in local businesses.

General chairman for the Follies this year are Ken Beevers, Mary Moulton represents the auxiliary.

Kris Fliss is in charge of costumes; Len and Terry DeMoss, publicity; Ken and Della Beevers and Kathy Hartley, advertising; Ray Russell and Kathy Hartley, tickets.

Claire Helms, patrons John Hartley, theatre; John Day, props; Vicki Bush, talent; Brenda Johnson, cast party; Laurie Foust, make-up; Della Beevers, secretary.

Veteran Businessman Services Are Held

Services were held Friday at Proctor Funeral Home for Raymond Puffer, 86, of 216 W. Kilbuck St. who died Dec. 31 in Bixby Hospital.

Born May 5, 1888 in Akron, Ohio, he was graduated from Bay City Business College. He married the former Clara Maude Warren on April 15, 1912. She survives.

A long-time retail merchant in Tecumseh, Mr. Puffer retired some years ago.

The Puffers came to Tecumseh in August 1918 from Detroit when he took over the management of the Webster-Anderson Co., a large retail dry goods store here. They moved to Milan for one year, returning in the fall of 1930.

Mr. Puffer operated the Style Shop, located about where Ernie Oliver's office is now, selling to Goldie Watkins in December 1933, when he took up traveling as a salesman of notions. He also operated a grocery from his home.

When gas rationing came in, he dropped the grocery business and went into Allisons Clothing Store.

He retired from Allison's but returned to work for them when the store was going out of business in November, 1964.

He was a member of First Baptist Church and a life member of Masonic Lodge F and AM, No. 69 and Chapter 42 of Royal Arch Masons.

Other survivors include two sons, Jack R. and C. Ray both of Tecumseh, seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Three sisters and one brother also survive.

Mr. Puffer was preceded in death by one son, Warren in 1970, one sister and one brother.

Dr. Blair Bashore officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

Masonic services were held at the funeral home.

City Officials Are Re-elected

Harold Easton and Dr. Carlton Cook were reelected as mayor and mayor pro-tem at the annual reorganizational meeting of Council last Thursday night.

Easton was reelected with five votes and Councilwoman Mary Bowers received one vote.

Cook was reelected with four votes, with one vote for Mrs. Bowers and one for Aden Mead.

Little Progress in Marathon Strike Session

Information about a 12-hour marathon negotiating session between the Tecumseh Products Company and the Union Board indicates little progress was achieved.

The session, called by a mediator and from a request by the Company, started 2 p.m. Monday afternoon and lasted until 2 a.m. Tuesday. Further negotiation sessions have not yet been scheduled.

The eight-week old strike, second in the history of the Company, started Nov. 14 with nearly 3,000 employees involved.

'74 Construction Drops $350,000

Estimated construction in Tecumseh in 1974 was $1,234,330, according to a report released by Robert E. Hamden, city building inspector.

The total is approximately $325,000 below the previous year, when permits for building added up to $1,561,620.

Last year there were 31 one-family housing permits issued with construction totaling $700,500.

Other new building permits in 1974 included 13 for residential garages - $28,200 - and three other structures for a total of $230,220.

Permits for additions and alterations for residential buildings numbered 49 at a cost of $138,865. There were 26 other permits for similar construction, totaling $136,545.

Hamden says an addition to the Tecumseh Products Company was not included in his report.

Snowmobiler Dies in Crash Sunday

Clifford E. Aldrich, 34, of Hudson was dead on arrival at Bixby Hospital Sunday at 12:40 a.m. where he was taken by Sheriff's officers following an accident while riding his snowmobile on Whelan Road.

Riding alone, ahead of other snowmobilers, he shot off a steep enbankment and crashed into the foot of a hill. Reports stated that Aldrich must have been airborne about 200 feet.

He suffered multiple injuries to the head and an autopsy stated that cause of death was massive head injuries.

Aldrich was employed by Ford Motor Co., Saline plant.

Survivors include his wife, Beverly; his parents; two daughters and one son; one sister and his grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Kane of Tipton.

Services were in Hudson Wednesday with burial in Maple Grove Cemetery there.

SLAMS INTO TREE—Evelyn Gerten, 49, of 9586 Tonneberger Dr., totaled her car and suffered serious injuries last Friday when she slid on Newberg Road, just north of Paul's Trailer Park, and slammed headon into a tree.

Accident on the icy road occurred just before noon last Friday. Mrs. Gerten was rushed to Herrick Hospital in serious condition but is now said to be progressing satisfactorily.

Accident Rate Skids

Only five accidents on Tecumseh streets were recorded during the past week, of the lowest in many months.

A resume is:

Jan. 3—David V. Miller, 41, of 710 Wenonah, was cited for improper backing after hitting a parked car owned by Paul Jurlukowski of Tipton, on Wenonah St.

Jan. 6—Roland D. Polley, 63, Dundee and David K. Lay, 19, of 215 Brown St., scraped together while both were headed east on W. Chicago Blvd.

Jan. 6—Stephen Dermeyer, 17, of 205 Bidwell, and Ralph C. Leismer, 17, of 505 Russell Rd. backed into each other at the high school parking lot.

Jan. 6—Barbara Strenfurth, 211 N. Pearl St., reported her car damaged while parked on Cairns St.

Jan. 7—Wayne A. Phillips, 28, Walbridge, Ohio, ran into the rear of a car operated by Mary L. Kitson, 51, of 605 Herrick Park Dr.

Advice from Michigan Out-of Doors is to never be without a contour map when you are fishing a new lake or a new location on a lake. "It's your eyes to seeing what's below the surface of the ice," Editor Bill Gardiner points out.

The 76 page index to more than 2,500 maps of Michigan's inland lakes entitled "Michigan Mapped Lakes" is available for $1. by writing M. Conservation Club, P.O. Box 2235, Lansing 48911.

Be thankful for lower speed limits. The 1974-75 New Year holiday was the safest in Michigan since 1957 with only two traffic deaths reported for the 30 hour period.

Also 1974 was the safest year since 1963 with 1848 traffic deaths reported compared to 2209 last year. This fantastic record could be the result of lower speed limits and unemployment. Statistics are from Len Barnes' staff at AAA.

Lamb's Rexall Pharmacy, downtown shop which has carried one of the largest selections of magazines and paperbacks in town, has dropped both completely and will now sell newspapers only.

Owner Carl Lamb says the magazines especially are lewed and in poor taste and have offended a number of his customers.

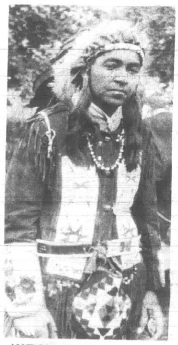
Have any old blankets or flannel bedsheets that could be used as lining for vests or lap robes for patients in Herrick Nursing Home or in the Veteran's Hospital?

Mrs. Art Sommers, 107 S. Maiden Lane is making these items and could use some donations. Her phone number is 423-2587.

According to Dr. Robert Bowers, this genial lady is an artist and frequently dresses up his office as she did for Christmas with lovely little rag-a-muffin carolers. Hope you saw them.



WE NAMED IT, YOU CLAIM IT—This photograph of Chief Kiutus Tecumseh, supposed great-great-grandson of Shawnee Chief for whom Tecumseh was named, was left at the Herald during the Sesquicentennial. Owner may still claim it and a clipping on "4 Tecumseh boys in Morenci, Ariz." at the Herald office. Chief Kiutus came from Cashmere, Wash. to join Tecumseh in May 1935 for the centenary celebration of the restored Hayden Mill.

HAPPY NEW YEAR, NANCY LEE — The welcome to this New Year's baby is a warm and happy one, but not only from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Snyder, 4068 Aebersold Drive. The little girl who weighed in at Herrick Hospital at an even seven pounds Jan. 3 at 3:36 a.m. is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Snyder and the first great grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe, now down in Sebring, Fla. for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Snyder of Zepherhills, Fla. are also grandparents of the new one, making their sixth granddaughter. The mother's wish for her daughter for the year of 1975 is that she may "be a real healthy baby."

Area Obituaries

ALICE MORSE

Funeral services were Monday at the Reed Funeral Home, Sylvania, Ohio for Alice Morse, 84, who had been living with her daughter, and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Eleanor) Froehlich, 3773 Loveless Drive for about a year and a half.

Born June 29, 1890 at Bedford, Pa., she was married in 1922 to Dwight Morse in Defiance, Ohio. He died July 22, 1963.

Mrs. Morse died 8 a.m. Jan. 3 at the Mari Gard Nursing Home in Sylvania.

Besides Mrs. Froehlich, she is survived by another daughter, son and one sister, 11 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren.

Burial was at the Toledo Memorial Cemetery.

CAROLYN RICHARDSON

Services were held Monday in Proctor Funeral Home for Mrs. Carolyn Richardson, 30, of Adrian who was fatally shot in an incident Saturday morning at 511 S. Center St., the Richardson residence.

Born Oct. 30, 1944 in Hackelburg, Ala., she was married Aug. 3, 1961 to Robert E. Richardson in Tecumseh. He survives.

Other survivors include her mother, Mrs. Lottie Harris, Tecumseh; three daughters, Cathy, Bonnie and Kimberly, and one son, Bobby Jr. all at home; and four sisters, including [illegible] Williams of Tecumseh.

She was preceded in death by her father, H.C. Harris, and one brother, Frank Harris.

Burial was in Brookside Cemetery.

ADAH F. SCHWEIGER

Services were held Tuesday in Dundee for Adah F. Schweiger, 86, of N. County Line Road, Britton who died Dec. 30 in Memorial Hospital, Monroe.

Born in Dundee Township Aug. 20, 1888, she married Frederick Spohr in 1907. He died Aug. 7, 1932. She married Louis Schweiger in Nov. 1946 and he preceded her in death Feb. 7, 1964.

She was employed at the Tecumseh Products Co. during World War II and prior to that by Revco in Deerfield.

Mrs. Schweiger was a member of the Lutheran Church in Ida and the Martha Circle of that church. She was also a member of the American Legion Post 72 Auxiliary.

Two daughters, Mrs. Delores Saxton of Harrison and Mrs. Ted (Dorothy) Strzeninski of Britton; one son, Ronald Spohr of Dundee, two step-daughters; three grandchildren, five step-grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren survive.

Burial was in Pleasant View Cemetery, Petersburg.

W. CAMERON

Services were held Monday in United Methodist Church for Wilfred L. Cameron, 69, of Southfield, formerly of Tecumseh, who died Thursday afternoon in a Detroit hospital following a brief illness.

Born March 18, 1905 in Port Burwell, Ontario, Canada, he married Ethel McKenzie on Dec. 21, 1944 in Detroit. She survives.

Mr. Cameron retired from Tecumseh Products Co. in 1968. He lived in Tecumseh for 16 years.

He was a member of United Methodist Church and Masonic Lodge, No. 69 F and AM here.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Karen Miller and Mrs. Joan Wallace, both of Tecumseh; one son, Roger of Southfield and seven grandchildren.

His mother, Mrs. Ella Cameron of Oakland, Calif.; two sisters and one brother also survive.

He was preceded in death by his father and one sister.

The Rev. Donald Porteous and the Rev. Allan Gray officiated and burial was in Brookside Cemetery. Masonic services were held at the funeral home.

MAX O. STAMATS

Services were held at Clinton United Church of Christ Saturday for Maxwell O. Stamats, 61, of 213 N. Pearl St. who died at 2:30 p.m. New Years Day in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Born Dec. 29, 1913 in Sumner, Ill., he married the former Maxine Amon Sept. 30, 1943 in Angola, Ind. She survives.

Employed for 30 years by the Hydromatic Plant in Ypsilanti, Stamats was a member of United Church of Christ and the Men's Fellowship there.

Other survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Gerald (Barbara) Rhoades of Clinton and Lois Stamats at home; two sons, William of Adrian and Robert at home and two grandchildren.

His mother, Mrs. Oscar Stamats and two brothers, Robert of Nobleton, Fla. and William of Jacksonville, N.C. also survive.

His father preceded him in death.

The Rev. Earl Lawrence officiated and burial was in Riverside Cemetery. Arrangements were made by Proctor Funeral Home, Clinton.

Appointed to Board of Review

City Council appointed Thomas Ball Wednesday night to the Board of Review to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Duncan Oliphant.

Ball's term will expire Jan. 1977. He is an employee at Fisher Body.

Council also reappointed James Freckelton, to succeed himself for a three-year term on the Board of Review.

Cecile Smith and Perry Satterthwaite were reappointed to the Election Commission for one year term each.

City Cab Short-Lived

Carmen Murphy's City Cab service was short-lived, as the fledgling enterprise folded Tuesday after about two weeks of operation.

Mr. Murphy says that besides a requirement for $1 million in insurance, another insurance of $300,000 on his household goods is now required, making it impossible to operate the business.

Besides, prank calls to false addresses were a harassment to the Murphys.

Wins $10,000 in Lottery

Mrs. Maria Lopez, who resides on a 6½ acre farm at 4253 Billmyer Road, was the winner of a $10,000 prize in the Michigan Lottery drawing, Dec. 27.

Mrs. Lopez had purchased two tickets from Midway Market the Sunday before Christmas, then forgot to check her tickets until the 31st. Midway Market is located on Occidental Hwy. in Raisin Township.

The winning 50-cent ticket makes her eligible for the $200,000 drawing in Oakland Mall, Troy, on Jan. 16.

An employee of ARA Food Services at Tecumseh Products, Mrs. Lopez has been laid off since the Products strike in November.

Mrs. Lopez said she plans to use her winnings to pay off her little farm, where she wants to continue to live "because there's room for the family to come and stay."

She just has one son, Augustine at home. He is a college student at Siena Heights and Eastern Michigan University. Other children are Larry of Mud Lake, Richard, Tecumseh; Mrs. Clare Bates, Battle Creek; Bertha, Ann Arbor; Rudy, Rawsonville. There are 13 grandchildren.

The Lopez ticket is the second big winner from Midway Market, James Chapman, Clinton, won $25,000 last year after buying a ticket there.

Youth, 18, Sentenced

BRITTON—An 18-year-old Britton youth, charged with negligent homicide, has been sentenced by Judge Rex Martin in Circuit Court for the death of Benjamin Studnick of Britton last July.

Robert Thomas was sentenced last week to 33 days in jail, two years probation, and was ordered to pay court costs of $500 and $2,686.50 in restitution. Regarding the jail term, he was given 18 days credit.

Studnick, 18, was killed when his motorcycle crashed headon with a car driven by Thomas, who was said to have been traveling at a high rate of speed and was on the wrong side of Britton Hwy., where the fatal mishap occurred.

Tipton Jets 4-H Meets

TIPTON — The first meeting of the Tipton Jets 4-H Club with the new officers for 1975 officiating was held Saturday night at the Tipton Community Church Fellowship Hall.

It was voted that the club have recreation for members and families outside of the meetings once a month.

A volunteer committee consisting of Scott Church, chairman; Peggy Lewis, Brad Williams, Darlene Whelan, and Gary Allen will plan the recreation.

Recreation for the evening was led by Scott and Russell Church, and Brad Williams.

A discussion about horses and other animals' health was given by Dr. Dean Kirkland, DVM, of Clinton followed by questions from the members and parents.

About 70 members and parents were served refreshments by Mrs. Ann Allen, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bolz, and Mrs. Betty Gamber.

Knitting, snowmobile, woodworking, horse and sewing project groups are currently meeting.

The next meeting will be Feb. 1 at the Tipton Community Church fellowship hall with a demonstration by the woodworking project group.

Raisin Board Oks Pony Race Track

A recommendation for the rezoning of about 31 acres to make way for a commercial pony racing operation was approved by the Raisin Township Zoning Board Monday night.

James and Mary Feight own property located south of Russell Road about one-quarter mile east of M-52.

A quarter-mile track already exists there. The Feights are seeking the rezoning from agricultural to commercial so spectators and competitors can be charged.

Feight expects admissions and entry fees to pay for possible pursed for adolescent and adult competition.

Feights who are members of the Southern Michigan Pony Racing Association said that outstate crowd might be attracted too. However, the 30 acres would allow ample parking back from the road.

Present track has been used since 1967 for private training, and was built well back from the road.

Feight said that 10 acres is farmed and the rest of it hasn't been used since 1918.

Property rezoning requires the approval of the county planning commission, township board and township board of appeals.

Since racetrack is a "conditional" use, not clearly defined by ordinance, it must go to the appeal board for variance.

To The Editor

To the Editor:

Over my past years in this institution known as Tecumseh High School, I have become severely disenchanted with the lack of concern the people of our fair city hold for its future, the youth, their children.

Time and time again the School Board and the Board of Education, our principal, and our teaching staff have tried to convey the importance of obtaining a new school.

We have expressed to you, the voters, that the hallways are immensely overcrowded, that the classrooms are to the point where learning has become impossible, and semi-individual help for needy students is a hope not a reality because of the numbers.

When our school was built it was constructed to hold a limited amount of students. The school now holds two times that original figure. We do not want silly extras as the voters seem to think, we want and need living space.

We have been voted down on the new school issue every time it has been proposed on the ballot. Whether out of disbelief of our facts of overpopulation or whether it comes from the stingyness of our own parents, we have been voted down.

Yet, one cannot overlook the one reason that shouldn't have to be mentioned, the idea that our elders don't care about their future, our future, or the nation's future.

One would believe in these times of great national stress that a voter would worry about his future.

This letter is not one of quitting, because of the fact that I will graduate from this situation, I will resign myself to work harder for a new school, a future that I care about.

Sincerely,
James Manley

You Told Us

by Dorothy Grigg

Georgia B. Adams had a nice way of viewing the New Year and evaluating the old. She wrote "I only count the blessings of the year that's past;

I only count the triumphs . . the things that really last.

The failures and misgivings I close the book upon,

Instead I view my blessings, and count them, one by one.

I thank my God for new years where with a fresh new start

I count the past year's triumphs and march on with stouter heart!"

Paul Hamilton has returned to New York City after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton.

He will continue his studies on a master of divinity degree in theology at Union Theological Seminary.

His plans for January include playing the role of a demon in the college production of "The Other Cinderella."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hollenbeck and Larry were dinner guests New Year's Day of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hollenbeck in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. James Goodman and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Whelan had the surprise of a lifetime last week when the tip-ups they were using to lure some pike "home for dinner" produced huge perch.

They couldn't believe it, the fish were so large in comparison to the usual size of the pan fish.

Now, let's don't run over each other getting up to Fletcher's Flood Waters. They probably won't bite that way again in a lifetime of fishing.

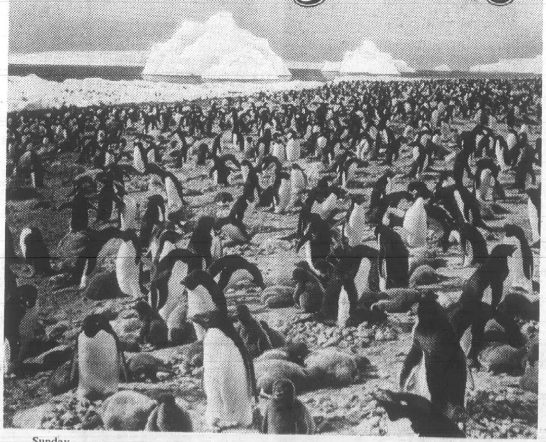
CROWDED BEACHES



While the attire here is a bit more formal, this scene could be Coney Island. Everywhere the beaches are crowded!

We don't know what brings penguins together in such number, but where people are concerned, it's the quest for recreation.

Interesting word: RE-creation . . . as if the work of God at the beginning of time has to be done over again . . . man, the creature, needing to be created again.

Physically recreation implies a restoration of energy and vitality through refreshing diversions.

But the idea has spiritual implications worth pondering: The Sunday morning a family devotes to worship is a time of recreation. It does more for the soul than the crowded beaches can do for the body and mind.

MR. and MRS. MICHAEL MURPHY

Vicki Camfield and Michael Murphy Wed

Vicki Jo Camfield and Michael D. Murphy lighted a candle solemnizing their union during the wedding ceremony Dec. 21 performed by the Rev. Kenneth Boyd in the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert D. Camfield of 303 Miami Ct. and Mr. and Mrs. Duaine M. Murphy of 302 W. Pottawatamie St.

Gold candles and bows were used in the hurricane lamps on evergreens and the altar vases were filled with flocked greens and white snapdragons, yellow pompons, and holly.

Joe Murphy, brother of the groom, played the organ and accompanied Larry Sebring, soloist and cousin of the groom.

On the arm of her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of miramist and Chantilly lace fashioned with high collar, bishop sleeves and a hooped bouffant skirt with lace bordering each tier of ruffles.

Her mantilla was bordered with lace, completing the old fashioned look. She carried a crescent of snowdrift pompons, white roses and glamelias with holly and gold balls.

Kathy Simon was maid of honor in a princess gown of gold velvet with white satin and lace overlay on the yoke. She wore a headpiece of holly and matching velvet ribbon and carried a white fur muff with white carnations, holly and gold and green Christmas balls.

Bridemaids were Nena Murphy, sister of the groom, Marcia Camfield and Tanna Sattler, sisters of the bride, and Brenda Camfield, sister-in-law of the bride. They were attired in olive green ensembles designed like the maid of honor.

Jennifer Crutchfield was flower girl and Michael Doan, cousin of the groom, was ring bearer.

Jim Robert was best man and ushers were Bob Beevers, Lynn Sebring, cousin of the groom, Steve Camfield and Gregg Sattler.

Red and white chrysanthemums were used on the bride's table in United Products Workers Union Hall were 300 guests were entertained for buffet dinner with music by the Frank Kiersey Band.

Mrs. Don Mullins, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and Cindy Puffer poured beverages.

Both young people were graduated from Tecumseh High School. He is in the United States Navy as an aviation submarine warfare technician stationed in San Diego, Calif.

Following a 10 day trip to California, the couple will live there.

The rehearsal dinner was served in the home of the groom's parents

Data on Homes Sought by Group

Cecil Eby, Professor of History at the University of Michigan, presented a mini-course on recognizing basic architectural styles and details in Tecumseh, at the second meeting of the Tecumseh Historic District Study Committee Tuesday night.

Study committee is seeking architectural and historical data on residences and sites in Tecumseh to aid in an historic survey and establish an historic distric ordinance.

Committee has outlined four basic working committees, historic survey committee to evaluate sites, photographic committee to record architecture, communications to propose graphics and publications, and an historic ordinance study and financing committee to study other historic district ordinances and available grants for cost of study.

Historic District Study Committee was appointed by City Council to prepare a report concerning significance of building sites, structures, objects and proposed district in the city.

This report is to be submitted to turn to the Planning Commission, City Council, Michigan Historical Commission, Michigan Advisory Council, for establishment of an historic district ordinance to preserve architectural specimens.

Books on American architecture will be on reserve or overnight check out to familiarize study committee members and interested people with architecture.

Regular meeting date of the committee is the first Tuesday of each month. Next meeting is Feb. 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the Clara Waldron room at the library. Public is welcome.

Members of the historic district committee are Cecil and Patricia Eby, David Ruff, Donald and Bonnie Berkley, Vera Driscoll, Edna Smith, Wallace Whiting, Geraldine French, Earl Mason, Gina Bauman, Owen and Sylvia Merril and Lynn Cook, chairwoman.

Ex-official members are Chuck and Sue Gross, Michael and Deborah Havener and Kathy Kulczyk.

Engagement of Rita Carswell to Gaylord Kime is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carswell, 306 Ottawa St. Miss Carswell is a graduate of Tecumseh High School and is employed at The Party Shop. Mr. Kime is the son of Mrs. Marian Kime, Tecumseh-Clinton Road. He is a graduate of Clinton High School and is construction worker. Wedding plans are being made for Feb. 22.

Cassandra Kureth, Weds Dennis Rodenberg

Cassandra C. Kureth and Dennis Rodenberg were married Dec. 15 in Calvary Episcopal Church, Idaho Springs, Colo. by Father William Buck.

Patricia M. Kureth, Idaho Springs and Richard L. Kureth, Garden City are parents of the bride and Mrs. William Powers of Wamplers Lake is the mother of the groom.

Fred Hendricks, family friend for some years, gave the bride in marriage. She wore a gown of ivory satin with satin cord and pearl design in front and her long skirt extended into a cathedral train.

Mrs. Kureth made the bridal veil of ivory lace which extended the length of the train and the satin and lace headpiece. The bride wore a pearl necklace given her by her aunt, Mrs. Rita Blake.

Her bouquet looked like a nosegay of wild flowers.

Marta Kureth of Lakewood, Colo. was maid of honor in a gown of rust colored knit with bow at the back waist. She carried yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Stephanie Kureth of Idaho Springs was bridesmaid in dark green velvet. She carried yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Dinner for the wedding party and guests was served at the Black Forest Inn in Black Hawk, Colo.

The bride, a graduate of Tecumseh High School, studied commercial printing at Lenawee Vo-Tech Center and was employed by The Tecumseh Herald. She is presently employed in the lift department of Loveland Ski Basin.

Her husband, a graduate of Wayne Memorial High School, was employed in construction in Michigan and is presently employed by Park Petro in Dumont, Colo.

After a trip to Winter Park Colo., the newlyweds are living in Idaho Springs.

Attend Assembly at Holt

Over 100 delegates delegates from the Tecumseh congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses will attend the semi-annual circuit assembly in Holt, Jan. 11 and 12.

This will be a new and much anticipated event for the attenders, since it will be their first meeting in the new Jehovah's Witnesses Assembly Hall, near Lansing.

Auditorium of the Assembly Hall accomodates about 1800. There are also seating accomodations for an overflow crowd of 500 in the spacious dining hall.

There are 110 congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in the Lower Michigan area which will be using the facilities of the Assembly Hall on a rotating schedule.

Groups composes of approximately 11 congregations will convene at one time for special weekend assemblies throughout the years.

There will be a baptismal service on Sunday morning using the unique built-in pool beneath the auditorium stage.

The keynote speaker is J. L. Waddington, a district overseer of Jehovah's Witnesses. His Sunday topic will be "What the Near Future Holds". Everyone is invited to attend.

Anniversary Party Is Surprise

TIPTON — Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Wilson of Clinton, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones were surprised Sunday afternoon when their children entertained at a 25th anniversary party.

Members of their immediate families and close friends gathered at the Tipton Grange Hall from 3-5 p.m. for the event.

Phyllis Cameron and Arnold Wilson were married Dec. 29th, 1949 at Iron Creek Church by the late Rev. Alvin Brazee. They have two daughters, Mrs. Allen (Judy) Hartwig of Ann Arbor and Patti at home.

Patricia Cameron and Glen Jones were married Dec. 30, 1949 at the home of her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cameron, near Iron Creek, by the late Rev. Brazee.

They have three sons, Norman, Gary, and Wesley all of Tecumseh, one daughter, Sharon, at home and two granddaughters. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Jones are sisters.

GREEN'S IN TECUMSEH

Style Sense by Evel

Always put rouge or blusher on in the middle layer of your makeup, between the foundation and the powder. Then you can powder the blush to the tone you want. Eye makeup should be worn with great taste, and very quietly, especially in the daytime. Blend eyeshadow up and out, and powder over it so that it will stay. You must use an eyebrow pencil ever so slowly and carefully, otherwise it will look like child's crayon work! Choose eyeshadow according to the color of your clothing and also at what time of day you are applying it for.

Is your home hair care program an effective one? Do you set aside some time each day for brushing and some time every week for washing and conditioning? Why not sit down and figure out a plan to keep yourself looking your best all the time? Be sure to include some time for setting, brushing, and styling your hair. And don't forget: the cleaner your brushes and combs are, the cleaner and shinier your hair will be!

Siena Still Has Openings

Openings still exist in the second section, "Psychology of Women," beginning Jan. 14 at Siena Heights College.

The introductory program attracted 56 persons, including men last September.

Purpose of the women's program is to help women take an objective view of themselves as individuals in society with unique problems and goals.

By taking the objective view, a woman can then decide which part of her own personality and occupation she likes, which part she doesn't and decide to change the latter.

Course participants learn to better understand themselves.

Psychology of Woman and Tranactional Analysis are only two sections of the 1975 Women's Program at Siena Heights College. Two others are scheduled: "Minority Group Women in Dialogue" to begin in February; and "Creative Communication" to begin in April.

Only requirement for admission to the women's program is a committment to attend all five meetings of whichever section, one chooses; and the payment for five meetings.

Further in... ...ation is available at Siena Heights College, ext. 244 or 246, 313-263-0731.

Increases Checks

Nearly 2.3 million veterans and survivors will receive 12 percent increases in their monthly Veterans Administration checks and 6,537 severely disabled Cold War veterans will be eligible for $3,000 automobile grants as a results of two bills signed by the President.

The 12 percent increase applies to pensions for veterans who have become disabled from nonservice connected causes and to their widows and children.

Increased also were payments to dependent parents of veterans who died or were totally and permanently disabled from service connected causes.

This year's 12 percent increase began Jan. 1, and will be reflected for the first time in checks received Feb. 1.

The other measure broadens eligibility for automobile grants to include veterans who suffered loss of both hands or both feet—or loss of their use—due to military service between World War II and the Korean Conflict.

Larry V. Neidlinger, former Tecumseh resident now of Carlisle, Pa. is head of the facilities engineering division at the New Cumberland Army Depot in Pennsylvania. An employee in the depot, since 1970, Neidlinger had held the post of civil engineer in the division. A Vietnam veteran, holding both the Bronze Star and the Army Commendation Medal, Neidlinger is married to the former Mary J. Williams of Grand Rapids. They have a son, Robert V., three weeks old. Mr. and Mrs. Vern Neidlinger, of Horton, are grandparents.

The Company also proposes to

(1) Increase the charge for seasonal service from six to nine times the monthly rate.
(2) Lend vacation service to six months in any twelve month consecutive period and establish a nonrecurring charge of $20 for reconnecting vacation service to full rate.
(3) Alter the tariff for large PBX systems using common control equipment (Series III) which will have the effect of increasing rates by varying amounts depending upon the equipment furnished to the customer. Customers in this category will be individually advised of the effect of the proposed changes upon their rates.
(4) Increase the charge for Centrex Business main stations by $2.65 per month in Rate Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4, $3.15 per month in Rate Groups 5 and 6, $3.45 per month in Rate Groups 7, 8 and 9, increase the charge for Centrex Residence main stations by $1.35 per month in Rate Groups 1, 2, 3 and 4, $1.60 per month in Rate Groups 5 and 6, and $1.70 per month in Rate Groups 7, 8 and 9.

The increases described in this notice have been requested by General Telephone Company of Michigan. The Michigan Public Service Commission may either grant or deny the requested increase, in whole or in part, may grant a lesser or greater increase than that requested, and may authorize a lesser or greater rate for any class or classes of service offerings, establish new service offerings or withdraw existing service offerings.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Michigan Public Service Commission will hold public hearings on the Company's application. The first hearing will be a pre-hearing conference to be held on January 30, 1975 at 9:30 A.M. in the office of the Commission, Law Building, 525 West Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913. Persons who desire to intervene must comply with Rule 11 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and must file an original and eleven copies of a petition to intervene with the Commission at least five days prior to the date of this hearing and serving a copy thereof upon all parties to the proceeding as identified in the Commission's file. Subparagraph (2) of Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Commission (R 460.21) provides as follows:

(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioners' right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the Petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the Commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted. (Emphasis added)

Persons filing such a petition to intervene may request from the Company a copy of its direct case which was filed with the Commission at the time the Company filed its application. Persons filing petitions to intervene subsequent thereto will be required to take the case and schedule as they find it at the time of their intervention.

The purpose of the pre-hearing conference will be limited to considering petitions to intervene, establishing a schedule of further hearings beyond those established herein, seeking agreement upon procedures, discussing the issues involved in the Company's application and similar matters.

Hearings for the purpose of receiving testimony and statements of position of parties who do not desire to intervene will be held on February 20, 1975 at 9:30 A.M. and 7:30 P.M. in the L. C. Walker Arena Marine Room, 470 W. Western Ave., Muskegon Mich. 49440, and on March 10, 1975 at 9:30 A.M. and 7:30 P.M. in the Auditorium, First Floor, Law Building, 525 West Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913. Persons desiring to testify or make statements of position may do so at the above hearings or at subsequent hearings without formal intervention.

Hearings for the purpose of cross examination of the Company's witnesses will commence on March 10, 1975 immediately following completion of the 9:30 A.M. session in the offices of the Commission, Law Building, 525 West Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913. Such hearings will continue from day to day thereafter or on such adjourned date as the Hearing Examiner may set.

The Company filed copies of its direct testimony and exhibits showing the proposed new rates with the Michigan Public Service Commission. Interested persons may examine that material during business hours in the office of the Commission, Law Building, 525 West Ottawa Street, Lansing, Michigan 48913, or at the Company's business offices.

Commission jurisdiction in this matter is pursuant to Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 13 and 21 of Act 206, P.A. 1913, as amended, M.C.L.A. 484.101 et seq., MSA 22.1441 et seq. Sections 3 and 4 of Act 419, P.A. 1919, as amended, M.C.L.A. 460.53, 460.54 et seq., MSA 22.3, 22.4 et seq., Sections 1, 4, 6, and 6a of Act 3, P.A. 1939, as amended, M.C.L.A. 460.1 et seq., Chapter 4 of Act 306, P.A. 1969, as amended, M.C.L.A. 24.201 et seq., MSA 3.560(101) et seq., and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1954 Administrative Code, Supplement No. 54, R 460.11.

This Notice is published pursuant to Commission Order.

If you have any questions concerning any of the matters contained in this Notice, please contact the manager of your local business office.

GEORGE

They tell us his name is George. From what we have seen it could just as easily be Riley for certainly that is whose life he is leading. Imagine an egret with his own private fishing hole — but instead of spending much time fishing for himself he has trained several people to fish for him. That is what I call living on a grand and glorious scale.

Our lake here in Tarpon Springs is not large but in the short time we have been watching, it seems to support a goodly amount of action. George, of course, rules over everything and everybody with all the haughty dignity of his clan.

These are gorgeous birds, stately and tall. Forty some inches high and oh, such a dazzling white too. Most of his height is due to long slender black legs and a long slender white neck. His bill is wickedly large, sharply pointed and yellow in color. A magnificent bird!

A neighbor, three coaches down the lake, told us George's name and rather sheepishly explained that her husband was one of those who regularly fishes for him. Actually, one of the egret's favorite places is Oscar and Pat's yard.

He spends a great deal of time there - waiting for Oscar to appear with his fishing rod. Any fishing rod is a sure-fire lure. Wherever there is fishing being done, there George is sure to be.

They tell us that the lake has many blue gills and Dad and Auntn are sure there must be bass too. George is not particular, apparently to him a fish is a fish is a fish - as long as someone else catches it for him.

And people are most obliging. There are several men and women who usually fish once or twice each day, and always their catch is tossed to the waiting egret.

Ordinarily this happens but during the holidays George had a rough time. Oscar was in Milwaukee playing with grandchildren. Even worse than this however was the sudden appearance of small non-sharing fishermen.

At Christmas time many moms and dads pack up the children and head south to visit their grandparents. When the grandparents live in a mobile home park that has its own private lake, there is a bonus for both the oldsters and the youngsters. I am sure that the granddads have as much fun teaching the young generation how to fish as the kids have fishing. Perhaps even more.

But George does not enjoy these fishing expeditions. Kids don't know about such things as tossing their catch to a hungry egret. They rush home to proudly show their trophies and I strongly suspect that more than one grandmother fried tiny bluegills for the very best breakfast her grandson ever had in his whole life.

One morning we actually watched George as he eyed a young fisherman catch three bluegills and race home with them—happy kid, but oh, such an unhappy bird.

Freeloading beggar that he is, this character is still a wild bird and can, thank goodness, do very nicely fending for himself. Or, fishing for his own fish as it were. Mom watched him one day. The bread had just been cast onto the water—and that is a whole story of its own but for another day.

As the fish came swarming in to nibble at the bread, George was 'Johnny-on-the-spot' to do more than nibble on the fish. He was set for full-scale dining and Mom's eyes popped as one, two, three, four fish he caught. A couple of them were good size too, she exclaimed.

His fishing technique is something to see. On his black stilt-like legs he slowly stalks along the edge of the lake. He moves so carefully, so cautiously, and how he manages those legs and feet so as not to cause a commotion which would send every fish in the county into hiding, is a mystery. Somehow he manages though. And while wading he is also watching.

With head cocked slightly to one side he stares down into the water. I want to stay 'unblinklingly' but as of yet we have not had that kind of binocular looking. However, when fishing he is the perfect picture of concentration.

Suddenly a hapless fish swims by, a trigger in that long neck releases, and, an action almost too fast to see, his head zips into the water. One fish for George. Quite a performance.

So it is that although a reporter for the St. Pete Times pokes fun at the northerners who stand around oohing and aahing at egrets that he claims are almost as common as sparrows, we are not that jaded, and I doubt that we ever cease to thrill at looking out and seeing George.

Pack 73 Holds Meeting

Cub Dens of Pack 73 portrayed Christmas in other countries at the December meeting in Presbyterian Fellowship Center where Charles Sullivan led group singing of Christmas carols throughout the evening.

Potluck Draws 175

Nearly 175 persons attended the annual potluck banquet of State Line Gem and Mineral Society Sunday in Community Center.

Robert B. Wells of Monroe presented the program, "Bless This House."

Jan. 13-17

MONDAY — Chili and crackers, relishes, meat sandwich, fruit and milk.

TUESDAY — Pig in blanket, potato chips, vegetable, pineapple cake and milk.

WEDNESDAY — Spaghetti and meat sauce, gelatin, vegetable, date bread and milk.

THURSDAY — Hamburg gravy, mashed potatoes, tossed salad, fruit, bread and butter and milk.

FRIDAY — Fish stick in bun, potato chips, relishes, fruit and milk.

Den I presented Christmas in Denmark, Norway and Germany. Den 5 demonstrated the breaking of a pinata, a custom of Mexico and Spain. Unfortunately Mrs. Gregory Aranda had made the pinata so strong, that in the process of breaking it so that the candy would fall out, she was hit on the finger resulting in a painful break.

Weblo Den I rolled oranges across the floor in a relay race. Den 3 depicted Christmas in China and Weblo Den 2 demonstrated games of different countries.

"Cubby" was won by Den 2 for 100 percent parent attendance.

Mrs. Crawford of Den 4 read the true meaning of Christmas from the Bible with den members depicting the story.

Den 2 led the group in praying the Lord's Prayer.

Roger Butler presented silver arrows to Walter Harvey, Abby Short, Scott Sullivan, Gerald Rafael, Jamie McKenney, Bryan Johnston and Tom Lambert.

Gold arrows went to Mike Hoover, Jim Knowles and Scott Nortley.

One year pins were won by Scott Bakas, Greg Bamback, Steve Britt, Walter Harvey, Gerald Rafael, Jamie McKenney, Bryan Johnston and Mrs. Britt.

John Frost and Mike Heaton were awarded the arrow of light and Valeriano Rafael won athlete, traveler and citizen awards. John Kitson received a citizen award and Duane Covell, an artist award.

Indian dancing by the Order of the Arrow will be the entertainment for the Blue and Gold Banquet on Feb. 18.

The Pack will be divided into two groups, one at 3 p.m. and one at 4, for a visit to the Adrian College Planetarium. Details will be given at the meeting Jan. 28.

Library Is Carpeted

CLINTON—New carpeting was installed at Clinton Township Library over the holiday week.

Thanks to Roy Richard and his spacious moving van, which was pulled along side the library, the numerous, cumbersome shelves, books and desks were stashed neatly inside, while the carpeting was laid.

If an excuse is needed to pay a visit to the library for a look, there is another large assortment of new books, which arrived recently.

Wednesday — Pizza, corn, applesauce, milk.

THURSDAY — Chili or choice soup, grilled cheese, peanut butter sandwich, orange juice, gelatin, milk.

FRIDAY — Fish sticks and tarter sauce, bread and butter, corn, cake, milk.

Hobby Club Hosted

CLINTON—Mrs. Thomas Pence hosted a dessert luncheon meeting of the Clinton Hobby Club recently at her home.

The group filled Christmas boxes for shut-ins and exchanged gifts.

Because of the uncertain winter weather, the members decided not to meet in January and February, but instead to have meetings in July and August. Next meeting will be March 19, at the home of Mrs. Daniel Reilly.

New Curtains for Church

CLINTON — Members of the Mary Martha Class plan to hang the new curtains throughout the church school rooms at the United Church of Christ, Thursday, Jan. 16 at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Milton Grossman hosted the meeting Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Arthur Hill presented the devotions on the lives of Apostle John and John the Baptist.

Coffee hour chairmen were assigned for January.

Meeting on Feb. 4 will be hosted by Mrs. Hill at the church.

Building Down Board Reports

CLINTON—Value of building construction in Clinton Township for 1974 was $486,704, as reported by Charles Wilson, building inspector at the township board meeting Monday.

Report represents a decrease of 35.7 percent from previous year.

Meeting with Lenawee County Road Commission will be rescheduled from Jan. 10 to a later date.

Robert Winder of the Cemetery Committee reported on the progress the committee has made in operation of Riverside Cemetery.

Board approved payment of tuition for Supervisor Harry Comstock to attend a 12-week course at Washtenaw Community College, for an assessment administrators course, to qualify for Level II Assessor, beginning Jan. 22.

Supervisor Comstock has the exemption forms for citizens who are turning 65, or others eligible for homestead exemptions. Call him for information or pick up forms at his home.

Martin Halley, county commissioner, explained about the numerous county committee positions to be filled and who is eligible for these positions.

Seven File to Fill Three Posts

CLINTON—Seven Republican candidates filed for nomination for election to three two-year positions on the Clinton Village Council by the Dec. 31 deadline.

Candidates are Bernard Abraham, Clifford Cobb, Charles Cook, John Jansen, John Knight, Richard Koster and Jean Magee.

Incumbents are Koster and Jansen. Gilbert Hill, whose term expires will not seek reelection.

Two candidates, Hollis Farley and Irene Karapas, filed for two 3-year positions on the Smith-Kimball Community Center Board. Both are incumbents.

A primary election on Feb. 17 will be required to determine the candidates for the March 10 annual election.

Returns Home from Italy

CLINTON—Mrs. Ivah McCombs returned home Monday after spending the holidays in Naples, Italy. She accompanied her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crane of Cumberland, Md., to the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. James Allen.

At a dinner in an Italian home, she found their version of pizza especially tasty. It is prepared with a rich, flaky crust. Remarkable, too, was the generous ladeling of wine from a huge punch bowl in the center of the table, to pitchers at each guest's plate.

They visited the Vatican, St. Peter's Church and other sights in Rome.

New Year's Eve in Naples was colorful, she reported. Everyone explodes fireworks from his window and "casts off the evil"—which apparently includes old furniture and other things that littered the streets the next day.

Lt. Allen will complete his tour of duty with the U.S. Navy in June and the couple will return to the States.

Pack Meets

Pack 207 met Jan. 6, at St. Elizabeth School. Color guard for the evening consisted of Shane Mackey and Robert Elkins, John Tressler and Michael Walper.

Den 3, led by Mrs. Richard Heglin and Mrs. J.J. Walper presented a Christmas skit called "A Time for Giving".

Mrs. Heglin then announced that Cubmaster, Dr. Graham Foster, resigned as Cubmaster and Jim Hedley would be the new Cubmaster.

Bobcat pins were then presented to Peter Church, Tony Merillat, Gregg Schiller, Robert Temple and John Tressler.

The wolf badge was presented to Jeff Hedley and the silver arrow to Bob Foster.

Dick Heglin, assisted by Frank Barritt, announced the plans for the Pinewood Derby Feb. 22.

Judy Crombez announced plans for the Blue and Gold Banquet for Feb. 3.

News from the Tecumseh Library

SMALL FRY AND EARLY ELEMENTARY

THE MUSHROOM CENTER DISASTER by N.M. Bodecker: In a small woodland clearing full of white mushrooms, a neat sign announces: "Mushrooms for Rent by the Month or the Year." Here it was that a brown beetle settled down among congenial neighbors — a ladybug, a cricket, a spider and a moth, among others. Then disaster struck! The remains of a picnic were tossed away on Mushroom Center. Ages 5-8.

THE ICE CREAM CONE by Millred Willard: This beginning-to-read book tells the story of how the ice cream cone was invented.

FROG ON HIS OWN by Mercer Mayer: An amusing story without words of how an adventurous frog entertains himself one summer day.

MICKEY MOUSE'S RIDDLE BOOK: A collection of riddles for young readers illustrated with Disney characters.

LET'S FIND OUT ABOUT HALLOWEEN by Paulette [illegible]. Somewhat late in the season, folks, but prepare your children for next year — this book gives a brief history on how Halloween came to be, what people in other countries believe happens on that night, and how children here in America celebrate the day.

LITTLE YELLOW FUR by Wilma Hays: A true story based on the author's own childhood in South Dakota. It gives a fresh and unusual picture of growing up in the West, learning about Indian life at first hand.

HORRAY FOR PIG! by Carla Stevens: Pig thinks that learning to swim must be impossibly hard to do. However, Otter helps him overcome his fear and gives him daily swimming lessons. This is a direct and appealing story for young children about a common and often frightening problem. Ages 5-8.

THE HISTORY OF MOTHER TWADDLE AND THE MARVELOUS ACHIEVEMENTS OF HER SON JACK by Paul Galdone: Here is an unusual verse version of Jack and the Beanstalk. Long a favorite hero of young children, the brave Jack is certain to win even more admirers as a result of this dynamic new interpretation.

Presents Rise in Crime

The Community Drop-In Center will present a program about the rise in crime in our community at 9:30 a.m. on Jan. 14 at the Tecumseh Community Center.

Ray Walton, Tecumseh Chief of Police will speak and moderate the discussion. Jan Ruhl will be the program chairman.

At 10:15 a.m. there will be a coffee break followed by a rap session. Those who wish to become involved in an action group on problems such as juvenile crime, bike thefts, illegal drug use, breaking and entering, or other concerns may have the opportuity to do so at this time.

The special interest group on hyperactive children will also meet at 10:30 a.m.

Free babysitting is available, and everyone is welcome.

Contact persons Clara Stevens 423-2279 and Judi Crawford 423-7215.

As an independent agent we answer to one boss — our hometown people

We represent several firms, but we work for only one boss—you. That way we can always place you with a company which we think is best for each line of insurance you need. Naturally, we prefer companies like Auto-Owners who look at a loss and take care of it right away, without haggling or delays. That's one of the reasons we're part of the Altogether Family. Like us, they're always there when you need them.

A&P WEO WHERE ECONOMY ORIGINATES

SAVINGS YOU CAN SEE!

MANY PRICES REDUCED

OPERATION AWARE, 1975:

A&P CUTS FOOD PRICES

1. PRICE CUTS ON STAPLES.

A&P starts the New Year by cutting the price on A&P Brands of staples such as Dry Milk, Beans, Peanut Butter, Mayonnaise, Luncheon Meat, Fish Sticks, Spaghetti, Macaroni, Spaghetti Sauce, Cheese Slices, Frozen Shoestring Potatoes and other items that are important to a family's diet. So now you can get meaningful savings on many frequently purchased items.

2. WEEKLY SPECIALS TOO... IN ALL DEPARTMENTS.

Outstanding weekly specials to include meat, fresh fruits and vegetables and grocery items. And when A&P saves you money on meat, that really means something. Because at A&P, you know you're always getting fully matured meat that's cut, trimmed and priced for value. Take our beef, for instance. We sell only one quality of beef at A&P. And it's backed by our unconditional money-back guarantee and our Butcher's Pledge. That's the A&P Butcher's promise to always pack the better side of every cut down. So if you like what you see in the store, you'll love what you see at home.

3. AWARE LIST CONTINUES.

We're continuing our Early Warning System against price increases: The Aware List. Every week we will voluntarily post a list of price increases, such as those received from manufacturers, a full seven days before we actually change our price. That gives you one week to purchase at the old price, subject, of course, to product availability. You'll also find "Be Aware" shelf tags on many frequently purchased items with the day of the price increase right on the tag. Of course, the Aware List won't include perishables like meat, eggs or fresh fruit and vegetables, where markets fluctuate daily, items controlled by law; or advertised specials.

Receives Geology BS from EMU

Marc Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis B. Brown of Teton Village, Wyo. and grandson of Mrs. Curtis M. Brown of 7600 Hendershot Hwy. and Mrs. Victor E. Humble of Grand Rapids, graduated with a bachelor of science degree in geology, from Eastern Michigan University.

Watershed Council Meets

The River Raisin Watershed council was established Dec. 4, at a public meeting held in Tecumseh by officials of the State Water Resources Commission.

That action was initiated by a petition to the WRC by the villages of Milan, Manchester, and Saline.

Local River Management Act 253 of 1964 provides for organizing a representative council of governments in a river basin to cooperate and coordinate use of the streams.

A by-laws committee has been working since the council organized and will have complete by-laws ready to present to the watershed council in January. Any county, city, village or township government with at least 15 percent of it's jurisdiction area in the River Raisin Watershed has opportunity to be represented on the council. An opportunity for non-voting associate memberships of organizations and individuals is being proposed for more input interest to the program.

Funding the administration of the organization immediate attention.

It is an opportune time for such an organized effort to move with federal aid programs likely to come available to a ready organization. Massive government employment programs are coming that could have some application to river cleanup work, said Donald Mitchell, drain commissioner.

Reducing the soil erosion on the lands of the watershed reduces the sedimentation in the streams. Also, improving the treatment capabilities of municipal wastewater discharges reduces pollution of the river. This approach is dealing with the cause of the river problems before dealing with the problems of the river, said Mitchell.

Lenawee County Board of Commissioners - October 1974 Session

OCTOBER SESSION
Tuesday, October 15th, 1974

The Board met pursuant to adjournment.

ROLL CALL: 15 members present.

Comm. Leon moved that the minutes of the previous meeting be approved as presented, Comm. Rodesiler seconded and the motion carried.

The Chairman announced the following Committees had been appointed, Committee to investigate the new State Building Code that takes effect on November 6th, Commissioners Mackey, Hadden and Halley along with the Prosecutor and the Committee on salaries for County Commissioners, Commissioners Benner, Fish and Township Supervisor Ruesink.

Communications were read.

Comm. Zilke referred to the correspondence on the Tax Tribunal moved that the Chairman of the Equalization Committee and any other members that could attend the hearings in Lansing on the County Tax Appeals to be held November 6th, Comm. Hauch seconded and the motion carried.

Comm. Halley referred to the 4th District Meeting in Branch County and the progress they were making on cleaning up the Chain of Lakes.

Comm. Hauch moved that the Board Action acted upon on August 7th regarding Act 139 be rescinded and that a new resolution be passed in its' stead, Comm. Halley seconded and the motion carried by voice vote. Thereupon, Comm. Lackie presented the following resolution and moved its adoption:

WHEREAS, petitions for adoption of Alternate A of the unified form of government, being the Administrative County Manager form pursuant to Act No. 139 of Public Act of 1973 as amended, have been filed with the Lenawee County Clerk, and

WHEREAS, the Lenawee County Clerk has certified to this Board that said petitions are proper, and

WHEREAS, the County Board of Commissioners has not adopted the so called optional unified form of County Government, and

WHEREAS, the law reads as follows: "Upon the Clerk certifying to the Board of County Commissioners that a proper petition is filed, the question of adopting an optional unified form of county government with the alternate specified in the petition shall be submitted by the board to the electors of the county for approval or disapproval at the next regular primary election meeting not less than 90 days nor more than 180 days after the date the clerk certifies the petitions to the Board of County Commissioner, or, if a Primary Election is not scheduled during the period, at a special election called by the Board of County Commissioners for the purpose within the period."

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the question of adopting an optional unified form of county government, with the alternate specified in the petition, be submitted to the electorate of the county for approval or disapproval at a special election to be held on November 5, 1974, which is hereby called for said purpose.

FURTHER, the above resolution to be effective as of August 7th, 1974. Comm. Leon seconded and the motion carried.

Comm. Brown from the Ways and Means Committee reported their bills were in order and they had begun work on the budget.

Comm. Rodesiler from the Public Safety Committee reported on their committee meeting, labor negotiations are about to being, they let bids for new patrol cars, thereupon he presented the following resolution and moved its' adoption: BE IT RESOLVED that beginning October 1st, 1974 the cost per meals per day for prisoners at the jail be raised by .25 cents per day per prisoner. Comm. Lackie seconded and the motion carried by voice vote.

Comm. Lackie from the Legislative Committee referred to a resolution on each commissioner desk regarding the Michigan Commission on Criminal Justice and a discussion followed, whereupon Comm. Lackie moved the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS, The Michigan Commission on Criminal Justice has issued a report concerning goals and standards; and

WHEREAS, two of the recommendations are that the State of Michigan take over all Michigan County Jails, and that the Michigan State Police provide all police functions in rural areas;

HEREBY BE IT RESOLVED, that the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners strongly objects to these two recommendations as being the first steps in establishing a "police state" by usurping of local police powers traditionally held by locally elected County Sheriff's.

BE IT FURTHERMORE RESOLVED That this resolution does not address itself to the other aspects of the report. Comm. Hadden seconded and the motion carried by voice vote.

Comm. Lackie then reported on the committee meeting regarding the mandatory unemployment insurance. Comm. Traub moved that this matter be turned over to the Ways and Means Committee for further study, Comm. Hauch seconded and the motion carried.

At this time the Chairman welcomed the many visitors present.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972, being commonly known as "The Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Act of 1972", places certain statutory responsibilities upon the County of Lenawee, and

WHEREAS the County of Lenawee has previously, by Resolution of this Board of February 13, 1974, designated the Lenawee County Drain Commissioner as the County enforcing agency responsible for the administration and enforcement of said Act within the County of Lenawee, as required by Section 2, Sub-Paragraph (10) of said Act, and

WHEREAS certain further steps need to be taken so as to insure that the County of Lenawee will be able to discharge its responsibilities as mandated to said Act as of January 1, 1975, including the promulgation of specific rules and adoption of a schedule of fees for inspections, plan reviews and permits.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. That the Drains and Lake Level Committee of this Board shall be and hereby is empowered to prepare and promulgate, in cooperation with the Lenawee County Drain Commissioner and legal counsel, such further final-draft ordinances and-or proposed resolutions as may be necessary in order that the County of Lenawee may undertake to meet the minimum statutory requirements placed upon it by the provisions of the aforesaid Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972.

2. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said Committee and the Lenawee County Drain Commissioner, being the duly designated County enforcing agency, shall be and hereby are empowered to seek such preliminary or final approval of said draft ordinances or resolutions from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources as may be required by the Act. BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that any and all such final-draft ordinances and-or resolutions shall be passed before this Board, for its consideration, not later than the date of its regular December 1974 monthly meeting.

3. BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that this Resolution is hereby declared; pursuant to the provisions of Section 6, Sub-Paragraph (2) of said Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972, to be Amendment No. 1 of the aforesaid prior Resolution of this Board of February 13, 1974, and the County enforcing agency is hereby caused upon to forward a copy of this and all subsequent amending resolutions and-or ordinances, such as this Board 347 of 1972, to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources through its Water Resources Commission.

Comm. Traub seconded and the motion carried by voice vote.

Comm. Benner then moved that the following resolution be approved, Comm. Lackie seconded and a discussion followed:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972, being commonly known as "The Soil Erosion and Sedimentation Control Act of 1972," places certain statutory responsibilities upon the County of Lenawee, and

WHEREAS, the County of Lenawee has previously, by Resolution of this Board of February 13, 1974 designated the Lenawee County Drain Commission as the County enforcing agency responsible for the administration and enforcement of said Act within the County of Lenawee, as required by Section 2, Sub-Paragraph 10 of said Act, and

WHEREAS this Board has also proceeded further with regard to the discharge of its statutory responsibilities pursuant to said Act by its adoption of Amending Resolution No. 1, relating to the promulgation and adoption of ordinances pursuant to said Act, as adopted by this Board on November 13, 1974, and

WHEREAS it now appears that this Board must adopt this further Amending Resolution, acting pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 (2) of said Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972, so as to create a fair and equitable system of fees relating to the County administration and enforcement of its statutory responsibilities pursuant of said Act.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. That the County enforcing agency, in its administration of Act 347 of 1972, as those duties are established by statute and by resolution of this Board, shall administer the following system of fees:

(1) Persons, firms and corporations filing applications pursuant to said Act 347 of 1972 shall, as a condition of being granted a permit, be charged a service fee determined at the rate of $1.00 per day for each day covering the term of the permit.

(2) The initial permit term shall be the estimated number of calendar days needed to complete the planned earth change and satisfactorily stabilize the affected areas. Minimum initial fee shall be $20.00.

(3). If the permitted earth change has not been satisfactorily completed on the expiration date of the permit, the County enforcing agency shall determine whether extended time will be necessary, and may, at its discretion, extend the permit for a further reasonable period of time, and shall thereupon collect a further fee of $2.00 per day for each additional day being allowed for completion, or in the alternative the County enforcing agency shall report a violation of said Act if unsatisfactory erosion control is being observed.

(4) Permits may be extended, as hereinabove provided, for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days at a time, and a permit may be revoked by the County enforcing agency for observed noncompliance with conditions stipulated within the permit, or non-compliance with the provision of statutory provisions of the Act itself, or apparent nonconformance or violations of any ordinances or regulations adopted pursuant thereto.

(5) No service fee refunds shall be made, and all pertinent enforcement decisions shall be made by the County enforcing agency.

(6) The Drains and Lake Level Committee of the Lenawee County Board of Commissioners shall decide matters relating to general policy as to the enforcement of said Act, and as to any and all underlying County Ordinances or Resolutions, and said Committee may review enforcement practices from time to time and may, at its discretion, grant appeals from affected parties deeming themselves aggrieved by these requirements.

(7) Any and all monies collected as service fees shall be accumulated by the County enforcing agency and appropriately transferred to the County General Fund. Likewise appropriations shall be made by this Board, from said County General Funds as needed, to defray the operating expenses and administrative costs of the County enforcing agency with regard to the discharge of its duties pursuant to said Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972, and further pursuant to the Resolutions of this Board, and all pertinent ordinances and regulations which may [illegible] pursuant thereto.

2. BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED that this Resolution shall, pursuant to the provisions of Section 6, Sub-Paragraph (2) of said Michigan Public Act 347 of 1972, shall be and hereby is declared to be Amendment No. 2 of the aforesaid prior Resolutions of this Board, and the County enforcing agency is hereby called upon to forward a copy of this and all subsequent amending resolutions and-or ordinances, such as this Board may adopt, in order to implement the provisions of said Act 347 of 1972, to the Michigan Department of Natural Resources through its Water Resources Commission.

The motion carried by voice vote.

Comm. Benner then presented the following resolution and moved its' adoption:

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, Act 253 of the P.A. of 1964, known as "local river management act" provides for the establishment of Watershed Councils in order to promote cooperation among local governments in river management; and

WHEREAS, the Michigan Natural Resources Commission having accepted the petitions of three eligible local units of government within the basin for the establishment of a River Raisin Watershed Council, adopted an order creating such a Council; and

WHEREAS, Lenawee County has more than 51% of its territory in the Raisin Basin and is therefore eligible for representation on said Council; and

WHEREAS it appears that a revision of said Section 8 should be made, in simple form, to recite the existence of the jurisdiction of the State of Michigan Department of Health, and

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that this Board, its appropriate committees and the Lenawee County Health Department cause an amendment of the Lenawee County Sanitation Code, by which all of existing Section 8 of Chapter 10 shall be deleted, and wherein there shall be substituted a revised Section 8.0 to take the following form:

SECTION 8.0 PROVISION FOR REVIEW

[illegible] Rules and Regulations, any applicant whose application is denied shall be entitled to review of such denial. However, all such reviews come under the jurisdiction of the Michigan Department of Public Health, and such appeal must be made to said Michigan Department of Public Health, and such appeal must be made to said Michigan Department of Public Health in accordance with its pertinent and applicable Rules and Regulations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that appropriate representatives of this Board and the Lenawee County Health Department shall be and hereby are empowered to take such specific steps, such as publication and dissemination, as may be necessary in order to accomplish a timely and complete revision as aforesaid.

Comm. Hadden seconded and the motion carried by voice vote.

On motion of Comm. Wright the Board recessed to the call of the Chair.

Macon Dialog

by Linda Phillips

The power failure in Macon and the surrounding area New Year's Eve sent many scurrying for flashlights to check their fuse boxes and then to the telephones to confirm with neighbors that we were all affected.

Kids thought it was great fun; the soft, flickering lights of our candles and kerosene lamps did produce a luminescent beauty in rooms used to the harsh, by comparison, 75 watt bulbs.

We were left electricity-less for slightly over an hour. Had the lack of power continued much longer, it would have proven a hardship for many of us.

Our house, as well as many others, was rendered completely inoperable — no heat, no water, no way to cook, no six o'clock news. We realize just how dependent upon these "necessities" we've become when they are suddenly taken from us.

There we sat in semi-darkness unable to even blow dry our hair. "What did people in the old days do?" I asked my husband. "When it got dark, people went to sleep," was his reply. That's exactly what he did, leaving me struggling with eyeliner by the antique lamp.

He was awakened a short time later by blinding lights and a loud voice coming from the television saying something about rising unemployment, trouble brewing in the Middle East and oil shortages. What price progress! ++

CLAUDIA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121 has been serving this area for over 75 years for plumbing and heating needs. We will handle new installations, repair or remodel present facilities...and we service what we sell. Hours: Daily 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m., Fri. until 9 p.m., Sat. until 5 p.m.

All water heaters in the last 10 years or so that are glass lined have an Anode Rod or Magnesium rod hung from a plug on top of the heater. This is used to protect the life of the heater. Any corrosive action is supposed to attack the rod instead of the heater shell. At times this will cause an odor in the hot water only. Smells like rotten eggs. Just remove rod and plug the opening to eliminate odor. It takes about an inch and one eighth socket wrench.

HANDY HINT: Relief valves should be installed in upper one third of your water heater.

ADRIAN SHOOTING HOT!

Maples Defeat Injuns

By FRANK WEIR

The Indian cage squad traveled to Adrian Friday night to meet the Maples, hoping for a third consecutive win this season. Tecumseh was, instead, shattered by some of the finest outside shooting this side of Lenawee County.

Adrian won a relatively easy victory, 75-52. In the process, the Maples broke previous school records in field goal and free throw shooting, according to Indian coach Ron Spagnoli.

Adrian connected on 33 of 60 field goal attempts for a dandy 55 percent. Free throw shooting was a real cake-walk for the Maples with 9 of 10 completions for 90 percent.

Tecumseh just couldn't pull together to defend against Adrian's scoring attack. Maple high-scorer, Joe Jenkins, along with Rob Judson, hit 30 and 40-footers as if there were really nothing to it.

But, in the first quarter, it looked like Tecumseh might give Adrian a better run. The Maples went into the game with a 2-4 record.

John Burns started things out for Tecumseh, hitting the first goal of the game. The Indians were able to hold off the Maples through most of the first quarter with the shooting of Burns, Bruce Hughes and Linvel Lisenbee. At one point, the team led the Maples by four points.

But a rally late in the quarter by Adrian - featuring Judson - allowed the Maples to close out the quarter with a one point lead, 16-15.

Early in the second quarter, Tecumseh had a slim one point lead until Adrian connected on five free throws and two field goals to take a more impressive lead. The Indians rallied in the middle of the quarter, paring Adrian's lead to just four points. But they allowed Adrian to steal the next four goals for a halftime lead of 41-29.

In the third quarter, Tecumseh was again hampered by poor shooting and some bungled passes to allow Adrian to increase its lead 55-41.

The fourth wasn't much better save for a nice forced turnover by Indian Lisenbee and another play by Darrel Bozeman, allowing him two easy foul shots. But, late in the quarter, Bozeman, Hughes and Jeff Schafer all tried to put the ball in from under the basket - and all missed.

Tecumseh ended with 18 completions out of 50 attempts for 36 percent. At the free throw line the Indian's hit 14 of 22 for 63 percent. Although Tecumseh is a taller team than the Maples, Adrian managed to out-rebound the Indians 27 to 25. Hughes led the Indian rebounds. Tecumseh turned over the ball 18 times to Adrian's nine.

Coach Ron Spagnoli was displeased with the game. "I was disappointed in our effort. We weren't aggressive and our defense was poor. Our big problem is consistency. We play one game well and the next, mediocre.

"That's part of our inexperience, but I don't want to keep using that excuse, because I don't think it's valid this far into the season. Adrian shot well and we didn't do the things necessary to stop their shooting."

Tecumseh travels to Jefferson this Friday night.

Redskin Cagers Lose

CLINTON — It's a dismal winter in Clinton. The Redskin cagers lost to Grass Lake Tuesday night 65-45 bringing their season record to 0-10.

Things started out on an even keel in the first quarter with both squads tied at eight-all. At half-time, Grass Lake pulled ahead by a slim three points, 20-17.

But the third quarter made the difference. The Grass Lake catching fire and scoring 27 points to Clinton's 14. Grass Lake's Dave Thomas and Jim Herendeen were hot inside ending the game with the two highest point tallys.

The Skins connected on 18 of 65 attempts from the field for 28 percent. From the line, they hit nine of 17 for 53 percent. Grass Lake dunked 34 of 80 for 38 percent from the field and five of 13 from the line for 39 percent.

In addition, Grass Lake out-rebounded Clinton 44 to 34.

Redskin coach Dave Arnold stated after the game, "I was very upset. We started out even-up. Both squads lacked height so it was a matter of who was on and who wasn't. They put it to us hitting from the inside. Grass Lake is a quick team."

Volleyball Team Wins

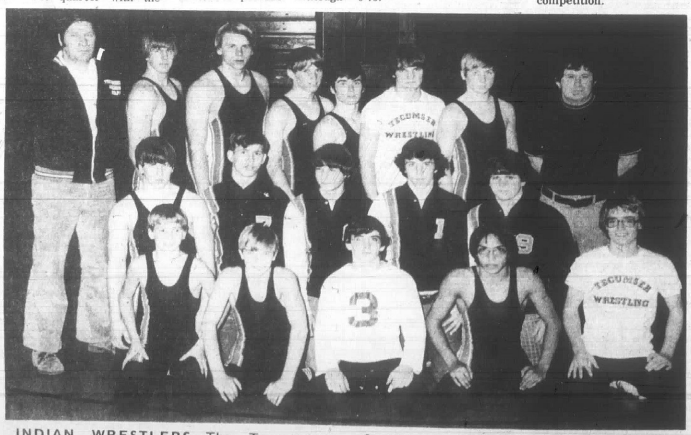
Tecumseh's girl volleyball team got a good jump on the season with an opening win over Bedford Monday night.

In volleyball, two winning matches out of three played, determines the victor. If a team wins their first two matches, they take the meet outright. In competition Monday night - played at Bedford - the Indians tallied 15-2, 15-3 in the first and last matches losing the second 15-8. Sue Gould was tops with 11 points.

The JV squad wasn't as successful, losing two consecutive matches, 15-8 and 15-11. Tori Iffland grabbed scoring honors with eight points.

Coach Sue Allen was pleased with the victory. "I put the second team in for the second match and they lost some points. But the starting six lost only five points (in the first and third matches). About the season I think we should be respectable. We've got the ability, we just have to get the mind going too. I think we'll fair up well."

Last year the squad finished 9-2 overall in its first season of competition.



INDIAN WRESTLERS—The Tecumseh varsity wrestling team won their last two matches against Blissfield and Chelsea by scores of 34-23 and 36-22 respectively. Tories Compete in 2 Close Contests, Lose to Dundee, Beat Sand Creek BRITTON — Close games have been the trademark of the Britton Tories in their last two games.

Dundee took the Tories Friday night in overtime play with a final score of 48-46. When Sand Creek arrived in Britton Tuesday night the score was just as close but Britton came out on top this time 60-58.

In the Dundee game, Britton took the first half 20-18. Going into the fourth quarter, the Tories were five points to the good 35-30. At the end of the fourth, Dundee had come back to tie up the game 44-all. In overtime, Dundee swished two long shots from the field to just one goal for Britton.

Britton connected on 16 of 60 attempts from the field for 26.7 percent while hitting 14 of 21 foul shots. Dundee tallied 24 of 62 from the field for 38.7 percent. They missed their only foul shot.

The Tories grabbed 37 rebounds to Dundee's 23 but Britton lost the ball 17 times to Dundee's 11.

The Sand Creek contest proved to be just as close a battle with both teams tied 33-all at the half. In the third quarter, Sand Creek rallied to pull away from Britton 49-42.

But the fourth quarter saw Britton score a big 18 points to Sand Creek's nine to win the game 60-58.

The Tories hit 25 of 53 attempts from the field for 47 percent. From the line, they dumped 10 of 17 shots for 58 percent. Sand Creek connected on 27 of 67 attempts for 40 percent and four of 11 free throws for 36 percent.

Sand Creek outrebounded the Tories 29-19 but Britton lost the ball 15 times to Sand Creek's 19 times.

Coach Jim Sweigart said of the Sand Creek contest, "The team stuck together. We were down by seven at the start of the fourth quarter but we just out-hustled them. The team moved the ball well, the kids earned it. I was especially pleased with Dan Exelby who got 14 assists."

The Tories host Summerfield Friday night.

VOL. 124 OUR 125th YEAR—NO. 18 | THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1975 | TWENTY-TWO PAGES — 20c

Free Off-Street Parking Proposal Sent to Council

Tecumseh Planning Commission made a start Tuesday night toward realization of unmetered off-street parking by recommending to Council a trial Special Assessment District for one year.

Area is to include a four block district from Pottawatamie and Logan, and Ottawa and Pearl Streets. It includes 142 metered spaces, 42 percent of the space; 133 two-hour spaces, 40 percent of the space; and 60 ten-hour spaces or 18 percent of the space.

Sixty-three businesses would be assessed four cents per square foot, or a $7,990 total.

Operating budget is expected to be $15,000, with the balance of money coming from meter income and property rent.

Vescio and Ousterhout blocks were dropped from the system since these blocks do not have any city lots. Loss of income from these nine businesses was not considered excessive.

Trial system was suggested since officials realized that there was no way to police unmetered lots, and the merchants and employees were thought to be the chief violators of unmetered parking in December.

Officials anticipate collecting monies for the Special Assessment District through the 1975 city summer tax statements.

Winds Disrupt Power Service

Strong winds last Saturday morning raised havoc in Tecumseh and area, toppling several trees, knocking out windows at two businesses and disrupting electric service.

Two primary power lines were blown together, causing a fire and loss of electricity. The incident occurred near Raisin Valley Golf Club on Comfort Road in Raisin Township.

According to Ken Chichester, spokesman for Consumers Power in Adrian, service was disrupted between 1:00 and 2:00 a.m. and restored about 4:00 a.m. Many power lines were down or damaged flying debris throughout the country with Deerfield bearing the brunt of the damage. The community was without power for six hours.

Cal Zorn, city manager, says six trees in the city were toppled by the strong winds and power at the sewage plant was out for approximately four hours.

Large window panes were blown out at Schneider Chevrolet-Buick and A&P.

Survey Sent to Council

Results of the Tecumseh Capital Improvement Survey were studied by the Planning Commission Tuesday night, and the Commission made recommendations to City Council on those which might be considered initial priorities.

Commission's suggestions were: Russell Road improvements, paving private curb, gutter, and sidewalks, parking and downtown development, recreation courts and lighting, senior citizen housing, bicycle paths, beautification of Evans St., street intersections and northwest park site development.

Industrial park was suggested with no further improvements required for 1975.

Commission also mentioned restrooms facilities but gave a negative recommendation.

Quiet Week for Officers

Local police enjoyed a quiet week with only two reported incidents of vandalism and a non-payment complaint from Clark Service Station.

Michael D. Grant, attendant at the station, told police that a motorist pulled into the station and requested $5 of gasoline. After pumping the gas, the motorist then drove away without paying.

Grant gave police a brief description of the man and car but failed to note the license plate number.

LaVerna West, 315 N. Union, reported an antenna broken off her car while she was at work in the Eagles Club.

Charles Squires, 116 S. Ottawa St., told officers that radio antennas were broken off three automobiles, parked across the street from his home.

Meet Jan. 28th

Annual meeting of shareholders of the United Savings Bank of Tecumseh will be held Tuesday, Jan. 28, at the bank's new West Chicago Office.

Past meetings have been held at the Herrick Park Office and Tecumseh Country Club.

TAMMEE FAIRBANKS

BARBARA HENNING

CINDY PIATT

Three Are Selected for DAR 'Citizens'

Barbara Henning of Tecumseh High School, Yvonne Fairbanks from the Britton-Macon Area School, and Cindy Piatt from Clinton High School are the girls selected as Good Citizens this year to represent Abi Evans Chapter of the DAR.

Since 1934 the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution has conducted in each state, in accredited high schools, a Good Citizens contest to select the girl in the senior class who has demonstrated the best qualities of a good citizen.

The National Association of Secondary School Principals has placed this contest on the Approved List of National Contests and Activities for 1974-75. National approval carries with it the approval of the Michigan Association of Secondary School Principals.

Citizenship refers to the girl as a citizen of the United States and her high school, regardless of race or creed. The qualities of good citizenship are based on dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Barbara Henning is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Henning, 909 River Acres Drive. Barbara is a student of music and attended Interlochen National Music Camp two summers studying clarinet and also attended Manistee Music Camp, South Campus, last summer. She has been a member of various bands at Tecumseh High School for four years.

Barbara is assistant organist for the First United Presbyterian Church and also plays piano and guitar. A Girl Scout for 11 years, she has earned the highest honor in Girl Scouts — "First class award" and also the God and Community Award. She has attended Girl Scout camp nine summers and worked as a counselor one year.

Presently she is involved in a Girl Scout Group going to visit the International "Cabana" in Mexico in the summer of 1975. Barbara is active in sports at school and a member of the recent girls basketball team that won the State Class B Championship. She is a member of the Spanish Club and is presently the secretary.

She is also in the National Honor Society and school board representative of the Student Assembly this year. Politics also hold an interest for her and she has attended the Lenawee County Youth Convention for three years.

Yvonne (Tammee) Fairbanks is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Fairbanks and the late Mr. Fairbanks, 408 N. Main St., Britton. Yvonne has been in the National Honor Society for two years and is serving as treasurer this year.

She has been a member of the FHA four years and vice-president of evaluation this year.

Tammee has been a member of the bowling team for three years and of the Camp Fire Girls, seven years.

She is a member of the Congregational Christian Church and was class president in the 10th grade. She was a member of GAC one year. Yvonne is working on Co-op at the offices of Drs. Murray and Wolf.

Cindy Piatt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Piatt, 328 E. Franklin St., Clinton. Cindy is a member of the National Honor Society, drama club, secretary of the Student Government, vice-president of the Spanish IV Club, editor of the yearbook. Cindy also is busy weekends at the Clintonian Inn.

Six Investigated

Only six accident were investigated by Tecumseh police during the past week, but one involved personal injury and a trip to Herrick Hospital for one driver.

Katherine L. Langschied, 26, of 6911 Green Hwy., was injured Friday when her car was hit from behind while she was turning into a parking lot on W. Chicago Blvd.

Other driver was Frank A. Creger, 65, of 314 Park St., and he was cited for failure to have his vehicle under control.

Resume of other accidents is:

Jan. 10 — Marcella J. Brosamer, 52, Britton, backed into Arvin W. Stedham, 35, Adrian, in the Kroger parking lot.

Jan. 11 — John A. Schaufele, 1902 Bramble Rd., backed into a parked car owned by William P. Snook, 108 S. Maiden Lane, at the Party Shop on S. Maumee St.

Jan. 11 — William C. Silberhorn, 16, Britton, was charged with failure to have his vehicle under control after running into the rear of an auto operated by Todd R. Cottrell, 16, Brooklyn, on N. Maumee St. at E. Shawnee.

Jan. 13 — Paul L. Williams, 17, of 6655 Gove St., ran into the rear of a car driven by Robert L. MacGeorge, 22, Ridgeway, on E. Shawnee St.

Jan. 13 — Crystal D. Roe, 17, Monroe Rd., was cited for improper lane usage after a mishap with Mark S. Maschino, 19, Britton. Accident occurred on W. Chicago Blvd.

Check Before Ice Skating

If Mother Nature cooperates with freezing temperatures, it won't be long before the ice will be safe for skating again.

Ward Eardley, director of parks and recreation, suggested that skaters call the Community Center or the Police Department to find out if the ice is safe.

Eardley said that until Friday, the water opened up. An eight-foot stretch of water still exists along the shore.

Products, Union Negotiate But Strike Drags On

Union officials and representatives of the Tecumseh Products Company have held three negotiating sessions during the past week, and still no progress reported in settling a strike, which started last November 14.

Negotiators last met Tuesday afternoon and early evening.

Guy Cox, president of the Union, says the Union Board anticipates meeting with the Company this Thursday and expected to contact the Company about such a meeting on Wednesday.

Members of the Union, picketing at the front gate Monday, stalled a truck leaving the plant for approximately 20 minutes. Both city police and deputies from the sheriff's department were at the scene, but there was no violence.

Little information has been released about the strike and ensuing negotiations. Both economic and language problems and differences have been rumored, but nothing official has been stated or released.

Directing Jaycee Follies

Jon Brittain is this year's director for the 10th annual Tecumseh Jaycees Follies to be held at Croswell Theatre, Adrian, Jan. 24 and 25 at 8 p.m.

After receiving a degree in floriculture from Michigan State University, Jon worked at Clark Lake players in Jackson. Since then he has worked with several groups and regional threatre plus off Broadway and New York City Opera.

This is Brittain's fourth year with the Cargill Producing Co. of New York.

The theme for this year's show is a Calendar Show with numbers from each month. Some of the highlights will be the children's chorus of Easter Parade, the teenage cancan girls, the ladies as Santa Claus Rockettes and as a drill team, a clown number, skits and the calendar girls.

The 10th anniversary show will include some music and a skit which have been used in the past as part of the celebration.

Watch Where You Park!

Folks who have the habit of parking their car or stopping behind a downtown business and making a quick shopping trip inside now face the possibility of being ticketed.

Ray Walton, police chief, says his department has been ordered to ticket cars illegally parked behind the stores. He says a motorist should park only in spaces designated for parking, and not in the alleys or fire lanes behind the stores.

Ticket fee is $5.

TAKE AN INTEREST — That was the message Ray Walton, Chief of Police, gave to concerned parents and residents concerning crime prevention. He outlined advice to parents in his address "What Can The Citizen Do." Walton who has been in police work for over 25 years has had a variety of experience in talking with parents and youth. Community Center Drop-In program was host for the meeting. Martin Halley, county commissioner, was also present.

Chief Talks on Crime

Nothing is more effective in preventing crime than taking personal responsibility to lock homes and cars, observe suspicious behavior and cooperate with police, said Ray Walton, Tecumseh Chief of Police to a meeting of 50 citizens at the Community Center Drop-In program Tuesday morning.

Addressing his remarks to the topic, "What Citizens Can Do," Walton emphasized that there are no hard and fast answers anyone can give to prevent crime; the criminal element will strike no matter what one may do.

Families should concern themselves with the goals and ideals passed on to youth, he said. A resume of his strategy is:

Parents should make the upbringing of the children their prime concern. The children should be taught not to steal, lie or bother the property of others.

Parents make a mistake in not meeting their obligations to see that petty theft or vandalism is repaid. Such an experience, even for a "good" youth, could prove a cheap lesson and prevent the youth from following a road to serious law breaking.

One's place in the world does not depend entirely on education. Everyone who is decent, honest and works for his living can find a place in society.

What individuals do with their time is important. A lack of opportunities to achieve over a long period of time frustrates the individual's ambitions and encourages crime.

More police personnel cannot replace personal responsibility for prevention. Just as with a disease, the public cannot wait to do something to prevent crime in the community. Upkeep of the physical condition of the city is a community responsibility to discourage the criminal element from developing.

Walton said that crime in rural areas has increased as much as 24 percent, according to recent FBI statistics and he attributed the increase to lack of opportunity to do things and trends to omit punishment in society.

He described Tecumseh as a stable community and said that the county's courts are firm.

COLD OUT THERE—Striking employees of the Tecumseh Products not only have to picket but also have to keep warm. Supply of logs here is evidence that these employees don't plan on getting cold as temperatures dipped and with a forcast that further cold weather is on its way.

13th Anniversary of The Tecumseh Nursery School

by DOROTHY GRIGG

"I want to show you something," said the new boy in The Tecumseh Nursery School and he received the immediate attention of Ardith Sebring, teacher, who assured him that he was a speedy "puzzle put-together."

Satisfied, the little man proceeded to return that puzzle and select another with the help of Cindie Maschino, a Britton High School senior who is the morning assistant, having had a year of child care study at the Vo-Tech Center.

The School founded by Olis Puffer, is observing its 13th anniversary this month with an increase in student enrollment over the years from 14 two days each week to 60 in two morning and one afternoon groups.

Licensed and supervised by the Michigan Department of Social Services in conjunction with the Department of Public Instruction, the school has always been operated in the First Presbyterian Church where the rooms meet state standards for fire and health and are periodically inspected.

Little people from three to five years appear to enjoy the variety of educational experiences including self-directed play activities which help the child to grow socially and emotionally.

Mrs. Sebring believes that a child, with a negative attitude toward nursery school, may indicate that he needs more social contact with his peers away from home.

From that time that the tykes hang up their own wraps to the time when parents pick them up, students have opportunities to express themselves creatively by working with art materials, rhythm instruments and musical experiences and other activities including dramatization, finger play, story time, snack time and simple science experiments.

New this year at the school are learning activities for kindergarten preparedness which include reading and math readiness and learning to print name, numbers and alphabet.

Clay, Tinkertoys, finger painting, a wagon to push each other around in, ten pins, a slide, a huge ball and a super table with real vises, hammers and a saw to saw real wood are only a few of the activities provided. It is not difficult to understand why the preschoolers look forward to their school day right from the moment they give Dad a kiss goodby, or sometimes two.

Surprising as it may seem, the room was quiet and calm as most of the three-year-olds chose colored paper to cut decorative mittens as the teacher traced the outline of each little hand.

Since many of them have never had scissors in their hands, prior to entering school, it is quite an effort to slit along the lines drawn by the teacher and they needed plenty of encouragement.

Two necessary characteristics of a nursery school teacher, Mrs. Sebring said, are a love of children and a great deal of patience.

Her thinking may run a bit more to this area just now since this is the first year that the school has had students for assistants. However for several years the school has cooperated with the Vo-Tech by having six first year students participate with on-the-job training during the spring semester.

Nancy Meads, senior at Tecumseh High School, currently helps with the afternoon group. She also has had a year of child care study at the Vo-Tech.

When Dorothy Updike, long time kindergarten teacher here, now retired, was questioned about her opinion of nursery school she stated, "It depends on the child and the home surroundings. If a youngster has no association with others of their peers, kindergarten can be quite a tramatic experience.

"Nursery school can be an outlet and background. My grandson who lives in another area overcame a great shyness. Others really blossom but it still depends on the child," said Mrs. Updike.

As times have changed, the nursery has helped many, many youngsters to be prepared for their first day of regular school in kindergarten which many people seem to feel now compares with what first grade used to offer.

Director Olis Puffer and her sister, Mrs. Sebring, have reason to be pleased with the progress their school has made in the 13-year period from Jan. 1962 until the present time.

Students Entertain

Three senior music students, Lisa Baker, Andrea Phillips and Marty Perkins, of Tecumseh High School were guests of Rotary Tuesday evening.

Lisa, who sings alto and plays piano, will be on tour this summer in Europe with a 100-group chorus, visiting Switzerland, France, Germany, Denmark, cbupy and Holland.

She will live with families in the countries visited. This is the 11th year of this particular tour, which presents five concerts in this area before leaving for Europe.

Andrea and Marty will go with another group to Denmark, Switzerland and Germany. Marty plays cornet and Andrea, flute.

They will have a week-long rehearsal at Twin Lakes before leaving this country.

Speaks on Art Studies

Lynn Peck, former member of Music Makers now attending Interlocken Arts Academy, spoke of her activities and studies at the school, during groups recent meeting in the Missionary Baptist Church.

Lynn accompanied her sister Chyrl, who played several violin solos for the program. Tim Packard played a snare drum solo and Allison Phillips, played the clarinet.

An arrangement of "Jingle Bells" for eight hands was played on piano and organ by Janet Heesen, Robert Meyers, Susie Schiller and Martha Heesen.

Marty Perkins and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson served refreshments.

Do you know how to make a page boy using only a round brush and a blow drier? It is really quite simple, although you may have to practice to keep your technique at its best. You must begin with hair that is straight. If your hair should have a natural curl or wave to it, you must brush it out straight as it dries. Use the brush to keep your hair taut. When all but the ends are dry, wrap the ends around the round brush very tightly, and then blow dry. That is all it takes to have one of the smoothest hairdo's in town.

A pot of soft rouge is a welcome addition to any girl's collection of beauty aids. However, do be careful how you use it! Apply cold cream first. Any actress will tell you that cold cream forms a base on your skin which makes deep cleansing easier. Always use a clean finger. Blend up and out. Better to have no color at all than an unnatural painted look. Never use cake rouge or dry powders as they leave a tell-tale haze on your skin.

Earns Honors Scholarship

Just starting his education at Eastern Michigan University, freshman, Kelvin Engle has received an honors scholarship.

He has chosen to major in business computer systems of computer science with a double minor in mathematics and business management.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. W.T. Engle of 4995 Raisin Center Hwy., Kelvin said he had encouragement in deciding his major, "I decided what I wanted to major in quite a while before I graduated from high school. With help I chose computers for my major.

"My parents influenced me the most and later encouraged me to continue and get into this field because it holds unlimited possibilities."

Kelvin studied data processing at Lenawee Vo-Tec Center.

A 1974 graduate of Tecumseh High School, Kelvin, was a member of the National Honor Society and finished with a 3.26 grade point average.

He participated in the mock Democratic convention, Lenawee County Convention, held in Adrian. Football was also one of Kelvin's activities.

What's Up at THS

by CRYSTAL ROE

The holly, tinsel, mistle toe and excitement of Christmas have subsided for another year, and students back from vacation, anxiously look ahead to January's activities, such as exams!

The sophomores visited the Lenawee County Vocational Technical Center (Vo-Tech) Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings this week.

Excused from their second, third, and fourth hour classes, approximately 120 students were bussed each day to the center to see the different areas of career training Vo-Tech offers.

Dale Lane, a Tecumseh resident, and director of vocational counseling, welcomed the students and then assigned them to one of the 10 tour guides, five of which, Carol Cooper, Lorie Escott, Gene Henricks, Mary Lay, and Crystal Roe, are Tecumseh students.

A question and answer period was held for a short time, prior to the sophomores return to THS.

Both Lane and Dermont Poley, THS principal, felt the visit was [illegible] in concerned in futu[illegible].

Jay Pinsky will replace Mrs. Paula Bowman as the National Honor Society advisor.

Student teachers will arrive after the semester break. Karen Jager, from Eastern Michigan, has already arrived and is assigned to Orthopedics class, taught by Mrs. Geraldine Pobuda.

Student Assembly has started planning for this year's Winter Carnival, which will be held on Feb. 8, from 3 to 8 p.m. For all the planning they're doing, the Carnival will be a great event.

Tomorrow brings Friday and the end of another busy week at THS.

Bicentennial Committee Formed

CLINTON — At a meeting of the Historical Society of Clinton, on Jan. 7, Ruth Kuder, Genevieve Reilly, Sally Scheer and Sharon Scott were appointed to serve on the Bicentennial Project committee.

Mrs. Wayne Hulett is in charge of a group compiling a history of the first Clinton Baptist Church, which was organized here in 1831.

Lawrence Bailey, chairman, is cooperating with representatives of Colgate University, on the history of the Rev. Robert Powell. He was the first Baptist missionary in the area of Lenawee-Washtenaw County, and was buried in the cemetery on Manchester-Clinton Road in 1875. He had lived on a 40-acre tract a mile and one-half north of Clinton. The Rev. Powell was one of the founders of Colgate University, was an officer in the War of 1812, and served as a judge in trying deserters and delinquents. He founded Colgate University in 1819 and was ordained and preached at Hamilton, and Madison, N.Y.

A record of each marriage that Rev. Powell performed from 1833 to 1874 in this area has been found.

There are now 55 members of the Historical Society of Clinton.

Next meeting will be Feb. 4 at 8 p.m. in the Community

Batik Art Demonstrated

CLINTON — Mrs. Lee Belfield described the ancient Indonesian art of batik at the meeting of the Clinton Woman's Club in the Community Center, Tuesday.

Batiking is a form of wax-painting on various materials, which are then dyed. Portions which have been wax-painted in a design do not absorb the dye, thus leaving a pattern.

Mrs. Belfield displayed scarves and wall hangings she had made.

Mrs. Robert King presided at the meeting, in the absence of the president, Mrs. George Wolf. Sixteen members and a guest attended.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ruth Davis, Mrs. Richard Hittle, and Mrs. Al Cowhy poured beverages.

A fun day will be the theme of the Feb. 12 meeting at the center.

Church Officers

CLINTON—Members of the United Church of Christ elected new officers at the annual meeting, Monday evening.

Charles Steffens was elected moderator; Bertine Walker, treasurer; Larry VanDeusen and Gerald Lincoln, auditors; Madaline Pike and Richard Cadmus, trustees; Olin Swaney and Joe O'Donnell, deacons; Edmond Piatt, stewardship; Rocky Flack, memorial committee; Lucille Hill and Joyce Piatt, deaconesses; delegate, Clayton Strolle; Micki Lawrence, alternate delegate; Chari Cadmus, youth delegate; and Wally Pike, alternate youth delegate.

Also elected to committees are: Janet Corwin, world missions; Roberta Flack, Christian education; Ellen O'Donnell, music; Ruth Swaney, fellowship.

Members adopted a budget of $28,428, which includes an increase in salary for the pastor, part-time secretarial service, and additional amounts for various utilities and maintenance of the church building.

Pastor's message praised the growth of spirit and fellowship in the congregation and suggested areas of possible improvement in the new year, including an increase emphasis on mission giving.

Mrs. Agnes Geiger served cookies and coffee.

Bingo Games Aid Athletics

CLINTON—Clinton Community Athletic Development Project (CCADP) committee heard a financial report at a recent meeting at Clinton High School.

With all present equipment for bingo paid for the CCADP has $2,963.96 in the bank. Of this amount, $1,500 was already in the account through football deed sale. Profits for the last three weeks of bingo have been as follows: Dec. 23, $172.52; Dec. 30, $233.35 and Jan 6, $209.34.

A rotating work schedule was announced for the 26 workers who have volunteered to help run the Monday night bingo.

Suggestion was made that involvement of middle school parents in bingo or in the CCADP project is also realistic since it will be their youth who benefit from the improved athletic facilities.

CCADP was formed more than a year ago to raise funds to develop the football field and other sports areas at the high school.

Attending the meeting were Superintendent Richard Wegner; CCADP Chairman Glenn Clark; Lee Belfield, head football and wrestling coach; Jim Pittman, coach and Fred McCrate, athletic director.

Legion Plans Bingo Games

CLINTON — Details of the weekly bingo games to be sponsored by the William E. Pieper Post American Legion and Auxiliary were explained by Commander Richard Cadmus at the Auxiliary meeting Tuesday.

The games will be held beginning Jan. 23 at 7:30 p.m. in the Smith-Kimball Community Center.

District president, Mrs. Agnes Natterstad spoke on the importance of membership. She was accompanied by her secretary, Mrs. Mara Sisty.

Announcement was made of the district meeting to be Jan. 19 at the Underwood-Orr Post, Tecumseh, at 2:30 p.m.

Next Auxiliary meeting will be Feb. 4 at the Community Center.

Fruit Sale Sells Out

CLINTON—FFA Chapter Advisor John Jansen and President Marc Hall attended the School Board meeting, Monday, to give the annual report of chapter projects.

Clinton FFA chapter is working approximately 16 acres of school property, four acres owned by Leora Kane, 20 acres owned by Loren Scott, and 30 acres owned by George Service.

The FFA sheep project is housed in two barns at the Service farm.

The Agricultural Citizens Committee has met once this year, and another meeting is planned for early February, at which time the goals and objectives for the agriculture program must be discussed and approved for implementation in the 1974-75 school year.

The chapter has just completed a fruit sale project in which 460 boxes of fruit, including oranges, tangelos, and grapefruit were sold. The sale was successful and since many people have requested it, another sale is planned this spring.

Cancer Film Viewed

CLINTON—A film on cancer information was presented by Mrs. Towle of the Lenawee Cancer Society at a meeting of the Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary, Monday.

Mrs. Ronald Walker hosted the meeting at the Water Wheel Center.

A workshop on project report forms was conducted by Vicki Bush of Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary.

A 50-50 raffle was conducted with proceeds to go to the district Jaycee Auxiliary fund.

Standing chairwomen's orientation was held.

Report was given of the $321.50 proceeds of the holiday doll raffle, and its presentation to the Burns Institute at Ann Arbor.

New Year's Eve party netted approximately $175, and it is planned to host a similar party next year.

Members served an appreciation spaghetti dinner to Jaycees, Jan. 6. They also presented the men with red-checkered bow ties to wear with their costumes for district meetings.

Group will distribute cancer pamphlets in April.

Mrs. Roger Hebert, Mrs. Harold Hunt and Joy Hawkins were installed as new members.

Guests included Shelly Flint, Mrs. Michael Baldwin, Mrs. Earl Racckowski, Norma Zimmerman and four visitors from Manchester Jaycee Auxiliary.

Coming events include a president's meeting, in Saline Jan. 20; a local board meeting Jan. 27 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Hugh McGill and the state winter Jaycee Auxiliary board meeting at Wyoming, Mich., Feb 7-8. Several couples plan to attend the latter meeting.

Next regular meeting will be Feb. 10 at 7:30 p.m. at Water Wheel Center, with Mrs. Alan Ellerholz as hostess.

Megan Marie Feldkamp and Robert Alan Phillips Wed

CLINTON — Megan Marie Feldkamp and Robert Alan Phillips were united in marriage at a double ring civil ceremony performed by Ernest Oliver, Magistrate of Second District Court of Michigan, in his Tecumseh office, Friday afternoon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junior Jay Feldkamp of Clinton. Groom is the son of Mrs. Thelma Phillips of Dunbar, W. Va., and the late D.L. Phillips.

Red, white and blue were the decorative colors used at the reception that evening in Peerless Gear Union Hall. Colors complimented the bride's long gown of white printed knit, designed and made by the bride. She carried a nosegay of red, white and blue flowers.

The bride's cake, made by the bride's mother, was also decorated in red, white and blue, and was served by Linda Kappas of E. Lansing.

Susie Kovacs of Tipton had charge of the guest book.

Attending were 60 friends and relatives from W. Va., Adrian, Lansing, Tecumseh, Tipton and Clinton.

Bride is a graduate of Clinton High School, and attended Michigan State University. She is a licensed Practical Nurse at University Hospital. Mr. Phillips, recently discharged from the Navy, is presently unemployed.

The couple will reside in Tecumseh.

A family dinner will highlight the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Reidy, 8728 Ridge Hwy. Geraldine M. Mack and Harry Reidy were married Jan. 25, 1950 by the Rev. Norman MacNaughton in Adrian. The couple are the parents of three sons, Allen Ross of Holloway, Dennis Ross, Flint and Craig Reidy of Britton where the dinner will be held. The Reidys also have three grandchildren.

Daughters of St. Peters Installed

A candlelight ceremony enhanced the installation of the officers of the Daughters of St. Peters Guild, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Cecile Smith was installed as president for 1975. Serving with her will be Mrs. Glenn Driscoll, first vice-president; Mrs. Harold Sisson, second vice-president; Mrs. Harry Schuch, secretary; Mrs. Clarence Brock, treasurer and Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, chaplin.

Mrs. Miriam Nixon, installing officer, preceded the ceremony with an appropriate reading from the writings of Helen Steiner Rice.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Lynn Hubbard.

Business Discussed

Routine business was discussed at the meeting of Josephine H. Hall Temple No. 49 Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Harry Schuch, a member of the building board committee, reported on remodeling and building repairs and named officers elected to the board for 1975.

Mrs. Miriam Nixon most excellent chief, announced Jan. 22 as the installation of 1975 officers. Rehearsal will be Jan. 19 at 3:30 p.m. in the Temple.

Mrs. Erwin Buss reported on the sales of Benson fruitcakes, some are still available.

Past chief's club meeting will be Jan. 16 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Cecile Smith.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Buss.

Letters from former members, Mrs. Beulah Caldwell of Laurium, Mrs. Jane Wray of Holt, and Mrs. Frank Hawthorne, wife of the former rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church.

Mrs. Hawthorne advised that her mother, Mrs. Caldwell, would celebrate her 80th birthday on Jan. 10.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hubbard and Mrs. Schuch.

ALL STORE FIXTURES MUST BE SOLD

WHAT IS A BARGAIN?

In these days of high prices we see and read so much about BARGAINS - BARGAINS - BARGAINS - it is well to consider just what comprises a bargain. We believe a bargain to be an unusual offering caused by an unusual event or condition that actually forces a reduction in price, but not a reduction in quality. On such an occasion, one can buy quality at a sacrifice, and still get quality. Because we are Going Out of Business and are forced through absolute necessity to close out thousands of dollars worth of fine high-grade merchandise within the next few days — you can come to this Sale expecting to buy genuine money-saving bargains in every department and every article in our Store, for we have but one object and one aim, and that is the complete close out to the bare walls of every dollar's worth of merchandise regardless of cost or loss. You have wanted lower prices — NOW, they are here in lavish plenty and no one can again say or dispute them. COME EARLY — FIRST COME — FIRST SERVED — WHILE OUR STOCK LASTS!

To the Editor

To the Editor:

It is refreshing to hear some forms of good news which might be of great benefit to us. Let's examine a few bits and be ready to proceed when the word "go" is mentioned.

Much food for thought is coming my way such as what should Tecumseh ask to be done with the federal money that may be available for community improvements which would provide employment to span the crisis. The older citizens will remember what lasting good came from the WPA projects—not all, but many over the nation.

A very worthwhile project which has come to my attention is a need for housing at modest rental but built well for the senior citizens. This in turn would release homes for families. The building could have apartments with all kinds of labor-saving, safety devices and appliances.

There are so many styles and plans for such buildings but a round one was suggested with a center outdoor court where residents could enjoy the outdoors and sun without the wind annoying them.

I wonder if the City Planning Board has some thoughts along this line—if not, why not?

Another friend has spent his energy thinking about ways for the community to save on energy and his plan has to do with electrical power. He remembers when Tecumseh had its own power plant owned by Henry Smith, Sr. and a plant owned by Perry Satterwaite.

Could the city generate its own electricity in part? We seem to have the water location. This friend also told me that such a scheme would fit into the River Raisin Watershed plan. Let's not wait too long. What do other people think?

An interested citizen,
Ruth V. Rentschler (Mrs. T.)
311 West Shawnee Street

Helps Selective Service

Publicity by local media and efforts of public offices are credited with helping to achieve the highest yearly total registration in Lenawee County for the selective service in 10 years, according to Harold Cross, office manager.

Area office in Ann Arbor registered 956 men from the county in calendar year 1974.

Reports show that registration of young men age 18 in other communities outside the Ann Arbor tri-county office area have [illegible] off during 1974. Registration accomplishments have greatly reduced the number of young men violating the requirement to register in a timely manner.

The Tecumseh Post Office, and may other public offices publicize the federal requirement for every male citizen and alien resident to register with the selective Service at age 18. Also, the mail-in registration program has provided enables young men to register conveniently.

Individuals unable to register in person can obtain mail-in registration forms from displays in all U.S. Post Offices, Tecumseh High School and police department.

Health Is Topic at LCOA Meeting

Lenawee Council on Aging (LCOA) will have a general meeting on health and transportation on Jan. 20 at 9:30 a.m. at the Piotter Center, 327 Erie Street.

Older citizens are welcome to discuss health status of older persons in the county. Professional persons will be present to help in the general understanding of the problem areas.

Diabetic Diets and General Nutrition will be topics of discussion on Jan. 23 at 10:30 a.m. and Jan. 31 at 12:15 p.m. at the Piotter Center. Each meeting is part of the nutrition series and offers various speakers who are experts in their field. Questions are welcome.

New classes are being offered in pottery, sewing, graphics and ceramics. For information, older citizens may contact the LCOA at 263-2161.

Florida Friends Visit Duncans

By Marda Gene Duncan

Because of the breakdown of a rented car we had a longer than planned visit with a former editor of the Herald and his wife. Just as Cherie and Tom Riordan turned in the entrance to our park, their rent-a-car died.

In Florida, visiting daughter Carol and her husband during the Christmas holidays, Tom and Cherie had toured the Tarpon Springs sponge docks and stopped to just say 'hello' to the Duncans.

Fortunately it turned out to be a good gab fest. And in case anyone's ears were burning on Dec. 27, it was because the Riordans were eagerly asking about Tecumseh friends.

The R's are fine; Tom is busy as managing editor at the Jackson Citizen Patriot paper and Cherie is involved with teaching chores; Carol, maintaining the family tradition, is a reporter on a Clearwater paper. Her husband, John, is a law student at Stetson. Bernie, also following tradition, is pursuing an industrial arts course which will lead to a teaching degree.

Other visitors to the Duncans were our across-the-street-neighbors in Tecumseh, the Lee Prettymans. Seven-ninths of the family spent the Christmas holidays in the Sunshine State. Grandma Prettyman and Bob did not make the trek south.

After assuring us that things were good at the west end of Logan Street where it meets Evans Creek, they shared their vacation fun with us. It sounded like a great time.

To Ruth must go an award for good planning and efficiency—imagine preparing a full course Christmas dinner, turkey with all the trimmings, in the small kitchen of a travel-trailer!

Youth Officers

The youth group of the Gloria Dei elected the officers: Cheryl Sheldon, president; Laurie Gamber, vice-president; Nancy Poppe, secretary and Erik Mason, treasurer.

Sponsors of the Luther League are Mr. and Mrs. Max Steuwe and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Sheldon. They will be installed by the pastor during the next Sunday worship service.

THE SAGA OF GEORGE CONTINUES

Last week I introduced George who rules our small lake and kindly consents to allowing a few people to live on the shores of his private fishing pond. We live here as long as we adhere to his rules and regulations. Primarily these pertain to giving him[illegible] that might be called Buzz that was all explained in last week's Herald, and it seems that the bird liked all the publicity because no sooner was that article finished than he put on a whole new show.

Before detailing the performance, perhaps a brief explanation or definition of the 'white wading birds' would be in order. We were confused at first but the "Birds of North America" by Robbins, Brunn and Zim straightens things out nicely.

Things, of course, meaning white wading birds. Our first view of George produced excited exclamations about great white herons. Wrong.

The great whites are taller, more fond of salt water and have yellow legs. Actually I seem to vaguely remember a slight controversy over great white herons and great blue herons—some experts feel that the former are merely a color phase of the latter. Wonder why they decided it should be that way instead of vice-versa?

Next in size are the egrets—our bird. Here I take exception to the book for they say 'common' egrets—one of my pet peeves is applying the word 'common' to people, birds, any living thing.

But I have gone into that before. The George type egrets are good size birds with yellow bills and glossy black feet and legs. There are reddish egrets who are sometimes white, but they are comparatively rare, slightly smaller, and have black-tipped bills and bluish legs.

The snowy egrets are a story unto themselves. For identification purposes, they are next down the scale in size, have thinner bills which are black and, although their legs are black, they have bright yellow feet.

The immature little blue herons are white but they have blue bills and greenish legs. Smallest of all are the cattle egrets; more apt to be found in fields than at waters' edge, they have orange bills and pinkish legs.

And, if all this isn't confusing enough it can be remembered that all egrets are herons but not all herons are egrets. Enough is enough, Marda. Get back to George's thrilling performance.

Actually it was George and friend. We are hoping, of course, that it was the beginning of a courtship display and how nice it would be if the build-up to the mating season would be long. Such a show could be enjoyed over and over again.

Mom and Dad had front row seats and did very well giving me a, not blow by blow but wing-beat by wing-beat, description. (My bed was not yet on the porch—Florida may be warm but the nights are cool and early mornings are not porch weather.) George is a big bird and if he flies close to the window it is quite exciting.

Even more exciting when there are two egrets. Playing follow-the-leader. As the birds flew back and forth Mom and Dad were absolutely spellbound. A lovely sight. These birds have broad wings and do not work particularly hard at flying.

The beat is not fast but certainly gives the impression of strength. As they flew in perfect unison, matching wing-beat for wing-beat, Mom said it was for all the world exactly like what we have seen on some of the better nature TV programs. She could almost hear the well-orchestrated background music.

When the lead bird decides to land, she chose a spot near the shore and by a small clump of weeds. She made a graceful touch-down and then stood statue still.

George, the coy old boy, came down slightly in back of her and then proceeded to carefully stride, as only these egrets can, towards her. But he could not be too forward, it might not yet be time for an aggressive, bold approach. He tip-toed around the weed clump and peeked. Taking off in unison, they flew around the bend and disappeared.

Later in the day George flew close to the window through which I was looking. What a sight! One identification difference between herons and cranes is that the cranes fly with extended necks whereas the herons tuck theirs into an "S" shape, resting their heads on their shoulders as it were. (Remember that egrets are herons.)

As George went by it was interesting to note that his neck was not held in a tight "S". A quick check of the books and he was doing just what they said he should. His family fly with the loosest "S" of all. He was also trailing his long legs behind and my, what a shiny jet-black they were! So it is that first fishing, then courting, and what will be next as this soap-box opera of the Saga of George continues!

Retired Teachers Lunch

Lenawee Retired Public School employees will hold a luncheon meeting Jan. 23 at 12:30 p.m. at the Vo-Tec.

Following the luncheon, program chairman, Mrs. Frances Saxton of Blissfield will present Bob Mason, special events chairman of the Adrian Sesquicentennial.

HOMEOWNERS CORNER

Plant Care Discussed

by Vic Clauda

There are all types of toilets. The siphon vortex is the quietest and most sanitary used in some of the more expensive toilets — usually the low, one piece. All Manufacturers recommend a minimum of 35 pounds pressure to operate a low type toilet. They also have the feature of non overflowing. Most toilets are siphon jet and work well and do clean the sides of the bowl when flushed. The passage way through the toilet is 1⅞" to 2⅜".

Most plumbing and heating jobs are too big for the homeowner to handle. We at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121 have been serving the area for over 75 years and have a fleet of 7 service trucks on the road to provide you with prompt service. Free estimates are given and your inquiries are invited in person or on the phone. We will also check your furnace to be sure that it is efficiently operating which can save you fuel and money. Open: 8 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. daily, until 9 p.m. Fri., until 5 p.m. Sat.

HANDY HINT: When cleaning toilet bowl, pour a cup of liquid cleaner in overflow in tank and leave overnight.

Jack Pfeiffle of the Maple City Floral Co. presented "House Plant How-To" after the business meeting of the Town and Country Garden Club.

Focusing on the care of commonly owned house plants, Pfeiffle answered many questions and helped diagnose problems of plants that members brought with them.

Members exchanged rooted leaves to take home, planted to grow with their newly acquired knowledge.

Demonstrating her flower arranging skills, Mrs. Ken Feldman fashioned a miniature arrangement in a pewter pitcher.

The theme, "A New Beginning" was portrayed though the use of delicate purple straw flowers accented with pink pearls.

Meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Philip Marcotte with Mrs. Bert Gagler serving as co-hostess. Mrs. Dave Schneider, Mrs. Fred Herman, Mrs. Ray Bandlow, and Mrs. Charles Piskoti were [illegible] as guests.

March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gerald Nelson and the program will have an ecological theme on the plants of Lenawee county.

NEWLY ELECTED — Michigan State Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas Giles Kavanaugh (r), congratulating Judge Yale Leland Kerby (l) on his elevation to vice-president of the Michigan District Judges' Association. Chief Justice Kavanaugh had just sworn in Judge Kerby and other officers of the Association in Lansing last Friday.

Civilisation Free Film

Admission is free to a beautifully produced color film series, "Civilisation," now being presented at Siena Heights College.

"The Light of Experience," eighth in the series of 13, is scheduled for showing Jan. 23 at 3:30 p.m. and 8:45 p.m. in Studio 11 of Studio Angelico.

It focuses on Rembrandt and Vermeer, two Dutch painters whose perception of light revolutionized their art in the 17th century. The spirit of the times is also reflected by the philosopher Descartes, mathematician Sir Isaac Newton and scientist and architect Sir Christopher Wren.

The highly acclaimed series "Civilisation" is on loan from the National Gallery of Art to select colleges and universities across the nation through the Gallery's Extension Services.

The remaining films, narrated by the renowned Sir Kenneth Clark, are scheduled for showings at Siena Heights college through April.

LOADED WITH TALENT — Tecumseh High School music department has a bumper crop of talent this year. In addition to their leadership in the school's department, the four students are handpicked members of state groups. Chuck Smith, oboist, far left, is a member of the Michigan Youth Band, which meets every Saturday at the University of Michigan and performs at various schools in the state. Next concert is at Hill Auditorium, March 23 in Ann Arbor. Lisa Baker, background, is a member of the Musical Youth International Choir which meets twice monthly in Saline. Choir will tour the Netherlands, Denmark, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and Franch this summer. Tour costs $900. Members of the Blue Lake International Band, which meets monthly at Blue Lake are Andrea Phillips, flutist, center, and Marty Perkins, cornetist, right. They will tour Sweden, Denmark, and Germany June 16 to July 18. Cost of tour is $1,050. Membership is paid by the students and families.

Loan Program Announced

"The 1975 wheat and feed grain loan program will not have identical maturity dates as in the past, but will mature 12 months from the first day of the month in which the loan is made," Richard W. Emmons, county executive director, Lenawee ASCS county committee, Federal Building, E. Maumee St., Adrian, announced.

This change in the loan program should assure farmers more flexibility in marketing crops under loan.

Emmons also announced the 1975 national feed grain allotment will be 89 million acres the same as for 1974. The allotment represents the number of harvested acres of feed grains, based on the estimated national average yield, needed to produce the quantity of feed grains (less imports) that will be used domestically and for export during the 1975-76 marketing year.

Projected 1975 per bushel feed grain yields on which the allotment is based are 93.0 for corn, 60.0 for grain sorghum and 45.5 for barley. The allotment does not represent a limit on acreage, but is computed only for the purpose of distributing payments to producers.

There will be no loan programs for soybeans, dry edible beans, flaxseed, gum naval stores and honey, for the 1975 crops. Emmons said little use has been made of the loan program for these permissive-support commodities in recent years, because market prices are two to three times loan level.

by Linda Phillips 423-5213

Lois Hover tells me she has not received one item in over two months for Goodwill Industries, who weekly stops its truck at her Clinton-Macon Road home to collect donations.

Folks who regularly shop at the Goodwill outlet in Adrian and who have come to depend on reasonably-priced merchandise are finding less and less for sale there now — when it's really needed.

Why don't we in Macon help out if we can and have something waiting for the truck when it comes this Monday . . . .

Jeanelle Lee Griffin, weighing in at eight pounds, plus, was born Jan. 9 at Bixby Hospital and started the new year off right for her parents, Nancy and Turk Griffin, and brother, Clark, of Ford Highway. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, also of Ford Highway.

Macon United Methodist Church seemed so empty last Sunday without the Christmas tree in the sanctuary. Alice and Charlie Gorton yearly erect and decorate an enormous pine with elaborate, religiously-symbolic ornaments handmade by Mrs. Gorton. Their efforts, as well as those others who helped deck the church for the holiday, were much appreciated by the congregation.

County Federation of Women's Club officers Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger, president, of Tecumseh; Mrs. Walter Prill, first vice-president, of Britton; Mrs. Harold Ross, treasurer, of Macon, and Mrs. Donald F. Smith, junior past president, of Tecumseh were guests of 14 members present at the Macon Women's Club meeting Jan. 9.

Mrs. Mills Swick was assisted in serving the luncheon by Mrs. Leland Burleson and Mrs. Merle Cross. Mrs. Cross opened the meeting with a poem entitled "Here and There;" Mrs. Leland Rohn then read the 33rd Psalm of Praise for devotions and closed with a new year prayer of hope.

Members turned in items and money for the layette which will be given to the County Health and Welfare Department chairman.

During the meeting, discussion was led concerning various ways the club might be able to participate in the country's upcoming Bicentennial.

Mrs. Robert Gage was in charge of the afternoon's program and interested those who attended with many crafts she enjoys, including candlemaking.

Mrs. Arthur Hill will hostess the February meeting. Each member is to bring a valentine to exchange.

Remember That Cure-all Lydia Pinkham

(Editor's Note: Carl Lamb now has two little gems to add to his archives shelf. In a recent issue of Drug Topics the story of the famous Lydia Pinkham was printed. He shares it with Herald readers and stated that the two remaining bottles of Pinkham medicine for pale people are not offered to any remaining imbibers.) The author is a freelance writer whose article is reprinted from the Sunday Herald Advertiser, Boston, Mass.

The Lydia Pinkham Medicine Company, whose founder became Lynn, Massachusetts' most famous daughter, has finally closed its doors.

For 45 people, including two of her great-grandsons and several individuals who worked for the firm for more than 35 years, the closing represented the sudden reality of an early retirement or the unenviable task of finding a new job. But more than that, the closing marked the end of an era. It was in the "financial panic" of 1873 that Lydia Pinkham, confronted with sudden family destitution, began bottling and selling the herbal medicine and pills for women that would make her an international celebrity.

Lydia Estes was born on Feb. 9, 1819, into an old Quaker family whose home stood at the corner of Broad and Estes Streets in East Lynn, Mass. She married real estate dealer Isaac Pinkham, a native of Portsmouth, N.H., in 1843. In addition to raising five children, Lydia also taught school and worked part-time for a law firm.

But were it not for her husband's business reversals and poor health, she undoubtedly would never have gained worldwide recognition.

For years Lydia had been providing her neighbors with free herbal medicine. She had been using a recipe for an old Indian medicine supplied by George Todd, a Salem machinist, in payment of a $25 debt he owed her husband.

It was at the suggestion of her oldest son, Dan, that the medicine she had been brewing on her kitchen stove was bottled and marketed with her name and [illegible] each container. [illegible] family quickly learned the secrets of promoting and selling this wondrous compound which was described as a "sure-cure" for the "vapours" and "bearing-down" pains which afflicted women throughout the world. The compound also was sold in pill form, and a special pill formula was later developed for "pale" conditions. Indeed, Lydia's "pink pills for pale people" became the butt of comedians of an earlier generation.

Within a short time handbills, newspaper advertisements, and testimonials from her customers made Lydia's name a household word throughout the United States, Canada, and more than 50 foreign countries. The peak year of 1925 saw nearly $3.5 million in sales.

Many of Lydia's customers readily admitted that they often consumed more than the suggested dosage because it gave them a "fine glow." Little wonder! Until the early 1900s, the compound contained 18 percent alcohol instead of the later 13½ percent.

The contents of Lydia's famous compound remained a secret until 1939, when the Federal Trade Commission began probing the extravagant claims of patent medicines. However, clinical analysts quickly proved that there were certain "estrogenic materials" in the product producing the effects which Lydia had claimed from the beginning.

Lydia became the heroine of the "Lydia Pinkham Song," which generations sang and which the late columnist Dorothy Kilgallen claimed had been banned by the radio networks in 1940 because "the lyrics are slightly indigo." As it turned out, the banned song was a later, Hollywood version of the original.

However, not all of the 100-year history of the Lydia Pinkham Medicine Company was harmonious. A legal battle developed between Lydia's heirs, the Gove and Pinkham branches, when Lydia's daughter Aroline and Aroline's husband tried to gain control of the company. The dispute was passed on to Lydia's grandchildren and wasn't settled until 1939, when the court ruled that 56 shares of stock be given to each side of the family.

Lydia Pinkham was one of the most energetic women of her era and was said to be as widely known as Queen Victoria, whose birth year she shared. Lydia wrote on a conglomerate of subjects ranging from health and child care to theories of evolution and forms of government.

Lydia's great-grandson, Herbert Smith, executive vice president of the company for more than 20 years, said that economics and changing [illegible] times led to the plant's closing.

However, the memories and the legends linger on. Smith told of how the Federal Government forced a reduction in the alcohol content.

"There was a question of whether the compound was medicine or a beverage," he said. "Even after the alcohol content was reduced to 15 percent, the Feds weren't satisfied until they offered several bottles to local tipplers." (Because of evaporation in the manufacturing process, the over-the-counter alcoholic content was 13½ percent.)

The "bitter taste" proved Pinkham's point. The compound was no beverage.

It was a long-standing tradition at Lydia Pinkham that each batch of the famous compound had to be sampled. After his uncles retired, that chore fell to Smith.

"I finally got used to the taste," he said, but he admitted it was bitter.

The company was always a family concern. According to Smith, many employees were the sons or daughters or nephews of other employees. "It was never safe to say anything about some old so-and-so," Smith joked, "because you could never be sure he wasn't related to the person you were talking to."

For Lynn, Mass., and for drugstores around the country the closing marks the passing of an old but cherished lifestyle.

Now You Can Be A Clown At Vo-Tech

"Be a clown, be a clown, be a clown. . . " the popular song advises. [illegible] had a desire to be a clown, why not take advantage of the new course offered at the Lenawee Vocational-Technical Center for the adult education winter session, which begins Jan. 13?

Teachers for this Wednesday night class, 7 to 9 p.m., are Mary Lou Lowery and Barbara Ruden. Included in the instruction is costuming, make-up, props, balloons, skit preparation, career opportunities and promotion.

Arrangements for other new courses have been made by Robert J. Hayes, director of adult education at Vo-Tech Center. Enrollment for these courses increased 40 percent in the fall from the enrollment of 1973.

Other new classes include creative crafts and a new sewing class, which is more advanced session for those who have finished the beginner's class. Powder Puff mechanics is again offered for women who would like to know more about their cars.

A new class this year in machine shop is in screw machine operation. There is also a general introduction to machine shop.

In health occupations, a new class is offered in teaching basic nursing skills for patient care in the home. Offered also are introduction to nurses aid courses and sign language for communications with the deaf.

Libraries Are More Than a Place To Get Books

(Editor's note: This is a two part series on Tecumseh Public Library services and reading interests of the community.)

by Kathy Kulczyk.

Libraries used to conjure thoughts of selecting a book to read while curled up in an easy chair beside a blazing fire, or of children playing peek-a-boo between the stacks and mother warning "Shhhsush."

It was a place just to get books and keep quiet.

"Libraries today are becoming centers for many different media brought together so that the individual chooses ... or she prefers. The library is also a place to enjoy,' explained Mrs. Michael (Deborah) Havener, Tecumseh Public Library director.

In addition to offering a well balanced collection of popular literature and informative books, the library strives to become a better source of information as well as a place for entertainment. Many new services are being added.

People don't realize that they can call the library for information about their town. Anyone can also call to reserve a book.

Or patrons may inquire about current state legislation. Over the past years, the library had compiled a file of social services for the area.

For example, the file contains information about writing local representatives, who to contact to join a ski club, have a rare coin appraised or find out about day care.

File is continually updated. New residents can get involved in town by just calling in questions. Suggestions and additions are welcomed.

"Children's services are important to teach children that a library is a place to relax, have fun or even day dream with books and it is not a place for stern discipline," said Mrs. Havener.

Preschooler program is offered October to April Wednesday afternoons.

During the summer, a reading club is sponsored for elementary students allowing them to read a number of books in different subject areas. Certificates are awarded.

"Pride in their accomplishments keeps children interested in reading. It is also proven that reading levels advance through summer reading," she added.

There is a story hour for elementary school children and occasional movies.

The interlibrary loan service, which allows access to other collections, is another very important Tecumseh library service.

Tecumseh Public Library is a member of the Raisin Valley Library system. Four times a week, the Monroe County library system calls and asks what Tecumseh needs.

Materials, such as records, books, newspaper articles, films, from other city and county libraries in the system can be borrowed by Tecumseh patrons.

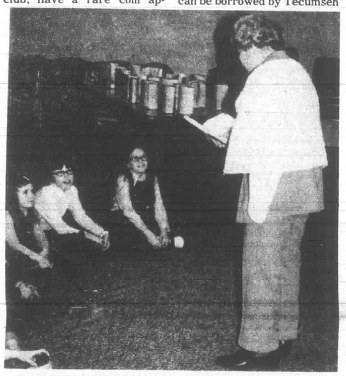
As part of library renewal, subject categories are being expanded: consumer education on coping with the fuel shortage and handling complaints, "how to do it" books, child rearing theories, business section on law and management, cook books describing buying economically, canning and freezing.

Library also has a framed painting rental. It includes copies of fine Masters to decorate a bare livingroom wall.

Best of all, "everyone in the Tecumseh Public School District is welcome to the service—it's free," said Mrs. Havener.

Tecumseh Public Library serves 12,118 residents of the Tecumseh Public School District. Managed under the school district, it can serve a large number of people and benefits from advice and services that would otherwise cost more.

(Next week: Part II: "What everyone is reading in Tecumseh."



LIBRARIES ARE FOR FUN — Story teller Mrs. Cleon Mason, children's librarian, reviews a book for Liz Marvin, (left) Carrie Watson and Bridget Marvin, a delighted audience. Emphasis on children's programs at the Tecumseh Public Library is to balance offering informative and pleasure books with an opportunity to enjoy the library as a place to entertain oneself. College Receives Waterfront

A gift of Lake Michigan waterfront property with an appraised value of $100,821 has been made to Albion College by Mr. and Mrs. Jens M. Touborg.

The property, near Pentwater, includes a four bedroom summer home and several beach front lots. Proceeds from the sale of the property will be allocated at the discretion of trustees according to Dr. Lomas.

Mrs. Touborg is a 1931 graduate of Albion. Touborg, now an honorary trustee of Albion, served on the board of trustees during the 1960s. Their daughter, Mrs. Frank (Margaret) Klapperich graduated from Albion in 1957.

President Bernard Lomas stated that the generous gift from Mr. and Mrs. Touborg provides a substantial lift at a time when the Michigan economy is slumping and the need for private gift assistance is becoming increasingly critical for the College.

OPERATION AWARE, 1975:
A&P CUTS FOOD PRICES

1. PRICE CUTS ON STAPLES.
A&P starts the New Year by cutting the price on A&P Brands of staples such as Dry Milk, Beans, Peanut Butter, Mayonnaise, Fish Sticks, Spaghetti, Macaroni, Spaghetti Sauce, Cheese Slices, Frozen Shoestring Potatoes and other items that are important to a family's diet. So now you can get meaningful savings on many frequently purchased items.

2. WEEKLY SPECIALS TOO... IN ALL DEPARTMENTS.
Outstanding weekly specials to include meat, fresh fruits and vegetables and grocery items. And when A&P saves you money on meat, that really means something. Because at A&P, you know you're always getting fully matured meat that's cut, trimmed and priced for value. Take our beef, for instance. We sell only one quality of beef at A&P. And it's backed by our unconditional money-back guarantee and our Butcher's Pledge. That's the A&P Butcher's promise to always pack the better side of every cut down. So if you like what you see in the store, you'll love what you see at home.

3. AWARE LIST CONTINUES.
We're continuing our Early Warning System against price increases. The Aware List. Every week we will voluntarily post a list of price increases, such as those received from manufacturers, a full seven days before we actually change our price. That gives you one week to purchase at the old price, subject, of course, to product availability. You'll also find "Be Aware" shelf tags on many frequently purchased items with the day of the price increase right on the tag. Of course, the Aware List won't include perishables like meat, eggs or fresh fruit and vegetables, where markets fluctuate daily, items controlled by law; or advertised specials.

4. CONSUMER PROTECTION POLICY.
We're of course continuing our committment to making you an Aware Shopper by reminding you of what every A&P store owes you and by informing you of ways to get the most for your money. Look for the signs in A&P stores spelling out all the protection A&P gives you: 1. Guaranteed Satisfaction. 2. Exceptional Value. 3. Low Price with Absolutely No Compromise in Quality. 4. Rain Check Product Availability. 5. Product Freshness Through Open Dating. 6. Consumer Information. 7. Courteous Service. 8. Cleanliness. 9. Safe and Healthy Products. 10. Shopping Convenience. 11. As an independent agent we answer to one boss— our hometown people

We represent several firms, but we work for only one boss—you. That way we can always place you with a company which we think is best for each line of insurance you need. Naturally, we prefer companies like Auto-Owners who look at a loss and take care of it right away, without haggling or delays. That's one of the reasons we're part of the Altogether Family. Like us, they're always there when you need them.

New Circle Announces New Officers

BRITTON—Newly formed Sunshine Circle of the Congregational Christian Church, met Tuesday evening, Jan. 7, in the home of their president, Mrs. LaVern Weyher, who opened the meeting by reading "Ten Wishes for the New Year."

During the business meeting new officers were announced: President, Mrs. LaVern Weyher; vice-president, Mrs. John Keran; secretary, Mrs. Ronald Frayer; treasurer, Mrs. Willard Exelby; and sunshine committee, Mrs. Robert Osterhout.

Dues were set at $5 a year. Announcement was made that donations for the supperless supper could be turned in at the next Circle meeting, which will be held Feb. 4 in the home of Mrs. Donald Judd in Tecumseh. Circle members discussed money making ideas for the coming year.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Weyher on the history of the Lord's Prayer and read poems that related to it.

Rest of the evening was spent planning coming year's events and formulating program ideas. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Appalachian Area Program for Women

BRITTON—A prayer and self-denial program and pictures of the Appalachian area were presented by Mrs. Raymond Bird at the regular meeting of the United Methodist Women of Grace Church, Thursday evening. Several youths from the church worked in that area last summer.

Jerry O'Brien of Tecumseh and Howard Haas, Jr. showed slides of the homes in Kentucky that the group repaired. A question and answer period followed and an offering was taken.

Mrs. Russell Scott was presented with a United Methodist pin for her four years of service as president. Mrs. Stewart Niblack, newly-elected president made the presentation.

Mrs. Paul Bailey accompanied the group on the piano in practicing a selection for the Sunday morning worship hour.

Leadership Training meeting will be Jan. 29, at Grace United Church, starting at 1:30 to 4 p.m. with a nursery provided. Coffee hour will precede the meeting. An evening meeting of the same nature will be held the same day in Detrer Methodist Church at Dexter.

Mrs. Richard Linn reported that decorations and supplies have been purchased to use for 1975 bazaar items. She also asked for a volunteer as general chairman.

A tentative date for Feb. 13 was set for a fish supper at the church. Proceeds are to help finance trip to the Appalachian area next summer.

Forty-nine sick calls were reported by the 20 members present.

Feb. 6 is the next rgular meeting at the church with Mrs. William Bailey as program chairman and Mrs. Richard Linn and Mrs. Tom Judkins as hostess.

Group made tray favors for the Herrick Nursing Home before adjourning for refreshments served by Mrs. Russell Scott and Mrs. Ralph Sturtevant.

Lutheran Women Guild Holds Meeting

BRITTON—"God Is a Faithful God and Will Not Fail Us," was the title of devotions given by Mrs. Thomas Tucker at the Jan. 7 meeting of the Emmanuel Lutheran Women's Guild.

Women met at the home of Mrs. Clarence Schroeder with Mrs. Wesley Gilmore assisting as co-hostess.

Mrs. Leon Squires presided over the business meeting. Announcement was made that a potluck supper will precede the lenten services beginning Ash Wednesday, Feb. 12. Ladies voted to donate money toward carpet for the stairway and narthex of the church.

February meeting will be hosted by Mrs. Robert Billau and Mrs. Ralph Schafer.

Tuckabatchee to Meet in Britton

BRITTON—Britton Camp Fire Leaders' Association will host the annual meeting of the Tuckabatchee Council, Tuesday, Jan. 21, at 7 p.m. in Britton at the Grace United Methodist Church.

All leaders, assistant leaders, [illegible] spouses and interested parents are invited to attend the meeting.

Just a reminder that Britton-Macon Tories' sweatshirts can still be purchased from any Camp Fire leader.

Democracy Winners

Michael Saxton, senior of Britton-Macon High School was first place winner of the 1974-75 Annual Voice of Democracy scriptwriting contest held recently in Tecumseh, Clinton and Britton-Macon High Schools.

Second place winner was Jeff Ely, senior of Tecumseh High School and third place was Pauline Prielipp, senior of Britton-Macon School. Prizes were 100, 50, and 25 dollars respectively.

Students of 10th, 11th and 12th grades were invited to write a three to five minute speech on the theme "My Responsibility As A Citizen." It challenged youth to consider obligations of citizenship and called for a personal evaluation of their responsibility in preserving democracy as a way of life in our country.

The tape of the first place winner was forwarded for district judging to be held in January in Lansing. District winners will be entered in state competition where the winner from each state will receive an all expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., March 7-11 and will compete for one of the five National Veterans of Foreign Wars Scholarships.

First place winner will receive a $10,000 scholarship to the school of his or her choice: second place, $5,000; third place, $3,500; fourth place, $2,500; fifth place $1,500.

Michigan's first place winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship and plaque. Second and third place winners will receive $500 and $300 scholarships and plaques.

The VOD scriptwriting and scholarship contest, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall-Slater Post and Auxiliary is a part of the national program sponsored by the VFW of the United States, its Ladies' Auxiliaries and cooperating National and State Association of Broadcasters.

Judging of the local contest took place at Radio Station WABJ, Adrian with Mrs. Edward Webber, teacher in Monroe Elementary School, James Vanzo, department chairman social studies at Madison School, Adrian and John Raymond, broadcaster and music director of the radio station as judges.

Local chairmen were Harlon Boyes for the Post and Mrs. Walter Mueller for the Auxiliary.

Youth Group Snowmobile Party Set

BRITTON—Youth Group of Emmanuel Lutheran Church will have a snowmobile party Sunday, Jan. 19 beginning at the church at 2:30 p.m. until 7 p.m.

In case of inclement weather different plans will be announced.

New Officers for Circle

BRITTON—Mary Martha Circle of the Britton Congregational Christian Church elected officers for the year: President, Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt; vice-president, Mrs. Percy Cadmus; secretary, Mrs. Raymond Seagert; treasurer, Mrs. Dick Bruce; and sunshine committee, Mrs. Martin Ivan and Mrs. Joseph Hall.

President announced that instead of a February supper, there will be a supperless supper. All money should be collected by March 1.

Various ideas for programs [illegible] making favors for hospitals and nursing homes and book reports.

Group worked on the year books for the new year.

Mrs. Dick Bruce had charge of the devotions. She gave a reading "Help Yourself to Happiness" and "Love Is The Greatest."

Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt gave a memoriam for Mrs. Vera Bruce with the lighting of candle and a reading "Remember Me When I Am Gone Away." Mrs. Bruce was a member of the circle.

Hostess Mrs. Lawrence Ash served the luncheon to the nine members present.

February meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Martin Ivan. There will be a white elephant sale at this meeting.

Ladies Elected

BRITTON—Ladies Missionary Society of the Britton Bethel Baptist Church elected new officers for 1975: President, Mrs. Walter Stutesman; vice-president, Mrs. Howard Bishop; secretary, Mrs. Lauren Gall; treasurer, Mrs. Wayne Jeffrey; devotional chairman, Mrs. Robert Hunt; missionary projects committee, Mrs. William Bartenslager and Mrs. Paul Winner.

Mrs. Norman Barnard, Mrs. [illegible] appointed to serve, [illegible] gave a devotional talk, stressing how the Lord uses the Bible to strengthen.

Group prepared strips for rag rugs for use by the Arthur Mann family in Wisconsin.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Chester Kurowicki and Mrs. Calvin Grounds.

"Needles and Pins" Subject of Club

Tecumseh Monday Club members met Jan. 6 for a work session, "Needles and Pins", under the supervision of Mrs. Gladys Rohweder.

Used material and greeting cards were prepared for the use of convalescents in the nursing homes.

A noon potluck luncheon was served by Mrs. Louise Bauman and committee.

Devotions pertaining to the new year were given by Mrs. Ralph Comfort.

During the short business meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. William P. Snook, a new member, Evalyn Halberstadt, was received into the club.

Notes of appreciation from Mrs. Theodore VanOrden, the Lenawee Medical Care Facility and Maurice Spear Campus were read.

The next meeting, Jan. 20, will feature chocolate molding by Barbara McCann with program chairman, Mrs. Clyde Bailey and hostess chairman, Mrs. Robert Bonner.

NOTICE

Redskin Matmen Lose to Tough Adrian Madison

CLINTON — Redskin matmen dropped a tough meet to powerhouse Adrian Madison but beat Manchester in wrestling action last week. In addition, the Clinton squad traveled to Monroe Catholic Central last Saturday to compete with eight other teams in that school's invitational tournament.

Clinton was simply overpowered by State Class D champ Adrian Madison losing 61-6. The only win for Clinton was by 138 pound Al Eveleth who pinned his opponent.

Things worked out differently Thursday night when the Skins entertained traditional rival Manchester. Clinton came out on top 36-24. The win left the squad with a 1-0 league record. Overall the Redskins are 3-3.

Finishing out the week, Clinton participated in Monroe Catholic Central's invitational tournament with eight other teams.

Competing against much larger schools, the Skins managed to pull out a sixth place while Dundee took top honors.

Individual winners included Mark Eveleth with a fourth place at 132 pounds. Al Eveleth at 138 pounds, Steve Halchishak at 145 pounds and Tom Claus at 185 pounds all took a third place berth. Al Hively — after losing in overtime in the finals — ended up with a second place finish at 126 pounds.

Clinton hosts Addison this Thursday night. The teams are tied for the lead in the LCAA league. Varsity wrestling starts at 8 p.m. after JV competition.

Bulldogs Down Tories

BRITTON — The Britton Tories lost to Summerfield 58-47 last Friday evening on Britton's home boards.

The Tories jumped out in front in the first quarter 12-8. Summerfield rallied in the second to take a point lead at the half 25-24. The Bulldogs kept at it in the third and fourth quarters scoring 19 and 14 points respectively. Britton could only manage 23 points for the entire half.

The Tories hit only 19 of 63 attempts for 29 percent compared to Summerfield's 25 of 62 for 40 percent. From the line, Britton connected on nine of 17 shots while the Bulldogs hit eight of 13.

The Tories grabbed 42 rebounds to Summerfield's 34. In turnovers, Britton came out on top losing the ball 14 times to Summerfield's 18.

Coach Jim Sweigart said of the loss, "We had trouble putting the ball in the basket. But our kids did a good job hustling and rebounding."

Sweigart goes on to say that the shooting problem has been a consistent one, but there is hope. "I think we'll break out of it soon. At least the players are showing signs of that in practice. Everybody will probably start hitting at once, then look out."

The JV squad won 41-38.

Britton Tories travel to Deerfield this Friday night.

Youth Hockey Has Busy Weekend

Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department's youth hockey teams had a full weekend of play.

Starting Friday evening, the Tomahawk Pee Wees defeated the Churchill-Devil Dogs 6 to 2. Mark Van Buren received his first Hat Trick for this season.

The other Tomahawk goals were made by: Wendell West (1), Tim Eardley (1) and Adam Sturdevant (1). Assists on goals go to Tim Eardley (2), Wendell West (2), Adam Sturdevant (2) and one each to Randy Hill and Jeff Fenelon.

The Pee Wees are now in undisputed possession of second place in the Sylvania Metro Hockey League.

In the first of two Tomahawk games played Saturday the Tomahawk Mites suffered a loss to Hammill Mfg. 2 to 4. Goals for the Tomahawks were made by Steve Eardley and David Stoll.

In the final game Saturday the Tomahawk Bantams — undefeated in eight starts — gave Tomahawk goalie Doug Wood his first shut-out of the season when they outskated Bleim Steel North Stars 6 to 0.

Goals for the Tomahawks were made by Steve Ahrens (1), Al Mannik (1), Ted Schalles (1), Randy Vance (2) and Steve Gibbs (1). Assist on goals - Dave Perry (2), Tim Kirby (1), Steve Ahrend (1) and Chris Condon (1).

Next week the Mites and PeeWee games will be on Saturday and the Bantams on Sunday at 1 p.m. All games played at Tam-O-Shanter sports center, Sylvania Ohio.

Dep't. Says 'Thank You'

The Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department would like to thank the Tecumseh Greenhouse and Ken Sancho, who both donated equipment this past weekend, when the storm put out the furnace at the Community Center.

Also Forrest Abner who spent all weekend getting the furnace operative and Beach Brothers Fuel who opened to get fuel oil early Sunday morning.

This certainly was a Community effort as a notice was put out by the local radio stations to obtain heaters. Thanks to everyone.

Indian Wrestlers Win Over Flat Rock Rams

Tecumseh's matmen traveled to Flat Rock last week, winning the meet 42-17. But, a trip to the Western Invitational meet on Saturday in Jackson proved less successful with the Indians finishing 11th out of 14 teams.

Results of the Flat Rock meet are as follows: 98-pound weight class, Ron Halasz was pinned by Jim Hogburg of Flat Rock at 1:42 of the first period; 105 lb., Tom Dishaw won over Tecumseh's Steve Bishop, 10-4; 112 lbs., Don Rapin of Tecumseh won by forfeit; 119 lbs., Kim Sharp beat Indian Steve Chatters, 5-0; 126 lbs. Mark Johnson of Tecumseh tied with Flat Rock's Arron Garcia, 5-5.

Finishing out the weight classes, Tecumseh's Jim Shough, Gary Beasley and Kevin Eggleston all won on forfeits at 132, 145, and 155 pounds.

Losing by decisions were Indians Tim Eggleston at 167 lbs. and Mike Creswell at 185 lbs.

Dan Tilton, at 138 lbs., won by decision, and heaveyweight Don Heistand pinned Flat Rock's Jim Finch in 51 seconds.

The Tecumseh squad traveled to Jackson Western High School on Saturday to participate in the Western Invitational meet with 14 other teams and 168 wrestlers.

Jackson High School won overall and Chelsea was the runner-up. Tecumseh placed 11th with Jim Shough taking second place at 132 lbs. and Don Rapin grabbing third place at 112 lbs.

Indians Mark Johnson and Dan Tilton won matches but didn't place in the final standings.

Next action for the squad is a dual meet with Huron Thursday night in Tecumseh.

Jets Are Clobbered by Indians, 76-43

By FRANK WEIR

After an on-again off-again season thus far, Tecumseh's cagers have finally caught fire.

The Indians came out of a hectic one week schedule with three big wins in a row. And their new 4-2 league record is good enough to throw them into a three-way tie for second place in the Huron league with Monroe Catholic Central and Gibralter Carlson.

Tecumseh traveled to Monroe last Friday night to defeat Jefferson 78-46. The next night, the Indians were back on their own boards to squeak by Columbia Central 64-61 in a non-league contest. With just enough time to catch their breath, the rolling Indians hosted Airport Tuesday night and snatched a 76-43 victory.

In the Jefferson game, the Indians played a super second half after ending the first half almost even-up with a one point lead 27-26, The Indians held Jefferson to just two points in the third quarter while they grabbed 26 for themselves.

Tecumseh hit 33 of 68 shots for a respectable 48 percent from the floor. At the line, they connected on 12 of 29 getting 41 rebounds and committing 12 turnovers.

Jefferson dunked 18 of 45 attempts for 40 percent from the field and 10 of 18 free throws. They were on the receiving end of 35 rebounds and lost the ball 29 times.

Bruce Hughes led the scoring with 13 points for the Indians.

The Indian junior varsity won theirs 56-41.

Tecumseh hosted Columbia Central the next night coming out on top 64-61. The Indians led the first half 32-28. The second half went right down to the wire. The score was tied with 54 seconds left. Brad Sisson connected on one foul shot but CC grabbed a basket and pulled ahead 61-60. Bruce Hughes got a basket and two foul shots to assure Tecumseh's victory.

The Indians hit 25 of 57 shots from the field for 43.4 percent. On field goals they hit 14 of 21 for 66.7 percent. Columbia Central hit 28 of 55 for 50.9 percent from the field and 5 of 11 for 45.4 percent from the line.

Tecumseh out-rebounded their opponents 34-28 and each squad suffered 21 turnovers.

The Indians routed a weak Airport team Tuesday night 76-43. Every man on the squad contributed points to the final tally. Tecumseh took a quick first half lead 39-15 and stayed on top.

Tecumseh was hot in shooting against Airport, a part of the game that has caused problems previously. Not so Tuesday night. The Indians hit 29 of 54 attempts for 53.7 percent from the field. At the line they connected on 18 of 30 shots for 60 percent. Meanwhile Airport dropped only 13 of 48 attempts for 27.1 percent and 17 of 30 from the line for 56.7 percent.

In addition, Tecumseh out-rebounded Airport 41 to 29 and lost the ball 17 times to Airport's 24.

The JVs won 48-42.

Clinton Hits LCAA Cellar

CLINTON—The Redskin cage team remains in the LCAA cellar with two more losses to Manchester and Hudson.

That leaves the team with a frustrating 0-12 season record.

In the Manchester game, played last Friday at Manchester, the Skins hit only 14 of 76 attempted shots for 18 percent from the field. At the line, they hit 11 of 28 for 39 percent.

Manchester out-rebounded Clinton 59-28. The Redskins lost the ball 25 times to Manchester's 19.

Things didn't improve for Clinton the next night when they traveled to meet powerhouse Hudson losing that one 81-45.

The Skins connected on 19 of 74 attempts for 26 percent and seven of 14 from the line for 50 percent. Meanwhile Hudson hit 30 of 77 for 39 percent and 21 of 24 for 88 percent.

Hudson out-rebounded Clinton 44-38 and they turned over the ball just eight times to Clinton's 14.

Coach Dave Arnold comments, "We're just not putting the ball through the hoop. Our team is the shortest in the league and probably the slowest. Our outside shooting isn't good and the competition's tall men can shut us off inside."

Tory VB Squad Wins

MADISON—Britton girls volleyball team defeated a tough Madison squad last Thursday evening at Madison. Both the varsity and JV teams pulled out victories.

The varsity took their first game easily 15-4. Madison came back strong however, defeating the Tories 15-0. The final game decided the winner with Britton coming out on top 15-13. Mary Armstrong was outstanding server for the squad.

The junior varsity had to work for their win as well. They took the first game 15-4, dropped their second 15-12 to Madison and finished on top 15-6. Janelle Schutz was outstanding server for the JV squad.

The Tories varsity now posts a 1-1 season record and the JV a 2-0 record.

The Indian girls varsity volleyball team scored another victory last week easily defeating Flat Rock by scores of 15-5 and 15-8.

Top scorer for the squad was Julie Murphy with 10 serving points.

The junior varsity had a tougher time but still came out on top. They lost their first match 16-14 but came back to win the second and third by scores of 15-10 and 15-3. Leading the scoring was Tammy Downing and Tori Iffland each with 10 serving points.

The varsity now posts 2-0 record and the JV a 1-1 record.

Coach Sue Allen said of the victories, "The varsity played very well with good spiking and organization. The junior varsity was over-confident in its first game but settled down to play like it can in the second and third. We also got a lot of help from the bench."

Zoning Ordinance - Macon Township, Lenawee County

TITLE

AN ORDINANCE to regulate and restrict the use of land and buildings by dividing the Township of Macon into districts; defining certain terms used therein; imposing regulations, prohibitions and restrictions governing the location, construction or reconstruction of structures and buildings and lands to be used for the purposes of agriculture, residence, commerce, industry and other specified purposes; regulating and limiting the height and bulk of buildings and other structures; regulating and limiting lot occupancy and the size of yards and other open spaces, establishing the boundaries of districts; creating a Board of Appeals, defining and limiting the powers and duties of said Board and setting standards to guide actions of said Board and providing the means of enforcing said Ordinance and providing a penalty for violation of said Ordinance.

PREAMBLE

In accordance with the authority and intent of Act 184, of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, the Township of Macon desires to provide for the orderly development of the Township, which is essential to the well-being of the community, and which will place no undue burden upon developers, industry, commerce, or residents. The Township further desires to assure the provision of adequate sites for industry, commerce, and residence; to provide for the free movement of vehicles upon the proper streets and highways of the Township; to protect industry, commerce, and residences against incongruous and incompatible uses of land, and to promote the proper use of land and natural resources for economic well-being for the Township as a whole; to assure the provision of adequate space for the parking of vehicles of customers using commercial, retail and industrial areas; and that all uses of land and buildings within the Township of Macon be so related as to provide for economy in government and mutual support. The result of such purposes of the Ordinance will promote and protect the public health, safety, comfort, convenience, and general welfare of the residents, merchants, and workers in the Township of Macon.

ENACTING CLAUSE

THE TOWNSHIP OF MACON, COUNTY OF LENAWEE, STATE OF MICHIGAN ORDAINS:

ARTICLE I

SHORT TITLE

Section 1.01. This Ordinance shall be known and may be cited as the Zoning Ordinance of the Township of Macon.

ARTICLE II

CONSTRUCTION OF LANGUAGE

Section 2.01. The following rules of construction apply to the text of this Ordinance.

1. The particular shall control the general.
2. In the case of any difference of meaning or implication between the text of this Resolution and any caption or illustration, the text shall control.
3. The word "shall" is always mandatory and not discretionary. The word "may" is permissive.
4. Words used in the present tense shall include the future; and words used in the singular number shall include the plural, and the plural the singular, unless the context clearly indicates the contrary.
5. A "building" or structure includes any part thereof.
6. The phrase "used for" includes "arranged for", "designed for", "intended for", "maintained for", or "occupied for".
7. The word "person" includes an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an incorporated association, or any other similar entity.
8. Unless the context clearly indicates the contrary, where a regulation involves two or more items, conditions, provisions, or events connected by the conjunction "and", "or", "either. . . or", the conjunction shall be interpreted as follows:
   a. "And" indicates that all the connected items, conditions, provisions, or events shall apply.
   b. "Or" indicates that the connected items, conditions, or provisions, or events may apply singly or in any combination.
9. Terms not herein derined shall have the meaning customarily assigned to them.

ARTICLE III

ZONING DISTRICTS AND MAPPING INTERPRETATION

Section 3.01. DISTRICTS. The Township of Macon is hereby divided into zones or districts as shown on the official Zoning Map and shall include the following:

AG Agriculture

R-1 Residential

RMH Mobile Home Park Residential

C-1 Commercial

IND Industrial

Section 3.02. MAP. The boundaries of these districts are shown upon the Official Zoning Map of the Township of Macon and made a part of this Ordinance. The Zoning Map shall be maintained and kept on file with the Township Clerk, and all notations, references, and other information shown thereon are a part of this Ordinance and have the same force and effect as if the said Zoning Map and all such notations, references and other information shown thereon were fully set forth or described herein.

Section 3.03. INTERPRETATION OF DISTRICT BOUNDARIES. Where uncertainty exists with respect to the boundaries of the various districts as shown on the Zoning Map the following rules shall apply:

1. Boundaries indicated as approximately following the center lines of streets, highways, or alleys shall be construed to follow such center lines;
2. Boundaries indicated as approximately following platted lot lines shall be construed as following such lot lines;
3. Boundaries indicated as approximately following corporate limits shall be construed as following corporate limits;
4. Boundaries indicated as following railroad lines shall be construed to be the midway between the main tracks;
5. Boundaries indicated as following shore lines shall be construed to follow such shore lines, and in the event of change in the shore line shall be construed as moving with the actual shore line; boundaries indicated as approximately following the center line of streams, rivers, canals, lakes, or other bodies of water shall be construed to follow such center lines.
6. Boundaries indicated as parallel to or extensions of features indicated in subsection 1 through 5 above shall so construed. Distances not specifically indicated on the Official Zoning Map shall be determined by the scale of the map.
7. Where physical or cultural features existing on the ground are at variance with those shown on the official Zoning Plan or in other circumstances not covered by subsections 1 through 6 above, the Board of Appeals shall interpret the district boundaries.

ARTICLE IV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 4.01. CONFLICTING REGULATIONS. Wherever any provision of this Ordinance imposes more stringent requirements, regulations, restrictions or limitations than are imposed or required by the provisions of any other law or ordinance, the provisions of this Ordinance shall govern.

Section 4.02. SCOPE. No building or structure, or part thereof, shall hereinafter be erected, constructed, reconstructed or altered and maintained, and no new use or change shall be made or maintained of any building, structure or land, or part thereof, except in conformity with the provisions of the Ordinance.

1. Permitted Area and Placement. No building shall be erected, converted, enlarged, reconstructed or structurally altered, except in conformity with the area and placement regulations of the district in which the building is located.
2. Permitted Height. No building shall be erected, converted, enlarged, reconstructed or structurally altered to exceed the height limit hereinafter established for the district in which the building is located, except that church spires, church towers, the housing of elevators, stairways, tanks, ventilating fans, or similar equipment required to operate and maintain the building, and fire or parapetwalls, skylights, towers, steeples, stage lofts, and screens, flagpoles, chimneys, smoke-stacks, water tanks, or similar structures may be erected above the height limits herein prescribed. No such structure may be erected to exceed by more than fifteen (15) feet the height limits of the district in which it is located; nor shall such structure have a total area greater than ten (10) per cent of the roof area of the building; nor shall such structure be used for any residential purpose or any commercial or industrial purpose other than a use incidental to the main use of the building. Accessory buildings and structures related to agriculture as well as public utility structures shall be exempt from these regulations.
3. Lot Limitations. In Single Family Zoning Districts, only one principal building shall be placed on a lot of record with the exception of parcels of record described and designated as "out lots", which may be so arranged or subdivided as to provide for one or more principal building when the land area allocated to each building is equal to or greater than the lot area required for the district and the building and land complies with all the other requirements on land subdivided according to the Plat Act.
4. Lots, Yards and Open Spaces. No space which for the purpose of a building has been counted or calculated as part of a side yard, rear yard, front yard, or other open space, including required lot area per dwelling unit, required by this Ordinance, may, by reason of change in ownership or otherwise, be counted or calculated to satisfy or comply with a yard or other open space or lot area requirements for any other building.
5. Porches, Patios and Terraces. An open, unenclosed porch, paved patio, or terrace may project into a required front or rear yard for a distance not to exceed ten (10) feet.
6. Projections into Yards. Architectural features, as defined not including vertical projections, may extend or project into a required side yard not more than two (2) inches for one (1) foot of width of such side yard and may project into a required front yard or rear yard not more than three (3) feet.
7. Required Street Frontage. Any parcel of land which is to be occupied by a use or building, other than an accessory use or building, shall have frontage on and direct access to a public street or private easement which meets one of the following conditions:
   a. A public street with a roadway which has been accepted for maintenance by the county, or
   b. A permanent and unobstructed private easement of record having a width of at least thirty feet, except where an access easement of record of less width existed prior to the adoption of this ordinance, and a roadway meeting county standards for vehicular traffic, leading to a public street as defined under item (a) above.
8. Appearance. Any commercial building or accessory building in an Industrial District is erected or placed within two hundred (200) feet of the front lot line of any parcel of land fronting upon any public street, the front wall or side building or accessory building within said distance of two hundred (200) feet shall not be constructed of tarred paper, tin, corrugated iron, or any form of compressed board or felt or similar material with the limits herein specified.
9. Dwellings in Non-Residential Districts. No dwelling shall be erected in the Commercial or Industrial Zoning Districts. However, the sleeping quarters of a watchman or a caretaker may be permitted in said districts in conformance with the specific requirements of the particular districts.

Section 4.03. ZONING OF STREET, ALLEY, AND RAILROAD RIGHT-OF-WAY. All streets, alleys, and railroad right-of-way, if not otherwise specifically designated, shall be deemed to be in the same zone as the property immediately abutting upon such streets, alleys, or railroad rights-of-way. Where the center line of a street or alley serves as a district boundary, the zoning of such street or alley, unless otherwise specifically designated, shall be deemed to be the same as that of the abutting property up to such center line.

Section 4.04. ACCESSORY BUILDINGS IN RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS. In residentially zoned districts accessory buildings, except as otherwise permitted in this Ordinance, shall be subject to the following regulations:

1. Where the accessory building is structurally attached to a main building, it shall be subject to and must conform to all regulations of this Ordinance applicable to main buildings. Detached accessory buildings shall not be erected in any required front yard.
2. A detached accessory building shall not exceed one (1) story or fourteen (14) feet in height.
3. No detached accessory building shall be located closer than ten (10) feet to any principal building nor shall it be located closer than three (3) feet to any side or rear lot line.

Section 4.05. OCCUPANCY. TEMPORARY GRAGES, ACCESSORY BUILDINGS, PROHIBITED. Buildings erected after the date of this Ordinance as garages or accessory buildings, shall not be occupied for dwelling purposes.

Section 4.06. BUILDING GRADES. Any building requiring yard space shall be located at such an elevation that a finished grade shall be maintained to cause the flow of surface water to run away from the walls of the building. Whenever possible, a sloping grade, shall be maintained and established from the center of the front lot line to the finished grade line at the front of the building, and also from the rear lot line to the front, both grades sloping to the front property line. However, this shall not prevent the grading of a yard space to provide sunken or terraced areas, provided proper means are constructed and maintained to prevent the run-off of surface water from flowing on to the adjacent properties. Grade elevations shall be determined by using the elevation at the center line of the road in front of the lot as the established grade or such grade determined by the Township Engineer or Building Inspector.

When a new building is constructed on a vacant lot between two existing buildings or adjacent to an existing building, the existing established grade shall be used in determining the grade around the new building and the yard around the new building shall be graded in such a manner as to meet existing grades and not to permit run-off surface water to flow onto the adjacent property.

Section 4.07. BUILDINGS TO BE MOVED. No permit shall be granted for the moving of buildings or structures from without or within the limits of the Township to be placed on property within said limits unless the Building Inspector shall have made an inspection of the building to be moved and has found that it is structurally safe and will not adversely affect the character of existing buildings.

Section 4.08. EXCAVATIONS OR HOLES. The construction, maintenance or existence within the Township of any unprotected, unbarricaded, open or dangerous excavations, holes, pits, or wells, which constitute or are reasonably likely to constitute a danger or menace to the public health, safety or welfare, are hereby prohibited; provided, however, this section shall not prevent any excavation under a permit issued, pursuant to this Ordinance, where such excavations are properly protected and warning signs posted in such a manner as may be approved by the Building Inspector and provided further that this section shall not apply to streams, natural bodies of water or to ditches, streams, reservoirs, or other major bodies of water created or existing by authority of the State of Michigan, the County, the Township, or other governmental agency.

Section 4.09. RESTORING UNSAFE BUILDINGS. Nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent the strengthening or restoration to a safe condition of any part of any building or structure declared unsafe by the Building Inspector, or required to comply with his lawful order.

Section 4.10. CONSTRUCTION BEGUN PRIOR TO ADOPTION OF ORDINANCE. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to require any change in the plans, construction or design use of any building upon which actual construction was lawfully begun prior to the adoption of this Ordinance and upon which building actual construction has been diligently carried on, and provided further, that such building shall be completed within two (2) years from the date of passage of this Ordinance.

Section 4.11. VOTING PLACE. The provisions of the Ordinance shall not be so construed to interfere with the temporary use of any property as a voting place in connection with a Township or other public election.

Section 4.12. APPROVAL OF PLATS. No proposed plat of a new or redesigned subdivision shall hereafter be approved by the Township unless the lots within such plat have a minimum size and width requirements set forth in the various districts of this Ordinance, and unless such a plat fully conforms with the statutes of the State of Michigan and any related ordinance of the Township as may be adopted.

Section 4.13. ESSENTIAL SERVICES. Essential services shall be permitted as authorized under any franchise or that which may be regulated by any law of the State of Michigan or any ordinance of the Township, it being the intent hereof to exempt such essential services from the application of this Ordinance.

Section 4.14. SIGNS. All signs erected or located in any Zoning District shall comply with the following regulations.

A. Signs, General
   1. A building permit shall be required for the erection, construction or alteration of any sign, except as hereinafter provided, and all such signs shall be inspected by the Building Inspector as to their conforming to the requirements of the zoning district wherein said sign or signs are to be located and the requirements of this section.
   2. There shall be no flashing, oscillating or intermittent, red, blue or green illumination on any sign located in the same line or vision as a traffic control system, nor interference with vision clearance along any highway, or road or at any traffic intersection of two or more streets. All illuminated signs shall be so placed as to prevent the rays and illumination therefrom from being cast upon neighboring residences with a residential district and shall be located not less than one hundred (100) feet from such residential district.
   3. No sign, except those placed and maintained by the Township, County or State, shall be located in, overhand or encroach upon any public right-of-way.
   4. Signs advertising real estate for sale, rent or lease are permitted in all districts when located on the building or land intended to be sold, rented or leased, provided they are used only during the construction of a building or buildings or the offering for sale, rent or lease of real estate. Temporary subdivision signs not exceeding one hundred (100) square feet in area may be permitted subject to their approval by the Board of Appeals for a two (2) year period, subject to renewal, providing such signs conform to conditions established by said Board of Appeals to secure harmony with this Ordinance and the protection of home sales continuing in the subdivision being advertised.
   5. No building permit shall be required for a sign described above provided said sign is not larger than sixteen (16) square feet in area.
   6. No sign otherwise permitted shall exceed the maximum height limitation of the zoning district in which located.

B. Signs in Residential Districts are permitted as follows:
   1. For each dwelling unit, one name plate sign displaying the street name and number and name of occupant, not exceeding one (1) square foot in area.
   2. For Permitted Principal uses other than dwellings and for Uses Permitted after Special Approval, one bulletin or announcement board not exceeding thirty-two (32) square feet in area. No sign so permitted shall be located nearer to the front lot line than one-half the required front yard setback nor nearer the side lot line than the required side yard setback.
   3. No sign shall be illuminated by other than continuous indirect white light, nor shall contain any visible moving parts.

Section 4.15. FENCES, WALLS, AND OTHER PROTECTIVE BARRIERS. All fences of any type or description shall conform to the following regulations:

1. Fences which are not specifically required under the regulations for the individual zoning districts, shall conform to the following requirements:
   a. No fence shall hereafter be erected, along the line dividing lots or parcels of land or located within any required side or rear yard in excess of six (6) feet, or less than three (3) feet in height above the grade of the surrounding land.
   b. All fences hereafter erected shall be of an ornamental nature. Barbed wire, spikes, nails or any other sharp point or instrument of any kind on top or on the sides of any fence, or electric current or charge in said fences are prohibited, except in the Agriculture and Industrial Districts. Barbed wire cradles may be placed on top of fences enclosing public utility buildings or wherever deemed necessary in the interests of public safety.
2. No fence, wall, structure or planting shall be erected, established or maintained on any corner lot which will obstruct the view of a driver of a vehicle approaching the intersection, excepting that shade trees would be permitted where all branches are not less than eight (8) feet above the road level. Such unobstructed corner shall mean a triangular area formed by the street property lines and a line connecting them at points twenty-five (25) feet from the intersection of the street lines or in the case of a rounded property corner from the intersection of the street property lines extended. This also shall prohibit the establishment of shrubbery thirty (30) inches or less in height.

Section 4.16. FILLING OPERATIONS. From and after the effective date of this Ordinance, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or other organization or entity to use land for filling with materials of any kind without approval of the Township Board and subject to requirements as may be appropriate.

Section 4.17. ANIMALS. No livestock shall be kept or maintained in any zoning district on parcels of land located within a proprietary or assessor's plat or on parcels of less than five (5) acres in area, except that for each dwelling unit the occupant may keep for his personal use domestic pets provided they are not kept or used for commercial or breeding purposes and do not constitute a kennel.

Section 4.18. OUTDOOR STORAGE IN RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS. The outdoor storage or parking of recreational vehicles such as an airplane, antique or racing automobile, boat, float, raft, trailer, camping or travel trailer, motorized home, demountable travel equipment of the type adaptable to light duty trucks, and other equipment or vehicles of a similar nature, shall be permitted for a period greater than seventy-two (72) hours in all residential districts, except where expressly permitted by other provisions of this Ordinance, unless the following minimum conditions are met:

1. All such vehicles or equipment shall be placed behind the front face of the principal building.
2. Storage or parking shall be limited to a lot or parcel of land upon which is located an inhabited dwelling unit and the vehicle or equipment is owned by the occupant.
3. Travel trailers and other vehicles or equipment intended or adaptable for sleeping purposes shall remain unoccupied and shall not be connected to sanitary sewer facilities, or have a fixed connection to electricity, water or gas.

Section 4.19. AUTOMOBILE SERVICE STATIONS AND PUBLIC GARAGES. No automobile service station existing on the effective date of this Ordinance shall be structurally altered so as to provide a lesser degree of conformity with the provisions of this section than existed on the effective date of this Ordinance.

1. An automobile service station shall be located on a lot having a frontage along the principal street of not less than one hundred (100) feet, and having a minimum area of not less than fifteen thousand (15,000) square feet.
2. An automobile service building housing an office and/or facilities for servicing, greasing and/or washing motor vehicles shall be located not less than forty (40) feet from any street lot line, and not less than twenty-five (25) feet from any side or rear lot line adjoining a residentially zoned district.
3. All driveways providing ingress to or egress from an automobile service station shall not be more than thirty (30) feet wide at the property line. No driveway or curb opening shall be located nearer than twenty (20) feet to any intersecting street right-of-way, or adjacent to residential property. No driveway shall be located nearer than thirty (30) feet, as measured along the property line, to any other driveway giving access to or from the same automobile service station.
4. All lubrication equipment, motor vehicle washing equipment, hydraulic hoists and pits shall be enclosed entirely within a building. All gasoline pumps shall be located not less than fifteen (15) feet from any lot line. All fuel and oil shall be that only vehicles shall not be supplied with gasoline or serviced while parked upon or over-hanging any public sidewalk, street or right-of-way.
5. Where an automobile service station adjoins property located in any residential district, a wall of suitable material or planting strip shall be erected and maintained along the interior line. This wall or planting strip shall be at least four (4) feet but not greater than six (6) feet in height.
6. All exterior lighting, including illuminated signs, shall be erected and hooded or shielded so as to be deflected away from adjacent property.
7. Outdoor storage or parking of wrecked or partially dismantled vehicles shall be prohibited for a period greater than ten (10) days.
8. There may be no more than one (1) freestanding sign per street frontage, each face not exceeding one hundred and fifty (150) square feet in area, which shall display only the name of the user or occupant of the premises.

Section 4.20. SITE PLAN REVIEW. Whenever required in a zoning district of this Ordinance, a site plan must be submitted to the Planning Commission showing all buildings, parking areas, and landscaping at a scale sufficient to permit study of all aspects of the plan. Typical elevations and floor plans of the building must also be provided. In addition the preparer of the site plan of the proposed use shall show all adjacent properties, including existing buildings, located within two hundred (200) feet of the proposed site in the same block. The plans shall meet the required standards and design and indicate no adverse effects which cause injury to adjoining property or the Township as a whole. Plans so approved shall regulate the development on said premises, unless modified in the same manner as the plans were originally approved. Such review is necessary to secure proper relationships between parking areas, access drives, abutting public thoroughfares, landscaping, building, siting, and open space.

Section 4.21. CHURCHES, SYNAGOGUES, AND HALLS OF WORSHIP. Where churches are allowed, they shall meet the following requirements:

1. Minimum lot width of two hundred (200) feet.
2. Minimum site size of five (5) acres.
3. All front, side and rear yard space shall be a minimum of fifty (50) feet each from adjoining lot lines.

Section 4.22. OPEN AIR BUSINESSES. Open air businesses when permitted in a Commercial or Agricultural District, shall be subject to the following regulations:

1. The minimum area of the site shall be ten thousand (10,000) square feet.
2. The minimum street frontage shall be one hundred (100) feet.
3. Where the site abuts properly in any residentially zoned district, a buffer wall or planting strip shall be provided along the interior line.
4. Exterior lighting shall be installed in a manner which will not create a driving hazard and shall be hooded or shielded so as to be deflected away from adjacent property.
5. All open air businesses shall comply with all applicable Township and County health regulations.

Section 4.23. SWIMMING POOLS. All swimming pools erected in the Township shall comply with the following requirements:

1. Application. The application for a building permit to erect a swimming pool shall include the name of the owner, the manner of supervision of the pool, a plot plan, location of adjacent buildings, fencing, gates, and other detailed information affecting construction and safety measures deemed necessary by the Building Inspector.
2. Pool Location. Minimum side yard setback shall comply with the Schedule of Regulations of this Ordinance. Furthermore, the pool fence must not be built within the required front yard or required corner lot side yard. Rear yard setback shall not be less than four (4) feet between the outside wall of the pool and the rear property line or less than the established easement width at the rear property line, nor less than four (4) feet between the pool wall and any building on the lot.
3. Fence. For the protection of the general public, all swimming pools shall be completely enclosed by a fence not less than four (4) feet and not more than fifteen (15) feet high on the perimeter of the pool wall. All openings in any such fence shall be equipped with a self-closing, self-latching gate which shall be securely locked with a tamper-proof lock when the pool is not in use.
4. Sanitation. Any swimming pool shall not be used unless adequate public health measures are periodically taken to insure that the use thereof will not cause the spread of disease. The swimming pool shall be kept clean and the water used therein shall be filtered and sterilized by chlorination. Sanitation standards as now or any time adopted by the State Department of Health or the County Health Department to protect the public health are adopted and made part of this Article.

Section 4.24. LANDS ABUTTING RIVERS AND LAKES. In any district, land which abuts a creek, tributary or drainage ditch, or any man-made lake shall be subject to the following regulations:

1. The general setback limitations shall be based on the following minimum distances from the waters' edge:
   a. Fifteen (15) feet from any drainage ditch.
   b. Twenty-five (25) feet from any creek or tributary.
   c. Fifty (50) feet from a man-made lake.
2. Single family detached dwellings and their accessory uses (except boat houses) shall be set back according to paragraph 4.24.1.
3. Camping, outdoor recreation, and other commercial recreation activities (except boat landing facilities and marinas) shall be set back according to paragraph 4.24.1.
4. Any grading, removal of topsoil, or indiscriminate cutting of live vegetation which will result in soil erosion and sedimentation into the water body shall be prohibited in accordance with paragraph 4.24.1.
5. Feed lots must be set back a minimum of four hundred (400) feet from the waters edge.
6. Mining extraction shall be set back a minimum of three hundred (300) feet from the waters edge.
7. All sanitary waste disposal fields and septic tanks must not encroach an area within fifty (50) feet of the waters edge. The bottom of the tile field must be four (4) feet above the flood plain level.
8. All buildings and structures related to a commercial or industrial use except water pumping stations or sewage treatment facilities shall be set back in accordance with paragraph 4.24.1.
9. The outdoor storage of materials when permitted in any district shall be set back in accordance with paragraph 4.24.1.
10. All other uses not specifically covered in these regulations shall be set back one hundred (100) feet from the waters edge.

ARTICLE V

NON-CONFORMING LOTS; NON-CONFORMING USES OF LAND, NON-CONFORMING STRUCTURES AND NON-CONFORMING USES OF STRUCTURES AND PREMISES.

Within the districts established by this Ordinance, should there exist lots, structures and uses of land and structures which were lawful prior to adoption of this Ordinance but were made unlawful by regulations imposed by this Ordinance, they shall be termed non-conforming. It is the intent of this Ordinance to permit these non-conformities to continue until they are removed. It is further the intent of this Ordinance to permit no addition of other structures or uses prohibited elsewhere in the same district.

Section 5.01. NON-CONFORMING LOTS OF RECORD (SUBSTANDARD LOTS). In any district in which single-family dwellings are permitted, notwithstanding limitations imposed by other provisions of this Ordinance, a single-family dwelling and customary accessory building may be erected on any single lot of record on the effective date of adoption or amendment of this Ordinance. This provision shall apply even though such lot fails to meet the requirements for area or width, or both, that are generally applicable in the district; provided that yard dimensions and other requirements not involving area or width or both, of the lot shall conform to the regulations for the district in which such lot is located. Yard required variances may be obtained through approval of the Board of Appeals.

No division of any lot or parcel shall be made unless the resulting lots are in conformance with the lot area and width requirements within the district in which the lots or parcels are located.

Section 5.02. NON-CONFORMING STRUCTURES. Where a lawful structure exists at the effective date of adoption of this Ordinance that could not be built under the terms of this Ordinance by reason of restrictions on area, lot coverings, height, yards, its location on the lot, or other requirements concerning the structure, such structure may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

1. No such non-conforming structure may be enlarged or altered in a way which increases its non-conformity, unless otherwise specified by the Board of Appeals.
2. Should a non-conforming structure or a portion of a non-conforming structure be destroyed by any means, it may be reconstructed. However, such reconstruction shall not increase the non-conformity to an extent greater than that which existed prior to destruction.
3. Should such structure be moved for any reason whatever, it shall hereafter conform to the regulations for the district in which it is located after it is moved.

Section 5.03. NON-CONFORMING USES OF LAND. Where at the time of passage of this Ordinance lawful use of land exists which would not be permitted by the regulations imposed by this Ordinance, such use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, provided:

1. No such non-conforming use shall be enlarged or increased, nor extended to occupy a greater area of land that was occupied at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this Ordinance;
2. No such non-conforming use shall be moved in a whole or in part to any portion of the lot or parcel other than that occupied by such use at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this Ordinance;
3. If any such non-conforming use of land ceases for any reason for a period of more than six (6) consecutive months any subsequent use of land shall conform to the regulations specified by this Ordinance for the district in which such land is located.
4. Only those additional structures which are in conformance to the requirements of this Ordinance shall be erected in connection with such non-conforming use of land.

Section 5.04. NON-CONFORMING USES OF STRUCTURES. If lawful use involving individual structures or of structure and premises exists at the effective date of adoption of this Ordinance, that would not be allowed in the district under the terms of this Ordinance, the lawful use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

1. No existing structure devoted to a use not permitted by this Ordinance in the district in which it is located shall be enlarged, extended, constructed, reconstructed, moved, or structurally altered except in changing the use of the structure to a use permitted in the district in which it is located. There shall be a specific exemption from the preceding prohibitions, whether in Section 5.04 or any other Section of Article V against rebuilding, altering, replacing, improving, enlarging, extending, substituting or modifying a non-conforming use when such use is occupied as a dwelling unit.
2. Any non-conforming use may be extended throughout any parts of a building which were manifestly arranged or designed for such use at the time of adoption or amendment of this Ordinance, but no such use shall be extended to occupy any land outside such building;
3. If no structural alterations are made, any non-conforming use of a structure, or structure and premises, may be changed to another non-conforming use provided that approval is secured from the Board of Appeals and that the Board of Appeals finds that the proposed use is more appropriate or more appropriate to the district than the existing non-conforming use. Whenever a non-conforming use has been changed to a conforming use, or to a use permitted in a district of greater restriction, it shall not thereafter be changed to a non-conforming use;
4. When a non-conforming use of a structure, or structure and premises in combination, is discontinued or abandoned for six (6) consecutive months or for eighteen (18) months during any three-year period, the structure, or structure and premises in combination, shall not thereafter be used except in conformity with the regulations of the district in which it is located;
5. Where non-conforming use status applies to a structure and premises in combination, removal or destruction of the structure shall eliminate the non-conforming status of the land. Destruction for the purpose of this section is defined as damaged to an extent of more than fifty (60) percent of its replacement cost at time of destruction.

Section 5.05 REPAIRS AND MAINTENANCE. On any non-conforming structure or portion of a structure containing a non-conforming use, work may be done on ordinary repairs, or on repair or replacement of non-bearing walls, fixtures, wiring, or plumbing, to an extent not exceeding twenty (20) percent of the current State equalized valuation of the non-conforming structure or non-conforming portion of the structure as the case may be, provided that the cubic content existing when it became non-conforming shall not be increased.

If a non-conforming structure or portion of a structure containing a non-conforming use becomes physically unsafe or unlawful due to lack of repairs and maintenance, and is declared by the Building Inspector to be unsafe or unlawful by reason of physical condition, it shall not thereafter be restored, repaired, or rebuilt except in conformity with the regulation of the district in which it is located.

Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to prevent the strengthening or restoring to a safe condition of any building or part thereof declared to be unsafe by the Building Inspector.

Section 5.06. NON-CONFORMING USE - BUILDING DAMAGED BY FIRE, ETC. Any non-conforming use or non-conforming building which has been destroyed or damaged by fire, explosion, Act of God, or by public enemy may be restored to the same non-conforming use or non-conforming building as existed before such damage, provided that such restoration shall be commenced within one (1) year of the date of such destruction and shall be diligently carried on to completion.

Section 5.07. CHANGE OF TENANCY OR OWNERSHIP. There may be a change in tenancy, ownership or management of an existing non-conforming use, provided there is no change in the nature or character of such non-conforming use.

ARTICLE VI

OFF-STREET PARKING AND LOADING REQUIREMENTS

Section 6.01. PARKING REQUIREMENTS. In all zoning districts, off-street parking facilities for the storage and parking of self-propelled motor vehicles for the use of occupants, employees and patrons of the buildings hereafter erected, altered or extended after the effective date of this Ordinance, shall be provided as herein prescribed. Such space shall be maintained and shall not be encroached upon so long as said main building or structure remains, unless an equivalent number of such spaces are provided elsewhere in conformance with this Ordinance.

1. Area for Parking Space. For the purpose of this Section, three hundred (300) square feet of lot area shall be deemed a parking space for one (1) vehicle, including access aisles, except that one hundred and eighty (180) square feet of lot area which has a direct means of ingress and egress from an alley or street may also be deemed a parking space.
2. Fractional Requirements. When units or measurements determining number of required parking spaces result in requirement of a fractional space, any fraction up to, and including one-half be disregarded and fractions over one-half shall require one (1) parking space.

3. Location of Parking Space for One and Two Family Dwellings. The off-street parking facilities required for one and two family dwellings shall be located on the same lot or plot of ground as the building they are intended to serve, and shall consist of a parking strip, parking apron, and/or garage.

4. Location of Parking Space for Other Land Uses. The off-street parking facilities required for all other uses shall be located on the lot or within five hundred (500) feet of the permitted uses requiring such off-street parking, such distance to be measured along lines of public access to property between the nearest point of the parking facility to the building to be served. In Multiple Family and Industrial Districts the front setback area shall remain at open space unoccupied and unobstructed from the ground upward except for landscaping, plant materials, or vehicle access drives.

5. Seating Capacity of Seats. Seats shall mean that each twenty-four (24) inches of seating facilities shall be counted as one (1) seat, except that where specifications and plans filed with the Building Inspector specify a certain seating capacity for a particular building, such specified seating capacity shall be used as the basis for required parking space.

6. Similar Uses and Requirements. In the case of a use not specifically mentioned, the requirements of off-street parking facilities for a use which is so mentioned, and which said use is similar, shall apply.

7. Protective Screening. Whenever off-street parking facilities abut a residential district, a masonry obscuring wall of not less than four (4) feet in height and not more than six (6) feet in height shall be provided.

8. Existing Off-Street Parking at Effective Date of Ordinance. Off-street parking existing at the effective date of this Ordinance which serves an existing building or use, shall not be reduced in size less than that required under the terms of this Ordinance.

9. Collective Provisions. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to prevent collective provisions of off-street parking facilities for two or more buildings or uses, provided such facilities collectively shall not be less than the sum of the requirements for the various individual uses computed separately in accordance with the table under Section 6.02.

10. General Use Conditions. Except when land is used as storage space in connection with the business of a repair or service garage or in long-term parking facilities, a twenty-four (24) hour time limit for parking in off-street parking areas shall prevail, it being the purpose and intention of the foregoing that the requirements of maintaining vehicle storage or parking space is to provide for the public safety in keeping parked cars off the streets, but such requirement is not designed to or intended to provide, and it shall be unlawful to permit the storage or parking on such open land of wrecked or junked cars, or for creating a junk yard or a nuisance in such areas.

11. Restriction on Parking on Private Property. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to park any motor vehicle on any private property, or use of said private property for vehicle storage, or any portion of said property for such purposes as parking space, without the expressed or implied consent, authorization, or ratification of the owner, holder, occupant, lessee, agent, or trustee of such property. Complaint for the violation of this Section shall be made by the owner, holder, occupant, lessee, agent or trustee of such property.

12. Joint Use. Parking spaces already provided to meet off-street parking requirements for theater, stadiums, auditoriums, and other places of public assembly, stores, office buildings and industrial establishments, lying within five hundred (500) feet of a church as measured along lines of public access, and that are not normally used between the hours of 6:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Sundays and Saturdays are made available for other parking, may be used to meet not more than fifty (50) percent of the off-street parking requirements of a church.

Section 6.02. TABLE OF OFF-STREET PARKING REQUIREMENTS. The amount of required off-street parking space for new uses or buildings, additions thereto, and additions to existing buildings as specified above shall be determined in accordance with the following table, and the space so required shall be stated in the application for a building permit and shall be irrevocably reserved for such use and/or shall comply with the initial part of this Section.

ARTICLE VIII

R-1, SINGLE FAMILY RESIDENTIAL

Section 8.01. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE. The Single Family Residential District is established as a district in which the principal use of land is for single-family dwellings. For the single-family residential district, in promoting the general purpose of this Ordinance, the specific intent is:

1. To encourage the construction of, and the continued use of the land for single-family dwellings.

2. To prohibit business, commercial or industrial use of the land, and to prohibit any other use which would substantially interfere with development or continuation of single-family dwellings in the district.

3. To encourage the discontinuance of existing uses that would not be permitted as new uses under the provisions of this Ordinance.

4. To discourage any land use which would generate traffic on minor or local streets other than normal traffic to serve the residences on those streets.

5. To discourage any use which, because of its character or size, would create requirements and costs for public services, such as fire and police protection, water supply, and sewerage, substantially in excess of such requirements and costs if the district were developed solely for single-family dwellings.

6. To encourage single-family development in those areas which have suitable soils.

Section 8.02. PERMITTED PRINCIPAL USES. The following provisions apply in all Single Family Residential Districts. Any use not expressly permitted is prohibited.

1. Single-family detached dwellings.

2. Publicly owned and operated museums, libraries, parks, playfields, playgrounds, recreation facilities and conservation.

Such play space shall have a total minimum area of at least five thousand (5,000) square feet and shall be screened from any adjoining lot in any residential district.

2. Cemeteries, provided that the principal access shall be directly to a County Primary Road as defined in the Lenawee County Comprehensive Development Plan. Minimum site size shall be ten (10) acres and the perimeter of the site shall be fenced as designated in Section 4.15.

3. Churches, subject to the requirements set forth in Section 4.21.

4. Public utility buildings and uses, but not including service and storage yards, when operating requirements necessitate locating within the District to serve the immediate vicinity.

5. Temporary building for use incidental to construction work for a period not to exceed one (1) year.

6. Golf courses, which may or may not be operated for profit, subject to the following conditions:

   a. The site shall be so planned as to provide all ingress and egress directly onto a County Primary Road.

   b. Development features including the principal and accessory buildings and structures shall be so located and related as to minimize the possibilities of any adverse affects upon adjacent property. This shall mean that all principal or accessory buildings shall be not less than two hundred (200) feet from any property line of abutting residentially zoned lands.

7. Home Occupations as defined in Article XVI.

8. Office buildings resulting from any of the following occupations; executive; administrative; professional; accounting; writing; clerical; stenographic; drafting; sales and governmental service.

9. Medical or dental office, including clinics and medical laboratories.

b. Recreation: The minimum of ten (10) percent of the total park should be left in open space developed for recreation purposes. Such developed area shall not include roads, sidewalks, lands under water or having excessive grades and shall be so graded and developed as to have adequate drainage and usability by residents of the park.

c. Site Dimensions: Each mobile home shall have its own home site which shall be at least forty (40) feet wide and a minimum of three thousand six hundred (3,600) square feet in area. A double-wide mobile home shall have a mobile home site which shall be at least fifty-five (55) feet wide and a minimum of five thousand five hundred (5,500) square feet in area.

d. Mobile homes shall be a least thirty (30) feet from the rear of the nearest mobile home and twenty-five (25) feet from the side of the nearest mobile home.

e. Mobile homes shall be placed at least ten (10) feet from the pavement of the access drive.

5. Mobile Home Subdivisions provided that minimum lot sizes and yard spaces shall be:

a. Lot Width: Single - 45 feet
Double wide - 60 feet

b. Lot area: Single - 5,000 square feet
Double wide - 7,200 square feet

c. Minimum front yard: 20 feet.

d. Minimum side yard: 10 feet.

e. Minimum rear yard: 25 feet.

6. Accessory uses and buildings customarily incidental to the above Permitted Principal Uses.

Section 9.03. PERMITTED USES AFTER SPECIAL APPROVAL. The following uses shall be permitted subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed and subject further to the review and approval of the Planning Commission.

1. Public utility buildings and uses, but not including service and storage yard, when operating requirements necessitate locating within the District to serve the immediate vicinity.

2. Nursery schools, day nurseries and child care centers (not including dormitories); provided that for each child so cared for, there shall be provided and maintained a minimum of one hundred and fifty (150) square feet of outdoor play space shall have a total minimum area of not less than five thousand (5,000) square feet and shall be screened from any adjoining lot in any residential district.

3. Temporary buildings for use incidental to construction work for a period not to exceed one (1) year.

4. Golf courses, which may or may not be operated for profit, subject to the following conditions:

a. The site shall be so planned as to provide all ingress and egress directly onto a County Primary Road.

b. Development features including the principal and accessory buildings and structures shall be so located and related to as minimize the possibilities of any adverse affects upon adjacent property. This shall mean that all principal or accessory buildings shall be not less than two hundred (200) feet from any property line of abutting residentially zoned lands.

Section 9.04. SITE PLAN REVIEW. For all uses permitted in an RMH, Mobile Home Park District, a site plan shall be submitted to the Planning Commission for review and approval in accordance with Section 4.20.

Section 9.05. AREA, HEIGHT, BULK AND PLACEMENT REQUIREMENTS. Area, Heights, Bulk and Placement Requirements unless otherwise specified are as provided in Article XIII, "Schedule of Regulations".

ARTICLE X

C-1, LOCAL COMMERCIAL DISTRICT

ZONING ADMINISTRATION

Section 14.01. ZONING ADMINISTRATION. It is hereby provided that the provisions of this Ordinance shall be administered and enforced by the Township Building Inspector or other Township official so designated by the Township Board or deputies of same being delegated to enforce the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 14.02. FEES. Except as may be provided otherwise in this Ordinance, the Township Board shall, by Resolution, determine and set the fees to be charged for all permits, certificates and copies thereof, and fees for appeals to the Board of Appeals. The Board may revise said fees from time to time by Resolution, provided, however, that a public notice of any such revision shall be published in the newspaper having general circulation in the Township at least thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date thereof. Such fees shall be collected by the Township Clerk or Building Inspector or prior to issuance of said permit or certificate.

Section 14.03. APPLICATIONS FOR PERMITS. Applications for Land Use Permits shall be filed in quadruplicate with the Building Inspector upon forms furnished and approved by the Township Board and said application shall be completed in ink or typewritten and shall furnish a general description of the contemplated construction and definite information as to area of the lot on which the building is to be constructed and its location thereon. Such applications shall be accompanied by bankable funds as herein required payable to the Township Treasurer.

Section 14.04. BUILDING PERMITS. If the Building Inspector finds the application conforms to the requirements of this Ordinance and the statutes, he shall mark all copies of the application approved over his signature, one copy of which shall be retained by him, one copy shall be filed with the Township Treasurer, one copy to be filed with the Township Supervisor, and the other copy shall be returned to the applicant together with the construction card signed by the Building Inspector stating the extent of the work authorized. The approval of the application and the issuance of construction card by the Building Inspector shall in no way bind the Township Board or the Board of Appeals, in case it is subsequently discovered that the plans or that the completed building do not conform to the requirements of this Ordinance.

Section 14.05. ERECTION OR ALTERATION. No building or structure excepting farm outbuildings shall hereafter be erected or altered and no land shall be used until a permit shall first have been obtained by the owner of said building or land to be improved, except that no permit shall be required for minor alterations or repairs to existing structures costing five hundred ($500) dollars or less or for wrecking of buildings or structures of less than one thousand (1,000) cubic feet capacity.

Section 14.06. CONFORMANCE. No Building Permits shall be issued to erect or alter a building or structure or make a use of land or make any changes in use thereof unless the same shall be in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance. The Building Inspector shall record all non-conforming uses existing at the effective date of this Ordinance.

Section 14.07. INSPECTION. The Building Inspector shall have the power to issue permits and to make inspections of buildings or premises necessary to carry out his duties in the enforcement of this Ordinance. It shall be unlawful for the Building Inspector to approve any plans or any permits for any excavation or construction until he has inspected such plans in detail and found them in conformity with this Ordinance.

Section 14.08. RESPONSIBILITY. It shall be the duty of all architects, contractors, subcontractors, builders and other persons having charge of the establishment of use of land or the erecting, altering, changing, or remodeling of any building or structure, before beginning or undertaking any such work to see that a proper Building Permit has been granted therefor and that such work and land use is in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 14.09. RECORDS. A Complete record and copy of each application for each certificate or permit issued pursuant to the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be filed with the Township Clerk and be a part of the Township Records. Copies of all applications and permits shall be furnished to any person having a proprietary or tenancy interest on the payment to the Township Clerk of a fee of One Dollar ($1.00) for each copy.

Section 14.10. CERTIFICATES OF OCCUPANCY. It shall be unlawful to use or permit the occupancy of any land, building, or structure for which a Building Permit is required, and to use any building or structure hereafter altered, extended, erected, repaired, or moved, until the Building Inspector shall have issued a Certificate of Occupancy stating that the provisions of this Ordinance have been complied with.

1. Certificates of Occupancy shall be issued for existing buildings, structures, or parts thereof, or existing uses of land if, after inspection, it is found that same is in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance.

2. Certificates of Occupancy may be issued for part of a building or structure prior to the occupancy of the entire building and prior to it being completed, to be in force not more than thirty (30) days, nor more than five (5) days after the building or structure is fully completed and ready for occupancy, and provided further that such portions of the building or structure are in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance.

3. Buildings or street uses accessory to dwellings shall not require separate Certificates of Occupancy but may be included in the Certificate of Occupancy for the dwelling when shown correctly on the plot plan and when completed at the same time as said dwelling.

4. Applications for Certificates of Occupancy shall be made in writing to the Building Inspector on forms furnished by the Township and said certificates shall be issued within seven (7) days after receipt, if it is found in compliance with paragraph (1) above. If such certificate is refused for cause, the applicant shall be notified of such action and cause within the same served (7) day period.

Section 14.11. ZONING MAP. The Official Zoning Map shall be identified by the signature of the Township Supervisor, as attested to by the Township Clerk. One copy of the Official Zoning Map and above mentioned record shall be maintained and kept up to date by the Township Clerk's office, accessible to the general public, and same shall be the final authority as to the current zoning status of all lands and buildings in the Township.

1. Fees. Any applicant desiring to have any change made in this Ordinance shall, with his petition for change, deposit the required fee of one hundred ($100) Dollars with the Township Clerk at the time that the petition is filed to cover the publication and other miscellaneous costs for said change. No part of this fee is returnable.

2. Procedure. The procedure for making amendments of this Ordinance shall be as follows:

a. Each petition for amendment by one or more owners of property shall be submitted to the Township Clerk who shall refer the same for recommendation to the Planning Commission and who shall report the receipt of a requested zoning change to the Township Board at its next meeting.

b. [illegible] reason, the Planning Commission shall hold the public hearings as required by law.

c. Notice of public hearings on any petition for amendment of this Ordinance which proposes to change Land Use Districts as shown on the Zoning Map within five hundred (500) feet of the boundary of adjacent township or municipalities may be sent to the Planning Commission or other zoning agencies representing such townships or municipalities in order that coordination with adjacent zoning ordinances may be promoted.

d. The petition, if approved by the Planning Commission shall be submitted to the Lenawee County Planning Commission for review.

e. Where an individual parcel of property has to be rezoned, notice of public hearing shall be given by first class mail to all property owners of property any part of which lies within five hundred (500) feet from the boundary of the property to be rezoned. Notice shall be addressed to the person whose name is shown as owner upon the tax rolls of the Township.

ARTICLE XV

BOARD OF APPEALS

Section 15.01. CREATION OF BOARD OF APPEALS. There is hereby established a Board of Appeals, which shall perform its duties and exercise its powers as provided by Act 184 of the Public Acts of 1943, as amended, in such a way that the objectives of this Ordinance shall be observed, public safety, morals and general welfare assured, and substantial justice done. The Board of Appeals shall consist of three (3) members as follows:

1. The first member shall be the chairman of the Planning Commission.

2. The second member shall be a member of the Township Board appointed by the Township Board.

3. The third member shall be selected and appointed by the Township Board from among the electors residing in the unincorporated area of the Township. An elected officer of the Township or any employee of the Township Board may not serve simultaneously as the third member of, or as an employee of the Township Board of Appeals.

4. The member who is a member of the Township Board appointed by the Township Board shall not serve as chairman of the Board of Appeals.

5. The Township Board may provide that the Board of Appeals shall have five (5) members. The additional members shall be selected and appointed by the Township Board from among the electors residing in the unincorporated area of the Township. An additional member shall not be an employee of the Township Board.

6. Members of the Board of Appeals shall be removable by the Township Board for nonperformance of duty or misconduct in office upon written charges and after public hearing by the Township Board.

Section 15.02. MEETINGS. All special meetings of the Board of Appeals shall be held at the call of the Chairman, and regular meetings at such times as the Township Board may determine. All hearings of the Board of Appeals shall be open to the public. The Board of Appeals shall keep minutes of its proceedings, showing the vote of each member on each question, or if absent or failing to vote, indicating such fact, and shall keep records of its findings, proceedings at hearings, and other official actions, all of which shall be immediately filed in the Office of the Township Clerk and shall be a public record.

Section 15.03. APPEALS. An appeal may be taken to the Board of Appeals by any person, firm or corporation, or by an officer, department, board of bureau affected by a decision of the Building Inspector. Such appeals shall be taken within such time as shall be prescribed by the Township Board by resolution by filing with the Building Inspector and with the Board of Appeals, a Notice of Appeal, specifying the grounds thereof and the payment of a fee established by the Township Board.

The Building Inspector shall forthwith transmit to the Board of Appeals all of the papers constituting the record upon which action appealed from was taken. An appeal shall stay all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the Building Inspector certifies to the Board of Appeals after the Notice of Appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property, in which case the proceedings shall not be granted by the Circuit Court on application, on notice to the Building Inspector and on due cause shown.

The power or authority to alter or change the Zoning Ordinance or Zoning Map is reserved to the Township Board, as is provided by law.

The Board of Appeals shall select a reasonable time and place for the hearing of the appeal and give due notice there of to the parties and shall render a decision on the appeal without unreasonable delay. Any person may appear and testify at the hearing, either in person or by duly authorized agent or attorney.

Section 15.04. NOTICE OF HEARING. Notice of the hearing of the appeal shall be given by the Township Clerk to all owners of record of property within a radius of three hundred (300) feet of the premises involved by mail addressed to the respective owners at the address given in the latest assessment roll. The time, place and subject matter of such hearing shall be printed in a newspaper of general circulation in the Township once not less than ten (10) days prior to such hearing.

Section 15.05. POWERS OF BOARD OF APPEALS CONCERNING ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW AND VARIANCES. The Board of Appeals as herein created, is a body of limited powers. The Board of Appeals shall have the following specific powers and duties:

1. Purpose. To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is an error of law in any order, requirement, decision or determination made by Township officials in the enforcement of this Ordinance, and to hear and decide appeals where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships in the way of carrying out the strict letter of this Ordinance so that the spirit of this Ordinance shall be observed, public health and safety secured, and substantial justice done.

2. Authorization. In hearing and deciding appeals, the Board of Appeals shall have the authority to grant such variances as may be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this Ordinance, so that public health, safety and welfare secured, and substantial justice done, including the following:

a. Interpret the provisions of the Ordinance in such a way as to carry out the intent and purpose of the plan, as shown upon the Zoning Map fixing the use districts, accompanying this Ordinance, where street layout actually on the ground varies from the street layout as shown on the map aforesaid.

In case of any question as to location of any boundary line between zoning districts, the Board of Appeals shall interpret the Zoning Map after recommendation from the Planning Commission.

b. Permit the erection and use of a building, or an addition to an existing building, of a public service corporation or for public utility purposes, in any zoning district to a greater height or of a larger area than the district requirements herein established, and permit the location in any district of a public utility building or structure if the Board of Appeals shall find such use, height, area, building or structure reasonably necessary for the public convenience and service.

c. Permit the modification of the off-street motor vehicle parking space or loading space requirements where, in the particular instance, such modifications will not be inconsistent with the purpose and intent of such requirements, after recommendation from the Planning Commission.

d. Permit such modification of the height, lot area, yard setback, floor area and lot width regulations as may be necessary to secure an appropriate improvement of a lot which is of such shape or size, or so located with relation to surrounding development or physical characteristics, that it cannot otherwise be appropriately improved without such modification, provided that modification of lot area regulations shall be permitted only in instances where the nature of the soil and drainage is such that there is sufficient area for safe water supply and sanitary disposal of waste (unless central water distribution and/or sanitary sewage are provided). Whenever the Board of Appeals determines that the same are necessary in order to render a decision, it may require the appellant to submit a topographical survey or the results of percolation tests certified by a registered engineer or land surveyor.

3. Conditions. The Board of Appeals, by majority vote, may reverse or affirm wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision or determination appealed from, and may make such order, requirement, decision or determinations as ought to be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the Building Inspector for whom the appeal is taken.

Section 15.06. STANDARDS. In consideration of all appeals for variances, the Board of Appeals shall review each case individually as to its applicability to each of the following standards so that the proposed variance or new land use:

a. Will be of such location, size and character that it will be in harmony with the appropriate and orderly development of the surrounding neighborhood and applicable regulations of the zoning district in which it is to be located.

b. Will be of a nature that will make vehicular and pedestrian traffic no more hazardous than is normal for the district involved, taking into consideration vehicular turning movements in relation to routes of traffic flow, proximity and realtionship to intersections, adequacy of sight distances, location and access of off-street parking and provisions for pedestrian traffic, with particular attention to minimizing pedistrian-vehicle contacts in residential districts.

c. Will be designed as to the location, size, intensity, site layout and periods of operation of any such proposed use to eliminate any possible nuisance emanating therefrom which might be noxious to the occupants of any other nearby permitted uses, whether by reason of dust, noise, fumes, vibration, smoke or lights.

d. Will be such that the proposed location and height of buildings or structure and location, nature of height of walls, fences and landscaping will not interfere with or discourage the appropriate development and use of adjacent land and buildings or unreasonably affect their value.

e. Will relate harmoniously with the physical and economic aspects of adjacent land uses as regards prevailing shipping habits, convenience of access by prospective patrons, continuity of development, and need for particular services and facilities in specific areas of the Township.

f. Is necessary for the public convenience at that location.

g. Is so designed, located and proposed to be operated that the public health, safety and welfare will be protected.

h. Will not cause injury to the value of other property in the neighborhood in which it is to be located.

Section 15.07. BOARD OF APPEALS APPROVAL. The Board of Appeals may require the appellant to submit all necessary surveys, plans or other information necessary for the Board to investigate fully and report on the matter before it. The Board of Appeals may impose such conditions or limitations in granting a variance as it may deem necessary to comply with the spirit and purposes of this Ordinance.

Section 15.08. APPROVAL PERIODS. No order of the Board of Appeals permitting the erection or alteration of a building shall be valid for a period longer than six (6) months, unless a building permit for such erection or alteration is started and proceeds to completion in accordance with the terms of such permit.

No order of the Board of Appeals, permitting a use of a building or premise shall be valid for a period longer than six (6) months unless such use is established within such period; provided, however, that such order shall continue in force and effect if a building permit for said erection or alteration is obtained within such period, and such erection or alteration is started and proceeds to completion in accordance with such permit.

Section 25.01.32. FILLING: Shall mean the depositing of dumping of any matter ONTO or INTO the ground, except common household gardening and general farm care

Section 25.01.33. FILLING STATION: A building designed or used for the retail sale of fuel (stored in underground tanks), lubricants, air, water, and other minor operating commodities for motor vehicles, and including the customary space and facilities for the installation of such commodities on or in such vehicles.

Section 2^.01.34. FLOOR AREA:

a. FLOOR AREA, GROSS: The sum of the gross horizontal areas of the several floors of the building measured from the exterior faces of the exterior walls or from the center line of walls separating two (2) buildings. The "floor area" of a building which is what this normally is referred to as, shall include the basement floor area when more than one-half (1/2) of the basement height is above the established curb level or finished lot grade, whichever is higher (see Basement definition). Any space devoted to off-street parking or loading shall not be included in "floor area". Areas of basements, utility rooms, breezeways, unfinished attics, porches (enclosed or unenclosed) or attached garages are not included.

b. FLOOR AREA, USABLE: The measurement of usable floor area shall include that portion of the floor area, measured from the interior face of the exterior walls, used for or intended to be used for services to the public or customers, patrons, clients, or patients; including areas occupied by fixtures or equipment used for display or sale of goods or merchandise, but not including areas used or intended to be used for storage of merchandise, utility or mechanical equipment rooms, or sanitary facilities. In the case of a half story, the usable floor area shall be considered to be only that portion having a clear height above it of four (4) feet or more. See illustrations entitled "Basic Structural Terms" and "Floor Area Terms".

Section 25.01.35. FOOD: For purposes of this Ordinance, the word "food" used in connection with restaurant facilities shall include frozen desserts and non-alcoholic beverages.

Section 25.01.36. GARAGE:

a. GARAGE, COMMUNITY: A community garage is a space or structure or series of structures for the storage of motor vehicles having no public shop or service operated in connection therewith, for the use of two (2) or more owners or occupants of property in the vicinity.

b. GARAGE, PRIVATE: A space or structure suitable for the storage of motor vehicles having no public shop or service in connection therewith, for the use solely of the owner or occupant of the principal building on a lot, or of his family or domestic employees.

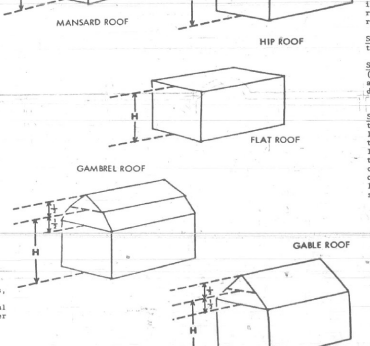
c. GARAGE, PUBLIC: A space or structure other than a private garage for the storage, care, repair or refinishing of motor vehicles; provided, however, that a structure or room used solely for the display and sale of such vehicles in which they are not operated under their own power, and in connection with which there is no repair, maintenance, or refinishing service or storage of vehicles other than those displayed, shall not be considered as a public garage for the purpose of this Ordinance.

Section 25.01.37. GRADE: The building grade shall, in the case of fairly level ground conditions, be the level of the ground adjacent to the walls. For substantially unlevel ground conditions, the grade shall be the average elevation of the ground adjacent to the walls.

Section 25.01.38. GREENBELT: A strip of land not less than fifteen (15) feet in width which is planted with trees of shrubs acceptable in species and caliber to the Planning Commission and Building Inspector.

Section 25.01.39. HEIGHT, BUILDING: The vertical distance measured from the grade of the building to the highest point of the roof for flat roofs; to the deck line for mansard roofs; and to the mean height level (between eaves and ridges) for gable, hip and gambrel roofs. Where a building is located upon a terrace, the height may be measured from the average ground level of the terrace at the building wall. (See illustration entitled "Building Height Requirements".)

BUILDING HEIGHT REQUIREMENTS



H = HEIGHT OF BUILDING

Section 25.01.40. HIGHWAY: A public thoroughfare or street, except alleys, but including Federal; State, County and Township roads and those appearing upon plats recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, Michigan.

Section 25.01.41. HOME OCCUPATION: Any use customarily conducted entirely within the dwelling and carried on by the inhabitants thereof, not involving employees other than members of the immediate family residing on the premises, which use is clearly incidental and secondary to the use of the dwelling for dwelling purposes, does not change the character thereof, and which does not endanger the health, safety, and welfare of any other persons residing in that area by reason of noise, noxious odors, unsanitary or unsightly conditions, fire hazards and the like, involved in or resulting from such occupation, professions or hobby. Provided further, that no article or service is sold or offered for sale on the premises, except as such as is produced by such occupation; that such occupation shall not require internal or external alterations or construction features, equipment, machinery, outdoor storage, or signs not customarily in residential areas. One (1) non-illuminated nameplate, not more than two (2) square feet in area, may be attached to the building which shall contain only the name of the occupant and the nature of the home occupation. Day care centers, tea rooms, veterinarian's office, tourist homes, animal hospitals, kennels, real estate offices, millinery shops, among others shall not be deemed to be home occupations.

Section 25.01.42. HOTEL: A building occupied as a more or less temporary abiding place for individuals, who are lodged with or without meals in rooms occupied singly for hire, in which provision is not made for cooking on any individual plan and in which there are more than ten (10) sleeping rooms.

Section 25.01.43. INDUSTRIAL PARK: A parcel of land to be used for manufacturing purposes and developed as a planned development on a parcel or parcels not under separate ownership.

Section 25.01.44. JUNK: For the purpose of this Ordinance, the term junk shall mean any motor vehicles, machinery, appliances, product, merchandise with parts missing or scrap metals or other scrap materials that are damaged, deteriorated, or are in a condition which cannot be used for the purpose for which the product was manufactured, and the storage or maintaining of such items is adjudged to be a nuisance per se.

Section 25.01.45. JUNK YARD: For the purpose of this Ordinance, junk yard shall mean any place where the storing, dismantling, wrecking, and disposition of junk is carried on, but does not include uses established entirely within enclosed buildings in conformance with all other provisions of the Zoning Ordinance. The term includes automobile wrecking yards and salvage areas and any area of more than two hundred (200) square feet for the storage, keeping or abandonment of junk and scrap metals.

Section 25.01.46. KENNEL: Any lot or premises on which three (3) or more dogs or cats are kept either permanently or temporarily boarded. All kennels shall comply with all applicable Township, County and State regulations.

Section 25.01.47. LOADING SPACE: An off-street space on the same lot with a building or group of buildings, for temporary parking of a commercial vehicle while loading or unloading merchandise or materials.

Section 25.01.48. LOT: A lot is a piece or parcel of land occupied or intended to be occupied by a building and any accessory buildings or by any other use or activity permitted thereon and including the open spaces and yards required under this Ordinance, and having its frontage upon a public street or road either dedicated to the public or designated on a recorded subdivision.

Provided that the owner of any number of contiguous lots may have as many of said contiguous lots considered as a single lot for the purpose of this Ordinance as he so elects, and in such case the outside perimeter of said group of lots shall constitute the front, rear and side lot lines thereof. This latter parcel is then often referred to as a "zoning lot."

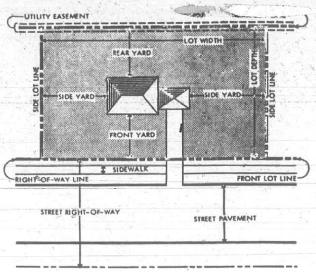
a. LOT, DEPTH: The depth of a lot is the mean horizontal distance from the center of the front street line to the center of the rear lot line. In the case of a lakefront lot, it is from the lake frontage line to the street frontage line. In the case of an acreage parcel, it is from the front right-of-way line to the rear lot line.

b. LOT, DOUBLE FRONTAGE: A lot other than a corner lot having frontage on two (2) more or luss parallel streets. In the case of a row of double frontage lots, one (1) street will be designated as the front street for all lots in the plat and in the request for a zoning compliance permit. If there are existing buildings in the same block fronting on one or both of the streets, the required minimum front yard setback shall be observed on those streets where buildings presently front.

c. LOT, INTERIOR: An interior lot is a lot other than a corner lot with only one (1) lot line fronting on a street.

d. LOT, WIDTH: The horizontal distance between the side lot lines, measured at the two (2) points where the building line, or setback line, intersects the side lot lines.

LOT TERMS



Section 25.01.49. LOT LINES: Any line dividing one (1) lot from another or from the right-of-way, and thus constitute property lines bound.ng a lot.

a. LOT LINE, FRONT: In the case of an interior lot abutting on one (1) public or private street, the front lot line shall mean the line separating the lot from such street right-of-way. In the case of a corner or double frontage lot, the front lot line shall be that line separating said lot from that street which is designated as the front street in the plat and/or in the request for a zoning compliance permit.

b. LOT LINE, REAR: The rear lot line is that boundary which is opposite and most distant from the front lot line. In the case of a lot pointed at the rear, the rear lot line shall be that assumed line parallel to the front lot line not less than ten (10) feet long lying farthest from the front lot line and wholly within the lot. In any case, when this definition does not apply, the Planning Commission shall designate the rear lot line.

c. LOT LINE, SIDE: Any lot boundary line not a front lot line or a rear lot line. A side lot line separating a lot from a street is a side street lot line. A side lot line separating a lot from another lot or lots is an interior lot line.

Section 25.01.50. LOT OF RECORD: A lot of record is a lot the dimension and configuration of which are shown on a map recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Lenawee County, or a lot or parcel described by metes and bounds, the accuracy of which is attested to by a Professional Engineer or Land Surveyor (so registered and licensed in the State of Michigan) and likewise so recorded on a file with the County.

Section 25.01.51. LOT AREA, NET: The total horizontal area within the lot lines of a lot.

Section 25.01.52. LOT AREA, GROSS: The net lot area plus one-half (1/2) the area of that right-of-way directly adjacent to or abutting any side of the lot, plus any portion of adjoining public lands deemed proper to be included by the Planning Commission.

Section 25.01.53. LOT, CORNER: A lot where the interior angle of two (2) adjacent sides at the intersection of two (2) streets is less than one hundred and thirty-five (135) degrees. A lot abutting upon a curved street or streets shall be considered a corner lot for the purpose of this Ordinance if the arc is of less radius than one hundred and fifty (150) feet and the tangents to the curve, at the two (2) points where the lot lines meet the curve or the straight street line extended, form an interior angle of less than one hundred and thirty-five (135) fegrees. (See illustration entitled "Corner, Interior and Double Frontage Lots.")

Section 25.01.54. MOBILE HOME: A portable vehicular unit primarily designed for year-round dwelling purposes, built upon a chassis, equals or exceeds eight (8) feet in width and thirty-two (32) feet in length, and not motorized or self-propelled. Also known as a trailer coach or house trailer. A unit which requires being transported to the site separately in two (2) or more sections, and to which such major elements as the heating system or a substantial portion of the siding are installed after transport, shall not be considered a mobile home.

Section 25.01.55. MOBILE HOME PARK: For the purpose of this Ordinance, is a specifically designated parcel of land designed and developed to accommodate two (2) or more mobile home sites for residential use. Also known as a trailer court or trailer coach park.

Section 25.01.56. MOBILE HOME SITE: For the purpose of this Ordinance is a plot of ground with a mobile home park designed to accommodate and support one (1) mobile home. It is not the same as a building lot.

Section 25.01.57. MOTOR HOME: A motorized vehicular unit primarily designed for travel and/or recreational usage, which may also contian facilities for overnight lodging. This term does not apply to mobile homes.

Section 25.01.58. MOTOR COURTS - MOTELS: A building or a group of buildings in which overnight lodging is provided and offered to the public for compensation and catering primarily to the public traveling by motor vehicles.

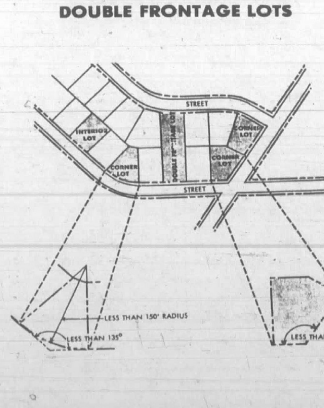
Section 25.01.59. MUNICIPAL PARK: A parcel of land that is used as a park and is operated under the supervision of the Township Board.

Section 25.01.60. NON-CONFORMING USE OR BUILDING: Non-Conforming Use: A non-conforming use is a use which lawfully occupied a building or land at the effective date of this Ordinance or amendments thereto, and that does not conform to the use regulations of the zoning district in which it is located.

Non-Conforming Building: A non-conforming building is a building or portion thereof lawfully existing at the effective date of this Ordinance, or amendments thereto, and which does not conform to the provisions (e.g., setbacks, height, lot coverage, parking) of this Ordinance in the zoning district in which it is located.

Section 25.01.61. OCCUPIED: The word "occupied" includes the terms arranged, designed, built, altered, converted to, rented, leased, or intended to be inhabited; not necessarily for dwelling purposes.

CORNER, INTERIOR AND DOUBLE FRONTAGE LOTS



Section 25.01.62. OFF-STREET PARKING LOT: A facility providing vehicular parking spaces along with adequate drives and aisles. Adequate maneuvering space shall be provided which allows unrestricted access and egress plus on-site storage space for at least two (2) vehicles.

Section 25.01.63. OPEN AIR BUSINESS USES: Open air business uses shall include the following business uses:

a. Retail sale of trees, shrubbery, plants, flowers, seed, topsoil, humus, fertilizer, trellises, lawn furniture, playground equipment, and other home garden supplies and equipment.

b. Retail sale of fruit and vegetables.

c. Tennis courts, archery courts, shuffleboard, horseshoe courts, miniature golf, golf driving range, children's amusement park and/or similar recreation uses.

d. Bicycle, utility truck or trailer, motor vehicle, boat or home equipment sale; rental or repair services.

e. Outdoor display and sale of garages, swimming pools, motor homes, mobile homes, snowmobiles, farm implements, and similar products.

Section 25.01.64. PARKING SPACE: An area for each automobile or motor vehicle, such space being exclusive of necessary drives, aisles, entrances, or exits, and being fully accessible for the storage or parking of self-propelled vehicles.

Section 25.01.65. ~~MOBILE~~ HOME PARK: This term shall mean a written permit issued by the Building Inspector permitting the construction, alteration or enlargement of a Mobile Home Park, subject to all applicable provisions of this Ordinance and all other applicable local, State and Federal regulations.

Section 25.01.66. PORCH, ENCLOSED: A covered entrance to a building or structure which is totally enclosed, and projects out from the main wall of said building or structure and has a separate roof or an integral roof with the principal building or structure to which it is attached.

Section 25.01.67. PORCH, OPEN: A covered entrance to a building or structure which is unenclosed except for columns supporting the porch roof, and projects out from the main wall of said building or structure and has a separate roof or an integral roof with the principal building or structure to which it is attached.

Section 25.01.68. PRIVATE PARK: A parcel of land for use as a recreation area, play area, picnic area, or nature area, without commercial trade.

Section 25.01.69. PUBLIC NOTICE: A notice of the time, place and purpose of a public hearing, which notice, except where otherwise expressly provided herein, shall be published in a newspaper having a general circulation in the Township not less than five (5) days or more than fifteen (15) days prior to the date of such hearing.

Section 25.01.70. PUBLIC UTILITY: Any person, firm, corporation, municipal department or board duly authorized to furnish and furnishing under municipal or state regulation to the public; transportation, water, gas, electricity, telephone, steam, telegraph, or sewage disposal.

Section 25.01.71. QUARRY EXCAVATION: Shall mean any breaking of the ground to hollow out by cutting or digging or removing any soil matter, except common household gardening and general farm care.

Section 25.01.72. RETAINING WALL: A permanent solid barrier of brick, stone, wood or other opaque material approved by the Building Inspector intended to enclose an area. For the purpose of this Ordinance all supporting members, posts, stringers, braces, pilasters or other construction features of a retaining wall shall be located and placed on the inside of the wall away from public view. All retaining walls, moreover, shall be constructed and/or painted, tinted or colored in one (1) color only for their exterior surface, and no sign or advertising shall be placed, affixed, painted, or designed thereon.

Section 25.01.73. ROADSIDE STANDS: A roadside stand is a temporary or permanent building operated for the purpose of selling only produce raised on said premises by the proprietor of the stand or his family, and its use shall not make into a commercial district land which would otherwise be an agricultural district, nor shall its use be deemed a commercial activity, but such stand if of a permanent character, shall not be more than one (1) story high nor larger in floor area than twenty (20) feet by twenty (20) feet and must be set back from the nearest highway right-of-way line at least thirty-five (35) feet.

Section 25.01.74. SEPARATE OWNERSHIP: Ownership of a parcel of property wherein the owner does not own adjoining vacant property. Owner of a property may include dual or multiple ownership by a partnership, corporation, or other group. Provided, that the owner of any number of contiguous lots of record considered as a single lot of record for the purpose of this Ordinance as he so elects, and in such case the outside perimeter of said group of lots of record shall constitute the front, rear and side lot lines thereof.

Section 25.01.75. SETBACK: The minimum horizontal distance required to exist between the front line of the building, excluding steps or unenclosed porches and the front street or right-of-way line. The required setback area is that area encompassed by the respective lot lines and setback lines. (See illustration "Lot Terms.")

Section 25.01.76. SIGN: Any device using words, numerals, figures, designs or trademarks designed to inform or attract the attention of persons not on the premises on which the sign is located, provided, however, that the following shall not be included in the application of the regulations herein:

a. (1) Signs not exceeding one (1) square foot in area and bearing only property numbers, post office box numbers, names of occupants of premises, or other identification of premises not having commercial connotations;

(2) Flags and insignia of any government except when displayed in connection with commercial promotion;

(3) Legal notices; identification, informational, or directional signs erected or required by governmental bodies;

(4) Integral decorative or architectural features of buildings, except letters, trademarks, moving parts, or moving lights;

(5) Signs directing and guiding traffic and parking on private property, but bearing no advertising matter.

b. NUMBER: For the purpose of determining the permitted number of signs, a sign shall be considered to be a single display surface or display device containing elements organized, related, and composed to form a unit. Where matter is displayed in a random ~~[illegible]~~ organized relationship of elements, or where there is reasonable doubt about the relationship of element shall be considered to be a single sign.

c. SURFACE AREA: The surface area of a sign shall be computed as including the entire area within a regular geometric form or combinations of regular geometric forms comprising all of the display area of the sign and including all of the elements of the matter displayed. Frames and structural members not bearing advertising matter shall not be included in computation of surface area.

d. SIGN, ACCESSORY: A sign relating in its subject matter to the premises on which it is located, or to products, accommodations, services, or activities on the premises.

Section 25.01.77. SOIL REMOVAL: Shall mean removal of any kind of soil or earth matter, including topsoil, sand, gravel, clay or similar materials, or combination thereof, except common household gardening and general farm care.

Section 25.01.78. STORY: That portion of a building, other than a mezzanine, included between the surface of any floor and the floor next above it, or if there be no floor above it, then the space between the floor and the ceiling next above it.

a. MEZZANINE: A "Mezzanine" floor may be used in this definition of a full story when it covers more than fifty (50) percent of the area of the story underneath said mezzanine, or, if the vertical distance from the floor next below it to the floor next above it is twenty-four (24) feet or more.

b. BASEMENT: For the purpose of this Ordinance, a basement shall be counted as a story if over fifty (50) percent of its height is above the level from which the height of the building is measured, or, if it is used for business purposes, or if it is used for dwelling purposes by other than a janitor or domestic servants employed in the same building, including the family of the same.

c. HALF: A half story is that part of a building between a pitched roof and the uppermost full story, said part having a floor area which does not exceed one-half (1/2) the floor area of said full story, provided the area contains at least two hundred (200) square feet with a clear height of at least seven (7) feet and six (6) inches.

Section 25.01.79. STREET: The public thoroughfare which affords traffic circulation and principal means of access to abutting property, including avenue, place, way, drive, lane, boulevard, highway, road, and other thoroughfare, except an alley.

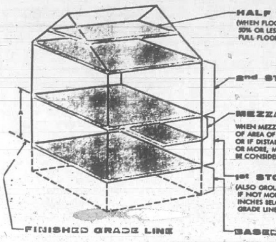
Section 25.01.80. SWIMMING POOL: The term "swimming pool" shall mean any structure or container located whether above or below grade designed to hold water to a depth of greater than twenty-four (24) inches, intended for swimming or bathing. A swimming pool shall be considered as an accessory building for the purpose of determining required yard spaces and maximum lot coverage.

Section 25.01.81. TENTS: Tents as used in this Ordinance shall mean a shelter of canvas or the like supported by poles and fastened by cords or pegs driven into the ground and shall not include those types of tents used solely for children's recreational purposes.

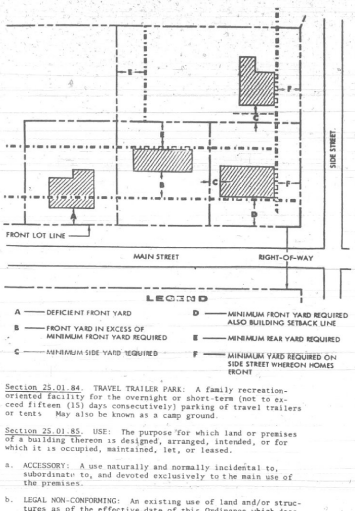
Section 25.01.82. TOWNSHIP BOARD: Whenever in this Ordinance appear the words "Township Board," it shall mean the Township Board of Macon Township.

Section 25.01.83. TRAVEL TRAILER: A portable vehicular unit primarily designed for travel and/or recreational usage, which may also contain facilities for overnight lodging, but which does not exceed eight (8) feet in width or thirty-two (32) feet in length. This term also includes folding campers and truckmounted campers but not mobile homes.

BASIC STRUCTURAL TERMS



YARD REQUIREMENTS



Section 25.01.84. TRAVEL TRAILER PARK: A family recreation-oriented facility for the overnight or short-term (not to exceed fifteen (15) days consecutively) parking of travel trailers or tents May also be known as a camp ground.

Section 25.01.85. USE: The purpose for which land or premises of a building thereon is designed, arranged, intended, or for which it is occupied, maintained, let, or leased.

a. ACCESSORY: A use naturally and normally incidental to, subordinate to, and devoted exclusively to the main use of the premises.

b. LEGAL NON-CONFORMING: An existing use of land and/or structures as of the effective date of this Ordinance which does not conform to the uses specified as permitted in a district, but which is not construed by this Ordinance as a nuisance, or damaging to abutting property, or hazardous to persons.

c. ILLEGAL NON-CONFORMING: An existing use of land and structures as of the effective date of this Ordinance as a nuisance, or damaging to abutting property or hazardous to persons; such uses to be discontinued and abated.

Section 25.01.86. UTILITY ROOM: A utility room is a room in a dwelling, not located in the basement, the use of which is primarily for storage or for housing a heating unit, or for laundry purposes.

Section 25.01.87. VARIANCE: A variance is a modification of the literal provisions of the Zoning Ordinance which is granted when strict enforcement would cause undue hardship owing to circumstances unique to the individual property on which the variance is granted. Hardships based solely on economic considerations are not grounds for a variance

Section 25.01.88. YARD, REQUIRED SIDE-REAR-FRONT: An open space of prescribed width or depth, adjacent to a lot or property line, on the same land with a building or group of buildings, which open space lies in the area between the building or group of buildings and the nearest lot line and is unoccupied and unobstructed from the ground upward, except as otherwise provided herein. This regulation shall not exclude eaves provided that an eight (8) foot height clearance is provided above the adjacent ground level. (See illustration entitled "Lot Terms.")

a. FRONT: An open space extending the full width of a lot and of a depth measured horizontally at right angles to the front property line, lot line, or right-of-way.

b. REAR: An open space extending the full width of a lot and of a depth measured horizontally at right angles to the rear property line, lot line, or right-of-way, except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance

c. SIDE: An open space extending on each side of the lot from the required front yard to the required rear yard, and of a width measured horizontally at right angles to the respective side property line, lot line, or right-of-way.

Section 25.01.89. YARD, SIDE-REAR-FRONT: A general term applied to the space on a lot or parcel, which lot or parcel contains a building or group of buildings, lying between the building or group of buildings and the nearest respective lot or property line facing each building. (See illustration entitled "Lot Terms.")

ARTICLE XVII

REPEAL, INTERPRETATION, SEVERABILITY, PENALITIES, RIGHT AND REMEDIES, GENERAL RESPONSIBILITY, AND ENACTMENT AND EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 17.01. REPEAL OF PRIOR ORDINANCES. The Zoning Ordinance previously adopted by the Township of Macon, and all amendments thereto, are, on the effective date of this Ordinance, hereby repealed. The repeal of the above Ordinances and their amendments does not affect or impair any act done, offense committed or right accruing, or accrued, or acquired, or liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred prior to the time enforced, prosecuted or inflicted.

Section 17.02. INTERPRETATION. In the interpretation and application, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be held to be minimum requirements adopted for the promotion of the public health, morals, safety, comfort, convenience, or general welfare. It is not intended by this Ordinance to repeal, abrogate, annul, or in any way to impair or interfere with any existing provision of law or ordinance other than the above-described Zoning Ordinance, or with any rules, regulations or permits previously adopted or issued or which shall be adopted or issued pursuant to the law relating to the use of buildings or premises; provided, however, that where this Ordinance imposes a greater restriction than is required by existing ordinances or by rules, regulations or permits, the provisions of this Ordinance shall control. Nothing in this Ordinance should be interpreted or construed to give rise to any permanent vested right in the continuation of any particular use, district, zoning classification or any permissible activities therein; and, they are hereby declared to be subject to subsequent amendment, change or modification as may be necessary to the preservation or protection of public health, safety and welfare.

Section 17.03. SEVERABILITY. This Ordinance and the various parts, sections, subsections, phrases and clauses thereof are hereby declared to be severable. If any part, sentence, paragraph, section, subsection, phrase or clause is adjudged unconstitutional or invalid, it is hereby provided that the remainde: of this Ordinance shall not be affected thereby. The Township Board hereby declares that it would have passed this Ordinance, and each section, subsection, phrase, sentence and clause thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, phrases, sentences or clauses be declared invalid.

Section 17.04. VIOLATION-PENALTY. Any person, firm or corporation, including but not by way of limitation, builders and contractors who shall violate, neglect, or refuse to comply with or who resists the enforcement of any of the provisions of this Ordinance or conditions of the Board of Appeals or Township Board adopted pursuant thereto, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars and costs of prosecution, or by being imprisoned in the County Jail for not more than ninety (90) days, or both such fine and imprisonment at the discretion of the Court. Each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense.

The imposition of any sentence shall not exempt the offender from compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance. Uses of land, and dwellings, buildings, or structures, including tents, trailer coaches and mobile homes, used erected, altered, razed, or converted in violation of any provision of this Ordinance, are hereby declared to be a nuisance per se. The Court may order such nuisance abated and the owner and/or agent in charge of such dwelling, building, structure, tent, trailer coach, mobile home, or land may be adjudged guilty of maintaining a nuisance per se, and same may be abated by order of any court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 17.05. RIGHTS AND REMEDIES. The rights and remedies provided herein are cumulative and in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

Section 17.06. GENERAL RESPONSIBILITY. The Township Board or its duly authorized representative is hereby charged with the duty of enforcing the Ordinance and said Board is hereby empowered, in the name of said Macon Township to commence and pursue any and all necessary and appropriate actions and proceedings in the Circuit Court of Lenawee County, Michigan, or any other court having jurisdiction, to restrian and/or prevent any non-compliance with or violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, and to correct, remedy and/or abate such non-compliance or violation. And it is further provided that any person aggrieved or adversely affected by such a non-compliance or violation may institute suit and/or join the Township Board in such a suit to abate the same.

Section 17.07. ENACTMENT AND EFFECTIVE DATE. The foregoing Zoning Ordinance and Zoning Map were adopted at a regular meeting of the Macon Township Board, held at the Macon Township Hall in said Township on Jan. 7, 197 5, after approval of the same by the Macon Planning Commission following a public hearing on November 9, 197 4. Said Ordinance was ordered published in the Tecumseh Herald, newspaper having general circulation in Macon Township, Lenawee County, Michigan, pursuant to the requirements of Act 191 of the Public Acts of Michigan for the year 1939, as amended. This Ordinance shall become effective thirty (30) days after the date of such publication.

Zoning Ordinance - Village of Britton

The Village Council of the Village of Britton, County of Lenawee, State of Michigan, under the authority of the City and Village Zoning Act No. 207, Public Acts of 1921 as amended, hereby ordains, enacts and publishes the following Zoning Ordinance:

ARTICLE I - TITLE

An Ordinance Establishing A Comprehensive Zoning Ordinance which shall be known and referred to as the "Zoning Ordinance of the Village of Britton, Michigan."

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

An Ordinance establishing comprehensive zoning regulations and providing for the administration, enforcement and amendment thereof, enacted to preserve and promote the public health, morals, safety and general welfare, and for the following more particularly specified purposes:

1. To protect the character and stability of residential, commercial, industrial and recreational areas within the Village, and to promote the orderly development of such areas;
2. To prevent overcrowding the land and undue congestion of population;
3. To regulate the location of buildings and the use of buildings and land adjacent to streets and thoroughfares; and
4. To guide and regulate future growth and development of the Village in accordance with the Comprehensive Plan for the Britton Area.

ARTICLE III - INTERPRETATION & APPLICATION

In interpreting and applying the provisions of this Ordinance, they shall be held to be the minimum requirements for the promotion of the public safety, health, convenience, comforts, morals, prosperity and general welfare. It is not the intention of this Ordinance to interfere with, abrogate, or annul any ordinance, rules, regulations, or permits previously adopted or issued, which are not in conflict with this Ordinance, or which shall be adopted or issued hereafter including law, relating to the use of buildings or premises, and also not in conflict with this Ordinance. [illegible] intention of the Ordinance to interfere with, abrogate, or annul any easements, covenants, or other agreements between parties, unless this Ordinance imposes a greater restriction upon the use of buildings or premises, or upon the height of buildings, or requires larger open spaces or lot areas, in which case the provisions of this Ordinance shall prevail.

ARTICLE IV - DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this Ordinance certain terms, words and phrases are hereby defined. Words used in the present tense include the future tense, words used in the future tense include the present. Family: Is one or two persons or parents, with their direct lineal descendants and adopted children and heirs (including domestic employees thereof) together with not more than two persons not so related, living together in the whole or part of a dwelling comprising a single housekeeping unit. Every additional group of two or less persons living in such housekeeping unit shall be considered a separate family for the purpose of this Ordinance.

Floor Area: For the purposes of computing the minimum allowable floor area in a residential dwelling unit, the sum of the horizontal areas of each story of the building shall be measured from the exterior face of the exterior walls, the floor area measurement is exclusive of areas of basements, unfinished attics, attached garages, breezeways, and enclosed and unenclosed porches.

Lot: A parcel of land occupied, or to be occupied, by a main building or group of such buildings, and accessory buildings, or utilized for the principal use and uses accessory thereto, together with such open spaces as are required under the provisions of this Ordinance and frontage upon a public street. A lot may or may not be specifically designated as such on public records.

Lot Area: Is the total horizontal area within the lot lines of the lot.

Lot Depth: Is the horizontal distance between the front and rear lot lines measured along the median between the side lot lines.

Lot Corner: A lot of which two adjacent sides abut for their full length upon a street, provided that the interior angle at the intersection of such two sides is less than 135°. A lot abutting upon a curved street shall be considered a corner lot if the tangents to the curve at its points of beginning within the lot are at the points of intersection of the side lot lines with the street form an interior angle of less than 135°. The point of intersection of the street lot lines is the corner. In the case of a corner lot with curved street line the "corner" is that point on the street lot line nearest to the point of intersection of said side lot lines extended.

Lot, Interior: A lot other than a corner lot, with only one frontage on a street other than an alley

Lot, Double Frontage: A lot, other than a corner lot, with frontage on more than one street.

Lot Lines: The lines bounding a lot as defined herein.

1. Front Lot Line: In the case of a lot not on a corner, that line separating said lot from the street. In the case of a corner lot, or double frontage lot, is that line separating said lot from that street which is designated as the front street in the plat and in the application for a zoning compliance permit.
2. Rear Lot Line: Is that lot line opposite the front lot line. In the case of a lot pointed at the rear, the rear lot line shall be an imaginary line parallel to the front lot line, not less than ten feet long lying farthest from the front lot line and wholly within the lot.
3. Side Lot Line: Is any lot line other than the front lot line or rear lot line. A side lot line separating a lot from a street is a street lot line. A side lot line separating a lot from another lot or lots is an interior side lot line.

Lot of Record: Is a parcel of land, the dimensions of which are shown on a recorded plat on File with the County Register of Deeds or in common use by Municipal or County Officials and which actually exists as so shown, or any part of such parcel held in a record ownership separate from that of the remainder thereof.

Lot Width: Is the horizontal distance between the side lot lines, measured at the two points where the building line, or setback, intersects the lot lines.

Main Building: Is a building in which is conducted the principal use of the lot upon which it is situated

Main Use: Is the principal use to which the premises are devoted and the principal purpose for which the premises exist.

Major Thoroughfare: Is an arterial street which is intended to serve as a large volume traffic way for both the immediate Municipal area and the region beyond, and may be designated as a major thorofare, parkway, freeway, expressway, or equivalent term to identify those streets comprising the basic structure of the street plan.

Mobile Home: A detached single family dwelling unit with all of the following characteristics:

1. Designed for long-term occupancy, and containing sleeping accommodations, a flush toilet, a tub or shower bath, and kitchen facilities, with plumbing and electrical connections provided for attachment to outside system.
2. Designed to be transported after fabrication on its own wheels, or flat bed or other trailers or detachable wheels.
3. Arriving at the site where it is to be occupied as a dwelling complete, including major appliances and furniture, and ready for occupancy except for minor and incidental unpacking and assemble operations, location on foundation supports, connection to utilities and the like.

Mobile Home Park: A parcel of land under single ownership, improved and licensed for the placement of mobile homes for non-transient use.

Non-Conforming Building: A Building lawfully existing at the time of the adoption of this Ordinance, or any amendment thereto, which does not conform to the provisions of this Ordinance for the District in which it is situated.

Non-Conforming Use: A use which lawfully occupied a structure or parcel of land at the time of the adoption of this Ordinance, or any amendment thereto, which does not conform to the provisions of this Ordinance for the District in which it is located.

Occupancy Change of: The term "Change of Occupancy" shall mean the discontinuance of an existing use and the substitution therefor of a different use.

Parking Space: Is hereby determined to be an area of one hundred and eighty (180) square feet, said area shall be exclusive of drives, aisles or entrances giving access thereto, and shall be fully accessible for the storage or parking of permitted vehicles.

Public Utility: Is any person, firm or corporation, municipal department, board or commission duly authorized to furnish and furnishing under state or municipal regulations to the public, gas, steam, electricity, sewage disposal, communication, telegraph, transportation or water.

Sign-accessory: A sign which is accessory to the principal use of the premises.

Sign-nonaccessory: A sign which is not accessory to the principal use of the premises.

Story: Is that part of a building, except a mezzanine as defined herein, included between the surface of one floor and the surface of the next floor, or if there is no floor above, then the ceiling next above. A story thus defined shall not be counted as a story when more than fifty (50) percent, by cubic content, is below the height level of the adjoining ground.

Story, Half: Is an uppermost story lying under a sloping roof, the useable floor area of which, at a height of four feet above the floor does not exceed two-thirds of the floor area in the story directly below, and the height above at least two hundred (200) square feet of floor space is seven feet six inches (7'6").

Street: A right-of-way dedicated to public use which provides vehicular and pedestrian access to adjacent properties whether designated as a street, highway, thorofare, parkway, road, avenue, lane, or however otherwise designated.

Structure: Is anything constructed or erected, the use of which requires location on the ground or attachment to something having location on the ground, except fences, walls or signs.

Temporary Use of Building: Is a use or building permitted to exist during periods of construction of the main building or use, or for special events or as otherwise permitted in this Ordinance.

Travel Trailer: A vehicle designed as a travel unit for occupancy as a temporary or seasonal vacation living unit.

Usable Floor Area: (for the purposes of computing parking) is that area used for or intended to be used for the sale of merchandise or services or for use to serve patrons, clients, or customers. Such floor area which is used or intended to be used principally for the storage or processing of merchandise, or for utilities shall be excluded from this computation of "useable floor area." Measurement of floor area shall be the sum of the gross horizontal areas of the several floors of the building, measured from the interior faces of the exterior walls.

Use: The [illegible] which land or a building is [illegible] designed or intended, or for which [illegible] buildings is or may be occupied.

Yards: The open spaces on the same lot with a main building, unoccupied and unobstructed from the ground upward except as otherwise provided in this Ordinance, and as defined herein

1. Front: Is an open space extending the full width of the lot, the depth of which is the minimum horizontal distance between the front lot line and the nearest line of the main building.
2. Rear Yard: Is an open space extending the full width of the lot, the depth of which is the minimum horizontal distance between the rear lot line and the nearest line of the main building.
3. Side Yards: Is an open space between a main building and the side lot line, extending from the front yard to the rear yard, the width of which is the horizontal distance from the nearest point of the side lot line to the nearest point of the main building.

Zoning Exceptions and Variances:

1. Exception: An exception is a use permitted only after review of an application by the Planning Commission, or the Board of Appeals, (but not the Administrative Official (Building Inspector), such review being necessary because the provisions of this Ordinance covering conditions, precedent or subsequent, are not precise enough for all applications without interpretation, and such review is required by the Ordinance.
2. Variance: Is a modification of the literal provisions of the Zoning Ordinance granted when strict enforcement of the Zoning Ordinance would cause undue hardship owing to circumstances unique to the individual property on which the variance is granted.

The general points of variance are: (a) undue hardship, (b) unique circumstances, and (c) applying to property. A variance is not justified unless all three elements are present in the case.

The "exception" differs from the "variance" in several respects. An exception does not require "undue hardship" in order to be allowable. The exceptions that are found in this Ordinance appear as "conditional uses" requiring review by the Planning Commission. These land uses could not be conveniently allocated to one zone or another, or the effects of such uses could not be definitely foreseen as of a given time. The general Characteristics of these uses include one or more of the following:

1. They require large areas
2. They are infrequent
3. They sometimes create an unusual amount of traffic
4. They are sometimes obnoxious or hazardous
5. They are required for public safety and convenience.

ARTICLE VI-RA ONE-FAMILY DISTRICTS

Section 600-Description of District: These Districts are designed to be composed of low density residential home development. The regulations are intended to stabilized, protect and encourage the residential character of the District and prohibit activities not compatible with a residential neighborhood. Development is limited to single family dwellings plus other such uses such as schools, parks, churches and certain public facilities which serve residents of the District.

Section 601-Principal Uses Permitted: In One-Family Residential Districts no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified uses, unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

A. One-family detached dwellings.

B. Publicly owned and operated libraries, parks, parkways and recreational facilities

C. Accessory buildings and uses, customarily incident to any of the above permitted uses.

Section 602-Conditional Uses: The following uses may be permitted upon the granting of a permit for such use by the Planning Commission subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed for each use and subject further to such other reasonable conditions which in the opinion of the Planning Commission are necessary to provide adequate protection to the neighborhood and to abutting properties.

A. Utility and public service buildings and uses (without storage yards) when operating requirements necessitate the locating of said facilities within the District in order to serve the immediate vicinity. Further, no building and or structure shall be located in any required front or side yard.

B. Private recreational areas, and institutional recreation centers when not operated for profit, non-profit swimming pool club, all subject to he following conditions:

Also, approval from fifty-one percent of the homeowners within one thousand feet shall be received in writing.

(2) In those instances where the proposed site is not to be situated on a lot or lots of record, the proposed site shall have one property line abutting a major thorofare and the site shall be so planned as to provide ingress and egress directly on the said major thorofare.

(3) Front, side and rear yards shall be at least seventy-five feet wide, except on those sides adjacent to non-residential Districts, and shall be landscaped in trees, shrubs, grass and ornamental planting shall be maintained in healthy condition. There shall be no parking or structures permitted in these yards, except for required entrance drives and those wall-and-or fences used to obscure the use from abutting residential Districts.

(4) Buildings erected on the premises shall not exceed one story or fourteen feet in height.

(5) Whenever a swimming pool is constructed under this Ordinance, said pool area shall be provided by means of a controlled gate or turnstyle.

(6) Off-street parking shall be provided so as to accommodate at least on-forth of the member families and/or individual members. By-Laws of the organization shall be provided to the Planning Commission in order to establish the membership involved in computing parking requirements.

(7) All solid and sanitary sewer plans shall be provided and shall be reviewed and approved by the Village Engineer prior tot he issuance of a building permit.

(8) The off-street parking and general site layout and its relationship to all adjacent lot lines shall be reviewed by the Planning Commission, who may impose any reasonable restrictions or requirements so as to insure that contiguous residential areas will be adequately protected.

C. Nursery schools, day nurseries and child care centers (not including dormitories); provided that for each child so cared for there is provided and maintained a minimum of one hundred square feet of outdoor play area. Such play space shall have a total minimum area of at least one thousand square feet, and shall be fenced or screened from any adjoining land use (other than a business use) and shall not be permitted in the interior of any residential block, and shall be located adjacent to a business District.

D. Colleges, universities and other such institutions of higher learning , public and private, offering courses in general technical, or religious education and not operated for profit, all subject to the following conditions:

(1) Any use permitted herein shall be located only on sites of at least five acres in area, and shall not be permitted on any portion of a recorded subdivision plat.

(2) All ingress to and egress from said site shall be directly onto a major thorofare.

(3) No building other than a structure for residential purposes shall be closer than seventy-five feet to any property line

E. Churches and other facilities normally indicental thereto, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The site shall be so located as to provide for ingress and egress from said site directly onto a thorofare having an existing or planned street designated as a major thorofare.

(2) The principal buildings on the site shall be set back from abutting properties zoned for residential use not less than fifteen feet.

(3) Building height and lot coverage standards as established in Article XVI may be allowed provided front, side and rear yards are increased above the minimum requirements by one foot for each foot of building that exceeds the maximum height allowed.

F. Public, parochial and other private elementary, intermediate and-or secondary schools offering courses in general education, not operated for profit.

G. Municipal office buildings when in character with the neighborhood.

H. Accessory buildings and uses customarily incidental to any of the above uses.

I. Mobile Home Parks and Subdivisions with a minimum site of fifteen (15) acres.

Section 603-Area and Bulk Requirements: (See Article XVI-Schedule of Regulations)

ARTICLE VII-RM - MULTIPLE-FAMILY RESIDENTIAL DISTRICTS

Preamble: The RM Multiple-Family Residential Districts are designed to provide sites for multiple family dwelling structures, and related uses, which will generally serve as zones of transition between the non-residential districts and the lower density One-Family Residential Districts. The Multiple-Family Districts are further provided to serve the limited needs for the apartment type of unit in an otherwise low density, single-family community.

Section 700 - Principal Uses Permitted: In a Multiple-Family District no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified uses, unless otherwise provided in the Ordinance:

A. All principal uses permitted and all conditional uses as regulated in the One-Family with the lot area, yards and floor area requirements of single-family dwellings.

B. Multiple-Family dwellings such as but not limited to:

(1) Row houses
(2) Terraces
(3) Apartments

C. Accessory buildings and uses customarily incident to any of the above permitted uses.

Section 701 - Conditional Uses: The following uses may be permitted upon the granting of a permit for such use by the Planning Commission subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed for each use and subject further to such other reasonable conditions which in the opinion of the Planning Commission are necessary to provide adequate protection to the neighborhood and to abutting properties.

A. General hospitals, except those for criminals and those solely for the treatment of persons who are mentally ill or have contagious disease, not to exceed four stories when the following conditions are met:

(1) All such hospitals shall be developed only on sites consisting of at least five acres in area, and shall not be permitted on a lot or lots of record.

(2) The proposed site shall have at least one principal use abutting a major thorofare.

(3) The minimum distance of any main or accessory building from bounding lot lines or streets shall be at least forty feet for front, rear, and side yards for all two story structures. For every story above two, the minimum yard distance shall be increased by at least ten feet.

(4) Ambulance and delivery areas shall be obscured from all residential view with an obscuring wall or fence six feet in height. Ingress and egress to the site shall be directly from a major thorofare.

(5) All ingress and egress to the off-street parking area, for guests, employees, staff, as well as any other uses of the facilities, shall be directly from a major thorofare.

B. Convalescent homes, not to exceed a height of two stories, when the following conditions are met:

(1) The site shall be so developed as to create a land to building ratio on the lot or parcel whereby for each one bed in the convalescent home there shall be provided no less than fifteen hundred (1,500) square feet of open space. The fifteen hundred square feet of land area per bed shall provide for landscape setting, off-street parking, service drive, loading space, yard requirements, enjoyree facilities, and any space required for accessory uses. The fifteen hundred square feet requirement is over and above the building coverage area.

(2) No building shall be closer than forty feet from any property line.

C. Housing for the elderly, when the following conditions are met:

(1) All housing for the elderly shall be provided as a planned development and shall provide for the following:

(a) Cottage type dwellings and/ or apartment type dwelling units.
(b) Common services containing, but not limited to, central dining rooms, recreational rooms, central lounge, and workshops.

(2) All dwellings shall consist of at least two hundred and fifty square feet per unit.

(3) The minimum requirements of the "SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS" for the District in which such use is located shall control lot coverage, yard setbacks and other site aspects.

D. Accessory buildings and uses customarily incident to any of the above uses.

Section 702 - Required Conditions: All principal uses permitted and all conditional uses in the Article VIII shall be permitted only after review and approval of the site plan by the Planning Commission. Subsequent development of the site shall comply with the approved site plan. Such review is required in order to [illegible] minimize the possibility of adverse [illegible] and to develop proper relationships between development features as they relate to traffic safety of service roads, driveways and parking areas and also to relate principal buildings, accessory buildings and uses, and open spaces one to another, and to the traffic pattern effective within and surrounding such development.

Section 703 - Area and Bulk Requirements:
See Article XVI Schedule of Regulations

ARTICLE VIII - B-C Central Business District

Preamble: The B-C Central Business District is designed to provide for office buildings and the great variety of large retail stores and related activities which occupy the prime retail frontage by service and the compaction, convenience and service needs of the entire municipal areas as well as a substantial area of the adjacent and surrounding residential developments and agricultural area beyond the municipal limits. The district regulations are designed to promote convenient pedestrian shopping and stability of retail development by encouraging a continuous retail frontage and by prohibiting automotive related services and non-retail uses which tend to break up such continuity.

Section 800. Principal Uses Permitted: In a Central Business District, no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified uses, unless otherwise provided in this Ordinance.

(10) Any production, processing, cleaning, servicing, testing, repair, or storage of materials, goods, or products which shall conform with the standards set forth in Section 1002 Required Conditions and which shall not be injurious or offensive to the occupants of adjacent premises by reason of the emission or creation of noise, vibration, smoke, dust or other particulae matter, toxic and noxious materials, odors, fire or explosive hazards, or glare or heat.

(11) Storage facilities for building materials, sand, gravel, stone, lumber, open storage of contractor's equipment and supplies; provided such is enclosed within a building or on obscuring wall or fence on those sides abutting all Residential, Business Districts, and on any front yard abutting a public thoroughfare. In any ID District the extent of such fence or wall may be determined by the Board of Appeals on the basis of usage. Such fence or wall shall not be less than six feet in height, and may, depending on land usage, be required to be eight feet in height.

B. All public utilities, including buildings, necessary structures, storage yards and other related uses.

C. Non-accessory signs shall be permitted in accordance with the requirements set forth in Section 1104.

D. Accessory buildings, caretaker homes and uses customarily incident to any of the above permitted uses.

E. Other uses of a similar character subject to such conditions, requirements and safeguards as set forth in Section 1002.

Section 1001 - Uses Subject to Special Conditions: The following uses may be permitted upon the granting of a permit for such use by the Planning Commission subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed for each use and subject further to such other reasonable conditions which in the opinion of the Planning Commission are necessary to provide adequate protection to the neighborhood and to abutting properties.

A. Uses permitted in the General Business Districts when such uses are for the convenience of persons in the ID Industrial District, subject to the regulations applicable to such uses.

B. Auto repair stations and undercoating shops when completely enclosed.

C. Lumber and planning mills when completely enclosed and when located so that no property line shall form the exterior boundary [illegible] abuts a Residential District.

D. Incineration of garbage or refuse when conducted within an approved and enclosed incinerator plant.

E. Metal Plating, buffing and polishing, subject to appropriate measures to control the type of fumes to prevent noxious results and/ or nuisance.

F. Any of the following uses provided that they shall be located not less than four hundred feet distant from any residential district.

(1) Blast furnaces, steel furnaces, blooming or rolling mills.

(2) Smelting of copper, iron or zinc ore.

(3) Manufacture of corrosive acid or alkai, cement, lime, gypsum, or Plaster of Paris.

G. Junk yards and places so called for the dismantling, wrecking and disposing of the junk and/ or refuse material of agricultural and automotive vehicles may be granted.

Permits or licenses for one year periods upon authorized inspection and approval of the Building Inspector, whose approval shall be based on the Performance Standards set forth in Section 1002 of this Ordinance, provided such use is not closer than three hundred feet from the border of any ID District.

H. Nonaccessory signs shall be permitted in accordance with requirements set forth in Section 1104.

I. Other uses, which in the determination of the Planning Commission are of a similar character to the above uses, and subject to the requirements set forth in Section 1302.

J. Accessory buildings and uses customarily incident to any of the above permitted uses.

Section 1002 - Required Conditions: Any use established in the Id or in any other District after the effective date of this Ordinance shall be operated so as to comply with the following performance standards.

A. Noise - Maximum permissible sound - pressure levels at the lot line, or any point beyond, for noise radiating continuously from a facility between the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m.

Frequency Band Cycles per second	Sound Pressure Level Decibels re 0.0002 dyne/ cm2
20 - 75	-49
75 - 150	-54
150 - 300	-47
300 - 600	-41
600 - 1,200	-37
1,200 - 2,400	-34
2,400 - 4,800	-31
4,800 - 10,000	-38

If the sound is not smooth or continuous and is not radiated between the hours of 10:00 P.M. and 7:00 A.M., one or more of the corrections in Table I shall be added or subtracted from each of the decibel levels given above:

TABLE I

Type of Operation or Character of Noise	Correction in Decibels
Day time operation only	Plus 5+
Noise source operates less than 20% of any one hour period	Plus 5+
Noise source operates less than 5% of any one hour period	Plus 10+
Noise source operates less than 1% of any one hour period	Plus 15+
Noise of Impulsive type (Hammer)	Minus 5+
Noise of periodic type (Hum, etc)	Minus 5+

+ Apply ONE correction ONLY

B. Toxic Gases - Industrial uses shall emit no noxious, toxic or corrosive fumes or gases, in such concentrations as to be detrimental to or endanger the public health, safety, comfort, or welfare or cause injury to property or business.

C. Heat and Glare -

(1) No industrial use shall carry on any operation that would produce heat or glare beyond the boundary line of the ID District

(2) No industrial use shall use industrial lighting in a manner that produces glare on public highways and/ or neighboring property.

D. Wastes - Disposal of all wastes shall comply with the Village of Britton Sewer Ordinance and any amendments thereto.

E. Open Storage - The open storage of any industrial equipment, vehicles and all material including wastes, shall be screened from public view, from a public street by an enclosure consisting of an obscuring wall or fence not less than six feet in height. Whenever such open storage is adjacent to a residential zone in either a front, side or rear lot line relationship, whether immediately abutting or across a right-of-way from such zone, there shall be provided an obscuring wall or wood fence of at least six feet in height.

Section 1003 - Area and Bulk Requirements:
See Article XVI Schedule of Regulations.

ARTICLE XI - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 1100 - Conflicting Regulations: Whenever any provision of this Ordinance imposes more stringent requirements, regulations, restrictions or limitations than are imposed or required by the provisions of any other law or ordinance, then the provisions of this Ordinance shall govern. Wherever the provisions of any other law or ordinance impose more stringent requirements than are imposed or required by this Ordinance, then the provisions of such law or ordinance shall govern.

Section 1101 - Scope: No building or structure, or part thereof, shall hereafter be erected, constructed or altered and maintained and no new use or change shall be made or maintained of any building, structure or land, or part thereof, except in conformity with the provisions of the Ordinance.

Section 1101 - Nonconforming Lots, Nonconforming Uses of Land, Nonconforming Structures, and Nonconforming Uses of Structures and Premises:

A. Intent - Within the Districts established by this Ordinance or amendments that may later be adopted there exists lots, structures, and uses of land and structures which were lawful before this Ordinance was passed or amended, but which would be prohibited, regulated, or restricted under the terms of this Ordinance or future amendment.

It is the intent of this Ordinance to permit these nonconformities to continue until they are removed, but not to encourage their survival. Such uses are declared by this Ordinance to be incompatible with permitted uses in the Districts involved. It is further the intent of this Ordinance that nonconformities shall not be enlarged upon, expanded or extended, nor be used as grounds for adding other structures or uses prohibited elsewhere in the same District.

A nonconforming use of a structure, or use of land, or use of a structure and land shall not be extended or enlarged after passage of this Ordinance by attachment from off the premises, or by the addition of other uses of a nature which would be prohibited generally in the District involved.

A nonconforming use of a structure, or use of land, or use shall thereafter conform to the regulations for the District in which it is located after it is moved.

E. Nonconforming Uses of Structures and Land - If a lawful use of a structure, or of structures and land in combination, exists at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this Ordinance, that would not be allowed in the District under the terms of this Ordinance, the lawful use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

(1) No existing structure devoted to a use not permitted by this Ordinance in the District in which it is located shall be enlarged, extended, constructed, reconstructed, moved or structurally altered except in changing the use of the structure to a use permitted in the District in which it is located.

(2) Any nonconforming use may be extended throughout any parts of a building which were manifestly arranged or designed for such use and which existed at the time of adoption or amendment of this Ordinance, but no such use shall be extended to occupy any land outside such building.

(3) If no structural alterations are made, any nonconforming use of a structure, or structure and premises, may be changed to another nonconforming use provided that the Board of Appeals, either by general rule or by making findings in the specific case shall find that the proposed use is equally or more appropriate or more appropriate to the District than the existing nonconforming use. In permitting such change, the Board of Appeals may require appropriate conditions and safeguards in accord with the purpose and intent of this Ordinance.

(4) Any structure, or structure and land in combination, in or on which a nonconforming use is superseded by a permitted use, shall thereafter conform to the regulations for the District in which such structure is located, and the nonconforming use may not thereafter be resumed.

(5) When a nonconforming use of a structure, or structure and premises in combination, is discontinued or ceases to exist for six consecutive months or for eighteen months during any three year period, the structure, or structure and premises in combination, shall not thereafter be used except in conformance with the regulations of the District in which it is located. Structures occupied by seasonal uses shall be excepted from this provision.

(6) Where nonconforming use status applies to a structure and premises in combination, removal or destruction of the structure shall eliminate the nonconforming status of the land.

F. Repairs and Maintenance - On any building devoted in whole or in part to any nonconforming use, work may be done in any period of twelve consecutive months on ordinary repairs, or on repair or replacement of nonbearing walls, fixtures, wiring or plumbing to an extent not exceeding fifty percent of the assessed value of the building, provided that the cubic content of the building as it existed at the time of passage or amendment of this Ordinance shall not be increased. Nothing in this Ordinance shall be deemed to prevent the strengthening or restoring to a safe condition of any building or part thereof declared to be unsafe by an official charged with protection of the public safety, upon order of such official.

G. Uses Under Exception Provisions Not Nonconforming Uses - Any use for which a general exception or conditional use approval is required as provided in this Ordinance shall not be deemed a nonconforming use, but shall without further action be deemed a conforming use in such District.

H. Change of Tenancy or Ownership - There may be a change of tenancy, ownership or management of any existing nonconforming uses of land, structures and premises provided there is no change in the nature or character of such nonconforming uses except in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 1103 - Accessory Buildings:

A. Accessory buildings, except as otherwise permitted in this Ordinance shall be subject to the following regulations:

(1) Where the accessory building is structurally attached to a main building, it shall be subject to, and must conform to, all yard regulations of this Ordinance, applicable to main buildings.

(2) A building accessory to a residential building shall not be erected in any required yard except a rear yard.

(3) A building accessory to a residential building may occupy not more than twenty-five percent of a required rear yard, plus twenty percent of any nonrequired rear yard, provided that in no instance shall the accessory building exceed one-half the area of the rear yard or main building.

(4) A detached building accessory to a residential building shall not be located closer than ten feet to any main building nor shall it be located closer than three feet to any side or rear lot line. In those instances where the rear lot line is coterminous with an alley right-of-way, the accessory building shall be located a closer than one foot to such rear lot line. In no instance shall an accessory structure be located within a dedicated easement right-of-way.

(5) No detached accessory building in an RA, BC, BI District shall exceed one story of fifteen feet in height. Accessory buildings in all other Districts may be constructed to equal the permitted maximum height of structures in said Districts, subject to Board of Appeals review and approval when such structures exceed two stories in height.

(6) When a building accessory to a residential building is located on a corner lot, the side lot line of which is substantially a continuation of the front lot line of the lot to its rear, said building shall not project beyond the front yard line required on the lot in rear of such corner lot. When an accessory building is located on a corner lot, the side lot line of which is substantially a continuation of the side lot line of the lot to its rear, said building shall not project beyond the side yard line of the lot in the rear of such corner lot.

(7) When an accessory building, in any Residence or Business, District is intended for other than the storage of private motor vehicles the accessory use shall be subject to the Approval of the Board of Appeals.

Section 1104 - Signs

A. Where permitted, no sign shall be constructed or erected prior to the issuance of a Permit by the Building Inspector, and shall comply with the Building Officials Conference of America Standard Building Code, and shall further comply with the following requirements:

(1) No freestanding, accessory or non-accessory sign shall be erected or altered until approved by the Building Inspector and a permit issued.

(2) Signs shall be expressly prohibited from locating in or overhanging all public rights-of-way and dedicated public easements.

(3) All Signs shall be constructed so as to withstand normal wind forces encountered in the area. All signs shall be properly maintained and shall not be allowed to become unsightly through disrepair or action of the elements.

(4) All directional signs required for the purpose of orientation when established by the Village, County, or State governments, shall be permitted in all use Districts.

(5) No signs shall be located on any street curb which would obscure the vision of drivers using said streets, or conflict with traffic control signals at the intersection of any street.

(6) Signs used for advertising land or buildings for rent, lease, and/ or sale shall be permitted when located on the land or building intended to be rented, leased and/ or sold. Said signs shall not exceed a dimension of six square feet. Such signs shall be removed immediately after the property is sold, rented or leased.

(7) Non-accessory signs shall be permitted only in Industrial Districts.

(8) The Board of Appeals may, upon application by the property owner, modify the area of sign permitted where, in unusual circumstances, no good purpose would be served by compliance with the requirements of this Section.

B. The following requirements shall apply to the various use Districts as indicated:

USE DISTRICT	REQUIREMENTS
RA, RM	For each dwelling unit, one name plate not exceeding two sq. feet in area, indicating name of occupant. For rental and/ or management offices in a multiple housing development, one identification sign not over six sq. ft.
BC AND BG	No sign shall project beyond or overhang the wall, or any permanent architectural feature by more than one foot, and shall not project above or beyond the highest point of the roof or parapet. Freestanding accessory signs or advertising pylons shall not be over twenty feet in height. Such signs shall not be placed closer than two hundred feet to any adjacent residential District in a BC District and one hundred feet in a BG District. Freestanding, accessory signs shall not be over three hundred sq. ft. in area, but may be located in the required front yard provided that the bottom of the structure, excluding supporting structure, is at least eight feet above grade.
ID Districts	No sign shall project beyond or overhang the wall, or any permanent architectural feature by more than one ft. Non-accessory signs shall be permitted but shall be spaced no closer than 1000 feet between signs on the same side of the right-of-way. Freestanding, non-accessory signs, not to exceed three hundred sq. ft, in area are allowed, but shall comply with all requirements of this Ordinance. Freestanding, accessory signs, not to exceed three hundred sq. ft. in area, may be located in the required front yard provided that the bottom of the structure, (excluding supporting structure) is at least eight feet above grade.

C. Advertising signs pertaining to real estate developments located within the Village and designed to promote the sale of lots or homes within a subdivision located within the Village shall be permitted by the Building Inspector on a temporary basis provided the following conditions are met:

(1) Such signs shall be considered as accessory when located on the parcel of land being developed and as non-accessory when located elsewhere.

(2) Such accessory signs shall not exceed one hundred sq. feet in area. Those which are freestanding shall comply with This Ordinance if located on subdivided land. If located on unsubdivided land, the yard requirements need not apply.

(3) Such non-accessory signs shall not exceed sixty feet in area, shall not be located upon subdivided land, but may be located within a required yard. Non-accessory signs advertising the same real estate development shall be spaced no closer than 2,000 feet on the same side of the right-of-way.

(4) For all such non-accessory signs, a cash bond shall be filed with the Building Inspector by the applicant to guarantee the proper maintenance of the sign over the period for which the permit is issued and for removal of the sign after the expiration date of the permit. Such cash bond shall be in the amount of twenty-five dollars for each sign approved. In the event that the applicant fails to maintain in any sign properly, such bond shall be forfeited and the applicant shall be required to remove the sign.

(5) A temporary permit for a period of two years shall be obtained for each non-accessory sign from the Building Inspector upon the same conditions as set forth in (4) above. An inspection fee of two dollars shall be paid to the Building Inspector for each sign at the time of the original permit and at each renewal thereof.

(6) For all such accessory signs, the same provisions as provided in (4) above shall apply except that if the applicant contemplates the construction of four or more such signs, the maximum cash bond required shall be one hundred dollars.

(7) A temporary permit for a period of two years shall be obtained for such accessory signs from the Building Inspector upon the same conditions as set forth in (4) above and (6) above. If, however, the applicant contemplates the construction of four or more such accessory signs, a maximum inspection fee of twenty dollars shall be paid to the Building Inspector for all such signs at the time of the original application.

Section 1105 - Site Plan Review and Approval

It is recognized by this Ordinance that there is a value to the public in establishing safe and convenient traffic movement to higher density sites, both within the site and in relation to access streets; that there is value in encouraging a harmonious relationship of buildings and uses both within a site and in relation to adjacent uses; further that there are benefits to this public in conserving natural resources. Toward this end, this Ordinance requires site plan review by the Planning Commission for certain buildings and structures that can be expected to have a significant impact on natural resources, traffic patterns, and on adjacent land usage.

1. Buildings, Structures, and Uses Requiring Site Plan:

The Zoning Inspector shall not issue a zoning compliance permit for the construction of the buildings and structures identified in this section unless a detailed site plan has been reviewed and approved by the Planning Commission and such approval is in effect.

a. Multiple-family building containing six (6) or more dwelling units.

b. More than one multiple-family building on a lot, parcel, or tract of land, or on a combination of lots under one ownership.

c. A mobile home park.

d. An office in any Residential District.

e. Any gasoline service station abutting a Residential District.

2. Application and Fee for Site Plan Review:

Any person may file a request for a site plan review by the Planning Commission by filing with the clerk the completed application upon the forms furnished by the Clerk and payment of a fee established by resolution of the Village. As an integral part of said application, the applicant shall file at least four (4) copies of a site plan.

3. Planning Commission Review of Site Plan:

Upon receipt of such application from the Clerk, the Planning Commission shall undertake a study of the same and shall, within thirty (30) days, approve or disapprove the site plan, advising applicant in writing of the recommendation, including any changes or modifications in the proposed site plan as are needed to achieve conformity to the standards specified in this Ordinance.

4. Required Data for Site Plan:

Every site plan submitted to the Planning Commission shall be in accordance with the following requirements:

a. The site plan shall be of a scale not to be greater than one (1) inch equals twenty (20) feet nor less than one (1) inch equals two hundred (200) feet, and of such accuracy that the Planning Commission can readily interpret the site plan, and shall include more than one drawing where required for clarity.

b. The property shall be identified by lot lines and location, including dimensions, angles and size, and correlated with the legal description of said property. Such plan shall further include the name and address of the property owner, developer, and designer.

c. The site plan shall show the scale; north point; boundary dimensions; topography at least two foot contour intervals; and natural features, such as, wood, lots, streams, rivers, lakes, drains, and similar features.

d. The site plan shall show existing man-made features, such as buildings; structures, high tension towers, pipe lines, and existing utilities, such as, water and sewer lines, excavations, bridges, culvers and locations, and easements, and shall identify adjacent properties and their existing uses.

e. The site plan shall show the location, proposed finished floor and grade line elevations, size of proposed principal and accessory buildings, their relation one to another and to any existing structure on the site, the height of all buildings, and square feet of floor space. Site plans for residential development shall include a density schedule showing the number of dwelling units per net acre, including a dwelling schedule showing the unit type and number of each unit type.

f. The site plan shall show the proposed streets, driveways, sidewalks, and other vehicular and pedestrian circulation features within and adjacent to the site; also, the location, size and number of parking spaces in the off-street parking area, and the identification of service lanes and service parking.

g. The site plan shall show the proposed location, use, and size of open spaces; and the location of any landscaping, fences, or walls on the site. Any proposed alterations to the topography and other natural features shall be indicated. The site plan shall further show any proposed location of connections to existing utilities and proposed extensions thereof.

h. A vicinity map shall be submitted showing the location of the site in relation to the surrounding street system.

5. Standards for Site Plan Review:

In reviewing the site plan, the Planning Commission shall ascertain whether the proposed site plan is consistent with all regulations of this Ordinance. Further, in consideration of each site plan, the Planning Commission shall find the provisions of subsection 4 of this Ordinance as well as the provisions of the zoning district in which said buildings, structures and uses as indicated in the proposed site plan have been satisfactorily demonstrated and met by the applicant.

6. Village of Britton Approval of Site Plan:

Upon the Planning Commission recommended approval of a site plan, the applicant shall file with the Planning Commission one (1) copy thereof. The Clerk shall within ten (10) days transmit to the Zoning Inspector one (1) copy with the Clerk's certificate affixed thereto, certifying that all approved site plan conforms to the provisions of this Ordinance as determined. If the site plan is disapproved by the Planning Commission, notification of such disapproval shall be given to the applicant within ten (10) days after such action. The Zoning Inspector shall not issue a zoning compliance permit until he has received a certified approved site plan.

7. Expiration of Site Plan Certificate:

The site plan certificate shall be void after one (1) year, and be of no effect, three hundred sixty-five (365) days after the date of issuance thereof, unless within such time the Zoning Inspector has issued a zoning compliance permit for any proposed work authorized under a said site plan certificate.

8. Amendment, Revision of Site Plan:

A site plan, and site plan certificate, issued thereon, may be amended by the Planning Commission upon request of the applicant. All amendment shall be made upon application. Any fees paid in connection with such application may be waived or refunded at the discretion of the Planning Commission.

SECTION 1106

GENERAL MOBILE HOME PARK SITE AND DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS

A. SIGNES

1. One (1) identification sign, approved in conjunction with the final site plan approval of the mobile home park. In no case shall such sign be larger than fifty (50) sq. feet in surface area nor have any moving parts, nor stand higher than fifteen (15) feet from the ground to the top of the sign. Such signs shall be no closer to the public right-of-way line than twenty (20) feet.

2. Not more than one (1) entry and one (1) exit sign at each access drive onto the public right-of-way, may be permitted in conjunction with the final site plan approval of the mobile home park. In no case shall the sign be larger than two (2) square feet in surface area, nor have any moving parts, nor stand higher than five (5) feet from the ground to the top of the sign.

B. ACCESS. All mobile home parks shall have access to a paved County Primary road as designated by the Lenawee County Road Commission, and/ or a paved State Primary road as designated by the Department.

C. PARKING, STREETS AND WALKS. All roads, driveways and motor vehicle parking spaces shall be paved and constructed so as to handle all anticipated peak loads and shall be adequately drained and lighted for safety and ease of movement of pedestrians and vehicles. All roads and driveways shall have curbing and gutters. All road maintenance in the mobile home park and snow removal shall be the responsibility of the park operator.

1. There shall be provided at least two (2) automobile parking spaces for each mobile home site, these spaces shall have a minimum dimensions of ten (10) feet by twenty (20) feet.

2. Minimum widths of roadways (curb face to curb face) shall be as follows:

Motor Vehicle	Traffic Use	Minimum Pavement Width
a. Parking Prohibited	2 Way Road	22 feet
b. Parallel Parking on one side only	1 Way Road	22 feet
c. Parallel Parking on two sides	1 Way Road	28 feet
d. Parallel Parking on two sides	2 Way Road	38 feet

3. When a Cul-de-sac Drive is provided, the radius of such roadway loop shall be a minimum of fifty (50) feet, curb face to curb face, with the drive length a maximum of three hundred (300) feet.

4. All lots shall have sidewalks along the front of each lot and from patio to the front sidewalk. Walkways shall not be less than three (3) feet in width and on both sides of any street.

5. The local roadway system should be so constructed so as to prevent the use of such roadway system for through traffic.

D. UTILITIES AND OTHER SERVICES. All utilities in the park shall conform in all respects with all codes of the State of Michigan and Britton Village.

1. All mobile homes within such park shall be suitably connected to sewer and water services provided at each mobile home site.

a. All sanitary sewage facilities, including plumbing connections to each mobile home site, shall be constructed so that all facilities and lines are protected from freezing, from bumping or from damaging any type of nuisance or health hazard. Sewage facilities shall be of such capacity as to serve adequately all users of the park at a peak periods. Running water from a State tested and approved supply, designed for a minimum flow of two hundred (200) gallons per day per mobile home site shall be piped to each mobile home. Sewer connections shall not exceed ten (10) feet in length above ground.

b. Storm drainage facilities shall be so constructed as to protect those that will reside in the middle home park as well as the property owners adjacent to the park. Such park facilities shall be of such capacity as to insure rapid drainage and prevent the accumulation of stagnant pools of water in or adjacent to the park.

2. All garbage and trash containers shall be placed in conveniently located structures of uniform design.

3. All electric, telephone and other lines from supply poles outside the park or other sources to each mobile home site shall be underground.

4. Any fuel oil and/ or gas storage shall be centrally located in underground tanks at a distance away from any mobile home site as approved by the fire chief. All fuel lines leading to the park and to mobile home sites shall be underground and so designed as to conform with the Britton Village Building Code and any State code that may be applicable. When separate meters are installed each meter shall be located in a uniform manner. The use of individual fuel oil or propane gas storage tanks to supply each mobile home separately is prohibited.

5. All television shall be connected to cable TV or to a master antenna system. No individual antennas shall be allowed.

6. Street lights shall be placed at all corners and at regular intervals of not less than one hundred (100) feet.

E. SKIRTING, CANOPIES AND AWNINGS.

1. Each mobile home must be skirted within 90 days after establishment in a mobile home park.

2. Such skirting shall be of 26 gauge metal, aluminum or other non-corrosive metal or material of equal strength and so constructed and attached to the mobile home so as to deter and prevent the entry of rodents, flies, bugs or other insects.

3. Permits for the construction of skirting shall be required from the Building Inspector.

4. Canopies and awnings may be attached to any mobile home, but they shall not exceed twelve (12) feet in width, or length, or the height of the mobile home.

5. A permit shall not be required for construction or erection of canopies or awnings which are open on three (3) sides. However, a permit shall be required from the Building Inspector before construction or erection of any screened, glassed-in or otherwise enclosed awning or canopy.

6. All steps must be of metal or concrete.

G. GENERAL SITE REQUIREMENTS.

1. Open Area. An open area shall be provided on each mobile home site to insure privacy, adequate natural light and ventilation to each home and to provide sufficient area for recreation essential to the mobile home. All sites shall contain a minimum area of at least four thousand (4000) sq. feet. All such trailer site areas shall be computed exclusive of service drives, facilities, and recreation spaces.

2. Determination of Yards. Yard width shall be measured from the required mobile home stand to the individual mobile lot line, at every point. It shall be at least equal to the required minimum. Expandable rooms, enclosed patios, garages, or structural additions shall be respected in the yard requirements. Patios, carports, and individual storage facilities shall be disregarded in determining yard widths.

a. The sum or the side yards at the entry side and non-entry side of a mobile home stand shall be not less than twenty (20) feet; provided, however, there shall be a side yard of not less than fifteen (15) feet at the entry side of the mobile home stand and a side yard of not less than five (5) feet at the non-entry side of the mobile stand. There shall be a front yard of not less than ten (10) feet at the front end of the mobile home stand. For irregularly shaped side yards, the sum is determined as the sum of the average width of each side yard, provided that the required minimums above are maintained at all points in the side yard.

b. No mobile home shall be located closer than fifty (50) feet to the right-of-way line of a major thoroughfare, or twenty (20) feet to any mobile home park property line.

c. The minimum separation between mobile homes shall be twenty (20) feet in any direction.

d. From all stands, the following minimum distances must be maintained;

1. Ten (10) feet to the buffer strip.
2. Twenty-five (25) feet to the park boundary or public right-of-way.
3. Fifty (50) feet to any mobile home park structure.
4. Eight (8) feet to any mobile park walkway.
5. Fifteen (15) feet to any public parking lot located within the mobile home park.

3. The holder of the permit for the park shall maintain the physical and natural facilities and features of the park in neat, orderly and safe manner at all times.

H. Individual Lot Requirements.

1. Each mobile home site shall be provided with a stand consisting of a solid concrete pad, or concrete ribbons with visqueen and crushed stone between ribbons, not less than four (4) inches thick, sixty (60) feet in length and twelve (12) feet in width. The pad shall be so constructed, graded and placed as to be durable and adequate for the support of the maximum anticipated load during all season.

2. Each mobile home shall be supported on uniform jacks or blocks supplied by the mobile home park management.

3. An all-weather hard surfaced outdoor patio area of not less than one hundred (100) square feet shall be provided at each mobile home site, conveniently located to the entrances of the mobile home and appropriately related to open areas of the lot and other facilities, for the purpose of providing suitable outdoor living space to supplement the limited interior space of a mobile home.

I. Fire Extinguishing Equipment. Every mobile home park shall be equipped at all times with fire extinguishing equipment in good working order, of such type, size and number and so located within the park as to satisfy applicable regulations of the State Fire Marshall. No open fires shall be permitted at any place which may endanger life or property. No fires shall be left unattended at any time.

J. Utility Cabinets. Each mobile home may be provided with one metal utility cabinet, which shall be uniform as to size and location throughout the mobile home park site. All cabinets shall be kept clean and shall be maintained in good condition and kept painted and shall contain a minimum of ninety (90) cubic feet of storage area.

H. Buffers, Landscaping and Recreation.

1. A ten (10) foot green belt shall be located and continually maintained along all park borders, except for exits and entrances. This green belt shall consist of trees and shrubs to provide privacy for the mobile home residents and to visually screen the mobile homes from surrounding property. A four (4) foot six (6) inch fence shall be erected to separate the park from adjacent property.

2. Any and all plantings in the park shall be hardy plant materials and maintained thereafter in a neat and orderly manner. Withered and/ or dead plant material shall be replaced within a reasonable period of time, but no longer than one (1) growing season.

3. A recreation space of at least one hundred fifty (150) square feet per mobile home site in the park shall be developed and maintained by the management. This area shall not be less than one hundred (100) feet in its smallest dimension and its boundary convenient for any mobile home site served. Streets, sidewalks, parking spaces and buildings are nto to be included as recreation space in computing the necessary area.

4. Each lot is to be seeded with grass by the park operator and it will be his responsibility to see that all lawns are maintained.

L. On-Site Laundry Drying Space. On-site outdoor laundry drying space of adequate area and suitable location, shall be provided if the park is not furnished with indoor dryers or if use of indoor dryers is not generally acceptable to prospective occupants. Where outdoor drying space is required or desired, individual clothes drying facilities on each lot of the collapsable umbrella type of hanging apparatus shall be provided in the rear yard only, with park management providing a concrete-imbedded socket at each site.

SECTION 1107 PARKING REQUIREMENTS:

There shall be provided at the time of erection or enlargement of any main building or structure, automobile off-street parking space with adequate access to all spaces. The number of off-street parking spaces, in conjunction with all land or building uses shall be provided, prior to the issuance of a certificate of occupancy, as hereinafter prescribed.

1. Off-street parking for other than residential use shall be either on the same lot or within four hundred (400) feet of the building it is intended to serve, measured from the nearest point of the building to the nearest point of the off-street parking lot. Ownership shall be shown of all lots of parcels intended for use as parking by the applicant.

2. Residential off-street parking spaces shall consist of parking strip, driveway garage, or combination thereof and shall be located on the premises they are intended to serve.

3. Any area once designated as required off-street parking shall not be changed to any other use unless and until equal facilities are provided elsewhere.

SECTION 1108 - CONDITIONAL USES

The formulation and enactment of this Ordinance is based upon the division of the Village of Britton into districts in each of which are permitted specified uses which are mutually compatible. In addition to such permitted compatible uses, however, there are certain other uses which may be necessary or desirable to allow in certain locations in certain districts, but because of their actual or potential impact on neighboring uses or public facilities, need to be carefully regulated with respect to their location for the protection of the Village of Britton. Such uses, on account of their peculiar locational need or the nature of the service offered, may have to be established in a district in which they cannot be reasonably allowed as a permitted use.

1. Authority to Grant Permits

The Planning Commission, as hereinafter provided, shall have the authority to recommend to the Village of Britton to grant conditional use permits, subject to such conditions of design, operation, and safeguards as the Village of Britton may determine for all conditional uses specified in the various district provisions of this Ordinance.

2. Application and Fee.

Application for any conditional use permit permissible under the provisions of this Ordinance shall be made to the Planning Commission through the Village of Britton Clerk by filling in an official conditional use permit application form; submitting required data, exhibits, and information; and depositing the required fee as established by resolution of the Village of Britton, except that no fee shall be required of any governmental body or Agency. No part of such fee shall be returnable to the applicant.

3. Date, Exhibits, and Information Required in Application:

An application for a conditional use permit shall contain the applicant's name and address in full, a statement that the applicant is the owner involved or is acting on the owner's behalf, the address of the property involved; an accurate survey drawing of said property showing the existing and proposed location of all structures thereon, the types thereof, and their uses; and a statement supporting the required fee information, and evidence regarding the required findings set forth in this Ordinance.

4. Public Hearings:

The Planning Commission shall hold a public hearing upon any application for a conditional use permit, notice of which shall be given by one (1) publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the Village of Britton, within fifteen (15) days but not less than three (3) days next preceding the date of such hearing.

5. Required Standards and Findings for Making Determinations:

The Planning Commission shall review the particular circumstances and facts of each proposed use in terms of the following standards and required findings, and shall find and record adequate data, information, and evidence showing that such a use on the proposed site, lot, or parcel meets the following requirements:

a. Will be harmonious with an in accordance with the general objectives, intent, and purposes of this Ordinance.

b. Will be designed, constructed, operated, maintained, and managed so as to be harmonious and appropriate in appearance with existing or intended character of the general vicinity.

c. Will be served adequately by essential public facilities and services, such as: highways, streets, police and fire protection, drainage structures, refuse disposal, or that the persons or agencies responsible for the establishment of the proposed use shall be able to provide adequately any such services.

d. Will not be hazardous or disturbing to existing or future neighboring uses.

e. Will not create excessive additional requirements at public costs for public facilities and services.

6. Determination and Imposition of Conditions:

If the facts in the case do not establish beyond a reasonable doubt that the findings and standards set forth in this Ordinance will apply to the proposed use, the Planning Commission shall not recommend to the Village of Britton that said Village of Britton should grant a conditional use permit. In recommending that a conditional use permit should be granted by the Village of Britton, the Planning Commission shall recommend such conditions of use as it deems necessary to protect the best interest of the Village of Britton and the surrounding property, and to achieve the objectives of this Ordinance.

Approval, Grant or Permit:

Upon holding a public hearing the Planning Commission, shall within thirty (30) days from receipt of a request approval or disapproval to the Village of Britton the Village of Britton gives final approval, a conditional use permit shall be issued to the applicant. The Village of Britton shall forward a copy of the permit to the applicant, Clerk, Zoning Inspector, and Planning Commission. The Zoning Inspector shall not issue a zoning compliance permit until he has received a copy of the conditional use permit approved by the Village of Britton.

8. Voiding of Conditional Use Permit:

Any conditional use permit granted under this Ordinance shall become null and void and fees forfeited unless construction and/ or use is commenced within two hundred ten (210) days and completed within five hundred and seventy-five (575) days of the date of issuance.

A violation of a requirement, condition, or safeguard shall be considered a violation of this Ordinance and grounds for the Planning Commission to terminate and cancel such conditional use permit.

ARTICLE XII-GENERAL EXCEPTIONS

Section 1200-Area, Height and Use Exceptions: The regulations in this Ordinance shall be subject to the following interpretations and exceptions:

A. Essential Services-Essential services shall be permitted as authorized and regulated by law and other ordinances of the Village of Britton, it is the intention hereof to exempt such essential services from the application of this Ordinance.

B. Voting Place-The provisions of this Ordinance shall not be so construed as to interfere with the temporary use of any property as a voting place in connection with a municipal or other public election.

C. Height Limit-The height limitations of this Ordinance shall not apply to farm buildings, chimneys, church spires, flag poles, public monuments or wireless transmission towers; provided, however, that the Board of Appeals may specify a height limit for any such structure when such structure requires authorization as a use permitted on special conditions under this Ordinance.

D. Yard Regulations-When yard regulations cannot reasonably be complied with, or where their application cannot be determined on lots existing and of record at the time this Ordinance becomes effective, and on lots of peculiar shape, topography, or due to architectural or site arrangement, such regulations may be modified or determined by the Board of Appeals.

E. Terraces-Open unenclosed architectural features, not including vertical projections, may extend or project into a required side yard not more than three inches for each one foot of width of such side yard; and may extend or project into a required front yard or rear yard not more than three feet. Architectural features shall not include those details which are normally demountable.

ARTICLE XIV
BOARD OF APPEALS

SECTION 1401-BOARD OF APPEALS ESTABLISHED

There is hereby established a Board of Appeals, which shall perform its duties and exercise its powers as provided in Act 207 of the Public Acts of 1921, as amended, in such a way that the objectives of this Ordinance shall be observed, the public health and safety secured, and substantial justice done.

SECTION 1402-DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF APPEALS

The Board of Appeals shall hear and decide only such matters as the Board of Appeals is specifically authorized to pass on as provided in this Ordinance. The Board of Appeals shall not have the power to alter or change the zoning districts classification of any property; nor to make any changes in the terms of this Ordinance; but does have the power to authorize a variance as defined in this Ordinance, to act on those matters where this Ordinance may require an interpretation, and to issue a temporary use permit when authorized by this Ordinance.

SECTION 1403-VARIANCE

The Board of Appeals may authorize, upon an appeal, a variance from the strict applications of the provisions of this Ordinance where by reason of exceptional narrowness, shallowness, shape, or contour of a specific tract of land at the time of enactment of this Ordinance or by reason of exceptional conditions of such property, the strict application of the regulations enacted would result in peculiar or exceptional practical difficulties to, or exceptional undue hardship upon the owner of such property. No variance shall be granted to permit the establishment within a district of any use which is excluded or for which a conditional use permit is required.

A variance from the terms of this Ordinance shall not be granted by the Board of Appeals unless and until:

A. A written application for a variance is submitted, demonstrating the following:

1. That special conditions and circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land, structure, or building involved and which are not applicable to other lands, structures, or buildings in the same district.
2. That literal interpretation of the provisions of this Ordinance would deprive the applicant of rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in the same district under the terms of this Ordinance.
3. That the special conditions and circumstances do not result from the actions of the applicant.
4. That granting the variance requested will not confer on the applicant any special privilege that is denied by this Ordinance to other lands, structures, or buildings in the same district.
5. That no nonconforming use of neighboring lands, structures, or buildings in the same district, and no permitted use of lands, structures, or buildings in other districts shall be considered grounds for the issuance of a variance.

B. The Board of Appeals shall determine that the requirements of the Ordinance have been met by the applicant for a variance.

C. The Board of Appeals shall determine that the reasons set forth in the application justify the granting of the variance, and the variance is the minimum variance that will make possible the reasonable use of the land, building, or structure.

D. The Board of Appeals shall determine that the granting of the variance will be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this Ordinance, and will not be injurious to the neighborhood, or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare.

E. In granting any variance, the Board of Appeals may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards in conformity with this Ordinance. Violations of such conditions and safeguards, when made a part of the terms under which the variance is granted, shall be deemed a violation of this Ordinance.

F. Each variance granted under the provisions of this Ordinance shall become null and void unless:

1. The construction authorized by such variance or permit has been commenced within one hundred eighty (180) days after the granting of such variance and pursued diligently to completion; or
2. The occupancy of land or buildings authorized by such variance has taken place within one hundred eighty (180) days after the granting of such variance.

G. No application for a variance which has been denied wholly or in part by the Board of Appeals shall be resubmitted for a period of three hundred sixty-five (365) days from such denial, except on grounds of new evidence or proof of changed conditions found by the Board of Appeals to be valid.

SECTION 1404-INTERPRETATION OF ZONING ORDINANCE

The Board of Appeals shall hear and decide appeals where it is alleged by the applicant there is an error in any order, requirement, permit, decision, or refusal made by the Zoning Inspector or any other administrative official in carrying out or enforcing any provisions of this Ordinance including interpretations of the Zoning Map.

SECTION 1405-APPEALS TO THE BOARD OF APPEALS

Appeals, How Taken:

Appeals to the Board of Appeals concerning interpretation or enforcement of the provisions of this ordinance may be made to the Board of Appeals within sixty (60) days by filing with the officer from whom such an appeal is taken. This officer shall forthwith transmit to the Board of Appeals all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed was taken.

Who May Appeal:

Appeals to the Board of Appeals may be taken by any person aggrieved or by an officer, department, board, agency, or bureau of the Township, Village, County or State.

Fee for Appeal:

A fee prescribed by the Village Council shall be paid to the Village Clerk at the time of filing the notice of appeal. No part of such fee shall be refundable, but shall be turned over to the General Fund of the Village of Britton.

An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Appeals, after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him, that by notice of appeal shall have been filed with him, that by reason of facts stated in the certificate, a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property, in which case proceedings shall not be stayed other than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Appeals or by the Circuit Court, on application, of notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown.

Notice of Hearing:

When a request for an appeal has been filed in proper form with the Board of Appeals, the Board of Appeal's Secretary or Village Clerk shall immediately place the said request for appeal upon the calendar for hearing, and cause notice, stating the time, place, and object of the hearing to be served personally or by registered return receipt mail at least ten (10) days prior to the date of such hearing, upon the party or parties making the request for appeal.

Representation of Hearing:

Upon the hearing, any party or parties may appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

Decisions of the Board of Appeals and Appeals to the Circuit Court:

The Board of Appeals shall decide upon all matters within a reasonable time and may reverse or affirm wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirment, decision or determination appealed from and shall make such order, requirement, decision or determination as in its opinion ought to be made in the premises and to that end shall have all the powers fo the Zoning Inspector or Council from whom the appeal is taken. The Board of Appeals's decision of such appeals shall be in the form of a resolution containing a full record of the findings and determination of the Board of Appeals in each particular case. Any person having an interest affected by such resolution shall have the right to appeal to the Circuit Court or question of law and fact.

ARTICLE XV
LEGAL STATUS

SECTION 1501-CONFLICT WITH OTHER LAWS

Conflicting laws of a more restrictive nature are not affected or repealed by this Ordinance. The provisions of this Ordinance shall be considered as minimum. Conflicting laws of a less restrictive nature, or those conflicting in other ways than degrees of resirictiveness, are hereby repealed.

This Ordinance is not intended to abrogate or annul any easement, convenant, or other private agreement provided that where any provision of this Ordinance is more restrictive or imposes a higher standard or requirement that such easement, covenant, or other private agreement, the provision of this Ordiance shall govern.

SECTION 1502-VALIDITY AND SEVERABILITY CLAUSE

If any court of competent jurisdiction shall declare any part of this Ordinance to be invalid, such ruling shall not affect any other provisions of this Ordinance not included in said ruling. If any court of competent jurisdiction shall declare invalid the application of any provision of this Ordinance to a particular land, parcel, lot, district, use, building, or structure, such ruling shall not affect the application of said provision to any other land, parcel, lot, district, use, building, or structure not specifically included in said ruling.

SECTION 1503-PERIOD OF EFFECTIVENESS

This Ordinance shall remain in full force and effect henceforth unless repealed.

YIELD TO STRIKERS—Truckers, attempting to leave the Tecumseh Products Friday, backed down as defiant Union members gestured and threatened the drivers. Fortunately, violence was avoided in the strike's most tense moments. (Photo by Cortland Hunt)

VIOLENCE AVERTED IN FRIDAY'S DISPUTE

Angry Strikers Halt Trucks at Products

Violence was averted Friday at the Tecumseh Products Company when two trucks attempted to leave the plant with some factory parts and equipment, only to be turned back into the fenced-in area of the company.

Two out-of-town semi-trailers were permitted to enter the plant early Friday morning but were thwarted by the picketing membership of the United Products Workers Union later in the afternoon when angry striking employees of the company surrounded the trucks and lined area streets in cars, station wagons and pickups.

Ten Tecumseh police officers, including Ray Walton, chief, 10 members of the Adrian police department and 15 deputies of the Lenawee County sheriff's department were at the scene.

An early Friday call was made to the governor's office by Walton and Harold Easton, mayor, for assistance from the state police. The call, required by law in such cases for assistance to local law officials, failed to produce the aid requested.

Authorities at the governor's office were not available and a referral call to headquarters at the state police headquarters in East Lansing lacked the necessary backing from the governor's office, since officials there were not available.

About mid-afternoon, the two trucks pulled into the large parking lot just east of the main plant and headed towards Patterson St. Striking members halted the trucks along with law officials.

Threats and other gestures were made. It was obvious that law officials were far short in number to see that the trucks left safely. Shortly after 4 p.m., the trucks backed up and re-entered the company's fenced-in area.

Earlier in the day, one of the truck drivers reportedly displayed a shot gun upon entering the Products area amid striking members of the Company. Police were called and they seized the gun, which at the time, was in a case.

Tecumseh police still have the gun and await a decision from Harvey Koselka, county prosecutor, in regards to the truck driver having the gun in the tractor of his semi-trailer.

This same truck driver was harassed later in the day but no violence occurred.

About 7 p.m. Friday, the two tractors of the trucks were permitted to leave the area and were escorted to Adrian by county deputies. Tuesday morning a display model for a refrigeration convention in the east, was allowed to leave company grounds.

Friday's demonstrations occurred despite a Union Board's decision to release the trucks and let them pass through the picket lines. Rank and file members, however, did not go along with their board's decision.

All available law officers in the area were at the scene. Only one officer of the Tecumseh force was not there, as all officers were called to duty.

Tecumseh police department has been commended for its efforts, although one officer has come under criticism.

Strikers brought complaints against Gerry Greene, officer, at Monday night's Council meeting. They said the local policeman told one of the truckers to "run over them if they don't move."

On behalf of Council, Mayor Easton said, "We don't condone that action by any of our policemen."

Strikers suggested to city officials at the meeting that Greene not be used on calls to the Tecumseh Products during the strike.

Chief Walton apologized for the officer's actions and said that Greene has been spoken to. He said the officer made the remark as a young officer under stress.

In a reply to councilwoman Mary Bowers, Walton confirmed that local police had been in Adrian twice in the last six months to pick up riot equipment.

Other questions raised before Council were related to the truckers and a company representative.

Citizens wanted to know why the one trucker with the shot gun was not arrested on the spot, if the prosecutor is processing a warrant for his arrest, and why is it taking so long.

Since Friday's day-long disturbance, it has been relatively peaceful at the Products, which was struck by the Union on Nov. 14th.

Make Progress, But -

Considerable progress was made last Thursday in a marathon negotiating session between Union and Company officials attempting to end a strike at the Tecumseh Products.

The session began at 10 a.m. and lasted over 12 hours.

In view of recent developments, no new negotiating sessions are scheduled, and Guy Cox, president of the Union Board, said Wednesday he couldn't predict when negotiations would start again.

Cox indicated the Company's attempt to have parts and equipment moved from the plant Friday, along with another mailing of a Company offer, has dampened hopes for any immediate negotiations.

He said the Union cooperated Tuesday morning in allowing the Company to move a display from its premises for a convention in the east.

Charges Are Denied

A regional director of the National Labor Relations Board has refused to issue a complaint against the Tecumseh Products Company on charges of unfair labor practices, filed by the board of the United Products Workers of Tecumseh.

The Union has asked the General Counsel for a review.

Summary report from the director, basically, is:

Custom of giving turkeys and hams to eligible employees at Christmas time was not a condition of employment.

Posting of a notice that wages negotiated after Nov. 13, 1974, would be retroactive, that such posting was possibly made prior to making the offer to the Union Board, but offer to Union of retroactivity was made at least within two days of posting and became subject of negotiations, and hence, cannot be concluded that employer bargained in bad faith.

And, the Union's assertion that the Company would not award retroactive wage increases if employees engaged in strike action was not supported in the Company's announcement, and in view of lengthy negotiations, numerous meetings and overall good faith bargaining, an isolated statement does not convert a pattern of good faith bargaining to one of bad faith.

The director also advised the Union that it could obtain a review of his action through an appeal with the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board in Washington, D.C.

Ed Rapin, corporate director of industrial relations and personnel at the Products, says "the Company has continualy stated that it has bargained in good faith, and the Union's charges have no merit. The regional director's action in refusing to issue a complaint confirms this fact."

High School Students Face Radical Changes, Cutbacks

by FRANK WEIR

High School principal Dermont Poley told Tecumseh's school Board Monday night that an increase in enrollment for next year will necessitate radical scheduling changes and possible curtailment of some extra-curricular activities.

The difficulty stems from a projected increase of 50 to 60 students for the 1975-76 school year for a maximum of 1,225.

Current enrollment stands at 1,165 and most administrators admit that the junior and senior high is overcrowded at present. The enrollment figures include special education students.

Poley presented the board with a list of three possible solutions and their pros and cons.

Included in the list were: implementation of a split-shift school day where upperclassmen would attend school in the morning and underclassmen in the afternoon in five hour blocks; the introduction of portable classrooms, or adding an hour to the school day.

Poley cited several current problem areas in presenting the possible solutions:

— a "control problem" in the senior high's parking lot caused by non-students or students allowed to leave for an hour because there is no study hall space.
— heavy hall traffic.
— over-crowded lunchroom conditions forcing some students to "sit on the floor" to eat.
— an inadequate library program since a portion of that facility must be used as a study hall.

In elaborating on the control problems, Poley said that some students are allowed to leave the school if they don't have a class one hour but do have the next hour. The school has no extra room for a study hall.

In addition, some non-students loiter just off school property where police cannot insist that they leave. Some vandalism has been reported. Poley stated that they, problem-causing students, are in the minority.

The split-shift plan generated the most discussion among school administrators and board members at the meeting. Poley felt that the plan would alleviate several problems, including the most important ones: the over-crowded conditions as well as student and non-student loitering. No lunch hour would be offered under the plan.

In addition, the split-shift plan would allow broader schedules with classes in various student-interest areas. A career education and implementation program could be started. This program would permit a student to explore passively, and later actively a career he

DON SUNDERLAND

1st Fed Director

Donald G. Sunderland was elected to a three-year term as a director of First Federal of Lenawee at the 86th annual meeting of the Association last week.

Directors also re-elected Allan C. Graybiel as president, a position he has held since 1968, and to a three-year term as a director.

Mr. Sunderland, 43, owner of Sunderland Agency, has been in the insurance business here for the past 14 years. A native of Missouri, he has been a Tecumseh resident for the past 19 years.

He is a former city councilman, serving six years; a former elder of the First Presbyterian Church; and is a past director of the Tecumseh Country Club. He fills a vacancy on the board created by the retirement of Malcolm J. Linehan, a former board chairman of the Association.

Members also re-elected Dr. John H. Dawson, Adrian College president, to a three-year term, and Charles Schwyn, Blissfield, to a two-year term.

Other officers elected were Harold E. Bailey, John Farrell and William Glencorse, vice presidents; Harold Near, treasurer; Nancy C. Wells, secretary; Robert Camburn, Barry W. Marlatt, assistant vice presidents; Helen V. Dyer, assistant treasurer and controller; Sharon Hill, assistant controller; and M. Jayne Davis, Blissfield and Opal Dickinson, Tecumseh, branch managers.

Faraday Adds Line

Faraday, Inc., has acquired Sta-Rite Industries, Inc.'s Webster Teletalk intercom systems and sound product lines.

'Manufacturing and sales will be transferred to the Tecumseh plant and key sales and service people will be joining Faraday here.

Faraday is a major manufacturer of audible signals, fire alarm, clock, and visual nurse call systems.

Robert F. Bell, president, stated that the joining together of these two well-established product lines, to be sold through common channels of distribution, will contribute greatly to Faraday's market position and growth potential providing a single source of distribution.

The Teletalk operations will be moved to Tecumseh during the next three months.

Mr. Bell anticipates that the new product lines will initially provide additional employment for Faraday of approximately 35 people, with potential increases to follow. He also stated that the new products will facilitate Faraday's introduction of audio communications as part of its fire alarm systems.

Admission for children is $1.50 in advance or $1.75 at the door; adult tickets are $2.75 in advance and $3 at the door.

Senior citizens are invited to the dress rehearsal Thursday, Jan. 23 at 8 p.m. Admission is $1 at the door.

Special recognition is given to seven people who have been involved with the Follies for the 10 full years; Dyke and Claire Helms, June and John Day, Walt and Norma Wonderly and Betty Flanders.

Claire Helms and Norma Wonderly have participated in all 10 performances.

The 15 finalists in the Little Miss Follies contest are, Cynthia Barnes, Dianna Bush, Vangie Bush, Shelly Brown, Kris Deatrick, Nancy Elwartowski, Ann Marie Jepson, Jackie Johnston, Lisa Kabasa, Leisa Ketola, Kelly Dee Kurutz, Kellie Ann Ricia, Arrin Schroeder, Michelle Vaughn and Tammy Whelan.

Winner of the contest will be chosen during the intermission of the Friday, Jan. 24 showing of the Follies.

Mrs. Patsy Bush, chairwoman of this event, said that the canisters will be at the theatre Friday evening prior to curtain time for the last minute voting.

Plan Parade, Bonfire and 'Cook Out'

Strikers of the Tecumseh Products have planned a parade from the Union Hall to the front gate of the Company at 10 a.m. Friday.

Plans call for a bonfire and the burning of the Company's recent mailing to the membership. Union members have been asked to bring the mailing, which is the latest offer from the Company, for burning.

Afterwards a "depression" type soup line and cookout is scheduled at the Union Hall.

Newspapers Taxable?

Are newspapers taxable or non-taxable? That is the question that concerns the Tecumseh Herald and one reader who was recently charged tax on a newspaper by a local merchant.

Under the changes in the sales tax statute 1974, newspapers, periodicals and films are an exception, comes the word from Elmer E. White, executive secretary of the Michigan Press Association.

If any one has any more trouble with the new sales tax, White recommends that the state sales tax office be contacted. The number is 517-373-3197.

Council Tunes in to Radio Problems

Lack of dependability and unsatisfactory service were the major complaints fire chief Wallace MacGeorge brought to Coucil against the radios purchased from and serviced by Comtronics of Jackson.

Council heard the chief and Phill Compaw, Comtronics representative, air their differences of opinion Monday night.

Council agreed to pay the withheld service bill of $101 and instructed Mr. Compaw to improve service.

If the situation continues, Mayor Harold Easton suggested that other arrangements be made.

Chief MacGeorge complained that one time the serviceman was called, the radios checked out all right.

The serviceman claimed that the problem "healed itself" and could find nothing wrong.

However, on a call shortly thereafter, the firemen experienced problems. Among them were motor noise, siren feedback and a lapse of time before service was given.

Radios in use are about three-year-old GE products. Old radios, the Motorola tube type, gave better service than present ones, claimed the chief.

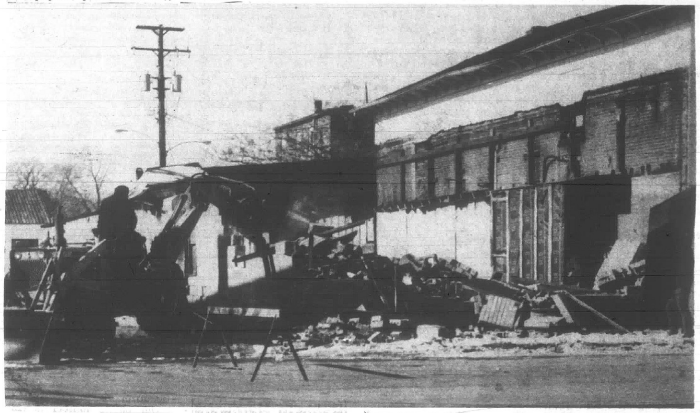
Compaw pleaded with Council that the company was a victim of circumstances and was called out on service calls not related to servicing or technical design of the radios.

Compaw said that the real complaint was the volume was not adequate enough when the vehicle was in motion and that the siren used.

A high value [illegible] was put in as a replacement; an antenna hitting the door was also changed; a radio failure before Christmas was due to phone company lines crossing, Compaw explained repairs.

Radios cannot be fixed when the problems are intermittent and solid state component equipment repair is different from that used with tube radios, said Compaw.

Police department also had three of the same type radios converted to include the sheriff's new frequency and does not have the difficulties that the fire department does.



END OF AN ERA—Former site of the Quick Lunch — and for many years bowling alleys for Tecumseh — came to an end this week when a demolition crew tore down and removed the building, sold to the city several years ago. The Quick Lunch restaurant, now operated by Vera Lemerand, moved several months ago to 117-119 S. Evans St., a building previously occupied by The Tecumseh Herald.

Tight Squeeze Forces Cutbacks

or she might like to pursue beyond high school.

Although attractive, there are several disadvantages.

— team practice and physical education classes might conflict.

— if sports practice couldn't be held in the morning or afternoon, students would have to come back after 6 p.m.

— the five-hour day would meet state requirements, but there is some question whether it would satisfy the North Central Association of which Tecumseh is a part and which requires a six hour day.

— staffing problems would arise especially in conjunction with the Vo-Tech program. Many juniors and seniors leave after second hour for Vo-Tech at which time some teachers would not be needed until noon.

— A few classes are a mixture of younger and older students. The split-shift plan would leave these classes with inadequate enrollment.

— talented freshman and sophomore athletes would not be able to participate in varsity squads since practice times would conflict with classes. The same would apply to underclassmen in the senior band.

— availability of coaches might be hampered.

— buses would be forced to cover the area twice as much as present.

— junior varsity sports contests might have to be scheduled later to accomodate later class times.

— intramurals, modern dance and gymnastics could not be continued.

A splitshift might have been implemented at the junior high as well to alleviate crowded conditions and to expand the curriculum. An increased enrollment is not expected next year. Additional staff would be needed with this program according to principal David Dick.

The board also discussed the possiblity of using portable classrooms or an extended day to cope with crowded conditions.

Gene Cooley, assistant superintendent, reported that portable classrooms would cost $14-15,000 each. Although an improvement over present conditions, the classrooms would not alleviate the parking lot situation, crowded conditions in the lunchroom, hallways or library. Additional staff would be required.

The last option discussed by the board was to extend the school day by one hour. In essence, this program would require that bussed students come and go at their usual times. Non-bussed students would arrive and depart one hour later.

As with the portable classroom plan, an extended day would not help overcrowded conditions. Students would still have to be excused for part of the day, hall traffic would continue to be a problem and there would be little changes with the loitering problem.

Class loads could be relieved but not extensively. Class schedules could not be broadened. There would be more time for deficient students to make up failed classes.

The board will hear the financial considerations of all three programs at their next meeting.

Explains Expansion

Paul Nelson, administrator of Bixby Hospital, spoke to Rotary club Tuesday. He commented on the seven million dollar expansion program to be financed by (1) fund depreciation, approximately one million (2) borrowing four million in revenue bonds and (3) conducting a community fund drive for the balance.

The outpatient area will be enlarged and a new pediatrics unit added.

Mr. Nelson said that 33 percent of the hospital clients come from the Tecumseh area. He also stated that the number of beds will not be increased from the present 254 but that the building program is necessary in order to meet new requirements imposed by the State of Michigan.

Club Spoken to About No-fault

Tecumseh Kiwanis Club members were given an informative update on the ramifications and problems of the no-fault insurance by Warren Jahns, bodily injury superintendent for State Farm Insurance Co., at the Tuesday meeting.

One of the matters of primary concern is the fact that there is presently no liability for unlicensed motorcyclists in the law, since they are not required to carry liability, property damage or operators injury insurance.

Thus, an automotive driver must pay his own medical expense if he collides with an uninsured motorcyclist.

Legislative action is being sought on this at present.

Carl Lamb served as inducting officer as Martin R. Vegter was inducted into membership.

On Jan. 16, Ray Hamblin, Les Calhoun, Jim Bick, Vic Lawson and Marion Ford made an interclub visit to the Blissfield Kiwanis Club meeting.

At Tuesday's meeting, the Blissfield Kiwanian returned the visit with attendance by Victor Hogue, president; Merle Betz, Larry Fogel, Lawrence Ricker, Norman Richardson, and the Rev. Robert Burkey.

Boy Scout Troop 102 at Lenawee Institute reported that re-chartering would be completed by the end of January.

Report was made of the visit of 19 Tecumseh Kiwanians and their [illegible] to the C.F. [illegible] Jan. 16.

President Ed Gilson and Russell G. Scott, Division 8 trustee of Forney W. Clement Foundation, made a presentation of a gift from the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club to Dean Litgard, coordinator for the hospital's recreational programs.

The State Kiwanians yearly contribute more than $40,000 to the hospital.

Next week's program will feature Morley Shortt, a member of the speakers bureau of Fisher Body, who will make a presentation on the "Conversion to Cleaner Air", the development of the GM catalytic converter.

TEN YEARS OF TOGETHERNESS — Putting the show together for the past 10 years, left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Dyke Helms, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Wonderly and Mr. and Mrs. John Day, and Betty Flanders, not pictured, are celebrating an anniversary with the Jaycee Follies. Claire Helms and Norma Wonderly have performed in all 10 shows. This year's performance, "Thru the Year" will be Jan. 24 and 25 at the Croswell Opera House in Adrian.

Study Group To Meet

The Northeast Study Group sponsored by the Cooperative Extension Service of the Michigan State University will meet in the home of Mrs. Edward W. Bailey, 8300 Ford Road, on Jan. 28, at 8 p.m. with the Chairwoman, Mrs. Charles I. Cox presiding.

The roll call will be "Diet Snack" but the lesson subject has been changed from Weight control to "No Fault Insurance."

Mrs. Fred Helms and Mrs. Ellsworth Robison will present the lesson.

Eight Selected to Band

Eight Tecumseh High School Band students, or 10 percent of the 70 member band, were selected to perform in the All-County Honors Band Jan. 24 at 8 p.m. in Morenci High School.

Students and their all-county band positions are: Andrea Phillips, fourth chair flute; Val Egli, seventh chair clarinet; Bill Silberhorn, fourth chair alto saxophone; and Tim Ries, first chair tenor saxophone.

Ed Philo, seventh chair trumpet; Dave Roberts, fourth chair French horn; Marti Gagneur, fifth chair trombone; Jeff Ives, third chair bass clarinet; and Dave Bunge, first chair trombone for three years in a row, will all perform.

This year the five county high school bands to each perform a selection are Addison, Adrian, Morenci, Sand Creek and Clinton.

Britton-Macon High School was also selected but could not attend this year due to a conflict in schedules.

Thomas Dvorak, assistant professor of music at the University of Michigan, will direct.

An admission is charged with proceeds for band scholarships for Lenawee County high school band members to attend the All-State High School Band session at Interlochen this summer.

Jaycee Week Proclaimed

The week of Jan. 19 - 25 has been proclaimed Jaycee Week by Mayor Harold Easton, in recognition of "the great service rendered to this community."

Tecumseh Jaycees are dedicated toward building a better community through developing the individual.

Several learning programs for leadership training are offered along with projects in the community.

Some of the past projects have been the annual high school relays, children's picnic and Christmas shopping tour, Punt, Pass and Kick, rodeo, circus, arts and craft show, bleachers for the little league fields, Bloodmobile and several youth activity sponsorships.

During this week the Jaycees and their Auxiliary are busy rehearsing and selling tickets for their 10th Jaycee Follies, to be held on Jan. 24 and 25 at the Croswell Opera house.

Future projects will include a Burns Awareness program for the national Institute of Burned Medicine in Ann Arbor, a Happiness Fair for handicapped children.

Membership in the Tecumseh Jaycees is open to any male between the ages of 18 and 36. Regular meetings are held on the first Thursday of each month in the Jaycee clubrooms at 8 p.m.

The Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary congratulates the Tecumseh Jaycees on their successes, and wishes to honor the 1974-75 JC board: Grady Fredricks, president; Gary Ferow, first vice-president; Lenard DeMoss, second vice-president; Ken Beevers, secretary; James Fliss, treasurer; Ray Russell, and directors Eugene Foust, Dan Bush; and Ron Szymanski, chairman of the board.

You Told Us

by Dorothy Grigg

A number of relatively new people in Tecumseh have made some major contributions to the betterment of the community, one of these, a lady staffer of the Herald, pushes the efforts of her predecessor to the fullest. Kathy Kulczyk gives each of her guests a copy of the walking tour guide put out by the Tecumseh Area Historical Society especially for the Sesquicentennial celebration.

Beautifully put together by Cecil Eby, Robert Bonner and Bob Bagdon, the pamphlet presents an inventory of Tecumseh's architectural gems and should be of inestimable assistance to the Historical District Study Committee who is attempting to establish with the state and national registers.

The guides are available at Don's Contented Sole and Beef Buffet.

We think that others of us should adopt Kathy's idea and use the guide to promote Tecumseh far and wide as it was called by the old timers, "The Biggest Little Town on Earth."

Kathy's recent guests were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gerding of Ann Arbor, Lily Supstiks and Emily Steere of Willimantic, Conn.

Style Sense by Evel

Is your face long and thin? First of all, you must study it as it is, to decide what hairdo could be most complimentary. Pull your hair back from your face, and draw its outline on your mirror using a soft crayon Now your artwork can begin. Dub in curls where you think they would be prettiest — if you discover you are wrong, it is easy enough to wipe them off the mirror and start again. Remember this, that a long, thin face needs fullness, and broken lines of curls around it to soften its outlines.

Hate to go out on rainy days? Can a little water go a long way toward ruining your hair style? Time now to do something about that! First of all, a style which is cut and shaped properly stands a much better chance of keeping its shape even in inclement weather. Secondly, keeping your style simple will give the rain that much less damage to do, and your style will last that much longer. Buy yourself a floppy rain hat; go all out for the latest look. You will be beautiful and protected too!

Holloway Happenings

by Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY—The Raisin Slickers 4-H Club had their meeting in the Holloway Fire Hall.

Plans were made to meet Jan. 23, at 6 p.m. at the Clarke Wilson home. They will go in a group to attend market, beef, sheep and swine feed workshop at Jones Hall at Adrian College.

There is a new snowmobile club organized under the leadership of Lewis Rockwood. First meeting was held at the Holloway Fire on Jan. 9.

Four club members - Carole Wilson, Les Siesler, Tom Anderson and Cheryl Withrow attended a special workshop for teen leaders and learned how to work with others in developing leadership skills. This meeting was at the Kettunen Center on Jan. 11-12.

All steers have been weighed and tagged, accomplished by Raymond Gratz and Tom Anderson.

A tenative date has been set to go bowling. Refreshments were served by Todd and Jim Youngs.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benick and Mrs. Joseph Russo of Jonesville, were Sunday afternoon and dinner guests in the evening of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Machan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Carpenter of Bowling Green, Ohio were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Sawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tucker of Toledo, Ohio were visitors Tuesday of Mrs. J.D. Jaqua.

Mrs. Robert Mattson of Atasca, Ill., and her sister, Mrs. Clinton Whim of Dearborn, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bachman formerly of Ridgeway, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Calhoun.

Feed Grain Allotment Set for '75'

[illegible] feed grain allotment may be established under the 1975 Feed Grain Program for farms which did not have an allotment in prior years and meet eligibility requirements, said Richard W. Emmons of the Lenawee County ASCS Office.

Interested producers should contact the County ASCS Office not later than Feb. 17, 1975, and file an application, Emmons said.

To be eligible for a new feed grain allotment, the operator must expect to receive 50 percent or more of his livelihood in the current year from the production of agricultural commodities.

He must have adequate equipment for the production of feed grain.

The land must be suitable for the production of feed grain.

And neither the owner nor the operator may have an interest in any other farm for which a feed grain allotment has been established.

A farm for which a new farm allotment is established may qualify for program payments in the event program payments are made in 1975.

Board Discusses Police Officer

At a meeting of the School Board, Monday night, the Board discussed the possibility of hiring a police liaison officer for Tecumseh High School.

School principal, Dermont Poley, admitted that some parents might think of a police officer in school as a step towards a police state, but he stressed that the officer "would not take over discipline or policy-making at the school."

Poley also said that the officer would not be patroling the hallways.

Citing a "control problem" that exists at the high school, partially due to over crowded conditions, Poley said the school has "reached the point where this officer is necessary."

—The officer would play an educational role presenting a "more truistic image of what a police officer is and what he does. "He would also be involved in counseling and prevention of juvenile delinquency."

Poley said that it would be important who the person is and that he understands his responsibilities. If not, the plan could backfire with students resenting the officer instead of communicating with him.

Some board members expressed concern about the plan.

Board president William Brown said, "I wonder if we're not trying to push our responsibilities onto someone else. I wasn't aware we had this problem. Why don't we have discipline in the school?"

Poley explained that there is control in the building but as soon as students walk out the door there is a control problem.

Assistant superintendent, Eugene Cooley, echoed these sentiments by saying that many students, who have quit school or have been asked to leave permanently, loiter in the school area. "Loitering around the school site is unbelievable, it's a gathering place," he said.

Poley concluded the discussion by saying that the Board is not authorized to hire a police officer on its own. The Tecumseh Police Department would have to hire the full-time employee.

There was some confusion as to just who the officer would be responsible to. Poley agreed to look into it.

The officer would be a member of the Tecumseh police force and would be paid through a combination of city and board of education funds.

The board agreed that the proposal should be further investigated.

Play with College Band

All instrumentalists in Lenawee County are invited to play with the Adrian College Band on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 in Spencer Music Hall.

No audition is required and no one will be asked to play a "solo."

Instruments will be provided for those who do not have larger ones. First rehearsal is Jan. 29. For more information call 265-5161, ext. 460 or 263-8073.

Engagement of Stephanie R. Hensen to James W. Brown is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hensen of Kendallville, Ind. formerly of Tecumseh. A graduate of Tecumseh High School, the bride-elect is employed at Ousterhout Flowers. Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Brown of N. Evans St., is a senior at Siena Heights College and is employed by Tecumseh Board of Education. A May 31 wedding is planned.

106 Sold

Shelly Brown sold 106 boxes in the recent candy sale of Raisin Center Blue Birds of Sutton School.

Julia Linehan is the president and Donna Heesen, secretary.

SURRENDER—After a tense waiting period of several hours, the truck drivers decided to dump their trailers and leave Tecumseh Products with just their cabs. Four sheriff's cars had been on hand since the afternoon along with Tecumseh police but picket strength remained strong throughout the afternoon and into the evening. Strikers were determined to stop the trucks from leaving with their trailers hitched. A striker in the middle of the picture shows his disapproval of the truck by giving the 'thumbs down' hand sign. TECUMSEH JAYCEES

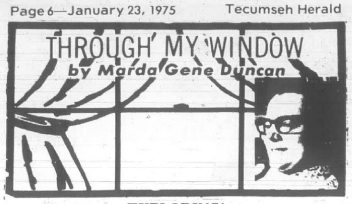
Stickers are now available at the Tecumseh fire station for residents with children or invalids.

The stickers should be placed in windows where the children or invalids are sleeping. In case of a fire, local firemen would know immediately that a child or invalid is sleeping in that room.

Local sponsors of the stickers are the Tecumseh Jaycees and the Tecumseh Fire Department.



EXPLORING!

A favorite pastime is, and always has been, hopping into the car and driving around to discover what an area has to offer. Florida has no awesome rugged mountains, no mile after mile of forested wilderness, no picturesque winding roads through hilly lake-studded country. But it does have little gems well-worth searching out and once found they are to be treasured.

The other day, for example, we happened onto a side street in Dunedin. (With a name like Duncan it is easy to understand why we were attracted to a town whose name is even more Scottish than ours.) Suddenly we were on a street, a tree-lined and very old street. Paved with brick no less.

The houses were nothing special but oh the shrubbery. Porch roof high poinsettias, hugh powder-puff bushes full of pink powder-puffs, bottlebrush shrubs with their fiery red blooms and I can't begin to name the others. Neither can I describe nor name the palms--there was everything. Quaint is a much over-used and mis-used word but is a most fitting way to describe this street.

I just hope we can find it again. Dad's camera was 'sick' that day and this street cried to be photographed. It will be a challenge though, just ordinary snap-shooting will never capture the charm. Actually, this is true of much of Florida--however, is not his part of the fun?

Another section of street that we are looking forward to re-visiting runs right along the Gulf Coast. It is so typically the Florida of the mind's eye that we could hardly believe it.

Water on one side of the palm-lined road and lushly landscapped homes on the other. Towns down here run into each other, impossible to tell where one ends and another begins, thus our 'Gulf' drive could either have been in Dunedin or Clearwater. Perhaps both.

A bit later we were exploring in the opposite direction. North to New Port Richey. The address we were chasing was quite elusive, we saw more of the town than we expected. A happy circumstance.

The expression I want to use is right in the middle of town but, to be truthful, I do not know whether it is the middle or not. But, somewhere in New Port Richey is a park with a small pond. And on that pond there were ducks and geese. All kinds of ducks and geese.

As often happened many of them were good pan-handlers, some were coming right up to the bench-sitters to be fed. Also winding through town was a river. Another challenge for the camera.

In one of my uncle's "Beach Life" magazines there was an excellent article about the county parks in this Pinellas county. They claim them to be excellent and one of the best in A.L. Anderson Park. What good fortune, this park is practically across the road from Sun Valley Estates.

It is not wheel-chair pushing distance but in the car, we are there almost as soon as busy Highway 19 is crossed. We have not as yet had the opportunity of visiting the other parks but, if Anderson is a gauge, there are treats in store and the magazine article was more than correct.

We have only scratched the surface of what is across the street. The first impression was of neatness, and cleanliness, a well-cared for park. Pines and palms and I don't know the other trees shade inviting picnic spots, a boat-launching area should prove interesting to watch, Tarpon Lake fronts a section we have not yet explored and I have even heard talk of a board-walk.

Many of the trees, of course, are draped with Spanish moss and there are cypress standing up to their knees in water. Need I say anything about a camera here--I think not.

Yes, I realize I have not mentioned Tarpon Springs itself but there is a reason. We have not as yet done the exploring nor the reading necessary and when we do I imagine that it will make a full article.

From what we see and hear it is an interesting town with an unusual history. It is Greek by origin and we are most anxious to sample some of the cooking. A forecast of rain, which did not materialize, and the prediction of large crowds, which very definitely did gather, and we decided not to see one of the important celebrations of the year.

On Jan. 6 Tarpon Springs always celebrates Epiphany Day. Parades, Greek costumes, blessing of the water and diving after the gold cross. It is quite a celebration and perhaps next year the Duncans can take it in.

So it is that, in our free-time and even during some that was not so free, we have been indulging in one of our favorite occupations--we have been exploring!

Engineer Designed

Charles Kipke, city engineer, was designed by Council as the single street administrator at Monday's meeting.

His job is to report to the State Highway Dept. to qualify Tecumseh for gas tax funds.

TCFFI Trustees Hold Meeting

The Trustees of the Tecumseh Community Fund Foundation, Inc. held a combination regular and annual meeting on Tuesday evening, Jan. 14, at the West Branch of the United Savings Bank.

President Earl D. Mason presided and led the discussion regarding the 1974-75 Campaign for Funds.

The Board extended thanks to Mrs. David Blanden and Mrs. Robert J. Bowers for their work on the campaign.

Robert Robinson reviewed the work [illegible] diamonds which was made possible through money from the Capital Improvements Fund of 1974 Drive to which the public contributed with more to be done.

The three Trustees elected for terms of three years each were Mrs. David (Barb) Blanden, Attorney Kenneth W. Crause and Mrs. T. Rentschler - the latter two were re-elected.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Attorney Crause; vice-president, Robert Robinson; treasurer, Mrs. David Blanden; and secretary, Mrs. T. Rentschler.

VFW Poster Rules To Be Presented

If permission is granted by the school, VFW poster contest rules will be presented in the next couple of weeks to the grade school students.

Members of the Hall-Slater Post VFW Auxiliary voted to send $1 per per member to the National Cancer fund during their Jan. 15 meeting.

Mrs. Arthur Sommers reported sending several shut-ins Christmas boxes. Mrs. Walter Mueller mailed boxes to servicemen.

Mrs. Eugene Froelich reported on the party for students at Sutton Day Care Center. Laslo clowns entertained and refreshments were served by Auxiliary members.

Plans were made for the Past Commanders banquet March 1 at a joint meeting of post and auxiliary on Jan. 8

Carrol Conklin, Mrs. Sommers, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. Lowell Wise and Mrs. Adelene MacKenzie were among those attending the Sixth District meeting recently in Hamburg.

Mrs. Wise served refreshments and announcement was made that a meeting will be held Feb. 5 in the Post Home.

Submit Names for Award

Organizations or individuals who wish to submit a name for consideration of the judges in the First Lady of the year Award, to be presented by Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, may do so by Feb. 1.

The award trophy will be presented Tuesday, March 18 at Vo-Tech meeting room.

In the Tecumseh area nominations are to be made to Mrs. Pat Cook, 451-2686.

In the Adrian area nominations may be given to Mrs. Joan McKown, 263-3316.

It'll fill us all with fear again.
Exam week was here again."

Mid-semester exams, which were taken this week, will be graded tomorrow by teachers, while students relax on an extra day off.

Friday is Record Day when teachers compile scores on exams and figure student semester grades.

Students and instructors will review the exams on Monday, the final day of the first semester.

Also on Jan. 27, the first class in the Adult Education Courses, offered by Monroe County Community College will be held.

Registration was Jan. 22 from 7 to 9 p.m. and Jan. 23 at the same time and-or the first night of class, either Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Students or adults can receive either high school or college credit or both.

Additional information may be obtained by contacting Tom Muncie, counselor at THS, phone 423-5634.

With exams finally over, THS students now have nothing to dread — that is until the report cards reach home!

TIPTON — The Youth Fellowship met at the fellowship hall in the Tipton Community Church on Sunday night.

During the business meeting plans were made to bowl on Sunday Dec. 2. Marsha Bale and Mary Houseman served cake and gelatin.

Sixteen Members Present

Sixteen members of Tecumseh Garden Club responded to roll call with "My Favorite Bird" Jan. 17 when the meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Marshall Coulter.

Mrs. Neil Pearson read an article about the Ware collection of more than 700 glass flowers in the Botanical Museum of Harvard University.

Members made Valentine and Easter tray favors. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Edward Klopp.

Welcomed into Local Music Club

Mrs. Paul Hawkins was welcomed to the membership of Tecumseh Music Club at the Jan. 14 meeting held in the home of Mrs. Norman Biess.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson presented the program, "Music of South America." Members sang Christmas carols from Venezuela and Brazil, accompanied by Mrs. Hawkins at the organ and Mrs. Fred Oberlin, piano.

Mrs. Dick Scheer sang "Songs of My Spanish Soil", accompanied by Mrs. Daniel Thompson.

Mrs. Wilson and her sister, Dorothy Ruthruff, will be the hostesses for the February meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Osburn and children and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Whelan were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Osburn in Tecumseh on Sunday night, honoring the birthday of Mrs. Jay Osburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wilkin and Mrs. Fay Luce were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Ladd in Samaria on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gregory and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Karle and son, and Mr. and Mrs. David Bird were dinner guests of Lamont Simmons on Sunday evening in honor of Mr. Simmon's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson entertained their card club on Saturday night. A potluck supper was served at 6:30 p.m.

The group played euchre with prizes won by Mrs. Garrett Linger, Bill LaFerriere and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Karle. Mrs. Linger received a gift for having the most lone hands.

"JUST ONE MORE, MOM?" — Julie and Paula Stroud (l to r) try to coax their mom, Mrs. Glenna Stroud with all the books in arm, to take just one more book. Mrs. Helen Hall, right, library secretary, is just one of the helpful workers who can assist readers browsing Tecumseh Public Library for a good book. Library also offers other services including interlibrary loan system and framed picture check out.

Shoe Swap Saturday

Have your children outgrown their shoes? Why not come to the Old Mother Hubbard's Shoe Swap and get them another pair? On Saturday, Jan. 25, the Tecumseh United Methodist Church will sponsor this event from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Shoes to fit infants through adults will be available free of charge.

If you have shoes to trade in for another pair, bring them along, but shoes will be available with or without trading.

Boots will also be available.

Everyone is invited to take part in this event.

THS Students Tour Vo-Tech

The entire tenth grade of Tecumseh High School toured the Lenawee Vocational-Technical Center Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, last week.

The purpose of the visits was to provide exposure to the many career training opportunities offered at the Center.

More than 200 students from Tecumseh attend the Center each year. These students register for their classes shortly after their visit.

Students now attending each program explain the course content, skills learned, the equipment and how they feel about the program.

Dale Lane, director of vocational counseling, arranged the tours in conjunction with John Pobuda and the counseling staff at Tecumseh High School. All tenth graders in the county will tour the Center to decide if Vo-Tech can assist them with their career goals.

"Lighthouse" Rents School

At a meeting of the Tecumseh school board Monday night, Assistant Superintendent Eugene Cooley told the board that a one year lease had been signed with the Macon Lighthouse January 1 for the use of Macon School.

The religious group had decided not to purchase the building at this time. Rent is $350 a month.

Resignation Approved

At a meeting of the Tecumseh School Board Monday evening, the board approved the resignation of Linda Doyle, a sixth grade teacher at Tecumseh Acres.

Her husband has been transferred to a metropolitan area explained Superintendent Robert Duhan. The resignation is effective the end of this semester.

United Fund Receipts Told

City manager Cal Zorn reported that the city has received $15,500 from the United Fund for its share of the sprinkler system at the Tecumseh Park and $10,000 for a share of the softball lights.

City has also received over $4,800 from farm and land rental during 1974, said Zorn.

Obituary

MAY F. GRAHAM

Private services were held at Brookside Cemetery Monday for May R. Graham, 84, who died Friday at 3:33 p.m. in Hillhaven Convalescent Center where she had been a patient for the past two months.

Born Jan. 10, 1891 in Prescott, Miss Graham taught history and science for 30 years at Eastern High School in Detroit, now called Martin Luther King High School.

She retired 17 years ago, coming to Adrian.

Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Addie Lindberts of Devils Lake; one niece, Mrs. Walter (Phyllis) Morden, 910 River Acres Drive and one nephew, Ferris Anderson, of 311 Adrian St.

Dr. Laszlo Gero officiated and arrangements were made by Proctor Funeral Home.

Parents, Kids Benefit from Preschool

(Editors's note: In the first of two stories, the Tecumseh Nursery School was featured. This tory features Little Indian Nursery School.)

By Dorothy Grigg

"Not 'sposed to throw it," remonstrated the blonde four-year-old Tuesday afternoon in the Little Indian Nursery School at United Methodist Church.

It was quite apparent that he believes in following the rules and was about to see that his playmate did just that.

One child lay spread eagled on a huge sheet of brown paper as an assist mother drew the outline of the body which the little girl would later color in conjunction with the theme, the five senses.

A field trip next week to the high school band room further emphasize hearing as will the demonstration of instruments by a representative from Flanders Music.

Mrs. Howard Osterling, one of the two certified teachers, explained that in the cooperative nursery, parents learn as well as the children.

They learn to work with their children and other children, using a positve approach which carries over into the home.

This is perhaps the advantage of the cooperative nursery over the privately operated one and of course, the tuition is considerably less.

With three assist mothers each of the three daily sessions helping Mrs. Osterling and Mrs. Chester Krzemien, the morning teacher, a wealth of knowledge is bound to "just rub off" as the mothers work with the tykes.

"I've seen attitudes change considerably in my three years in pre-school education institutions," remarked Mrs. Osterling.

Fathers help, too. The current group have built and assembled a large amount of both indoor and outdoor equipment including a miniature refrigerator with two doors.

They help on the many committees and one father's night for each session is scheduled when only Daddys are present with their children and the teachers. It's fun time especially for them.

Scheduled a month in advance, Moms have the opportunity to switch assist times with other mothers or hire a "paid assist."

Committees are setup for care of field trips, typing, sewing, telephoning, housekeeping supplies, juice and crackers, equipment, paint, ways and means and many others.

Always encouraging independence, the three to five year-old-students are given opportunities to participate in the daily projects, free play time in three areas, muscle, quiet and art rooms.

They move about at will, with always a watchful eye on them. Real tools, a saw, hammer, square are available for them to try and learn respect for the things that could really, be dangerous without proper supervision.

The Little Indians, known by their session names of Mohawks, Apaches or Shawnees are scheduled for one field trip per month and numerous demonstrations, one by Bennett Ambulance includes viewing the inside of the vehicle.

Resource people visit, a dental hygienist is next on the list.

Now in its second year, the co-op was organized by nine Tecumseh women who attended the Tecumseh Community Drop-In Center.

Mrs. Thomas Titus is chairman and presides over the monthly meetings of parents.

The cooperative education institution provides developmental experiences for young children under direction and supervision of qualified teachers.

It fosters physical, intellectual, emotional and social growth of the individual child in a planned and prepared environment geared specifically to youth as a community service on a non-profit, non-discriminatory basis. It is administered by parents of children currently enrolled.

The school has a capacity for 60 youngsters and presently has some openings. There are two morning sessions and one in the afternoon. Bonnie Thomas is membership chairman 423-7586.

It is affiliated with Michigan State Council of Cooperative Nurseries and Huron Valley Council of Cooperative Nurseries.

A monthly newsletter helps to keep participants informed.

From a brief look at the two pre-school education institutions in Tecumseh, it is apparent that there is need for both and the city is fortunate that the facilities of each are available for Tecumseh's little folk.

Low Bids Accepted

Low bids for the widening of the N. Union Street bridge over Evans Creek were accepted by Tecumseh City Council Monday night.

Cunningham-Gooding Co., of Ives Road, was awarded the low bid of $22,526.50.

Lowest bidder on box beams was Superior Concrete Products Co. at $6,122.19. These can not be delivered until May.

Construction is expected to begin within the month and completion could be in May.

Hearing Set To Discuss Parking

Council established a special assessment district for a revised off-street parking proposal which would leave 142 metered off-street spaces, 133 2-hour limit spaces and 60 10-hour limit spaces.

A public hearing has been set for March 3 at 8 p.m. during the regular Council meeting.

Results of the capital improvements survey conducted by the Planning Commission were also accepted by Council for further reference.

Council Seeks Bid

Council suggested that the city manager seek another bid for tree moving.

A quotation has been received from Ganun's Nursery for moving, with a tree spade, two and three-inch Maple trees from the city property on Taylor Road to various locations within the city.

To the Editor

Dear Editor:

Several of us are hoping that many more people will want to feel that Carl Lamb should be thanked publicly for having the courage to remove the magazine section from his store.

This is evidently a source of very high paying revenue and was a test of Carl's feeling.

The quality of the magazines has dropped so low that he does not consider it an honor to handle them for the customers.

Here is a wonderful chance for people of all ages to speak out.

We salute you, Carl!

HOMEOWNERS CORNER

by Vic Clauda

Humidifiers are almost a must during the heating season, but they are not very effective if they are not kept clean. The more water you evaporate with the humidifier, the more deposit will be in it to be cleaned out. If you have a drain, use one that has a flush-through feature and you won't have the scale build-up or have to clean as often. They do have a tablet that you can put in that retards the build-up of scale. You do feel warmer at lower temperature with humidity.

Let us at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121 help you solve your heating and plumbing problems. Our many years of experience allows us to guarantee satisfaction with every job we do. Free estimates are given and duct work for forced air heating systems as well as fabrication of sheet metal fittings are handled. Our best wishes to everyone for a Happy New Year. Open: Daily 8 a.m. - 5:30 p.m., Fri. until 9 p.m. Sat. until 5 p.m.

11th Grade Performs

BRITTON—Over a half dozen one act plays, performed by the eleventh grade college English class, were presented at an assembly, Jan. 20 in the Britton-Macon High School gymnasium.

Plays were entirely written, cast, directed and produced by 17 students in the nine week class on drama.

For many, it was their first experience in drama and first time before an audience.

These students have been studying play production for the past eight weeks and presented the assembly to the student body as their final exam.

Over 250 students warmly responded to the student plays and performances.

Principal Sends Letter to Parents

BRITTON—"Principal's Letter" sent to parents of Britton-Macon Area School students and to all electorates in the school district, contained a letter and a form to be filled and returned to the school asking whether or not parents would support building an all-purpose room and two small conference rooms, if they were put on a public ballot.

Board of Education has discussed the need for additional facilities for the last two years. These three rooms would add an approximate 3,700 square feet to the building.

The letter said the school is in need of a place where elementary students can get out of the rain and cold weather during their recess and noon hour periods. The all-purpose room would also give the band an adequate place where they could practice.

The present gymnasium is overloaded with boys and girls physical education on the main floor and the band practicing on the stage, the letter continued.

There is definite need for some conference rooms where small groups could meet, letter explained. At present a store room and the lobby are being used and are inadequate for the school's special education teachers, such as Speech Pathologist.

On July 1, 1976, the school district will have the 1963 addition paid in full and will owe $65,000 on the 1955 debt. At that time, the school district will have a cash balance of $27,985 so that the total bonded indebtedness of the school district will be $37,015.

District will levy approximately one mill during the 1975 and 1976 tax years. In July of 1977 the 1955 debt should be completely paid off.

The estimated cost of this project will be about $195,000 spread over a 16 year period and will amount to an additional levy of 1.2 mills on the present state equalized valuation of $16,689,910.

Winning Idea for Cover

BRITTON—Bruce Hacala, journalism teacher at Britton-Macon High School announced that Richie Bruce, ninth grade student, has drawn the winning idea for the school's 1975 yearbook cover.

He competed against the entire school, 600 students, in a five-week contest. Richie's entry was selected by the school's journalism class, which is responsible for the production of the yearbook.

Richie's modern circular design covers the book using both the front and back covers in two shades of green.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Niblack entertained at dinner Sunday for their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Prudden of Edmore.

Mr. Prudden is a member of the Edmore village council and participated in Mayor's Day Exchange last May between Edmore and Britton.

Other guests, at the Niblack home, Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tiede and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Weyher and daughter; and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dick.

Snowmobiler Improving after Transfer

BRITTON—David Laslo, 22, is improving at St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor, where he was transferred from Bixby Hospital in Adrian Sunday evening following a snowmobile accident.

Laslo and a passenger, Randy Brown, 10, of Center, Ohio, were riding across an open field on the Laslo farm, on Holloway Road, when they ran into a ditch. Brown was also transferred from Bixby to Ann Arbor, where he was treated and released.

David sustained a broken wrist and is fed intravenously because of stitches in his mouth.

Class Holds Meeting in Center

BRITTON—The Dorcas Class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church met in the Fellowship Center of the church at noon Thursday, Jan. 16, with 14 members and one guest present.

Mrs. Helen Osterhout was in charge of the potluck dinner. Happy Birthday was sung to Mrs. Mae Willis whose birthday was that day.

In the afternoon a business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Theo Willis, vice-president. A communication was read from Mrs. Marie Pries who is recovering from an operation.

An anniversary card was signed for Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson whose 65th wedding anniversary occurred during the week. A birthday card was signed for Mrs. Grace Underwood who will be 93 early in February.

Mrs. Pearl Hannevik who is ill in a hospital in LaCrosse, Wisc., was remembered with a gift.

Mrs. Lillian Rodgers was in charge of the program and devotions. She read from Matthew 4 verses 18 and 20. Then she read a poem "Which Are Your" by Ella Wheeler Wilcox and an article "Ask in Prayer" by Ruth Bell Graham. The meeting closed with "The Lord's Prayer."

Reading Habits of Library Patrons

Part II

(Second part about Tecumseh Public Library, its services and the reading habits of area patrons.)

By Kathy Kulczyk

Don't be alarmed. This survey of what Tecumseh area people read was not taken by peering into the home libraries and living rooms of residents. With some 12,000 potential users in the Tecumseh Area School district, that would have been impossible anyway.

Instead, library director Deborah Havener shared the library's circulation statistics and came up with some interesting trends.

Here's what your neighbors have been reading while you weren't looking.

Fiction is most popular among adults and children, accounting for 65 percent of the books checked out at Tecumseh Public Library.

Among popular, modern novelists, Victoria Holt is enjoyed. Her most recent book on romance is "House of a Thousand Lantern."

Susan Howatch is authoress of another popular romance, "Cashelmara." James Mitchner's "Centennial," is also currently popular.

"People seem to be fascinated by occult and things they cannot explain," said director Deborah Havener.

A few of the most popular non-fiction books on reserve are "Bermuda Triangle," theory about abnormal happenings in that area, and "Sybil," true story of a schizophrenic with several personalities.

"All Things Great and Small," and a sequel, "All Things Bright and Beautiful," written by a British veteranian, are gaining popularity.

"Alive," story of the Andian plane crash and existence of the survivors who practiced canabalism to remain alive, is another popular non-fiction book.

"Other media affect what people read. People are influenced by what they see on television or read in newspaper and magazine reviews. Some see the movie and request the book or vice versa.

"New books often have huge advertising budgets with author's appearances on television talk shows. You can usually tell a best seller by the amount of publicity given it," said Mrs. Havener.

Children find these five categories of books most interesting.

+Pure Fiction

+Realism and nostalgia. "Little House" Books by Laura Ingalls Wilder, offer parents and children an authentic picture of 19th century history and a warm family life. But it is not sugary; the books do have some frightening moments," Mrs. Havener pointed out.

+Animals, all kinds, especially dinosaurs, interest boys and girls. "They seem to respond to animals with human characteristics and good illustration. Doctor Seuss books, a series by Bill Peet and the series on a monkey called "Curious George" seem to capture the fancy of youngsters," said Mrs. Havener.

+Vocational books, such as the "I Want To Be" type are also interesting to children who like to see how people do things.

High school age students are preoccupied with local history. They come to verify family stories and geneology. Perhaps the Sesquicentennial or local history class at the high school have created the interest.

Mrs. Havener is very happy to see such interest among patrons of all ages. Several have made donations to the library's historic collection for the benefit of the total community. The new Clara Waldron library is reportedly well used, even by out-of-town people.

Mrs. Havener offered some advice for selecting children's books: "Children should be given time to select books at their leisure. They are most certain about what they like. It is important to remember that each child is an individual with his own tastes."

Whatever your favorite diet is, you are sure to find something to your liking at the Tecumseh Public Library, or through its interlibrary loan system.

Ice Fishing Contest

The Lenawee County Conservation League (LCCL) will hold an ice fishing contest this winter. It began Jan. 6 and runs through March 3.

Four classes will be involved and trophies presented for three places in each class. The classes are (1) Perch (2) Bluegill and Sunfish (3) Crappie (4) Open, all other fish.

The contest is open to the public and all fish must be caught in Lenawee county and adjoining waters.

Fish must be weighed and measured intact. Feb. 3 and March 3 will be LCCL meetings at which fish can be measured. Trophies will be awarded at the March meeting.

Further information can be obtained by calling Jerry Robinette, 423-5124 or Bill Kukral, 451-8500.

Scholarship for Minority

Scholarship help to minority students at Siena Heights College was made possible recently by a $1,500 grant from the Dr. Scholl Foundation in Chicago, according to Dr. Hugh Thompson, president of Siena.

The scholarships are earmarked for minority students majoring in business administration and accounting, Dr. Thompson said.

Degrees Earned

Eight area students earned Bachelor degrees in December at Siena Heights College.

Graduating magna cum laude were Karlene Prielipp of Britton with a BS in mathematics and Janine Zimmerman of Tecumseh with a BA in Spanish.

December graduates will join in Siena's May commencement ceremonies.

Mr and Mrs Gerald Marion Named Outstanding Young Dairy Couple

CLINTON — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Marion, owners of a dairy farm at 11680 Hoelzer Road, north east of Clinton, were recently named "Outstanding Young Dairy Couple" in district competition.

DISTRICT HONORS — Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Marion, of Clinton, MMPA District I "Outstanding Young Dairy Couple," are brushing up on questions concerning farm operation, leadership and family activities to compete for state title in Detroit Feb. 4-5. Purpose of event is to spotlight potential leaders in the dairy industry.

Michigan Milk Producers Association (MMPA) District I comprises Lenawee, Washtenaw, Monroe, Jackson and Wayne counties.

The Marions milk a 50-cow Holstein dairy herd on an 139-acre farm in Washtenaw County, which they purchased 10 years ago.

The farm is known as the former Martin Hoelzer homestead. They also rent an additional 100 acres of crop land.

They recently converted to a pipe-line milking system.

The Marions have three daughters, Kathy, 9; Kristine, 8; and Kimberly, 6. Kathy is already lending a hand with some of the dairy equipment cleanup chores, her mother reports.

Donna Marion, a registered nurse with the Lenawee County Health Department, makes frequent appearances at county schools to present health programs on food and nutrition.

On Feb. 4 and 5, Mr. and Mrs. Marion will be in Detroit, where they will be competing with 11 couples from throughout Michigan for the State MMPA title of Outstanding Young Dairy Couple.

Emergency Jobs for Unemployed

The Emergency Jobs and Unemployment Assistance Act is the 1974 Federal labor program now being implemented and carries more grant funds with more urgency in placing unemployed people in public service jobs in extremely high unemployment areas, with less strings attached to the hiring agencies.

Lenawee is schedule to receive $856,487 for about 99 new public service jobs for up to 12 months beginning Jan. 13, provided county can create the jobs and match eligible, capable people to them fast enough to satisfy the U.S. Dept. of Labor.

The average annual wage is expected to be about $7800 with a maximum $10,000 allowed on any eligible job to come from the federal subsidy.

These jobs may be with county departments, cities, villages, schools, and some non-profit public service organizations. All jobs are expected to be available within two weeks. There are nearly 1000 applications already on file for CETA program jobs in Lenawee. Special attention will be given to unemployed persons with no income from any source, if they qualify satisfactorily for the work.

This is limited 12 month term job opportunity program. Hiring agencies are not obligated to continue these employees beyond the federal funding term.

Applications from Lenawee residents may be filed in person at the County Building in Adrian, but no telephone inquiries will be accepted.

Students Audition for Honor Band

CLINTON—Clinton students who were chosen at auditions in Adrian, Monday, to participate in the All-County Honors Band are Darcy Ford, trumpet; Diane Brown, clarinet; Stephanie Satterla, French horn; Nelia Wolf, alto sax; Roberta Girbach, baritone; and Madeline McCollum, tuba.

The All-County Honors Band will present the annual concert, Friday, Jan. 24 at 8 p.m. Morenci High School, after all day practice sessions.

Program will include several difficult selections, Leroy Anderson's "Bugler's Holiday," Percy Grainger's "Irish Tune from County Derry."

Two movements from "LaFiesta Mexicana," by H. Owen Reed and a work by Jerry Bilik of the University of Michigan, "American Civil War Fantasy," are included.

Each of the county high school bands will present one selection.

Clinton High School band, under the direction of Richard Calkins will perform, "Alleluia" by W.A. Mozart.

There will be an admission to the program with proceeds going toward scholarships for Lenawee county high school band members to attend the All-State High School Band session at Interlochen during this summer.

Clinton Man To Play in Siena Theater

Phil Campbell of Clinton will portray Hortensio, one of the leading roles, when Siena Heights College presents "The Taming of the Shrew" Feb. 14-16 in the Francoeur Theatre on campus. Phil is a junior majoring in Communication Arts.

"The Taming of the Shrew" marks the first time Shakespeare has been produced in Lenawee County in seven years.

Sr. Therese Tighe of the communication arts department at Siena Heights is director.

Curtain time for the three performances is 8 p.m. Reservations may be made by phoning 263-0731, ext. 255, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Extension Speaker at Club

Susan Lembrecht of Michigan Extension Service was the speaker Jan. 16 for Welcome Wagon Club in the United Methodist church.

Slides emphasized her topic, "Imagineering in The Home," using color and balance in furnishings,wall hangings, etc.

Guests included Mrs. Phillip Parisian, Mrs. William Canuelle, Mrs. Wayne Sisty and Mrs. Judy Warzynski.

Tax Class at Vo-Tech

Area residents interested in assisting others with their income tax may take advantage of a new class offered at the Lenawee Vocational-Technical Center, Jan. 30 - 31, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The class is called Volunteer Income Tax Assistance and will be taught by an IRS representative. At least 15 people are needed to have a class. No charge is made for the class or materials.

Those who wish to enroll may call at the school, 2345 N. Adrian Highway, or telephone, 263-2108.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brauburger of Robinwood Drive, Ann Arbor announce the engagement of their daughter, Nan Elizabeth Mabry, to James Leonard Draper of Bellaire. Miss Mabry formerly of Clinton, graduated from Pioneer High School, Ann Arbor. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. W.R. VanTuyle. Mr. Draper, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Draper of Bellaire, is a graduate of Bellaire High School. He is employed by Michigan Casting Division of Ford Motor Co. in Flat Rock. A spring wedding is planned.

Plans Discussed for '75' Festival

CLINTON — Plans for participation in the 1975 Clinton Fall Festival were discussed by members of the St. Dominic's Altar Society at the Jan. 13 meeting.

The successful apple theme will be maintained and apple pies added. Also more hand-made items are to be donated, such as apple dolls.

Members were asked to submit favorite recipes for an apple recipe book to be compiled for the festival booth.

An all-church smorgasbord supper was planned for Sunday, March 16 from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. in the Clinton Middle School.

Altar Society will provide the meat, rolls, butter and beverage and parish families are asked to bring two dishes to pass.

Mrs. Mark Bauer won the lucky lady prize.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Puchly and Mrs. Daniel Lauer.

A speaker from the Lenawee County Red Cross will be at the Feb. 10 meeting at the Community Center. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. E.J. Kehoe and Mrs. Charles Still.

"What can you get for making a great deal with The Dodge Boys? A check for $300 from Dodge."

Joe Garagiola

Listen to ol' Joe G. I'm gonna tell you how to make the deal of a lifetime on the "Dodge of the Week." Right now, during the Car Clearance Carnival at the Dodge Boys.

Here's how:

Every week from now till February 16, the Dodge Boys will pick one gorgeous Dodge as "Dodge of the Week." Could be a Monaco. A Dart. A Coronet. Even a pickup or van. Now you hustle down and make the Dodge Boys give you their deal on that Dodge. Then, find out how you collect your check from Dodge for at least $200. But there's more. Trade in the right car on the "Dodge of the Week," and you get a $100 trade-in bonus. That's a total of $300!

But there's more to the Car Clearance Carnival than "Dodge of the Week" deals. Through February 28, the Dodge Boys are offering other great deals on all '75 Dodges. They've got a lot of cars to move. And they're gonna move 'em.

And—even if you don't end up buying a new Dodge, you might end up driving one. Just by entering the Dodge Boys' Clearance Sweepstakes.[2] Each sweepstakes winner (and there'll be plenty—so one could be you) gets free use of a brand-new Dodge for one whole year. You've got nothing to lose. You've got nothing to buy. All you gotta do is come in for full details.

But hurry. If you're not driving a new Dodge by the end of the Car Clearance Carnival, it won't be the Dodge Boys' fault.

[1] Sorry, only one "Dodge of the Week" deal per customer. Retail customers only.
[2] Sweepstakes ends February 28, 1975. Void in states where prohibited by law. Open only to licensed drivers 18 years old or older.

Monroe Offers Courses Here

Beginning Jan. 27, Tecumseh area residents will be able to attend Monroe County Community College courses right in their own high school, in addition to high school level courses for diploma completion.

Eleven introductory college courses in business, history, philosophy, English, speech, accounting and sociology are offered. A group guitar lesson class for eight weeks is also available.

Teachers are from the Monroe campus. Topics include logic, communication fundamentals, history of Michigan, income tax, and the role of women in a changing society.

College courses taken by adults or students can be credited for high school completion or an associate degree in arts at Monroe County Community College, or both.

Junior and senior THS students are eligible to enroll also, allowing a student to pick up to as many as 12 college credits by graduation.

"Within time, it might be possible to fulfill associate degree requirements without leaving Tecumseh. However, this is still in the infant stage and Monroe is requesting a residency requirement which might mean some classes must be taken at the Monroe campus," explained Tom Muncie, director of Tecumseh's adult education program.

One resident, calling on behalf of those interested in secretarial school, said that basic secretarial courses, applicable to secretarial school, might be offered if eight students declare their interest to Muncie within the next week. Almost any subject can be added as long as there is a demand for it.

Ten classes for high school diploma completion are also offered. English, history and government, ceramics, industrial arts, German (non-credit) and typing are repeated this semester. Courses netted 71 students in regular attendance last fall.

Registration for classes is Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 22 and 23 from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Tecumseh High School Guidance Office. Or on the first day of classes, Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday.

College classes begin Jan. 27 through May 14. Tecumseh High school completion classes begin Jan. 27 for 18 weeks.

Tuition for the college courses is $20 per credit. Tuition for each course is $30 for enrichment (non-credit) and no charge for high school completion.

A child care service will be provided each evening at no charge. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Tom Muncie at Tecumseh High School, phone 423-5634.

Evening classes allow the school district to use facilities as much as possible since some area of need for adult education has been identified, said Muncie.

Interestingly enough, the high school completion courses began with a fair amount of success last fall with little publicity. Questionaires, mailed in the school district's newsletter to parents, were the first announcement of the courses.

Final Date for Registration

Final date for registration for next month's College Level Examination Program (CLEP) at Siena Heights College in Adrian is Thursday, Jan. 23. The CLEP tests will be given Feb. 12 and Feb. 15 in General Knowledge and Specific Subject areas.

CLEP is the program which grants college credits for knowledge acquired through study or experience outside the regular classroom. CLEP's motto is, "What you know is more important than how you came to know it."

Each test successfully taken grants up to six credits. Cost for each test is $20 in a sliding scale downward for two or more tests.

Siena Heights College is the only authorized CLEP testing center in Lenawee, Hillsdale and Monroe Counties.

More information is available from the Registrar, Siena Heights College, 313-263-0731, extension 213 or 236.

Parents Rights Topic at Center

"Parents Have Rights Too" is the topic for the Jan. 28 meeting of the Community Drop-In Center.

If you sometimes feel that our entire society is too child-centered, and as a parent you get blame and guilt instead of understanding and appreciation, the Drop-In Center has a program for you!

Earl Mason, an experienced youth leader, and Edna Mae Henkels and Betty Lewis, school social workers, will give "parent-power" a boost.

Jane Clark is coordinator for the month of January and Nancy Phelan is the program chairwoman.

Come and bring a neighbor on Tuesday at 9:15 a.m. at the Community Center on M-50, just east of town.

Coffee break is at 10:30 a.m. and the rap sessions will be "parents air their concerns" and school readiness.

"Ready or not — Here we come!" is the theme of the pre-school discussion group.

Seniors to Museum

Tecumseh Recreation department senior citizens will make a trip to Henry Ford Museum, Feb. 12.

All area seniors are invited. Registration of $4.50 includes lunch, transportation and Museum tour. Register at the Community Center or call 423-5602. This is a day trip.

Jane Clark will direct the organization of concerned parents who want specific help from the schools. Doris Gobba, School Social Worker, will be the resource person.

Hostesses for recent meetings were Martha Poppink, Kristin Schick, Eris Murphy, and Ann Halford.

High school babysitters were Pat Knisely, Aubrey Schroeder, Peg Burns, Tim Prettyman, Peter Graf, Marsha Bale, and Kathie Bick.

For information, readers may contact Clara Stevens, 423-2279 or Judi Crawford, 423-7215.

by Linda Phillips 423-5213

I am beginning to believe the skins on the onions grown in my garden last summer have provided quite an accurate weather forecast. If onions have a thin skin, a fairly mild winter will be in store; thicker skins mean a cold, wet haul—so the saying goes.

This "knowledge" isn't helping my case of the mid-winter blahs one bit, and it probably won't do a lot for yours, should you be suffering, either.

The only thing comparable to spring fever in January is Christmas spirit in August, and there isn't anything you can do about either one.

Those of you who follow the Macon Dialog will remember my lamenting all the garden work and canning not too many columns ago. Guess it's like laboring a birth—after awhile one can't remember the pain!

At any rate, I for one am more than ready to lay down my knitting and pick up my hoe to wage the never-ending war against the enemy weeds.

As an independent agent we answer to one boss — our hometown people

We represent several firms, but we work for only one boss—you. That way we can always place you with a company which we think is best for each line of insurance you need. Naturally, we prefer companies like Auto-Owners who look at a loss and take care of it right away, without haggling or delays. That's one of the reasons we're part of the Altogether Family. Like us, they're always there when you need them.

TURN OFF THE WORLD

Sunday John 1: 35-39	Thursday Acts 10: 34-41
Monday Proverbs 3: 1-8	Friday Exodus 34: 27-31
Tuesday Ephesians 4: 1-6	Saturday John 3: 14-18
Wednesday Psalms 26: 8-12

Scriptures selected by The American Bible Society

We all feel that way at times. And, tragically, there are some folks who feel that way much of the time.

But while the world in which we live leaves a lot to be desired, it's our world. And life in that world is pretty much what man himself has made of it.

The God who created us and our universe had some excellent plans for life as it should be. They are clearly set forth in the Bible whose writing He inspired. And they have become the spiritual blueprint of constructive living for millions of believers.

As the earth continues its endless turning, search for your goals in faith—not escape. . .in the Word of God—not the words of cynics.

Matmen Bow To Tough NB Huron

Tecumseh's matmen lost to a tough New Boston Huron squad last Thursday evening in Tecumseh. The final tally was 31-16.

Results in each weight class are: 98 lbs., Ron Halasz (T) decisioned Tim Sinclair 3-2; 105 Tom Reipz pinned Steve Bishop (T) at :34; 112 Don Rapin (T) decisioned Tim Bilbrey 9-8; 119 Larry Kittle decisioned Joe Castorena (T) 16-5; 126 John Thornsberry decisioned Dave Cuellar (T) 9-6; 132 Jim Shough (T) decisioned Ted Pappas 11-0; 138 Dan Tilton (T) decisioned Tom Robinson 4-2.

Finishing out the weight classes: 145 Gary Beasley (T) decisioned Paul Kincaid 3-2; 155 Ron Thornsberry pinned Kevin Eggleston (T) at 1:44; 167 John Budek decisioned Tim Eggleston (T) 7-1; 185 Al Voss decisioned Mike Creswell (T) 8-4; Heavyweight Bill Grover pinned Don Heistand (T) at 3:44.

Coach Pat Connors commented about the match, "We were still in the match up to the 185 lb. weight class when Mike Creswell lost by decision putting it out of reach. Although heavyweight Don Heistand was pinned, he made a tremendous effort. Bill Grover (New Boston Huron heavyweight) is an outstanding wrestler."

The Indian matmen host the Airport squad this Thursday evening at Tecumseh.

VB Team Wins Two

Tecumseh's volleyball team picked up two more victories during the last week to throw the varsity squad into a tie for first place in the Huron League.

Their 2-0 league record ties them up with Carlson and Grosse Ile.

The Indians first challenged Monroe Jefferson last week. The varsity lost their first game 15-13 but came back to win with scores of 14-7 and 15-5. Jane Faulkner grabbed 17 serving points.

The junior varsity won easily with scores of 15-[illegible] and 15-8. Tori Iffland scored 11 serving points.

The team hosted Bedford Tuesday night of this week winning that match also.

The varsity won out-right with scores of 16-14 and 15-2. Jane Faulkner was high scorer with 10 serving points.

The junior varsity lost their first game 15-8 but came back to win with a 15-4 and 16-14 tally. Tammy Downing was high scorer with 10 serving points.

The varsity now posts a 4-0 overall record and the JV a 3-1 record.

Coach Sue Allen commented about the match, "I was very pleased. The varsity had a tough time putting it together. They were behind 7-3 at one point in the first game.

"It was a big victory for the junior varsity. They lost to Bedford earlier in the season.

Britton Tories Beat Ida, Swamped By Deerfield

The Britton-Macon Tories split two games in cage action last week. The Tories lost to Deerfield 77-53 last Friday night but bounced back beating Ida Saturday night 69-62 in Britton.

The Tories had problems from the start in the Deerfield game falling behind 18-8 in the first quarter alone. By half-time, Britton trailed 30-18.

Britton hit 21 of 68 shots for 29.4 percent and grabbed 11 of 16 from the line for 69.3 percent. Deerfield connected on 48 percent of their shots from the field. The Tories turned over the ball 18 times to Deerfield's 19.

The Britton JV squad fell to Deerfield 53-51 in overtime play.

The very next night, Britton hosted Ida winning 69-62 to post a 4-7 record.

Britton took a first quarter lead 17-12 finishing out of the half at 37-34. The Tories ran all over Ida in the third quarter racking up 22 points to Ida's nine.

Britton connected on 24 of 52 shots for 46 percent and hit 21 of 28 from the line. Ida scored on 25 of 81 shots for 31 percent and made 12 of 16 free throws.

Britton turned over the ball 13 times to Ida's 14. The Tories out-rebounded Ida 32-24.

Top scorer for the Tories was Mike Saxton with 26 points and 14 rebounds.

The Tory junior varsity squad lost to Ida 80-40.

Coach Jim Sweigart commented on the Ida game, "It was our best ball game of the season. They pressed us the whole game but we turned over the ball only 13 times. Jeff Brown, Dan Exelby and Mike Servoss weren't shaken by the press. It was also our best shooting game and the players rebounded well."

The Tories travel to Ann Arbor St. Thomas this Friday night.

Aggies Beat Skins

SAND CREEK — After a strong first quarter showing, the Clinton Redskin cage team went on to lose to the Sand Creek Aggies 61-53 last Friday night.

The Skins took the first quarter 12-7 but allowed the Aggies to fight back pulling out a 26-26 tie at the half. The third quarter made the difference with Sand Creek racking up 18 points to Clinton's eight.

The Skins hit 20 of 65 attempts from the floor for 30.8 percent. From the line, Clinton connected on 13 of 20 attempts.

Sand Creek connected on 19 of 52 attempts for 36.5 percent and grabbed 23 of 35 free throws. The Aggies out-rebounded Clinton 36-33 and turned over the ball 17 times to Clinton's 23.

The Sand Creek junior varsity defeated the Skins JV squad 62-41.

Hockey Results

The Tecumseh Tomahawk Youth Hockey teams of Tecumseh's Recreation Department recorded two ties and one loss last weekend in Sylvania.

Saturday the Tomahawk Mites battled the undefeated Industrial Printing team to a 1-1 tie. Steve Eardley scored the only goal for Tecumseh assisted by Dave Stoll.

In the second game the Pee Wees remained in second place in the Sylvania League by tieing Mid-State Salvage 3-3. Tim Eardley scored with just six seconds remaining to gain the tie. Adam Sturtevant and Mark VanBuren also tallied for Tecumseh with assists going to Eardley, VanBuren, Scott Johnson and Jeff Fenelon.

Sunday the Hickory Farm Cheese Kings dropped the Tomahawk Bantams from the unbeaten ranks with a 2-1 win. The lone goal for Tecumseh was scored by Mike Horney with Al Mannik getting the assist. The Bantam squad now has an 8-1 record.

In games next weekend at the Tam-O-Shanter Arena in Sylvania, the Pee Wees play Saturday at 11 a.m. while the Mites and Bantams will take the ice Sunday at Noon and 4 p.m. respectfully.

Coach Is Honored

Indian head football coach Pat Connors was recently named the Class B Regional Football Coach of the Year by the Michigan High School Coaches Association.

The award was made last weekend at Sexton High School in Lansing.

Coach Connors said of the honor, "It's very important to me since I was picked by the other coaches, not the newspapers."

Gibralter Rocks Indians, 56-50

By FRANK WEIR

The Indians beat New Boston Huron last week but lost to Gibralter Carlson Tuesday night in cage action. Scores were 68-48 and 56-50 in the Huron and Carlson games respectively.

Although Huron took an early lead in the first quarter, Tecumseh tied it up 17-all at the beginning of the second. Tecumseh rallied allowing Huron only four free throws for the entire quarter while picking up 14 points for themselves.

In the second half, the Indians scored 37 points to Huron's 27 for an easy win.

Tecumseh hit 25 of 65 attempts from the floor for 38.5 percent. From the line, the Indians succeeded on 18 of 30. Huron connected on 15 of 52 attempted shots from the field for 28.8 percent and swished 18 of 30 free throws.

Tecumseh out-rebounded Huron 40-29 losing the ball 14 times to Huron's 24.

Tecumseh's JV squad won their battle 60-48.

The Indians traveled to Gibralter Carlson on Tuesday night of this week. In a close battle, Tecumseh just couldn't manage to pull ahead losing 56-50. The Indians beat Carlson earlier in the season.

The Indians were behind Carlson by just two points at the half 26-24. But they lost three more points in the third quarter.

The Indians hit 21 of 58 from the field and 8 of 15 from the line. Carlson dumped 17 of 49 from the field and 22 of 32 free throws. Carlson out-rebounded the Indians 30 to 26 while Tecumseh turned over the ball 10 times to Carlson's 11.

The Indian JV squad won 83-34.

LOTS OF BEANS WERE SERVED FRIDAY TO STRIKING EMPLOYEES

Resume Bargaining

Mediators have called both Tecumseh Products Company and the Union Board back to the bargaining table and have scheduled a meeting for Friday morning.

It will be the first negotiation session between the Union and Company since talks broke off Jan. 16. At that time both the Company and Union reported that considerable progress had been made.

Two incidents, occurring immediately after the Jan. 16th session, apparently delayed further sessions. First incident involved two trucks attempting to leave the plant and the second, a mailing from the Company to the Union membership.

Last Friday morning approximately 1,500 striking employees paraded through Tecumseh and then burned the latest mailing from the Company in barrels at the Products main gate.

Afterwards the employees and many of their wives were served beans from a large kettle outside the Union Hall. The outdoor cookout exemplified a depression era.

The parade and cookout attracted out-of-town news media with TV stations in Toledo and Detroit viewing scenes during Friday night news programs. A large Detroit daily also ran an extensive article in Sunday's edition.

Nearly 3,000 employees at the Products have been out on strike since Nov. 15, and now mark the 11th week of striking the local plant.

Guy Cox, Union Board president, is hopeful that Friday's bargaining session will be beneficial and that the Company and Union can make some progress toward settlement.

DEMONSTRATED—About 1,500 Union members paraded through Tecumseh Friday in protest. Several TV stations were here to record the parade. (Photos by Cortland Hunt)

Ask Youths for Blood Here Friday

High unemployment in the area has created a blood shortage.

The Lenawee County Chapter of the American Red Cross asks for five units each of O negative and A negative type blood, to meet the emergency.

The only Bloodmobile in the county will be at Tecumseh Community Center Friday from noon to 6 p.m.

A special appeal is being made to the 17 and 18 year olds, said Dr. Robert Murray, county chairman. Students volunteering blood will be released to donate. Special films and education programs are planned for them this week.

Last Bloodmobile in Tecumseh succeeded in collecting 130 pints Jan. 8 at the United Products Workers Union Hall. Bloodmobile hopes to do as well or better on Friday.

Tecumseh Jaycees are in charge of donors and will alert phone area donors via phone on Wednesday.

Marianne O'Connor is general volunteer chairman and Betty Brooks is assisting.

1974 Fire Losses Are Near Record

Losses from fire may have reached an all-time high in 1974, according to Wallace MacGeorge, chief of the Tecumseh Fire Department.

His annual report for last year shows 61 fire calls - up two from the previous year - for a loss total of $285,500. Biggest loss occurred at the Tecumseh Products on March 30 at the P-Building where units were damaged by water and flames.

In 1973, loss from fire totaled about $57,200.

A resume of the report is:
False alarms - 14.
Rescue calls - 22.
Assist other departments - 3.
Practice sessions - 12.
Washdowns, investigations, stand-bys, tornado watches and cancelled calls - 20.

There were a total of 132 calls, four less than the previous year.

Officers elected were, John Wotring, first assistant chief; Greg Long, second assistant chief; Jeff Baker, president; Dick Kahle, vice president; and Kent Naugle, secretary-treasurer.

Two firemen, Wotring and Naugle, completed an 80-hour emergency medical technician course at Bixby Hospital, and four firemen, MacGeorge, Long, George Ruhl and Duane Carpenter are currently taking the course.

Michell Vaughn Is Little Miss Follies

Michell Vaughn was crowned Little Miss Jaycee Follies 1975, Friday night at the Croswell Theater, Adrian, by last year's winner Tammy Moulton.

MICHELLE VAUGHN

Miss Vaughn received a $50 bond. She is the daughter of Mrs. Robert Feldkamp and Michael Vaughn of Clinton.

She received 5,622 votes and was selected from 15 finalists. Her canister was located at First Federal Savings and Loan in Tecumseh.

First runner up was Kris Deatrick, 8 year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Deatrick of Tecumseh. She received a $25 bond. Her canister was at Flander's Music Co.

Patsy Bush and Claire Helms presented the awards.

Bank Organizes for '75

Tuesday afternoon's annual meeting of the shareholders of the United Savings Bank was the last for J.W. "Pat" Meadows as an active officer in the Tecumseh Bank, and also the last for two directors, Mills Swick and L.M. Hubbard.

Mr. Meadows graciously thanked the bank's staff and board of directors for their cooperation during the past 13 years.

Mr. Swick, whose father was among the original directors in 1932, spoke briefly. Mr. Hubbard, who resides in Florida, was absent.

In 1974, a stock dividend, 33 and one-third percent with a par value of $500,000, plus cash dividends of $300,000 were declared.

Following the shareholders meeting, the directors met and approved several promotions and appointments.

Kenneth C. McElroy, president, also assumes the title of chief executive officer, and Merlyn H. Downing, executive vice president and cashier, is also now chief operating officer.

Lincoln Lloyd and William Danley, formerly assistant vice presidents, are now vice presidents.

Mr. Lloyd started with the bank in October 1963. He became assistant cashier in April 1966 and assistant vice president in December 1972.

Mr. Danley has been with the bank since November 1967. He was promoted to assistant cashier in 1970 and to assistant vice president in December 1972.

Other appointments at the directors meeting were:

Hazel Kayner, chief teller, main office.

Hazel Doke, supervisor, loan department.

Linda Lapham, accounting supervisor.

Mary Jane Winzeler, assistant to manager, Sutton Rd. Office.

Marjorie Bilby, assistant to manager, Herrick Park Office.

Genevieve Younglove, assistant to manager, Britton Office.

John Burch, assistant to manager, West Chicago Office.

Sue Durkee, chief teller, West Chicago Office.

Officers retaining their positions include J.W. Meadows, board chairman; Earl Mason, senior vice president and West Chicago Office manager; J.L. Stoner, vice president and auditor; Mary Bowers, vice president and Herrick Park Office manager; A.D. Sayler, vice president and Britton Office manager; Nina Wright, vice president; Isadore Koffron, assistant cashier; and Barbara Young, assistant cashier and Sutton Rd. Office manager.

The annual meeting was held in the bank's new branch on West Chicago with approximately 70 shareholders attending.

RETIRING FROM BANK AS ACTIVE OFFICER

Open House Friday for Pat

Friday marks an end to an era that started 13 years ago at United Savings Bank of Tecumseh.

And, marking this end will be an open house for J.W. "Pat" Meadows, who has reached the age of retirement and will be leaving the local bank as an active bank officer. He will continue, however, as chairman of the board of directors.

In recognition of Pat, the bank is having an open house Friday in the directors' room. Hours are from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., with the hopes that all his Tecumseh and area friends will have an opportunity of dropping in for a visit.

Pat's retirement occurs just 13 years after John Thompson stepped down as the bank's top executive officer. Mr. Thompson had guided the bank through the 1930s, through the '40s and '50s and into the early 1960s, when he retired, he left a "solid" bank.

On April 15, 1962, Pat became president and provided the impetus which saw the bank grow and grow, a local bank which helped many Tecumseh businesses reach positions never dreamed of reaching, and a bank that extended itself in developing friendly relations with the public.

In 1968 he succeeded Robert H. Moore as chairman of the board, a position he has retained, and in 1970 he was elected by the directors to chief executive officer.

In the past 13 years the United Savings Bank practically skyrocketed from a $20 million bank to one of nearly $66 million, largest in Lenawee County. Number of shareholders more than tripled during this period.

When Pat became president there was one office. Today there are five.

Sutton Road was officially opened on Oct. 13, 1965. Less than two years later on May 1, 1967, Herrick Park Office was opened. Two other branches followed, Britton on Oct. 25, 1972 and West Chicago on Nov. 18, 1974.

October 1973 was a memorable one for Pat. It marked 50 years in banking, 50 years after he started as a messenger and errand boy for National Bank and Trust Co. of Ann Arbor. He later rose to assistant cashier and vice president with that institution.

United Savings Bank recognized him at that time with an open house, inviting not only local and area friends to the open house, but many of his banking friends in Ann Arbor and other cities.

He summarized his feelings in the Annual Report that was given to shareholders at Tuesday's annual meeting.

In part, he said "grateful is a small word. However, in the sentiment I wish to extend and the many things I wish to say, and to acknowledge the privilege of sincere friendships, it is a justly simple word. I am grateful."

WILLING PATIENT—Tecumseh Mayor Harold Easton paid a visit to the dental offices of Drs. Wolfe and Murray on Tuesday to sign a proclamation declaring Feb. 2-8 Dental Health Week. Four dental hygienists from Tecumseh will be speaking to third graders in the city promoting proper dental care. Dr. Graham Foster is the local chairman for the week. Three of the four hygienists who will be speaking to the students are pictured above checking over the Mayor's molars. They are left to right, Janis Baker, Shelly Smith and Debbie Smith. Sherry Couture is not pictured. (Photo by Frank Weir)

Stockholders Hold Meeting

CLINTON — At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the State Savings Bank of Clinton held Jan. 22. All the directors were reelected for the coming year and at the organizational meeting of the directors following the shareholder's meeting, all officers were reelected.

Directors and officers of the bank are W.P. Van Tuyle, president, and director; D.K. Van Tuyle, executive vice-president and cashier and director; Dan J. Boutell, senior vice-president and director; Gary Miller, assistant cashier and director; Melvin R. Smith, director; Orville Bohnenstiehl, director; Martha Van Tuyle, director; Ray Service, director; Robert Brauburger, director; Lois Minor, assistant cashier; Jerry Langowski, assistant cashier.

The position of the bank in their Irish Hills Branch Office application was explained in detail. The Union Savings Bank of Manchester and the National Bank of Jackson have previously contended in their protesting action that bank service in the Irish Hills by a Branch Bank was not needed.

These protesting banks have now petitioned the Ingham County Circuit Court for a review of the banking commissioner's decisions to allow the branch office.

The State Savings Bank of Clinton has joined the attorney general's office in requesting the Ingham County Circuit Court to either grant a summary judgement and allow the branch bank as ordered by the banking commissioner or grant an early review of the matter.

State Savings Bank of Clinton's board of directors and officers are anxious to get started on the branch and have already taken bids on the construction to enable them to make a quick move when the delays are resolved.

Tecumsehites Attend LCBMARSP

A number of people from Tecumseh attended the Jan. 23 meeting of Lenawee County Branch of Michigan Association of Retired School Persons at the Vo-Tech Center including Ruth Whiting, Irene Boltz, Lela Colson, Mildred Winkle, Dolores Surratt, Anabel Cadmus, Dorothy Baker, Dorothy Westdyke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osgood and Thelma Younglove.

President Viola Towle introduced Mrs. Frances Saxton who told of the plans for the Adrian Sesquicentennial and also the Blissfield Women's Chorus who sang dressed in colonial costumes.

Director Mrs. Beverly Seager climaxed the program with a Charleston song and dance number.

Bob Mason, Sesquicentennial chairman, spoke as did Duane Winters, MEA representative on insurance.

THROUGH MY WINDOW
by Marda Gene Duncan

MY FLORIDA BIRD FEEDER

Even before we left Tecumseh last November Aunt and Rog announced that they had a bird feeder picked out for me. We had only been here a few days when I announced that I had already picked out a spot for it. Close to the porch but easily seen from my room, the living room and, of course, the porch itself. Well, as soon as it was in place and full of scratch feed we were in business. Believe me, it did not take long for the word to get around that a new refreshment stand was open and ready for customers.

Wish I could say that the free-loader was a cardinal but, unfortunately, I can't. A cardinal was the first bird I saw on the morning of our first full day here and in Tecumseh our very first window feeder hosted a red boy as its inital patron.

The chain was broken however and our Florida feeding-station has the dubious honor of recording as its first free-loader a boat-tailed grackle. Not a very exciting beginning but it was a fun thing to see.

These boat-tailed grackles are 'something else again'. In the first place, they are huge—the males measuring at least 16 inches long and the females about 12.

And for such large birds they have rather skinny long legs. The first bird I saw lit on the roof and was stymied.

The feeding-station is a house type one with a pitched roof covering the two food compartments, the open area between them, the floor and the perching-eating railings.

As the bird stalked back and forth on the ridge of the roof, his large feet slipped with every step and he was a perfect picture frustration. There was food but he simply could not figure out how to get at it.

In a day or two the mystery was solved, solved and every boat-tailed grackle in Florida came to dine. They are still coming. We quickly learned that the banquet boards are not set as they are in Tecumseh.

In Michigan we heaped the food on the feeding trays because we were hoping to attract the free-loaders but also it was a case of providing food so as to make their living a bit easier.

In fact, a well-stocked bird feeding station could often mean the difference between surviving and not surviving in extremely bad weather. Here the sole purpose of feeding is to selfishly afford good-looking to the bird-watching Duncans.

Therefore small quantities of food are put out each day. With bird food being as high as people food it is only practical to be a bit careful.

Fortunately Papa Cardinal found us soon. I looked first thing on morning-no, I did not say early--and there he was standing on the corner of the roof. Unlike the boat-tailed, the cardinal had no trouble at all knowing that by perching on the railing all of the goodies in the food bins were available. He was in no hurry for breakfast though and stood some minutes on the roof.

The sun was shining brightly and as he turned first one way and then the other, I could almost hear him sigh that oh, this warm Florida sunshine does feel good. (It does too, it soaks right into the bones and drives out all traces of cold.)

And as breathtakingly beautiful is a handsome male cardinal against freshly fallen white snow, to see one in tip-top condition standing in the blaze of bright sunshine is a thrill too.

A pair of mocking birds visit the feeder each day but not to eat. Although Dad has put raisins out several times they have not yet discovered them and their visits are strictly for show.

Actually, these birds are not a bit concerned about giving us good mockingbird looking--they like high perches and apparently the roof of our feeder makes a good look-out spot. Who cares why they come, we are just happy that they do.

Not so eagerly greeted are the hordes of grackles and cowbirds. They come swarming in as boldly and brashly as in Michigan. They are noisy, quarrelsome and every bit as unwelcome too.

Their numbers are almost frightening because, when these outlaws appear, no one else has a chance and it almost seems as though they are crowding the nicer birds into extinction. But when they leave others come back and thus faith is restored.

One member of the black bird family is giving us pleasure. They come in flocks every bit as large as the grackles and cowbirds but somehow the effect upon us is different.

We thoroughly enjoy the visits of the red-winged blackbirds. At home they scrupulously ignore our feeding stations but down here it does not seem to compromise their principals one bit to free-load on our handouts.

So it is that some of the customers are the same and some different but the business is good and, even though some of the patrons we could do without, we are nevertheless thoroughly enjoying my Florida bird feeder.

Crosses Equator

Navy Lieutenant William J. Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo B. Wallace of 8950 Carson, has crossed the equator while serving aboard the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise with Tactical Electronic Warfare Squadron 137.

The squadron is embarked aboard the carrier on a deployment in the Western Pacific.

Son Saves Three from Possible Drowning

Skip and Helen Milheim, who have retired to Sebring, Fla., had an exciting time for the first of the month when their son, Lendall, saved three teenagers from possible drowning.

The boys, ages 8 to 13, were floating on rubber balls when they got into water over their heads and lost the balls.

Lendall, riding on a rubber raft nearby, heard their cries for help. He got them to the raft but with every wave lost one or two until he told them they "had to kick to help and hang on or none of them would make it."

Three scared kids and an exhausted Lendall finally made it back to Vero Beach.

Less exciting perhaps, but more pleasureable was the New Year's Eve fun the Milheims all enjoyed at the Kenilworth with the Ink Spots.

They also visited Disney and Sea World during the younger couple's visit from Dec. 19 to Jan. 5.

Skip's foursome from Sebring Men's Golf Association won a pro-am double low ball tourney recently with a minus 24.

Pat Donahue Named Director

Pat Donahue, Lenawee Institute, Sutton Road, Adrian, has been named an area director of the 1975 Michigan Special Olympics for the mentally retarded.

As a 1975 area director, Donahue will coordinate this year's Special Olympic events in Lenawee, Hillsdale and Jackson counties.

Area directors are key volunteers. They work with local schools and community groups to establish year-round programs of recreation and training for the mentally retarded. They also organize all local and area competitive events.

The Michigan Special Olympics is part of an international effort to provide recreation and athletic training for the retarded.

Founded by the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, the Olympics provides local, area, state and international competitions in track and field, swimming, gymnastics and other team sports.

Some 12,000 Michigan retarded are expected to take part in the 1975 events, highlighted by the state finals on June 6-7 at Central Michigan University.

Top contestants from the state games will then compete with representatives from all 50 states and several foreign countries in the International Special Olympics games, Aug. 7-11 at CMU.

10th Annual Jaycee Follies Successful

The 10th Annual Jaycee Follies were held Friday and Saturday night at the Croswell Opera House in Adrian.

The theme of this successful event was "Thru the Year."

The cast party was held after the performance at the Cedar Shack.

Plaques of appreciation were presented to the six persons who have participated in all 10 years of the Follies: Dyke and Claire Helms, Walt and Norma Wonderly, and John and June Day.

Ken Beevers, Jaycee chairman, presented one dozen carnations to Mary Moulton, general chairman for the auxiliary.

Mrs. Ken Beevers presented bracelet charms and tie tacks to all the sub-chairmen.

Tecumseh Jaycees and Auxiliary thank the Tecumseh Herald for their cooperation. Also, many thanks go to House of Pizza, Mastercraft Draperies, Eggleston Jewelers, and Flanders Music Co. where tickets were sold.

70 + 1, GRANDMA AND GREGORY — Mrs. William White, 70, of 3852 Kaiser Road and her great grandson, Gregory R. Cook, one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory R. Cook, shared the same birthday, Tuesday. An open house was in their honor. Mrs. White, born in Ridgeway, has seven children, 19 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren.

Eileen Fretwell Weds Earl Gerth

Eileen Elizabeth Fretwell and Earl William Gerth were united in marriage Saturday evening by the Rev. Kenneth Strack in Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elvin E. Fretwell of Orchard Lane and the late Rudolph and Amanda Gerth of Coldwater.

Alan Ballenberger served as organist.

Pink mint carnations and mixed flowers filled the altar vases and a small arrangement graced the organ for the ceremony.

On the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of beige dacron polyester crepe designed with deep rounded neckline, trimmed with tiny crocheted lace edging and strips of lace down the long sleeves. Her sweeping floor length skirt was slightly flared.

She wore a cluster of carnations, babys breath and a star flower in her hair and carried more of the same blooms tied with beige and blue ribbons.

Mrs. Charles Fretwell of Inkster was matron of honor in a floor length gown of turquoise crepe with V neckline and empire waist. She wore the same kind of flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet [illegible] of the bride with emphasis in pink.

Charles Fretwell, brother of the bride, served as best man and guests were seated by John Fretwell and Gene Gerth, brothers of the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fretwell were hosts for the reception in the church parlor where the bridal bouquets enhanced the refreshment table.

Nancy Blohm, cousin of the bride, served punch and Mrs. A. E. Wiebeck, aunt of the bride, cut the cake made by Mrs. Dela Vanderstelt of Adrian.

The bride was graduated from Tecumseh High School and was employed by F. W. Woolworth Co. until Dec. 31.

The groom was graduated from Coldwater High School and [illegible] of the University and is retired from the State Employment Department of Natural Resources.

The couple is living in Jackson following a two week trip to Florida.

HIGH SCHOOL FACULTY FETED BY ADVANCED CLASS.

Food Class Hosts Faculty

BRITTON—The Advanced Foods Class of Britton-Macon High School hosted the high school faculty at a dinner Jan. 22 at 3:45 p.m.

This dinner was planned as the final evaluation for the nine-week class of 11th and 12th grade students.

The dinner baked ham or roast beef, baked potatoes with sour cream, green beans and mushroom casserole, relish plate, hot dinner rolls, assorted pie and ice cream cake, was prepared entirely "from scratch" by the students.

In preparation they planned the menu, made up the shopping list and planned the time and work schedule.

Members of the class include Diane Andrews, Jeff Campbell, Tammy Gibbs, Randy Henning, Dawn Lidster, Shelly Mann, Pat Moore, Julie Osterhout, Yvonne Reynolds, Lori Reitz, Doug Armstrong, Todd Studnick, Diana Morris and Sharon Rowe.

Entertains Parents

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. George Bower were guests of their family on Saturday evening when they were taken to Metzger's German Restauraat in Ann Arbor for supper. The occasion marked the Bower's 40th wedding anniversary, which was Sunday, Jan. 25.

Those who attended were children of the Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Carl Bower, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Martlock and grandchildren, David Newman and guest, Vickie Felbaum; Karen Newman and guest, Dean McKenzie; Fritz Martlock and guest, Debbie Dunbar; Randy Martlock and guest, Sherrie, Bruce and Tom Martlock.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Bower and Carl were George Rose of Romulus; Clara Neuman, Westland; and Mr. and Mrs. Durwood Bower of Romulus, who were also celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary.

Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Todd, Andrea and Scott; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Martlock and Karen, David, Fritz and Tom; Vickie Feldbaum and Debbie Dunbar. They presented the honored couples with a double decorated anniversary cake.

Late evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Hammer of Carlton.

10th Grade Students Finish Unit

BRITTON—The home economics students in the 10th grade at Britton-Macon High School have had an exciting conclusion to their unit in kitchen design.

As a class project, each student drew a floor plan, to scale, showing the three work areas of the kitchen.

In addition, they included at least two other areas, such as an eating area, planning center, laundry center, family room, etc.

These designs were evaluated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fogelsong of Kitchen and Fabric Centre of Tecumseh, who selected an overall winner, Terrie Stevens.

First runner-up was Matt Webb and second runner-up, Cris Parke.

The Kitchen and Fabric Centre provided the prizes.

EVERYONE WILL PAY FOR THE POWER PLANTS WE CAN'T BUILD NOW

Consumers Power

Insufficient earnings have caused us to cancel and delay essential power plant construction. This has resulted in the loss of a lot of jobs... perhaps your own.

Power plant construction is costly. It cannot be done without obtaining large sums of money from investors.

The problem is: our earnings haven't kept pace with inflation. Now, earnings have declined to the point where today we cannot sell our securities. That's bad for us. And it's bad for everyone who depends on us for electricity.

That's why we have asked for authorization to raise the price of electricity. Without it, we would have to stop building. That would mean loss of jobs now, and much greater costs later on.

The truth is: a power plant isn't just a source of power. It's an essential ingredient of prosperity, progress and jobs. Now, and in the future.

This message is paid for by the owners of Consumers Power Company.

ROYLE COBRA, A FLYHAWK GRANDSON

MICHLAND LIGHTFOOT, A SENATOR GRAHAM GRANDSON, WITH OWNERS KAY AND KEN ZORNOW.

Waiting for a Champ

By KATHY KULCZYK

It's still early in the new year and people have their hopes up, anticipating their new year's dreams coming true.

Kay and Ken Zornow, owners of Littlecroft Morgan Farms, Tecumseh, are hoping for a Grand Champion this year.

Royle Cobra, their Morgan stallion, is the uncle of the 1973 Grand National Park Harness champion, Beamington, and now has an opportunity to train with the champion nephew's trainer at Irish Lane Farms, Delovan, Ill.

Royle Cobra left Littlecroft Farms in Nov. 1974 for the Irish Lane Morgan Farms to stand stud and park harness training for 1975 breeding and show season.

It is estimated that only 20 percent of the Morgans make it in park harness. Because he is "line bred" in a champion bloodline, Royle Cobra's chances of succeeding his nephew as park harness champion look good.

Line breeding is done for consistency in producing foals of the desired characteristics that will in turn produce superior family lines.

Line breeding is not to be mistaken with "in-breeding," which is between parent and offspring.

Royle Cobra and Beamington are very close in the family line of the famous stallion, Flyhawk, grandsire to both.

Flyhawk was Champion Stallion of the 1940 Illinois State Fair and renowned Morgan for 34 years.

Flyhawk had breed characteristics and personality; bright, alert, prominent eyes and a happy disposition.

The Aircobra is Royle Cobra's sire.

Both stallions were bred and raised at Irish Lane Farms, which has over 150 years of Morgan breeding.

Both stallions died in their 20's with honors of being two of the Top Morgan stallions in the United States.

Beamington, owned by Irish Lane Farms, left in November for the Windover Farms of New York.

He sold for a six figure amount, the highest price paid for a Morgan in the United States.

It is no coincidence, therefore, that Irish Lane Farms was chosen to train Royle Cobra.

Irish Lane, owned by Mrs. Doris Ryan and her mother, Mrs. Helen Greenwalt, (nee Brunk), has a winning reputation. The owners are prestigious in the business.

Mrs. Greenwalt, 75 years young, is active in the Morgan horse business. Mrs. Doris Ryan is a national horse show judge, and trains and shows park harness horses throughout the Midwest and East.

They are also members of the American Morgan Horse Association board of directors.

Littlecroft is proud of the black stallion, Royle Cobra. His barn name is "Spook" because of his black color and big, bright Morgan eyes.

Morgan horses are an American breed whose ancestory is predominantly Thoroughbred and Arabian.

They embody the characteristics of the first progenitor, Justin Morgan I, straight, clean legs; deep muscling over quarters and shoulders; short, fine head; large, expressive eyes; short, pricked ears and long, full manes.

Versatility is another Morgan characteristic. Morgans can be trained as a roadster, a stock horse, a pleasure horse, an equitation horse or fine harness horse.

Gentleness is the quality of Morgans that prompts people to want to own another one.

Morgans are noted for their high degree of intelligence, stamina, endurance and unflagging, good spirits, agility and longevity.

On a note behind women's liberation, Mrs. Zornow said "Before mares were registered, they were considered a necessary evil. Now breeders are recognizing their importance as breeding partners. After all, 50 percent of the foal's heritage is the mother's genes.

"It is also important to carefully select the stallion since gestation is 11 months and you don't want to tie up a mare if the result may be unsatisfactory. It is like planned parenthood," she explained.

It takes much courage, patience and several years for breeders to select a bloodline and stay with it. The Zornows have selected the Flyhawk, Senator Graham and Jubilee King bloodlines, all of which originated with the Brunks.

The outcross line they have selected is the Lippit, which originated with Robert Knight. This line contains the highest percentage of Justin Morgan I blood than any other line in the United States.

The Zornows anxiously await Royle Cobra's first four offspring at Littlecroft this spring, with the first to arrive in April. Three foal of other stallions are also expected.

Kay and Ken Zornow started the Littlecroft Morgan Farms about three years ago.

Morgans have a tight registry and a lot of upcoming action in the industry, the couple commented.

Littlecroft expects some action this year and awaits news of the success of its favorite son, Royle Cobra.

Seniors Hold Baby Shower

When the expecting couple walked into the Community Center last Wednesday they were greeted by 25 of their older friends who had planned a surprise baby shower.

Beth and Terry Lighthall were honored by Tecumseh Senior Citizens at a salad luncheon last week.

It was a total surprise for the expecting mother who was asked to join the group and bring a salad.

Among the gifts from the whole group were bedding, clothing and a bootie, hat and crocheted cape set.

Shower was a project conceived by the older citizens for assistant recreation director Lighthall and wife who are expecting in early March.

Mrs. Lighthall said they appreciated the gifts but especially the thoughtfulness of everyone.

The pair moved into town about two weeks ago and now reside at 415 W. Pottawatamie.

Attorney to Speak

Henry "Bud" Crudder, attorney, will be the speaker at the Community Drop-In Center Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 9:15 a.m.

This program is in response to outstanding community interest about wills resulting from a previous program about legal concerns.

After the coffee break at 10:30 Crudder will answer questions. Also, junior-senior high discussion group will discuss rules and regulations.

Babysitting is free and all interested are welcome.

Cheri Weakly is coordinator for February. Hostess for the Jan. 28 meeting was Madeline Peoples.

Now in Toledo

Mrs. Lou Ann Hewitt Swanson is employed in the Holly Glenn Nursing Home in Toledo following her graduation from Northwestern Ohio Practical Nurse Training Center in November.

Mrs. Swanson presented the student address for the commencement exercises.

She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Burleson and daughter of Mrs. Dick Scarbrough of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Krueger, Adrian, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary. Their children will have an open house on Sunday, Feb. 9 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Adrian Moose Club, 427 W. Maumee St. for friends and relatives. Harry Krueger and Mary Ott were married in St. Pauls Lutheran Church, Toledo, Ohio, by the Rev. Henry Schuh on Feb. 7, 1925. The couple has two grandchildren, Mrs. Don (Jeanne) Bowen of Palmyra, and Mrs. Perry (Shirley) Cook of Clinton. They have four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. They ask that gifts be omitted.

Attends Conference

Dr. C.L. Knisely was among more than 300 professionals participating in the 52nd annual postgraduate conference sponsored by Michigan State University's College of Veternary Medicine.

Fifty topic areas, from acupuncture for horses to abdominal radiology for cats, were presented in seminars, clinical demonstrations and case presentations.

Discussions also included the changing status of veterinary medical student admissions, an overview of the MSU College of Osteopathic Medicine, and medical experiences in the recent Arab-Israeli war.

Demonstration for Monday Club

Ruth McCann of The Cake Shoppe demonstrated chocolate molding to Monday Club members Jan. 20, using molds and melting the chocolate to fill them.

Using white chocolate colored with oil, she said the molded chocolate may be "painted" to produce colored eggs and carrots for Easter bunnies.

Nuts or raisin clusters can be made in a few minutes.

Mrs. William Snook, president, asked Mrs. LeRoy Titley to act on the revisions committee with Mrs. [illegible] Schneider in updating Article I of the by-laws.

Mrs. Perry Hayden, chairwoman of nominating committee, will report at the Feb. 3 meeting.

Announcement was made of the meeting of Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs Feb. 19 in Christ Episcopal Church, Adrian.

Mrs. Robert Bonner and her committee served refreshments from a table centered with a large terrarium.

Little Garden Club Meets

The meeting of Little Garden Club was begun with thoughts and prayers in memory of Mrs. Wilbur Andrews, charter member and past president of the group recently deceased.

Mrs. Harold Ocamb was hostess.

It was announced that an anonymous donor had given $1,000 to the Adams Park Fund.

Two hundred five trees have been sold by the group and will arrive this spring.

Mrs. Arlene Ousterhout shared her experiences for the many years she worked as a florist in Tecumseh. She pointed out the changes that have been made in wedding and funeral floral arrangements.

Mrs. Rene Crombez served as assistant hostess.

Style Sense by Evel

Skinny eyebrows go in and out of vogue, but here are some tips to remember: skimpy eyebrows can give the face a vacant look. So if you pluck, do so carefully. If brows are light in color, they can be dyed with a special brow dye to make them look more prominent. First aid for skinny eyebrows: pencil with a brow pencil sharpened to a flat wedge to sketch on tiny hairs, and then gently brush them to blur the edges, so they look natural.

If you do not have a lipstick brush, get one made of sable. Fill the brush well with lipstick. Start from the outer corner of your mouth and work toward the center. Practice so that you can do the line in one sweep, then the other side, then the lower lip. When you have made a frame, you can fill it in easily. Most mature women need to extend the upper lip line in a rounder, fuller curve.

Hearing on Rezoning

CLINTON—A special meeting was held by village council Jan. 13 for a public hearing on rezoning.

Request for rezoning of property on Railroad Street from Residential—A to Residential—B was explained by Kathy Thomas, speaking for the petitioner.

She introduced Kark F. Freed, engineer for the proposed multiple dwelling buildings planned for the property.

A total of 24 living units contained in three buildings is proposed.

Citizens attending questioned Mr. Freed about possible traffic congestion, and adequacy of water and sewer facilities.

Property owners had submitted a letter to council expressing a desire for an alley or buffer zone at the rear of the proposed site.

Council president pro-tem, Gilbert Hill, said he would submit the matter to the zoning committee for study.

The total area plan will then be submitted to the Region II Planning Commission for consideration.

Take Part In Cystic Fibrosis

CLINTON—To educate Clinton residents on Cystic Fibrosis, a children's lung disease,the Jaycee Auxiliary is taking an active part in Kiss Your Baby Week, sponsored by the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation during the week of Feb. 2-8.

Posters have been placed in merchants windows and in the elementary school which explain that the signs of C-F are:

1. extremely salty taste to the child's perspiration which can be detected by kissing or tasting them on the forehead,
2. recurrent wheezing,
3. persistent coughing and excessive muscus,
4. pneumonia more than once during childhood,
5. excessive appetite, but poor weight gain,
6. clubbing (enlargement) of fingertips.

Monday, Feb. 2 and Saturday, Feb. 8 Auxiliary members will be at the Clinton State Savings Bank passing out brochures explaining the inherited disease for which there is neither cure nor control.

Chairman Fayetta Jones has arranged for members of her committee, working on publicizing Kiss Your Baby Week, to record public service announcements at WLEN as another effort to alert parents to the signs of C-F.

Early diagnosis and prompt treatment is essential in lengthening the life span of C-F children.

Teenagers Pitch in to Help Farmer

CLINTON—David Heimerdinger, a Pennington Road dairy farmer, has been suffering from a severe back ailment for the past two weeks, and Saturday, a group of teenagers decided to show him that someone cares.

Fifteen youths of the United Church of Christ slogged through mud and cold, driving rain all Saturday afternoon picking up nearly three wagon loads of ear corn from the Heimerdinger fields on Murphy Road.

Recent wind and snow had knocked the corn down so badly that the combine was unable to pick up all the big ears. The damp weather threatened to cause the corn to mold if it wasn't retrieved soon.

"It sure restored our faith in youth," Betty Heimerdinger commented as she expressed her appreciation for the youngsters' help.

74-75 Betty Crocker Girl

CLINTON—Susan A. Frolich has been named Clinton High School 1974-75 Betty Crocker Family Leader of Tomorrow.

Susan won the honor by competing with other seniors in the written knowledge and attitude examination on Dec. 3. She is now eligible for state and national honors and will receive a specially designed award from General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the annual educational scholarship program.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frolich.

Hustlers Name Mall Day People

CLINTON—A Mall Day committee was named at the Jan. 13 meeting of the North Franklin Hustlers 4-H Club in the Community Center.

Plans for a booth or float will be made by Amy Young, Ruth and Fran Vincent, Kandy Bachman, Ellen Wegner, Scott Adams, Bev, Janet and Darlene Williams, Chris Penterics, Michelle Jenkins, Kim and Carolyn Hartung and Karyn and Don Coward.

[illegible] were installed, including Kim Hartung, president.

Parent advisors are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hartung, Mr. and Mrs. James Atwell, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Traves, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young and Mr. and Mrs. George Heimerdinger. Pie chairwoman is Mrs. Charles Aebersold. Mrs. Fred Wegner and Mrs. Melvin Roehm are help chairwomen.

New members installed are Dawn Gonia, Audrey, Jack, Janie Thompson, Kandi Bachman, Don, Karyn Coward, Sandy Humphries, Amy Young, Gloria, Louie, Dorothy Velarde, Lisa Roehm, Grace Dotson, Mary, Teresa Handley, Patricia, Tom Forman, Licia, Michaelle Grinnell, Robin Stoner and Elvia Diaz.

[illegible] will be three demonstrations at the next meeting by Darlene Williams, and Bill Winzeler, sheep; Bev and Janet Williams, beef; and Bob Winzeler and Ruth Vincent, swine.

Members are to bring their 210 A forms, filled out, to the meeting on Jan. 10 at 7 p.m. in the Community Center.

New Ceramics Shop Opened

CLINTON—Mr and Mrs. LeRoy Douglas have opened LeRoy and Pat's Ceramics shop in their home at 12661 Wilbur Road.

The shop is located four miles north of Clinton, the first house off Clinton-Manchester Road, on Wilbur Road.

Because Mrs. Douglas is also a Clinton school bus driver, she will have the shop open daily except Tuesday and Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. and 4 to 8 p.m. and all day Saturday.

Mr. Douglas is the meat manager at Vescio's, Saline.

Ceramics is an all family project at the Douglas household, with their three children, Rhonda 15, Chris 13, and Tammy 11, all involved with the craft.

The family has resided in Clinton area for 10 years.

Besides finished ceramics, the new shop will handle greenware and paints, and classes in ceramics will be offered.

Committees for Church Banquet

CLINTON—Father-daughter banquet committees were named at a meeting of the Women's Fellowship at the United Church of Christ, Thursday evening.

The banquet, a change from the usual father-son event, will be held Feb. 15 at 6:30 p.m. in the church.

Priscilla Class will prepare the dinner; Philathea Class, decorations; Mary-Martha Class, dining room; and Serendipity Sisters, clean-up.

Mrs. Earl Lawrence and Mrs. Floyd Odell will be hostesses for the public euchre party on Feb. 8 at the church.

Prizes will be furnished by Mrs. Richard Cadmus, Mrs. William Shelley, Mrs. Edmond Piatt, Mrs. Hugh Pike and Mrs. Jack Davis.

Mrs. Floyd Odell and Mrs. Arthur Hill were named to a committee to assist with the World Day of Prayer service at St. John's Episcopal Church March 7.

Serendipity Sisters announced a Valentine bake sale to be held at the local bank on Friday afternoon, Feb. 14.

Devotions were presented by Mrs. Piatt.

Mrs. Steve Bowman conducted the program on the theme, "We're Strangers No Longer," using a quiz on likes and dislikes. She demonstrated how often the very things which separate people can be the key to greater understanding between them.

Nominating committee of Mrs. Donald Corwin, Mrs. Odell and Mrs. Harold Calhoun will report at the next meeting March 20.

Salad and coffee were served by the Priscilla Class.

MRS. KUKINI PRIBLE

Couple United in Hawaiian Garden

CLINTON—Pualielani Waikiekona and Kukini Prible were married in a traditional Hawaiian wedding ceremony in the gardens of the Halekulani Hotel, Honolulu, Hawaii, Jan. 4.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Waikiekona of Honolulu.

The groom, a Clinton businessman, resides in Manchester with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Prible.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, the Rev. David Kaipo.

The wedding party walked down an aisle marked with orchid topiary trees joined by ropes of mock orange greenery, and assembled before a hau tree in a natural setting.

The bride wore an off-shoulder white satin gown, designed by her brother.

The deeply draped skirt and cathedral length train were accented with fresh pink roses tucked in the folds of the skirt.

She wore a circlet headdress of fresh flowers attached to her long veil.

Matron of honor Mrs. Roja Wight and bridesmaid Pauline Poa wore long gowns in shades of pink and lavender.

Harvey Fernandez was best man and Edwardo Waikiekona, brides's brother, was an usher.

The entire wedding party was adorned with maili and jasmin leis.

Following a reception in the gardens a luau was held at Kaimike, in the highlands above the city. The Governor of Hawaii was among the many distinguished guests attending.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Hawaii travel school and is supervisor of Vacations-Hawaii in Honolulu, and is a professional dancer.

The groom, who was born and raised in Hawaii, operated a florist shop in Clinton since 1964, and Kukini Travel agency since 1971, and presently conducts tours to Hawaii.

For the present he will continue to operate Kukini Travel and tours and commute to Hawaii where Mrs. Prible is remaining.

Holloway Happenings

by Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY — The annual meeting of the Raisin Presbyterian Church of Holloway enjoyed a carry-in dinner at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

The Rev. Gene Phelegar was the moderator. Lyle Calhoun is clerk of the session.

Those nominated to complete their terms were: Harold Johnston, Mrs. Henry Wiesmann, Virgil Lowery.

The new elder to be ordained is Joe Glenn. Others elected for one year terms were: Elwyn Green as treasurer, benvolence treasurer and organist, Mrs. Roger Richards.

Virgil Lowery gave the financial report. All committees reported on their activities.

The Sunday School officers are superintendent William German; assistant, Mrs. Sarah Lowery; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lois Ventz; organist, Mrs. Roy Cadmus; flower committee, Mrs. Lowery; cradle roll, Mrs. Mamie Gritzmaker.

Mrs. Joe Glenn was hostess for the Ladies Aid Society, Thursday at a dessert luncheon in the dining room of the Raisin Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Roy Cadmus presided, all officers were retained for another year.

Layettes were distributed for mission work and other clothing can be donated. Sewing, school, health kits are to be contributed for missions.

Mrs. William German will be the hostess for the February meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Frye were hosts for the Kozy Korner Farm Bureau meeting at the Holloway Church.

Vice-president Jay Fisher led discussion on "Land Use Planning."

Merle Kerr gave the package report on the National convention in New Orleans and the state convention in Grand Rapids.

Dale Mitchell pleasantly surprised Mrs. Dale Mitchell in honor of her birthday. They dined out and when they returned, guests were Mr. and Mrs. Max Pangburn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Retter and family, John Frye and Lloyd Moll.

Feature of the evening was a decorated cake. Mrs. Mitchell's birthday was Jan. 22.

Sally Ventz, the daughter of Mrs. Lois Ventz and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Mitchell, spent the weekend here and returned Sunday to Michigan State University.

Mr. and Mrs. John Young attended their grandson's wedding. Dennis Carter and Debbie Zenz were married at the Friends Church in Birdsall, Saturday evening. The Youngs have a houseguest, Mrs. Hazel Blessing of Monroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Glenn returned Tuesday from Wayne. While there, they cared for their grandchildren. Their daughter and husband vacationed in the Virgin Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Hites of 100 Cairns St., will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Jan. 30. Patricia A. Rostorfer and Edwin R. Hites were married by the Rev. L.G. Sapp of the First Methodist Church, Angola, Ind., Jan. 30, 1950. The couple are the parents of three daughters, Mrs. Sharon A. Linenkugel, Miriam R., both of Adrian, and Paula R. at home. The Hites' have one granddaughter.

Students Get Scholarships

Latin American Service Center's scholarship committee has awarded grants to three Latino students. A total of $500 was awarded.

The three college students receiving awards are Nick Guedea, Siena Heights College; Alberto Perales and Ricardo Rodriguez, both of Eastern Michigan University.

The committee finalized plans to stage a "taco dinner" on Feb. 16 at St. Mary's School in Adrian.

Serving will be from 1 to 4 p.m. All proceeds from this dinner will go toward helping needy Latino college students in the county.

Another fund raiser the committee decided on is a big gola dance to be held in March.

Handicapped to Take Part

Mentally handicapped youngsters from all over the world will be eligible to take part in a first-time competition to be held in conjunction with the 1975 International Special Olympic games in Michigan Aug. 7-11.

An international art contest is open to mentally impaired in every state and country participating in the International Special Olympics.

States and countries sponsoring individual art contests for Special Olympics, ages eight and older, will be invited to submit one entry each to the international contest.

Entries will be exhibited during the International Games on the campus of Central Michigan University.

Three top winners will be selected.

First place award winning picture will be reproduced on the program cover for the International Games competition.

To be eligible for the contest, pictures must be drawn on 11 by 14 inch paper and must be done entirely by a mentally impaired person age eight or older. There is no restriction on media or colors.

Entries will be judged on the basis of creativity and development of theme, "What the Special Olympics Means to Me."

To be considered for awards, entries must be received by the International Special Olympics office at CMU not later than May 1.

Executive Board Named

An executive board — including several prominent members of the community — has been named to coordinate the activities of the Citizens Advisory Action Council at Adrian Training School according to Joyce Carmichael, human resources representative at ATS.

All members of the board were appointed by Michael G. Harrison, chairman of Michigan's Youth Advisory Commission. The Action Council is a local extension of the Youth Commission.

New board members and committee heads include, [illegible] Walper - community relations committee; Jim McLoughlin - educational committee; Rev. W.W. Clemmons - religious activities committee; Pat Easter - friendship sponsors; Larry Tarkowski - program committee; Milton Porter - student services resources; Karla Holmes and Helen Ahleman - student needs committee; Aldun Pifer, Jr. - legislative committee; and Clyde Dickerson - budget-finance committee.

Other new board members include, Det. Sgt. James Bremmer, Dr. Hugh Thompson, Sue Denger and Jean Mowat.

The board and Action Council will hold their first meeting on Feb. 10 and all local service organizations are urged to be thinking of representatives to the Council for the meeting.

"Each member represents a segment of the community. However, we are interested in finding representatives from labor and the farming community," Carmichael states.

Although the Action Council has been in existence for some time the group is in the midst of a reorganization to stimulate greater community involvement with Training School students and administration.

Carmichael explains, "We are soliciting the interest, help and expertise of local citizens in working with the youth who are sent to this institution. We want to convince people in the community that Adrian Training School is their institution and they have a legitimate voice in its operation."

Carmichael points out that an interest and dedication to helping troubled youth are the only requirements for participation in the Action Council. If any group would like to know more about the Council or the Training School, they may call Miss Carmichael at the Training School, 263-2104.

Seems there is an abundance of black Labrador dogs in Macon, and it is getting pretty confusing for Luella Rhoades.

Mrs. Rhoades is a frequent visitor at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Wilma and Ed Clark, who are one set of owners of a black Lab named Suzie.

The other day Wilma watched her mom in the front yard with three neighborhood Labs. Mrs. Rhoades was hoping to coax Suzie with dog biscuits, and of course all three dogs were clamoring for the goodies.

A quick look out the back window confimed Wilma's suspicions. Running to the door, she called to her mom—"Suzie is in her pen!" Mrs. Rhoades quickly withdrew the cookie she was about to extend to the imposter Suzie, much to the dog's chagrin, and shooed them all home.

Wonder if the real Suzie ever got her cookie that day?

When putting on an addition to your house, it is usually the hardest room to heat. Most times it has three exposed walls and a crawl space making it harder to heat. It will cool off faster in winter and heat up faster in summer. If you would turn your furnace blower on so it would run all the time, it would tend to redistribute the air throughout the house and hold a more even temperature in all rooms.

Make do-it-yourself jobs in plumbing as easy as possible by purchasing tools and materials from the large stocks available at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121. We handle water softeners and water softening chemicals, Insinkerator garbage disposals, Kitchen Aid dishwashers and plumbing fixtures by Kohler, American Standard and Elkay (stainless steel sinks). Hours: 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. daily, until 9 p.m. Fri., until 5 p.m. Sat.

"What can you get for making a great deal with The Dodge Boys? A check for $300 from Dodge."

Joe Garagiola
Listen to ol' Joe G. I'm gonna tell you how to make the deal of a lifetime on the "Dodge of the Week." Right now, during the Car Clearance Carnival at the Dodge Boys.
Here's how:
Every week from now till February 16, the Dodge Boys will pick one gorgeous Dodge as "Dodge of the Week." Could be a Monaco. A Dart. A Coronet. Even a pickup or van. Now you hustle down and make the Dodge Boys give you their deal on that Dodge. Then, find out how you collect your check from Dodge for at least $200. But there's more. Trade in the right car on the "Dodge of the Week," and you get a $100 trade-in bonus. That's a total of $300!
But there's more to the Car Clearance Carnival than "Dodge of the Week" deals. Through February 28, the Dodge Boys are offering other great deals on all '75 Dodges. They've got a lot of cars to move. And they're gonna move 'em.
And—even if you don't end up buying a new Dodge, you might end up driving one. Just by entering the Dodge Boys' Clearance Sweepstakes.[2] Each sweepstakes winner (and there'll be plenty—so one could be you) gets free use of a brand-new Dodge for one whole year. You've got nothing to lose. You've got nothing to buy. All you gotta do is come in for full details.
But hurry. If you're not driving a new Dodge by the end of the Car Clearance Carnival, it won't be the Dodge Boys' fault.
[1] Sorry, only one "Dodge of the Week" deal per customer. Retail customers only.
[2] Sweepstakes ends February 28, 1975. Void in states where prohibited by law. Open only to licensed drivers 18 years old or older.

Matmen Bomb Airport Jets

Tecumseh's matmen defeated a weak Airport team 51-3 last week and participated in a quadrangular meet at Addison last Saturday.

The Indians met Dundee, Williamston and Addison at the Addison quad last Saturday. The team first wrestled powerhouse Dundee losing to that squad 42-2.

Tecumseh refused to be counted out, however, bouncing back with a win over Williamston 34-27. Williamston was undefeated going into the match with Tecumseh.

The Indians completed their schedule with a win over Addison, 43-15.

Coach Pat Connors commented on the Addison quad meet, "We started slow losing against Dundee. But I was very satisfied and happy with the way our people bounced back in the last two matches. Williamston was undefeated before we wrestled them. I was particularly pleased with Jim Shough, Dave Cuellar and Dan Yoder at the meet."

The following are the results in each class of the Airport meet held last week: 98 lbs. - Don Cobiere decisioned Ron Halasz (T) 2-0; 105 - Steve Bishop (T) dec. Mick Novak 8-4; 112 - Don Rapin (T) pinned Jack Basinger at 5:11; 119-Joe Castorena (T) dec. Dan Messmore 4-0; 126 - Dave Cuellar (T) dec. Mike Kecskes 9-4; 132 - Brad Williams (T) pinned Mark Shurleat 1:27; 138 - Bill Hilton (T) pinned Ernie Wallace at 3:34; 145 - Jim Shough (T) won by forfeit.

Finishing out the weight classes; 155 - Kevin Eggleston (T) pinned Jerry McPhail at 3:18; 167 - Tim Eggleston (T) dec. Mike Killion 12-0) 185 - Mike Creswell (T) dec. Mike Cleland 4-3; Heavyweight - Don Heistand (T) pinned Tim Cooper at 58 secs.

The Indians now post a 7-3-1 record overall. This Thursday, the squad travels to Jefferson.

THS Volleyball Squad Beats Adrian Maples

Tecumseh's girl volleyball team picked up two big victories recently defeating Monroe St. Mary's last Wednesday and Adrian Monday night.

The two wins leaves the varsity unit with a 6-0 record and tied for first place with Grosse Ile in the Huron League. The junior varsity posts a 5-1 record.

In action against St. Mary's — played at Tecumseh — the varsity won the first two games 15-7 and 15-10. Jane Faulkner was the high scorer with 12 serving points.

The junior varsity also won their match out right with scores of 16-14 and 15-9. Tori Iffland was top scorer with 11 serving points.

The squad traveled to Adrian Monday night and played an outstanding match. The Maples were completely overwhelmed by the Indians 15-3 in the first game.

Coach Sue Allen sent in some of her second string for the second game but the devastation continued. The Indians finished out the match beating the Maples 15-4. Julie Murphy was top scorer with 14 serving points.

The junior varsity had a tougher time losing their first game 15-9 to the Maples. But they came back very strong with scores of 15-2 and 15-8.

Tammy Downing did a great job for the squad racking up a phenomenal 20 serving points. That performance ties her with a Flat Rock varsity player for most points earned on the serve in the Huron League.

Coach Sue Allen said of the Adrian victory, "The girls played terrific team work. They set the ball well and their timing on spikes was perfect. I feel team work is very important in volleyball."

The team is scheduled to travel to Grosse Ile Wednesday night. The match will determine whether the Indians will own first place exclusively in the Huron League.

Tecumseh Cagers Win, Tied for Second Place

Tecumseh's cagers brought down Monroe Catholic Central last Friday night, 63-53. The win throws the Indians into a tie for second place in the Huron League with Grosse Ile. Carlson stands at the top of the heap.

Catholic Central got the jump on the Indians, outscoring them 19-15 in the first frame. But a strong second quarter showing allowed Tecumseh to take a three-point lead at the half, 33-30.

Tecumseh netted 16 points in the third period compared to CC's eight. Although the Falcons improved in the fourth quarter, racking up 15 points to Tecumseh's 14, it wasn't sufficient to turn the game around.

Tecumseh connected on 22 of 46 field goal attempts for percent. From the line, the Indians hit 19 of 29 for 65.5 percent.

Meanwhile CC hit 21 of 54 shots from the field for 38.8 percent and 11 of 19 from the line for 57.9 percent.

Jeff Schafer was top scorer for the Indians with 15.

The Indians out-rebounded CC 31-27 and lost the ball nine times to CC's 14.

The Indian JV squad polished off CC, 52-26.

Score by Quarters

Monroe Catholic Central: Brenton 4-2-10; Kegerreis 1-4-6; MacDowell 1-1-3; Sherman 10-4-24; Kelley 3-0-6; Theisen 1-0-2; G. Applin 1-0-2; Totals 21-11-53.

Redskins Drop Their 15th

CLINTON — In cage action over the weekend the hapless Clinton Redskins dropped two more contests to Morenci and Whiteford by scores of 71-60 and 87-66.

The loss to Whiteford Saturday night marked the Skins 15th consecutive loss this season.

Clinton held their own in the first half of the Morenci game, staying even 16-16 with the Bulldogs in the first quarter. By the half, the Skins were down only one point 34-33.

But the third quarter proved to be Clinton's undoing with the squad scoring only 14 points to Morenci's 21. And the Bulldogs ran up 16 points in the fourth frame to the Skins' 13.

Clinton hit 22 of 53 shots from the field for 42 percent and 16 of 25 from the line for 64 percent. Morenci came up with 31 for 76 from the field for 41 percent and 9 for 16 from the line for 56 percent.

Morenci out-rebounded the Skins 41-35. Clinton suffered 25 turnovers to the Bulldogs 20.

Barry Clark was top scorer for Clinton with 17 points.

The next battle for Clinton was a meeting with Whiteford Saturday night. Clinton was down 43-32 by the half due to a strong second quarter showing by Whiteford. Clinton scored 17 points in the second frame compared to Whiteford's 25.

The third quarter was another successful one for Whiteford as they ran up 24 points to Clinton's 18.

Clinton connected on 25 of 54 shots from the field for 46 percent and hit 16 of 34 from the line. Whiteford hit 32 of 75 shots for 43 percent and 23 of 35 from the line.

The Skins out-rebounded Whiteford 42-32 but turned over the ball 28 times to Whiteford's 16.

John Ruhl was top scorer for Clinton with 19 points.

Whiteford's Gary Futrell hurt the Skins badly running up 30 points.

Coach Dave Arnold said of the Whiteford contest, "They were fresh for the game. They hadn't had a game all week and Gary Futrell gave us fits. I had Mark Carlton guarding Futrell but Whiteford used a double screen with him and just scraped Mark off of him. Futrell is the best outside shooter we've faced all season."

Clinton faces powerhouse Addison this Friday night and that could mean more pounding for the squad. Arnold is more hopeful for next week's contests with Onsted and Grass lake.

Tories Lose

The Britton-Macon Tories dropped a pair in basketball competition last Friday and Saturday. The Tories went down to Ann Arbor St. Thomas Friday 55-52 and to Waldron Saturday night 58-34.

Against St. Thomas, Britton started off with a weak first quarter scoring only 7 points. They came back strong in the second grabbing 17 points but St. Thomas went to the lockers with the lead at the half, 32-24.

Britton out-scored their rivals in the second half 28-23 but it just wasn't enough and St. Thomas came out on top.

Britton hit 18 of 61 from the field for 29.5 percent and 16 of 21 foul shots. St. Thomas connected on 27 of 89 from the field for 30.3 percent and only one of ten from the line.

Britton turned over the ball nine times to St. Thomas's 18.

Mike Saxton was top scorer for the Tories with 29 points.

The next opponent for Britton was Waldron Saturday night. They lost the battle 58-34.

Both teams were even at 14 at the end of the first quarter. By halftime, Waldron had taken the lead 26-22. The second half was disastrous for Britton, as they scored only 12 points for the entire half. Waldron grabbed 32 points for themselves.

The Tories hit 14 of 59 attempts from the field for 23.9 percent and 6 of 14 from the line. Waldron dumped 23 of 71 shots from the field for 32 percent and 12 of 19 free throws.

Waldron out-rebounded the Tories 39-32 and turned over the ball 15 times to Britton's 19 times.

Mishap Rate Drops

Accident rate continued low here last week with only six traffic mishaps reported and investigated.

A resume is:

Jan. 29 - J.D. Cook, 56, of 717 N. Union, struck Gladys A Truax, 28, Clinton on S. Maumee St. Cook pulled out of E. Kilbuck and apparently did not see the other vehicle.

Jan. 30 - Kimberlea A. Hill, 16, of 2529 Gady Rd., backed out of a drive and into the path of a car operated by Marcia J. Beck, 16, Manchester. Mishap occurred on N. Maumee.

Rural School Broken Into

A breaking and entering at Ridgeway School Sunday night is under investigation by Lenawee Sheriff's Department.

Discovery was made by Gary A. Harper, building engineer, when he went to the school Monday morning. He found the east door pried open and two typewriters, a small radio and a small amount of change missing.

There was no vandalism other than the broken door. Teachers were busy at the school both Saturday and Sunday.

Officers have some leads to suspects.

MAJOR DIFFERENCES ARE INDICATED

Union Says 'No' to Company Offer, Wants To Resume Negotiations

Although approximately 2,500 members of the United Products Workers Union overwhelmingly rejected a secret ballot vote Monday night at Tecumseh High School, Union officials were hopeful Tuesday of resuming negotiation talks with the Tecumseh Products this week.

Monday night's meeting concerned the latest offer from the Company and had been called by mediators last Friday after the Company, Union and mediators had met at the Harvey House Motel.

Guy Cox, president of the Union, said Tuesday that the Union's attorney had contacted the state mediator Tuesday morning and had requested both the Union and the Company go back to the bargaining table.

Ed Rapin, chief negotiator for the Products, was unavailable Tuesday afternoon for any statement.

A statement from the Union about Monday's meeting is:

"An estimated 2,500 United Products Workers of Tecumseh Union members voted unanimously this evening not to have a secret ballot vote on the Company's last offer, and told the Union directors to get back to the bargaining table and not to return until the directors had a contract they could recommend to the members. The Union directors had recommended that the Company's last offer be rejected. The turnout was one of the largest in the Union's 38-year history. Asked whether they would accept any contract with a November 15 termination date, the Union members shouted "No!"

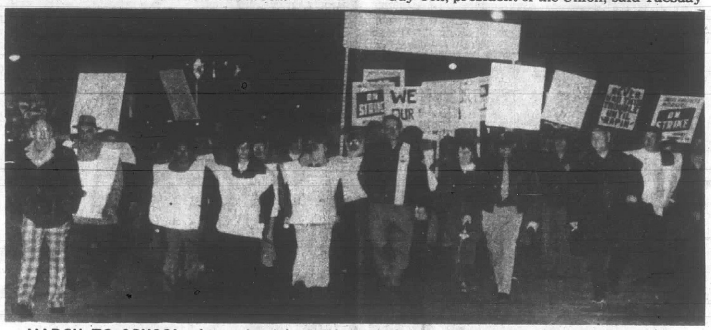
The Company has been insisting that its offer be taken to the members. The Union directors did that, and now the Company knows, in no uncertain terms, that the Union members still feel as strong about their demands as the day the strike began.

The Union will be contacting the Company shortly to request further bargaining sessions."

Some of the major differences from the Union's standpoint reportedly deal with the contract termination date, elimination of overtime for a large majority, pension credits and future pension credits for layoffs and sick leaves, cost of living, requirements relative to the days before and after for holiday pay, and "30 and out" for retirement.

The strike is nearly three months old, affecting about 3,000 Products employees. It began Nov. 15 - a contract date the Union wants changed - and has idled the local plant ever since.

Numerous bargaining sessions have been held, with and without state and federal mediators, and some progress has been made towards settlement. Main differences appear to be those cited by the Union.



MARCH TO SCHOOL—Approximately 1,500 members of the United Products Workers Union marched from the Union Hall to Tecumseh High School Monday night to voice their objections to the latest Company offer. They joined another estimated 1,000 workers already at the school. Tecumseh police escorted the marchers north on Maumee Street to the school, where they backed their Union Board in opposing a Company proposal for settling the three-month old strike. Tree Moving Bid Accepted

Ganun Nursery's bid for moving trees from the city property in Franklin Township to various locations within the city, was accepted by Tecumseh City Council Monday night.

Ganun's price was one to nine trees $3.50 each, 10 to 19 trees $31.50, 20 to 29 trees $29.50 and 30 or more $27.50.

Cal Zorn, city manager, said that there would be 12 to 15 trees for moving at Tecumseh Park alone.

All are two to three inches in diameter and have been approved by the Department of Agriculture.

Larceny, 2 Windows Rocked by Vandals

One larceny and two incidents involving broken windows were investigated the past week by the Tecumseh police.

Broken windows were probably related to the strike at Tecumseh Products.

Ed Rapin, 116 Maple St., told police that a large window in his garage was broken by a rock shortly after 1 p.m. Saturday. He was walking his dog at the time and saw two subjects in front of his home. Upon investigation, he discovered the broken window.

Rapin is chief negotiator for the Products.

Tuesday, guards at the Products reported a window broken by a rock at the paymaster office.

William Goble, 203 Bidwell, reported a gas fired air compressor was stolen at the Assembly of God Church, now under construction at E. Chicago Blvd. and Rogers Hwy. Value of the new compressor is $500.

The building is closed and locked with windows and doors in place. It's not known how entry was gained.

Plan Change in Zoning for Offices

City Council moved to rezone frontage of three lots on Wyandotte, between E. Pottawatamie and Kilbuck, from RM-1 Multiple Family to O-S office service.

One of those lots was purchased by the hospital several years ago. Hospital no longer needs this lot for expansion.

The property would be used for doctor offices.

A public hearing has been set for 7:45 p.m. during the regular council meeting on March 3.

What Effect Has Strike Made on You?

The Tecumseh Products Co. strike began Nov. 15, and to this writing continues to idle more than 3,000 workers in the county and surrounding area.

In view of the nationwide recession and layoffs in other industries in the Tecumseh area, it is hard to imagine that this situation has not affected business, and the lives of families as well.

Tecumseh Herald staffers posed the question: "What effect has the strike against the Tecumseh Products Co. had on your life and business?"

People on the street, merchants, workers, professional people, students, and others commented.

From the comments, it might be assumed that things are not as bad as they may seem for businessmen, especially since, as one pointed out, "88 percent are still working."

However these general trends can be noted. As in the metropolitan areas, those people who can afford it are still buying large appliances, furniture, cars and other such luxury items.

Here in the Tecumseh area, people seem to be cutting back in all purchases and services, simply doing without.

For some families, it appears to be a time of learning more about each other. Students' comments specially bear out that families are trying to sympathize with each other, pitching in to boost morale and income and learning to have fun without money.

What effect has the strike against the Tecumseh Products Co. had on your life and business?

People in the street responded:

"None."

"My husband works in a lumber company in Ann Arbor and business has picked up there."

"Best vacation I ever had, hope it lasts another month," said one man at a counter.

"When (Tecumseh Product Co.) stock drops from $169 to $19, certainly it has affected business."

"It pleases my husband immensely that people are beginning to realize that there is more here than the Tecumseh Products Co."

"I work at Universal and I'm laid off, but at least I get unemployment."

"I'm from Adrian."

"Not a whole lot. My husband is a teacher. We live in Tipton."

Merchants in downtown Tecumseh responded:

"It's quiet, cards and valentines keep sales up. Christmas was down but not as bad as I thought it would be."

"It's dead. Response to classes is good but through the door traffic is way down. Sales are small purchases. People switched to hobbies before Christmas, I think."

"We are expendable — we're not a necessity. It certainly has had an effect," said one storekeeper.

"It has had an effect, mainly because we are a luxury item. We notice even with FTD and also UPW, because the men aren't working, they don't even know when there is a funeral." commented a local florist.

"It slowed down considerably, but we haven't had to lay anyone off yet because of the remodeling," a variety store manager said.

"We'll be glad to see them back at work. We don't have adults or children for meals that we did," said a restaurant manager.

"Business has been good but there is a falling of activity, it is in a downward slump," stated a loan manager.

"We can't sell enough birth control pills," said Carl Lamb.

"People now make appointments every two weeks instead of weekly," said one beauty salon owner.

"The last week and one half, business has gone down about 50 percent," said an interior decorating store.

"You bet it's affecting business. They're not spending money if they can help it. Those who absolutely need to get cars fixed are doing so somehow. We have another business in Adrian and it has been affected too," said Dick Purkey.

"Yes in some ways, and no in others. People have more leisure time now, but only those from the area who are getting subpay can afford to come in for their regular recreation. These people pick up the slack." said one bowling alley manager.

A party store owner said, "Consumption of all items is down. Instead of a case of beer, people may just buy a quart. Products workers used to stop in frequently, but not now."

"Why say that 12 percent are unemployed? Let's publicize the fact that 88 percent are working. Sure business is slow, but let's look at the bright side," said Don Meyers at Tecumseh Plywood.

"It's reduced our business especially after lunch. We are having many slow hours."

"Because of the sale, we don't notice it, but the sale is down from last year," clothing store owner commented.

"It's sure slowed up the barbering business, but they have different problems down there than we do. My dad worked there for 18 years and came home with his hands cut up and blistered."

"These workers are the ones that are keeping us in business. Everyone of them count. And I want to let them know that I am behind the Products Workers vote 100 percent. I want them to go back to work when they are offered a contract that is fair to all," said Wes Proctor.

Professional people and offices commented:

"It's sure slowed things down in this office, I can tell you," said Ernie Oliver. "Most years we have about 150 to 160 each day and now we are only having about 50 to 60. The last week in February we will have a mess. Then they will just buy for one vehicle, just to get by."

A chiropractor said that the strike has not affected business badly so far, but that some people are charging their accounts.

Of the doctor's offices surveyed, some had no comment. Others said that although some appointments might have been cancelled due to the strike, there are still people asking to see the doctors.

William Groover, Herrick Memorial Hospital administrator commented that the strike doesn't seem to have drastically affected the treatment of numbers of patients at the hospital. He said that this year's trend, since the strike began in November, is following a general pattern.

There was a drop off in late November, due to the holiday, a pick up in December, a drastic drop at Christmas and later in January a high, he reported.

"If they go back before it's settled right, they're crazy, commented one waitress, "I never saw a merchant yet reduce his price to fit the pocketbook of a Tecumseh Products Co. worker."

Student responses were:

"Financially it's not hurting us that much, since my Mom already has a job. Dad told my brother to pay $20 for room and board."

"My Dad's been grumpy because he doesn't have anything to do. It'd help out a lot if the strike would end!"

"It's had no effect at all. We've had to cut down a little bit, but not much."

"It's terrible! We get no lunch money and we can't party as much because we don't have the money."

"We don't get as much to eat or go as many places as we used to before the strike."

"We don't get as much money for lunch, and we had to get rid of our pets. Also, Christmas just wasn't the same this year. It's really terrible!"

"We're broke!"

"Less food, not as many luxury items, and don't go anywhere. We really have had to cut back. That's why I'm working!"

"It really hurts. We have $5 to last until the strike is over. Nobody feels like doing anything anymore. I'm trying to find a job to help out, but there's no place to get a job. We keep our spirits up by thinking about all the things we used to do and all the things we will do once the strike ends again. We've stopped getting our allowances and I've cut down on going places. I think the strike stinks, the company should settle it."

"My dad is always complaining he doesn't have anything to do. Financially, it's a real burden. I've got a job in case my parents want money to borrow. I used to get an allowance, but now I don't. It's very bad for my dad. I wish they'd agree on something."

"It hasn't affected my family much. We get food stamps. I don't really care one way or the other if the strike ends, since Dad's on strike, we do more together as a family."

"We're very depressed, no money for any luxuries. Dad's got his hobby to keep his spirits up. The rest of us are generally about the same. I wish it were over."

"It hasn't affected us much. Nobody is trying to find a job to help out. I'm not bugging them for luxuries, it wouldn't do any good."

"We're broke. We can't do anything, like going to the dance this Saturday. My sister has a job to help the family out. Talking to each other is how we keep our spirits up."

"We're not really down in spirits. We go for walks and bicycle rides as a family unit. We think it will probably be over soon, we hope. I want it to end because my dad can't find that much to do. They should not have had a strike because they don't accomplish anything.

MR. and MRS. GORDON STITES

Nancy Clute and Gordon Stites Marry

Nancy Yvonne Clute and Gordon Leland Stites were united in marriage Feb. 8 in First Baptist Church by the Rev. Kenneth Boyd. The couple lighted a candle to solemnize their vows.

Parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clute of Wamplers Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stites, Russell Road.

Mrs. William Flanders sang, accompanying herself at the organ.

Large white chrysanthemums and wine colored carnations filled the altar vases and ivory candles, bows and palms leaves decorated hurricane lamps at the ends of the pews.

The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of candlelight satin in Victorian style with a yoke of illusion underlayed with embroidered black and gold thread. Alencon lace was down the front of the skirt which swept into a chapel train.

An open pillbox of satin and lace secured her fingertip veil bordered with scalloped Alencon lace. She wore an heirloom gold cross with ruby setting.

Her Queen Anne's bouquet was of white sweetheart roses, carnations and babys breath with wine stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas Ruff, sister of the groom, served as matron of honor in a floor length gown of Victorian wine velvet. She carried dark green and white carnations.

Mrs. Jack Wagoner of Pontiac and Lesa Kay Clute, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids in forest green gowns styled as that of the matron of honor.

They carried white and wine colored carnations.

Thomas Ruff was best man and Rick Clute and Allen Stites seated the guests.

Mrs. Clute made the wedding cake for the reception at the church with Mrs. Thomas Marsh and Mrs. Lyle Blessing serving it.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stites registered the guests and LaVerne Stites took pictures.

Judith Snook, Diane Beckman and Mrs. Richard Lewis assisted with the serving.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Grace Bashelier and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scott of Owosso and the grooms grandfather, Charles Shourds, were among the guests.

Both bride and groom were graduated from Tecumseh High School and the bride studied four years at Michigan State University. They are employed at the Fisher Body plant.

Given by the groom's parents, rehearsal dinner was at the VFW Hall. The newlyweds will live at 728 Apt. A, Waskins Square Apartments.

Indian Matmen Beat the Bears

MONROE — Tecumseh's wrestlers traveled to Monroe Jefferson last Thursday to score a convincing 43-9 win.

The victory ties the Indians with Catholic Central, Huron and Grosse Ile all with one loss each. Overall, Tecumseh posts a 9-2-1 record.

Four Indians scored pins including Don Rapin at 112 pounds, Dan Yoder at 119, Jim Shough at 145 and Don Heistand heavyweight.

Coach Pat Connors commented about the match, "I was really pleased with the [illegible] and out-wrestled them."

The squad travels to Grosse Ile this Thursday evening. Some of the team's freshman and sophomore wrestlers will be going to Hudson this Saturday for a junior varsity tournament.

Here are the complete results of the Jefferson match: 98 lbs., Ron Halasz (T) decisioned Dave Crook, 6-0; 105, John Bingledine pinned Steve Bishop (T); Don Rapin (T) pinned Ron Ritter at :17; 119, Dan Yoder (T) pinned Steve Debreyne at :45; 126, Bob Mistiatis dec. Dave Cuellar 8-7; 132, Brad Williams (T) dec. Frank White 8-4; 138, Dan Tilton (T) dec. Randy Nutt 12-0; 145, Jim Shough (T) pinned Bob Amazeen at 4:41.

Indians Bedeviled

GROSSE ILE — The Indian cage squad suffered a heart-breaking loss to the Grosse Ile Red Devils last Friday night, 53-46.

The loss keeps Tecumseh in second place in the Huron League, tied with Monroe Catholic Central. Grosse Ile moves up with Carlson to share first place honors.

The Red Devils took a four-point lead in the first frame 15-11. At the half, they stood just two points ahead after the Indians outscored Grosse Ile 12-10 in the second quarter.

Tecumseh grabbed 13 points in the third quarter to their opponents 10 points and the Indians briefly took the lead in the fourth frame.

Tecumseh connected on 18 of 56 shots from the field for 32.1 percent and hit 10 of 20 shots from the line. Grosse Ile dropped 16 of 49 shots from the field for 32.7 percent and 21 of 33 from the line for 63.6 percent.

The Indians outrebounded Grosse Ile, 34-23, and turned over the ball 13 times to Grosse Ile's 14.

John Burns was top scorer for the Indians with 18 points.

Tecumseh's JV squad won its contest 55-48.

Score Two Wins

By virtue of a big win over Grosse Ile last Wednesday, Tecumseh's volleyball team takes sole possession of first place in the Huron League. In addition, the squad won a non-league contest against Blissfield Monday to post an unblemished 8-0 season record.

The Indians took the Grosse Ile match in two games 15-6 and 16-14. Julie Murphy was top server with 14 serving points.

The junior varsity also won their match 15-8 and 15-10. Tammy Downing was top scorer with nine serving points.

The squad traveled to Blissfield Monday easily defeating the Royals 15-12 and 15-1. Three varsity players were tied for serving honors with five each. They were, Julie Murphy, Susie Gould and Amy Montague.

Coach Sue Allen pointed out after the contest that she substituted her entire second string bench squad for that big 15-1 victory.

The junior varsity team also had little trouble with the Royals winning their meet 15-8 and 15-6. Tory Iffland was top scorer with eight serving points and Tammy Downing was right behind with seven serving points.

Sue Allen also said, "It was a good performance by the second string varsity. They had been doing well in practice and I decided to give them a chance. They were really excited about the win."

Clinton Cagers Suffer Two Losses

By FRANK WEIR

You just have to sympathize with those Clinton cagers.

They try just as hard as anyone else but — for one reason or another — this just isn't their season.

The Skins dropped two more contests losing to Addison Friday and Onsted Tuesday night by scores of 87-48 and 78-42. The losses leave Coach Dave Arnold's team with a forgettable 0-17 season record.

Clinton tangled with Addison at home. It was a mismatch from the start with unbeaten Addison pounding Clinton mercilessly. Addison scored 28 points to the Redskins' nine in the first frame alone.

At the half Clinton was down [illegible] 52-20. The third and fourth quarters were a little more even but Clinton couldn't pull out a miracle.

The Skins hit 19 of 50 shots from the field for 38 percent and 10 of 23 from the line for 44 percent. Addison connected on 36 of 91 for 40 percent from the field and 13 of 27 from the line for 48 percent.

Addison outrebounded Clinton 48 to 34 losing the ball only 19 times to Clinton's 29 turnovers.

The Addison JV squad also beat Clinton 54-47.

John Ruhl was top scorer for the Redskins with 11 points.

Clinton traveled to Onsted Tuesday night hoping for that elusive first win. It was not to be however as, again, they were outscored in every frame. By the half, the Skins trailed 34-16. Things didn't improve much in the second half.

Clinton connected on 20 of 62 [illegible] 32 percent and only 2 of 3 free throws for 67 percent. Onsted hit 31 of 65 for 48 percent and 16 of 22 for 73 percent.

Onsted beat the Clinton squad on rebounds but just barely, 43-41.

Coach Arnold said of the Onsted rout, "It was just a sloppy game. We missed shots you just don't miss. Defensively we switched from a zone to a man-to-man trying to keep them off balance. Onsted moved the ball real well and I lost Dave Santure in the third quarter with fouls which hurt. Wendel Corwin had a good night getting seven rebounds, five goals and two for two free throws. It was his varsity career high."

Tories Win Two Games

The Britton-Macon Tory cage team won two contests beating Whitmore Lake Friday night and Dundee Tuesday night in a non-league match. [illegible] scores were 57-45 and 55-52.

In the Whitmore Lake game, the Tories had little trouble outscoring their opponents in every frame. They jumped to a 13-10 lead in the first quarter coming out 28-22 at the half. The second half was much the same with Britton again outscoring Whitmore Lake by six points 29-23.

The Tories connected on 22 of 55 shots from the field for 40 percent and 13 of 14 shots from the line for 92.8 percent. Whitmore Lake hit only 18 of 38 shots from the floor for 31 percent and nine of 11 free throws for 81.8 percent.

Britton outrebounded their opponents 36-18 and Mike Saxton was topscorer with 21 points.

Whitmore Lake's JV squad defeated Britton's 38-36.

The Dundee game was a tougher contest for the Tories. They lost the first frame 18-10 but battled back with a press that shook the Dundee squad. They ended the first half two up with 30 points to Dundee's 28.

The third quarter was an even finer showing for Britton with the squad scoring 12 points and holding Dundee to a meager seven. Dundee fought back with a press of their own in the last frame grabbing 17 points to the Tories' 13.

Britton connected on 18 of 49 shots from the field for 36 percent and 19 of 22 from the line for 86 percent. Dundee grabbed 21 of 62 shots from the field for 33 percent and 10 of 14 from the line for 71.4 percent.

Britton also beat Dundee on the boards picking off 33 to Dundee's 27. Steve Gilmore was the Torie leading rebounder with 12. Dundee turned over the ball 18 times to Britton's 12.

Coach Jim Sweigart commented on the Dundee contest, "We got behind early and so we began pressing. Dundee was shaken by it. It was a tremendous defensive game and the players showed a lot of determination coming from behind to go two up at the half."

The Tories now post a 6-9 overall record and a 2-5 league record.

Tory VB Team Loses

BRITTON—Britton's volleyball team scored a win over Deerfield last week.

The varsity squad won their meet outright with scores of 15-8 and 15-1. Sophomore Lori Monagin was top scorer with 22 serving points.

The JV team also won over their Deerfield opponents by scores of 15-7 and 15-2 in the first and last matches losing the second 17-15. Freshman Janelle Schultz was top scorer with 21 serving points.

The season record for the varsity squad is now four and three while the junior varsity posts a six and one record.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that by order of Common Council for the City of Tecumseh a public hearing will be held on Monday, the 3rd day of March, 1975 at 8:00 p.m. in Council Chambers at 309 East Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, Michigan to consider and act upon a recommendation of the Planning Commission for the City of Tecumseh that a special assessment district be established to provide a sum of money for expense to remove off-street parking meters and to replace income derived from off-street parking meters within the confines of lands that embrace Blocks 6 and 7, Henry L. Hewitt's Addition, and Lot 113 through and including Lot 177, Assessor's Plat No. 2, said lands more commonly known as lands bounded on the north by Logan Street, bounded on the east by Ottawa Street, bounded on the south by Pottawatamie Street and bounded on the west by Pearl Street, all within the City of Tecumseh, Lenawee County, Michigan.

The proposed special assessment will be for a one year period of time beginning July 1, 1975 and ending June 30, 1976 and all owners of property within the aforesaid lands above described shall be assessed and pay at a rate of four cents per square foot of main floor area within all buildings situate thereon.

The public and these persons within said proposed special assessment district are invited to attend this public hearing and express their views, if any.

Those persons and their proposed special assessment costs within said district are as follows:

Career Day at Vo-Tech

Lenawee County Counselor's Association will be hosts for a Trade and Tech Career Day on Feb. 11, beginning at 9:15 a.m. at the Vocational-Technical Center.

Between 1,400 and 1,600 county students will participate in the program. More than 30 post high school institutions will be represented and all 12 county school districts will participate in the event.

Dale Lane, LCCA president and general chaiman for the special event, says, "The program has been designed to assist those students who are making a decision as to which post high school institution they will attend. Because manycareers require this kind of additional training, it is essential that our students be given the opportunity to talk first hand with the representative from these institutions."

Income Tax Your Menance?

Charles A. Carroll of Tecumseh, member of Siena Heights business administration and management department, will teach a course on "Personal Income Tax Preparation at the College beginning Feb. 15.

Dirty powder puffs are not disposable items. In fact, you can re-use yours again and again. Just wash them when you wash your clothes, put them in the dryer, and they will come out looking like new. In fact, you can wash powder puffs regularly, and then you will always have a clean one to use. This will make your complexion look better, since you will not rub oil and dirt back into your face. Keep puffs in a dust-proof plastic bag.

Do you know that there is a right way to sit and a wrong way? Sit well back in any chair so that the base of your spine is comfortable supported by the back of the chair. Your back should be straight. Keep your knees together and feet relaxed flat on the floor. Do not drape feet around the chair legs, cross them, or make them toe in. If you are short, use a low hassock or footstool under your feet.

You Told Us

by Dorothy Grigg

"Waste not, want not," was the old slogan and it is being revived at Eastern Michigan University where a recent study reflects a waste by students of $800 a day in edible food and liquid. A "food ecology" program is being implemented to combat the waste of food in residence halls.

No expletive seems strong enough to use when one adds the thousands of other schools around the nation, for certainly EMU isn't to be singled out by itself.

First place winner David Below, center, with his fastest car, is flanked by runner-up winners, l to r, Chuck Barron, second place for fastest car; Todd Bower, workmanship winner for Cubs; Steve Scholl, best design; and Garry Wilcox, workmanship for Webelos.

David Below Is First in Derby Winner Circle

BRITTON—David Below is first place winner for the Fastest Car in the annual Pinewood Derby held Jan. 28 in the Britton-Macon High School gym.

Chuck Barron was runner-up and the trophies were present by Cubmaster Lewis Gilbert.

Workmanship for Cubs trophy was presented to Todd Bower by Ron Fenlon. Garry Wilcox is winner of the Workmanship for Webelos trophy and Steve School is best design winner.

Judges for the race were Frank Becker at the starting line. Thomas Judkins, LaVon Tubbs and Sam Vreeland at the finish line.

First and second winners, respectively, from each Den are: David Below and Greg Stotler, Den 1; Keith Derryberry and Todd Papworth, Den 2; Todd Bower and Clarence Murdock, Den 3; Ron Pickell and Richard McWilliams, Den 5; Chuck Barron and Garry Wilcox, Webelos.

Each boy was presented with a first or second place ribbon.

Judging the cars for workmanship and design were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith, Neal Judkins and Mrs. Thomas Judkins.

Anita Downing Weds James Lister

BRITTON—Anita Ann Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Downing, and James John Lister Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lister, all of Britton, were married Saturday evening in Congregational Church, Britton by the Rev. G.O. Hannevik.

Dennis Bryan was the soloist accompanied by Mrs. William Raeburn.

White carnations filled the altar vases and bows marked the family pews.

Leslie Downing escorted his daughter, attired in an A-line gown of white polyester jersey accentuated with high waist line, long sleeves and high collar, enhanced with lace on collar, bodice front, sleeves and hem.

Her mantilla was lined with the same lace and she carried a cascade of white roses, miniature carnations, yellow roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dianne Schroeder served as matron of honor for her sister's wedding in an emerald green gown with matching jacket trimmed with green ostrich feathers.

She carried a single long stemmed rose.

Bridesmaids attired as the matron of honor were Mrs. Linda Cowan of Pleasant Lake, Iowa, and Mrs. Nancy Cecil of San Francisco, Calif., both sisters of the bride, Mrs. Bonnie Auten, a sister of the groom, Bonnie Seegert and Cheryl Vallie.

Joseph Lane of Pittsburg, Pa., was best man and guests were seated by Keith Auten, John Zang, James Brown, Daniel Warren and Robert Downing.

A buffet dinner for 600 was served in United Products Workers Union Hall with Christine Genova registering the guests.

Kay Hanson, Peggy Albaugh and Mrs. Gail Ash of Suitland, Md. and Lana Lister, Adrian, sisters of the groom, assited with the serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ash and Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Hanson of Milan were hosts.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Britton-Macon High School. She is currently a junior at Eastern Michigan University and her husband, a graduate of Adrian College, is teaching in Stockbridge Community Schools.

Rehearsal dinner was held at Don's Beef Buffet with the grooms parents hosting.

The newlyweds will live at 109 Maple Street, Stockbridge.

Dental Specialist Graduates in Texas

BRITTON—Airman Mary Forsyth, daughter of Mrs. Wanda Heinz of 5724 Holloway Road, Britton, has graduated at Sheppard AFB, Tex., from the U.S. Air Force technical training course for dental specialists.

Airman Forsyth, who studied dental anatomy and radiological techniques, is being assigned to the USAF Hospital at Rickenbacker AFB, Ohio.

Completion of this course enables her to receive academic credits through the Community College of the Air Force.

The airman is a 1973 graduate of Tecumseh High School. Her husband, Dean R. Forsyth, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Forsyth of 407 E. Logan, Tecumseh.

Tori Tell All

On Feb. 14 at 12:30 p.m. the 11th and 12th grades will travel to the Charles Verheyden Performing Arts Center in Francoeur Theater, Adrian to see the "Taming of the Shrew."

Play is performed by the Siena Heights College Drama Class. The group will be chaperoned by teachers, Larry Jacobsen, and Bruce Hacala.

The junior class will present the junior class play, "Suitable for Hanging" sometime this spring. Jack Evans and Mr. Jacobsen will direct. Cast has not yet been chosen.

The high school girls' finally received their varsity jackets after waiting since school started.

Girls had to earn these jackets the same as the boys do; by participating in one sport for a certain amount of time.

"What can you get for making a great deal with The Dodge Boys? A check for $300 from Dodge."

Joe Garagiola

Listen to ol' Joe G. I'm gonna tell you how to make the deal of a lifetime on the "Dodge of the Week." Right now, during the Car Clearance Carnival at the Dodge Boys.

Here's how:

Every week from now till February 16, the Dodge Boys will pick one gorgeous Dodge as "Dodge of the Week." Could be a Monaco. A Dart. A Coronet. Even a pickup or van. Now you hustle down and make the Dodge Boys give you their deal on that Dodge. Then, find out how you collect your check from Dodge for at least $200. But there's more. Trade in the right car on the "Dodge of the Week," and you get a $100 trade-in bonus. That's a total of $300.[1]

But there's more to the Car Clearance Carnival than "Dodge of the Week" deals. Through February 28, the Dodge Boys are offering other great deals on all '75 Dodges. They've got a lot of cars to move. And they're gonna move 'em.

And—even if you don't end up buying a new Dodge, you might end up driving one. Just by entering the Dodge Boys' Clearance Sweepstakes.[2] Each sweepstakes winner (and there'll be plenty—so one could be you) gets free use of a brand-new Dodge for one whole year. You've got nothing to lose. You've got nothing to buy. All you gotta do is come in for full details.

But hurry. If you're not driving a new Dodge by the end of the Car Clearance Carnival, it won't be the Dodge Boys' fault.

[1] Sorry, only one "Dodge of the Week" deal per customer. Retail customers only.
[2] Sweepstakes ends February 28, 1975. Void in states where prohibited by law. Open only to licensed drivers 18 years old or older.

What's Up at THS

by Gwen Vavrinek

Life at school goes on day after day, but do the people of Tecumseh really know what goes on at the high school?

Every week at THS there are many changes that take place, that involve not only the students, but the public also.

A few of the different activities this week are the Winter Carnival, three new student teachers and a new student control system.

The Winter Carnival is Feb. 8 this year from 3 p.m. to 8 p.m. at the high school. The carnival is sponsored by the Student Assembly of THS but is open to the public.

The carnival is for all ages. There will be games for kids such as a spook house and a football pass, as well as booths for adults such as bingo. A coffee house will also be available this year for relaxation.

THS has three new student teachers to teach this semester. Two of the teachers are from Adrian College and one is from Siena Heights College.

Mrs. [illegible] Bowman, English teacher, has student teacher Diane Henningfeld. Gary Lovett, government teacher, has student teacher Kathy DesErmia and Stan Devoir is student teacher for Larry Crittenden, social studies teacher.

A new system to control students coming into the building has been developed.

In this sytem, the doors of the high school are locked after the beginning of the day, with the exception of the library doors and the north door for the teachers.

To help control the flow of students in the halls during classes, Mrs. Clyde Gunder, lunch room supervisor, now has the job of a hall supervisor.

These are just a few of the many changes that take place throughout the week at THS. They should be the concern of parents as well as the students.

By Crystal Roe

[illegible] after [illegible]
And all through the school,
Every soul there was worried,
And that isn't cool"

Why, you ask? Because students received their exam results and their report cards this week!

The exams were reviewed in all classes on Monday, and schedule changes, for the second semester, which began on Tuesday, were issued Monday in seventh hour classes.

A short staff meeting for teachers was held after school Wednesday, to discuss the options to alleviate anticipated over-crowded conditions of the '75-'76 school year.

Student I.D. cards were issued to students this week.

This will enable students to get into dances and other social functions where identification is necessary.

The Winter Carnival Dance, featuring "Masquerade" from Ann Arbor, was held Saturday from 9 to 12. Doors close at 10:30 p.m. and tickets are $1.75.

Due to the size of our gym, the dance was limited to Tecumseh High School students only.

Actually, THS students aren't worried about exams, or report cards, but it made a half-way decent rhyme.

Mr. Daneman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Daneman, Huntington Woods. He received his BA in urban studies at James Madison College, University of Michigan in 1974. He is presently a VISTA volunteer employed with Community Design Center in Lansing. Couple will wed in the MSU Alumni Chapel, E. Lansing, April 12.

Promoted

Marine Lance Corporal Robert P. Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Wood Sr. of 510 Occidental Hwy., was promoted to his present rank at the Marine Corps Air Station, Beaufort, S.C.

A 1973 graduate of South Lyon High School, South Lyon, he joined the Marine Corps in May 1974.

Crazy Dinner

Iota Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi entertained the Xi Delta Gamma Chapter with a crazy dinner Jan. 28 in the home of Mrs. Jack Scheirer.

Mrs. Terry Patterson and Mrs. Greg Long won the door prizes.

Several members of Iota Epsilon assisted with the Bloodmobile visit recently at Community Center.

Goat Club Holds First Meeting

Thirty-two people from around the county including Tecumseh, and Tipton attended the first Lenawee County Goat Club meeting Jan. 15 at Vo-Tech Center.

Five breeds of goats were represented among the 16 families present with a total of 348 goats.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis of Montpelier, Ohio were present to give information on various goat associations in the area.

The Lenawee Goat Club will meet monthly with the next one Feb. 26, at 7:30 p.m., in the Onsted High School and will meet the fourth Wednesday of each month thereafter.

When time and weather permit, workshops and meetings will be scheduled more often as fair time approaches.

This club is open to adults and children, 4-H, FFA, or whatever, interested in goats regardless of whether one has goats now or ever intends to have goats. It is not limited to county residents.

Information is avaiable by contacting Mrs. Gail Rumler 263-2523, Mrs. Mona Previch, 467-2874, or the Lenawee Cooperative Extension Service, 265-5108.

Malone Singers to Appear

The "Master's Plan," a singing group from Malone College in Canton, Ohio, will be at the Tecumseh Friends Church, Friday and Saturday nights, Jan. 31, and Feb. 1, at 7:30 p.m.; and on Sunday morning Feb. 2, at 11 a.m.

The services will be especially geared to youth but everyone is invited to attend.

Feb. 4-9, Tecumseh Friends Church is calling "Youth Week."

The Rev. Earl Bailey, a pastor from Canton, Ohio, will be the evangelist for the week.

Pastor Bailey has worked with young people for over 10 years, has worked for Malone College as student recruiter, Youth Pastor at the Alliance, Ohio Friends Church, and at present is pastor of the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church in Canton, Ohio.

Kelvin Kilbourn will be leading the congregational singing each evening and all the special music will be presented by local youth talent.

Services will begin each night at 7:30 p.m. except Saturday evening. Everyone is invited to attend.

Revival Services at Local Church

Revival services will be at the Church of the Nazarene, 808 W. Chicago Blvd., Tecumseh, Feb. 4-9. Meetings will be 7 p.m. each evening and Sunday at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.

Harold L. Myers, of Grand Rapids, will be guest leader. He received his college training in Owosso College, Owosso, where he majored in religion.

Before he entered college he held revivals, zone and youth rallies, and weekend evangelistic meetings. In 1969 he entered into fulltime evangelistic work.

Traveling with him in his work are his wife and two boys, Todd and Tony. Both of them sing each evening along with their parents.

Mrs. Myers plays the organ and Cordovox, a unique instrument which combines real accordion sound with true organ voices.

An invitation is open to everyone to attend all services.

Barbara Barwick and Kenneth Griffin Wed

Barbara Barwick and Kenneth G. Griffin Jr. were married Jan. 11 in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Krings, in Utica.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bud Barwick, 9517 Newburg Road and Kenneth Griffin Sr. of Ortonville.

On the arm of her father, the bride wore a fitted A-line gown with scoop neckline, high waist and full length, bell shaped sleeves.

Her mantilla was enhanced with Alencon lace appliques and she carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations, red roses and stephanotis.

Linda Munger, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in a burgundy, velvet gown with white lace bib and sleeves. She carried carnations and stephanotis tied with velvet ribbons.

Joann Jacopec of Rochester was bridesmaid in blue velvet with white lace bib and sleeves. She carried flowers like the matron of honor.

Donald Main of Rochester was best man and Scott Barwick seated the guests.

A reception for 135 guests was held in Disco.

A 1972 graduate of Tecumseh High School, the bride is employed in a K-Mart store in Rochester.

Her husband attended Rochester High School and is self-employed.

Their address is 190 Augusta, Pontiac.

BAROMETER OF LIFE

Would it really help to have an instrument to predict the storms of life?

When the barometer falls it's too late to build a sea wall or to dig a cyclone cellar. Wise men prepare when the wind is calm. A leaking roof must be mended while the sun shines.

The Church does not claim to provide a barometer of life. But it preaches every Sunday the spiritual readiness which climaxed Christ's Sermon on the Mount:

"Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock:

"And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house. . . .

"And it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock."

More Townships to be Served

CLINTON — Clinton Village Council has learned in a letter from the Environmental Protection Agency that the proposed study area for service by a new sewage treatment plant should include portions of Clinton Township and Bridgewater Township in Washtenaw County, as well as the village itself.

EPA approval is a requirement of the federal grant for the sewer system.

Special council meeting was set for Feb. 18 at 7 p.m. to discuss water and sewage plans with consulting engineers and layout plans for the new system.

A public hearing on the new sewage treatment plant and the federal grant will be held March 19 at 7 p.m. at Clinton High School. EPA representatives will attend that hearing.

A special council meeting will be held Feb. 24 at 7 p.m. to discuss the budget for the coming year.

On Feb. 25 at 7 p.m. the zoning committee will resume hearing a discussion of a rezoning request by Kathy Thomas to permit construction of several multiple dwelling units on Railroad St. This is an open meeting.

Residents at the Monday meeting presented a petition signed by several residents of the area opposing the rezoning.

Another matter to be discussed at the Feb. 25 meeting will concern a request by Mr. and Mrs. Grover Artz for a weekend retail sale in a building owned by them on Clark St.

Council granted permission for a resort liquor license to Vern and Jean McGee, owners of the Clintonian Inn.

Conditions for the permit, which must be approved by the state, are that there be table service only; no amusements such as pinball or pool tables on the premises; that the service bar be separate from the dining room.

Hours of service will be only until 11 p.m. on weekdays and Saturdays and until 8 p.m. on Sundays.

Council moved to complete the paving of 420 feet of Sunset Drive.

Next regular meeting of Council is March 3.

Women Learn to Conserve Energy

CLINTON—Jacob Schamburger, of Adrian, Consumer's Power Company representative, told United Methodist Church Women of many ways to conserve energy, at a meeting Monday evening.

Among the many suggestions made by Schamburger, was that using cold water for laundry is recommended, and he also said it is important to keep furniture away from in front of the radiators.

Mrs. James Meeks presented devotions on the theme of personal conservation of energy, and read, "Throw Me Down, Lord."

Recent book fair was reported as very successful, with other local church people participating.

A study group was announced for during Lent, to be conducted by the Rev. Ronald Corl on "Rather Die than Live—Jonah."

Study will begin Ash Wednesday, Feb. 12 at 9:30 a.m., for six Wednesdays in the educational building. A nursery will be provided.

Mrs. Forrest Swift was appointed to the World Day of Prayer committee.

Next Dorcas Circle meeting will be Feb. 19 at the home of Mrs. Paul Hawkins at 1 p.m. Next Faith Circle meeting will be Feb. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at home of Mrs. Ruth Davis.

Mrs. Norma Zimmerman reported on a Home Start program by UMW women in Louisiana, who provide material to help mothers be better teachers of their children in their homes.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Knight and Mrs. Corl.

Firemen Entertain Their Wives

CLINTON — Clinton Firemen entertained their wives at a dinner at the Clintonian Inn Saturday evening. David Allen and David Saksewski handled arrangements.

Firemen presented new Clinton Firemen's Auxiliary badges to their spouses.

Cinderettes presented a 36-cup percolator to the firemen for use at the firemen's cabin.

At a recent meeting of the Cinderettes, plans were made to sponsor a general store at the Clinton Fall Festival and to offer a new fall festival plate.

A quantity of donuts and cookies will be put in the freezer at the Cabin for use by the firemen in emergencies.

Members will be making matching vests to identify the Clinton Cinderettes at public functions.

Cost of more chairs for the cabin will be studied.

Next meeting will be Feb. 18 at the Community Center.

Army PFC Assigned

Clinton—Army Private First Class Linda E. Richard, daughter of Roy K. Richard, Clinton, is assigned as a medical aidman with Company C, 47th Medical Battalion of the 1st Armored Division in Germany.

PTS Will Meet Feb. 11

CLINTON—Parent-Teacher-Student (PTS) will meet Tuesday, Feb. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in Clinton Middle School and there will also be a bake sale.

Valentine Card Shower

CLINTON—Folks at United Church of Christ are suggesting a Valentine card shower for Bill Still, who was totally disabled with polio in 1952, and has resided at Veterans Hospital, Grand Rapids, 49500, for about 15 years.

Local residents will recall how church and community people pitched in to build a home for the Still family when Bill became an invalid.

His son, Charles and wife, reside in the house on Tecumseh-Clinton Road.

Bill writes frequently to the pastor, the Rev. Earl Lawrence and his letters are read to the congregation.

The Valentine card shower will provide an opportunity to respond to a fellow who has managed to keep his spirits up through long years of adversity.

New Store Owners

CLINTON — Sheldon and Linda Silver have assumed ownership of the Stuff 'N Things store from Merle and Dorothy Hunt.

The new owners recently moved from Ann Arbor to Evans Lake. They have three children, a boy and girl in Clinton Elementary School and a girl at home.

Mr. Silver is a former manager of Rink's store and was a carpenter in Ann Arbor. Mrs. Silver was formerly employed in a pet shop in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Silver plan to continue the tropical fish, fabrics and most of the craft, novelty and hobby lines presently in the store.

They will be adding a line of table lamps and hanging lamps, and will eventually add a ceramics line, including their own greenware.

The store will be open daily from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., except Tuesday, and from 11 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

The Hunts have no plans for the future, except to take a brief trip to Florida soon.

2nd Place

CLINTON — Randy Sparks of Clinton raced his Ski-Doo to a second place win in the 250SS at Motor State Classic in St. Joseph, the weekend of Jan. 18-19.

The event had been postponed for a week because of mild weather.

However, after a week of freezing temperatures, an icy bed of between five and eight inches thick was ready by race time.

Fun Day

CLINTON—Fun Day is planned for the Feb. 12 meeting of Clinton Woman's Club at 1:30 p.m. in Smith-Kimball Community Center.

Mrs. Daniel Reilly is in charge of the program which will include group singing, as well as bingo games with one-pound bags of sugar as prizes.

Macon Dialog

by Linda Phillips 423-5213

At last week's United Methodist Women's meeting, Emogean Morden, retiring president, presented new president Irene Mehler with a pink, ribbon-tied gavel.

"I doubt if you'll need to use this," commented Emogean, "because you will be working with a nice bunch of women."

With a president like that, how could we have been otherwise?

Myrtle Clark had quite a scare Thursday when the chimney, [illegible] apparently due to soot build-up, caught fire.

Son Ed was johnny-on-the-spot and quickly ran over from next door with an extinguisher, climbed up on the roof and put out the "seven foot flames" (?!!).

Rumor has it that Ed's next job for his mom will be a "sweep"...

Chicago Blvd. A 1974 graduate of Tecumseh High School, the bride-elect is a secretary for Ace Drill Corporation, Adrian. Her fiance is the son of Robert Sinclair of Blissfield and Mrs. William Brackney of Adrian. He was graduated from Blissfield High School in 1973 and enlisted in the United States Air Force. The wedding date has been set for April 11.

Speaks at Women's Club

John Wotring, a service representative from Schneider Chevrolet-Buick, Inc., spoke to the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club Monday evening.

His topic, "Car care and What Keeps It Running," covered basic automotive principles for automobile maintenance. He displayed several small parts from the modern car and explained their function.

Wotring stressed the importance of checking belts, battery and cables, brake fluid, oil level, transmission and tires, before traveling.

He distributed booklets, especially prepared for the woman driver, covering the structure of the car and instructions for its maintenance. The booklet was entitled "LIB," which was identified as Ladies in Buicks.

Mrs. Wotring was also a guest of the club.

Dinner was served by the women of the United Methodist Church.

Julia Tilley and Charlotte Boyes were appointed to visit Maurice Spear Campus, prior to Valentine's Day, with remembrances from the members of the club.

Donations were made by the club to purchase medical supplies for a student in the Tecumseh Public School System and to Lisa Baker, who will be traveling in Europe with a group of musical students, this summer.

Announcements were made of the Federation of Women's Clubs meeting to be held Feb. 19 at Christ Episcopal Church in Adrian.

Also an executive board meeting of all officers and chairmen of committees of the Tecumseh BP&W to be held Feb. 17 in the home of Charlotte Boyes.

Mrs. William Flanders, president, asked the executive committee to study the advantages of the club becoming a member of the General Federation of Women's Clubs of Michigan.

There will be a silent auction at the next meeting, Feb. 24, in the First Baptist Church.

Area Considered To Be Disaster

Gov. William G. Milliken has asked U.S. Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz to designate 13 Michigan counties disaster areas, including Lenawee.

A combination of natural disasters — including a cold, wet spring, drought followed by excessive rainfall in some areas and an early freeze — have caused serious crop losses, totaling at least $272,253,323 in at least 36 Michigan counties, Milliken said.

He applied for disaster designations for 23 of those counties last month, and said he expects to apply for more as more information is received.

The federal disaster designations would make farmers eligible for low-interest loans.

"Great hardship is being experienced by the farmers of the state as a result of severe weather conditions," Milliken said in the letter to Butz.

"Agriculture credit in Michigan is critical and the availability of these loans is important to the continuation of many of these producers."

Losses in the current list of 13 counties totaled $90,347,387. The previously reported losses totaled $181,905,936.

Lenawee County is on the current list with $29,250,000 in total dollar losses and 34 is the number of potential loans. Lenawee's loss is more than twice as large as the next nearest, Washtenaw and Shiawasee Counties.

Receive State Aid Payments

Tecumseh High School will receive $287,990, and Clinton High School, $50,250 in February payments of State Aid.

There are two more payments, in April and June, of this year.

Scout Troop 73 Holds Meeting

Troop 73 met last Tuesday evening at the Presbyterian Church. After the presentation of colors, the prayer that Neil Armstrong read on the moon was given by Duane Covell.

Space and our universe, the evening's theme, was discussed. Singing was led by Chuck Sullivan.

A reminder of the trip to Adrian College planaterium and designated time was given.

Feb. 9-15 is Scout Week. On Sunday, Feb. 9 the boys are to meet at the Presbyterian Church shortly before 11 a.m. to attend as a group.

Those attending the Blue and Gold Banquet are asked to bring a large dish to pass and table service. Meat, beverage and cake will be furnished.

More money is needed immediately by Mrs. Aranda, 106 Muscody St., to cover the cost of the meat.

The banquet will be Feb. 18 at 6 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

John Deming gave information on accident insurance available to all Scouts and Leaders at only 50c each.

Troop decided to take this accident and dismemberment insurance.

Chris Sullivan became a Webelo Den Chief, Roger Butler presented the following awards: Jeff Day, aquanaut, athlete, naturalist and outdoorsman; Duane Covell, citizen; Bryan Johnson, Walter Harvey and Steven Covell, Silver Arrows. This is Steven's seventh Arrow point.

Scott Bakas, Greg Bamback, Walter Harvey, Jamie McKenney and Bryan Johnson, received one year pins.

Cubs inducted to the Webelos by John Covell are Jim Judd, Paul Vredveldt, Jim Knowles, Mike Hoover, Rick Crawford and Mike Humphries.

Steve and Todd Burch, Dan Rouleau and Abby Short demonstrated model rockets.

Cubby was again won by Mrs. Sullivan's Den 2 for having 100 percent parent attendance.

Newspaper Is Workshop

Mrs. Norman Bless was program chairman Jan. 30 when over 200 teachers attended Lenawee Reading Council's winter workshop.

"The newspaper" was one of the five after supper workshops, explaining how the newspaper can be used to teach reading, a tool Mrs. Bless has been using for a number of years.

Lenawee Reading Council is an organization of educators, parents and teachers whose purpose is to promote the effective teaching of reading.

Next meeting will be March 20 at the West Adrian Church of Christ at 7 p.m.

As an independent agent we answer to one boss—our hometown people

We represent several firms, but we work for only one boss—you. That way we can always place you with a company which we think is best for each line of insurance you need. Naturally, we prefer companies like Auto-Owners who look at a loss and take care of it right away, without haggling or delays. That's one of the reasons we're part of the Altogether Family. Like us, they're always there when you need them.

Put the damper on wasted heat

Don't let heat (and dollars) go up your fireplace chimney. When the fire's out, keep the fireplace damper closed.

To seal off other heat wasters...

- Weather-strip around doors and windows. Caulk cracks.
- Keep drapes and blinds drawn at night.
- Set thermostat to lowest comfortable daytime temperature and down to at least 65 degrees for sleeping.

Also, install proper insulation in your attic... at least six inches, to save fuel and money.

In loving memory of my brother, Bill.
No matter where you are
His eyes were brown, so was his hair, almost just like mine
I always knew, but never realized, just what you meant to me
But now I know, but it's too late as you are no longer here
No one can ever take you from me no matter how hard they try Cause we both know who loved you most,
we both know it was I.
We fought a lot when we were little,
[illegible]re only kids
Now that we're big, we understand
What being close can mean
I looked up to you and always will, no matter how far you are Because no matter how far you are, your heart is here with me.
Forever loved, but never forgotten.
I love you Bill,
Cheryl 2-6p

Two area Divisions of the Knights of Pythias of the State of Michigan combined to hold their quarterly meeting in the Knights of Pythias Hall, Tipton, Jan. 27, with 50 members present.

Ten Lodges were represented with Grand Chancellor Paul Hille of Port Huron attending. Other grand officers present were grand treasurer Bernel Wallace of Hillsdale, grand inner guard David Hurd and grand outer guard Frances Horning. Also present were several past grand officers of the Grand Lodge of Michigan, four district deputies and two area supervisors.

The meeting was opened by district deputy Robert Wood of Tecumseh and closed by grand treasurer Bernel Wallace of Hillsdale. The first rank was conferred on three pages from Dundee.

Grand Chancellor Paul Hille announced the goal for all Knights of Pythias this year is to work towards a 20 percent increase in membership in each lodge in the state.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room by Sisters Dorothy Baker, Bernice VanSickle and Vera Driffill of Tipton Pythian Sisters from attractively decorated tables.

Guests were present from Port Huron, Pontiac, Plymouth, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Hillsdale, Sturgis, Dundee, Tecumseh, Adrian and Tipton.

Next area meeting will be held at the same place in April.

SUN BATHING AND FROGS

We live on the southeast bank of the lake. The directions are not 100 percent compass correct but it is sort of southeast. There is a small island in this end of the lake which is reached by a footbridge. Now the island is nothing but sand and a few clumps of coarse grass or weeds. There is talk of sodding and picnic tables; however it need not happen too soon. I am not sure the birds would like the island civilized.

I know George, the egret, likes it just as is. It is perfect for sun bathing and preening. In his way of life the two go together.

From his appearance and actions we assume that the breeding season is near. Dressed in their courting finery egrets are the perfect picture of feathery finery; in fact, this was almost their downfall not too many years ago.

I thought I had the proper bird books with me but, of course, the one I need now is back in Tecumseh. Specific details will thus be lacking. I have the basic information correct, though: Because of the heavy demands of the millinery trade, the egrets were almost exterminated.

During the courting and family rearing season these birds are adorned with long white feathery plumes called aigrettes. These feathers became a status symbol and hats decorated with them became high-fashion.

As the demand grew, the birds declined. Fortunately an aroused public 'flexed its muscle,' the Audubon Society was formed and the birds were saved from extinction.

The egrets' story shows man at his worst and also his best. The greed of the feather collectors lead them to 'harvest' the aigrettes at their peak quality and, to save themselves from having to hunt the birds, which, by that time had become quite elusive, the breeding areas were invaded. These birds are extremely good parents and will endanger their own lives to care for their young.

This is exactly what happened; one season's slaughter could eliminate a whole colony. With the adults killed and the young left to die in the nests, it is not hard to see why the egrets were in serious trouble.

But the American public does sometimes say, "Stop!" The egrets are alive and doing well — as far as the feather hunters go, that is. Now the rejuvenated flocks face the peril of indiscriminately used insecticides and the loss of their swampy homesites to the bulldozers of the land speculators.

That is another story and the end is yet to be written. What is encouraging for the further survival of the great birds and all other endangered species, including ourselves, is that once public pressure did turn around a bad situation. Let's hope it can happen again, and again and again.

Back to George. Several weeks ago he was standing on the island. The sun was shining brightly and his feathers were 'held loose' so that the warmth could penetrate.

A slight breeze teased his feathers and we were surprised, George had aigrette feathers. Starting from high on his back, almost his shoulders, were the long airy feathers which reached well below his short tail. Suddenly he stretched and, with an almost audible sigh, began preening.

If there weren't a sigh, there should have been for this was quite an undertaking. Slowly and with great care, he meticulously groomed, cleaned and smoothed each and every feather.

His long yellow bill was used with amazing skill and dexterity. Once all was in order he went back to motionless sun bathing.

Several days later Mom glanced out the window and exclaimed. The egret was standing in the water near the island and, just as Mom looked, he raised his head. Dangling from his big yellow bill were two green froglegs! No wonder Mom exclaimed.

Apparently the frog was too large for one swallow and for a few moments George just stood there. Wondering — of course not, he knew exactly what to do. He put his bill back under water and swished it back and forth several times.

Head up again and still the frog could not be swallowed. More ducking. Was the trying to drown the frog?

Unfortunately none of us could devote full time to the egret-frog episode but Mom kept going back to the window and it was almost 40 minutes before those froglegs disappeared. Quite a meal!

So it is that in this segment of what truly does seem to be a continuing story, George entertained us with sun bathing and frogs.

Agreement Reached

An agreement between the Taylor Products Division of Tecumseh Products and the International Association of Machinists Union has been reached, according to Ed Rapin, corporate director of industrial relations and personnel for the Company.

The agreement, reached Jan. 24, was the 14th settlement for the Company in just over 18 months.

Mr. Rapin says the only dispute remaining is the strike at the Tecumseh plant.

Carnival Biggest and Best

They would have hired a calliope, if they could have found one, just to let parents, students and everyone know that this year's Winter Carnival at Tecumseh High School will be the biggest and best that space will allow.

Annual carnival is Saturday, Feb. 8 from 3-8 p.m. at THS gymnasium and cafeteria and features 30 attractions.

Carnival is built and operated by the members of over 20 clubs and classes at the high school.

Somewhat like a Mardi Gras, it is meant to break the long period of time between January and Easter, offering entertainment for students and families.

Each club must purchase space and put the rent into the Student Assembly's treasury. Proceeds benefit the Assembly's school year projects.

Returning to the carnival will be the dunking tank, a taco booth, pizza booth, cake walk, with additions such as a donut eating contest, bingo games pleasing to adults, bagels, turtle races and a make-up booth, sponsored by the drama club members who will do the work.

Coffee house entertainment, sack races, pretzels and craft selling are among just a few of the activities.

A small admission for the day is asked with small admissions for some booths.

Door prizes are featured again this year including a 10-speed bike, dinner for two, a corn popper and gift certificates.

Area merchants participating are Baldwin Hardware, D&C, Don's Beef Buffet, Musicland, Eggleston's Jewelry and McDonalds.

Strikers Harass Truckers Leaving Products Plant

Tempers erupted Friday afternoon with a barrage of rocks and other objects when four tractors of Central Transport of Detroit left the Tecumseh Products via Gate 5. Earlier in the day two tractors pulled trailers inside the Company's fenced in area, and the photo above shows that a side window in the tractor was broken out at that time. When the tractors left - without trailers - rocks smashed windshields, side windows and bounced off the cabs. Photo above left (arrow) shows just one broken window but every tractor sustained broken glass before it pulled onto S. Maumee St. Striking employees of the Products also scattered large nails (left) in the path of the tractors before they reached the city street. Both Tecumseh police and Sheriff's Department were at the scene with county patrol cars escorting the tractors out of town.

Court Order Handed Down in TP Strike

An injunction in the Tecumseh Products Company strike was ordered Monday afternoon by Judge Rex Martin after consultation with Union and Company officials.

The injunction prohibits interference with the Company's right to ingress and egress to its plant. This is relative to the Union's past interference with truck traffic to and from the plant.

The injunction also limits the number of pickets to four at each plant entrance, and truck drivers can not be armed, regardless of whether the weapon is cased or uncased.

In the first truck traffic incident, a Detroit driver had a shotgun which was confiscated by the Tecumseh police.

Judge Martin also said that the number of four pickets was decided by the court as the best number.

"In the event that the directors of the Union suspect a violation of the injunction, they have the right to go down and spend a reasonable amount of time there to handle the situation," he explained to the audience of Company and Union representatives and strikers.

Judge Martin said that "reasonable time" was an understanding derived by the court and counsel.

In his remarks, he said that the Circuit Court represents the rights of the general public. "As an arbitrator, I would probably tell each side to do things they would not like. I'm not an arbitrator and therefore, I can't tell them to agree or disagree."

The Union does have the right to picket and the Company has the right to ingress and egress, the judge stated.

"Court's real responsibility is to maintain law for the public," Judge Martin concluded.

No Negotiations Are Scheduled for TP, Union

Unless there are some immediate developments, no bargaining sessions are scheduled or will be held this week between the Tecumseh Products Company and the United Products Workers Union.

Guy Cox, Union president, says the Union is currently working through and with the state mediator. This was the sole statement from the Union official.

Any scheduling of negotiations apparently will be made through the state mediator. He was contacted last week and it's not known whether he has made any attempts to set up a meeting with the Company.

The Union and Company have not met since Friday, Jan. 31. At that time the mediator asked the Union to take a secret ballot vote on the latest Company offer. A meeting was held Monday night, Feb. 3, and by a hand vote the Union overwhelmingly rejected the Company's offer.

The strike is now three months old, having started Nov. 15th. Although neither the Company nor Union have stated exactly what the differences are, major deadlock appears to be over the contract termination date of Nov. 15.

PC Discusses Goals for Region II

Tecumseh City Planning Commission Tuesday night itemized goals for Region II planning in an effort to pinpoint what amount of services the city can qualify for with its $1,600 membership contribution.

Listed were a six-year capital improvements plan, updating land use book, personal appearances for consultation at special meetings assistance with site plan review and platt plan review.

In a later amendment Planning Commission added the Central Business District program in its present stage to the total capital improvements program.

Commission weighed the benefits of continuing the campaign for the second phase of proposed downtown redevelopment then decided to ask Region II for a recommendation.

Second phase of redevelopment includes rear walk improvements, drinking fountains, trash cans and street directories. Cost estimate is $116,000

Paul Dangler, chairman of the central business committee investigating redevelopment said that 33 merchants approved the beautification, 17 were opposed and 20 gave no response to a survey.

Originally free off street parking and beautification were one package. Because of cost, it was decided to break the redevelopment plans into two phases.

A public hearing will be March 3 at 8 p.m. on the off-street parking special assessment.

Allan Hooper, Region II planner spoke with the Planning commissioners on the benefits of capital improvements planning and listened to their questions for Region II planners.

Benefits he mentioned include: establishing priorities for short and long range periods, efficient planning and financing, direct input from community and city administrators, cooperation between both and a time schedule for planning.

Hooper said that input is the most time consuming part of the process and if Tecumseh handles input, as it has done with the capital improvement survey, Region II planning can assist the city with scheduling priorities.

Condition Serious

Ed Clark Found Beaten at Market

Edwin Clark, 72, an employee at Jerry's Market on Tecumseh-Clinton Road, was found injured there on the floor shortly after closing time Tuesday, at 10:15 p.m. by his daughter, Lois Cheever, who had noticed the lights still on as she drove by.

Clark received a severe blow to the lower right skull and had a cut above the left eye. He was treated at Herrick Hospital and transferred to University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

Clinton State Police suspected there had been a robbery attempt, however, because of the nature of Clark's injuries they were unable to question him. Cash register had not been opened, and apparently no money was taken.

Clark's automobile was taken and later recovered about 2 a.m. on Allen Road.

Officers hoped Clark's condition would improve for questioning Wednesday.

Suspects were questioned Wednesday.

NEW PARTNER—Dave Robinson, formerly of Coldwater, is a new partner with Don and DJ Martin at the Tecumseh Gambles store. Dave, here with his wife, Paula, and son Tim, previously worked in his parents' Gambles store in Conrad, Montana, and for the past three years was a zone manager for Gambles, supervising operations of 21 stores in southeast Michigan. Dave and his wife attended Eastern Montana College, and he holds a degree in business administration. The Robinsons now reside at 6727 Gove Court North. (Photo by Frank Weir)

6 Mishaps

Accidents Minor

Although Tecumseh received some snow during the past week, there were only a few minor traffic accidents. Fortunately, none involved serious injury.

A day-by-day report follows:

Feb. 5 — Philip J. Harris, 21, 1008 Brookside, backed into a car driven by Billie B. Hollis, 45, of 706 Brook St. Harris was backing out of a parking lot on Maumee south of Chicago and apparently did not see the other vehicle. No citations were issued.

Feb. 5 — Dorothy E. Grigg, 53, Kilarney Highway in Brooklyn, struck the back of a car driven by George H. Hoag, 33, RFD 4 in Onsted, The Hoag car had slowed for a vehicle that was turning. All cars were in the westbound lane on M-50.

Feb. 6 — Robert Francis Mitchell, 49, of 6874 Green Hwy., was traveling south on Adrian St., when he struck a parked car owned by Vicki and Gene Mackey of 903 River Acres. Mitchell was cited for Failure to have vehicle under control.

Feb. 6 — Kathy Flanders, 17, of 806 Shady Lane, was operating a snowmobile behind property at 705 Adrian St when the gas throttle stuck causing her to lose control and hit the back of the house at that address. The accident broke a door and casing, siding and two windows. The house is owned by Ervin Hubbel.

Feb. 9 — Jeffrey Joseph Schafer, 16, of 10685 Macon Hwy., struck the back of a car driven by Janet Lucille Oyer, 34, of 219 N. Locust, Adrian. The Oyer vehicle slowed for another vehicle and the Schafer car was unable to stop. The accident occurred on W. Chicago. Schafer was cited for failure to have vehicle under control.

Feb. 10 — Phillip Carl Seyfried, 71, of 2185 E. Monroe was pulling out of a parking space on W. Chicago when he struck the rear of a parked car owned by Dolores Ann Young, of 7980 US 12, Onsted. A parking meter was damaged in the accident. Seyfried told police that his foot hit the acclerator instead of the brake.

Commissioner Resigns from PC

The resignation of LeRoy Betzoldt, Tecumseh Planning Commissioner was read to Planning Commission Tuesday night.

Betzoldt's letter, addressed to the mayor and council, said that the resignation was for personal reasons.

Planning Commission recommended to City Council that John Long of Long Motor Sales, be appointed to finish Betzoldt's term.

Snowmobiler Dead, Plunges Into Lake

Harlan C. Barber, 51, of U.S. 12 lost his life in a snowmobile accident Monday at 7:35 p.m. on Evans Lake.

He drove his snowmobile off the ice and into open water. Trying to help his passenger, David Ball, 18, to safety, Barber submerged again.

Ball was taken to Bixby Hospital for observation and was still a patient Tuesday.

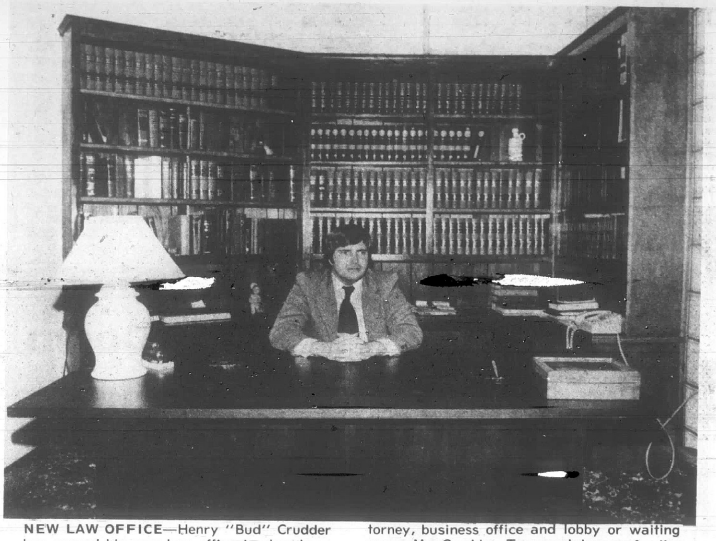
Born March 23, 1923 in Ann Arbor, Barber was the son of Henry C. and Lula May Barager Barber. He was a self employed brick layer in the area.

A veteran of th U.S. Army tank division in the European Theatre, he received the purple heart. He married Onnalee Chaffee Oct. 5, 1953. She survives.

Other survivors include one daughter, Luanne, at home; three sons, Terry, in the U.S. Army at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., William and Rickey at home.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. in Proctor Funeral Home Clinton with burial in Brookside Cemetery.



NEW LAW OFFICE—Henry "Bud" Crudder has opened his new law office in downtown Tecumseh, following extensive remodeling. The attractive quarters, designed by Darva Richart of Adrian with the actual work by Olin Swaney, includes a large office for the attorney, business office and lobby or waiting room. Mr. Crudder, Tecumseh lawyer for the past four years, has room for another office and plans additional improvements to the building, previously occupied by Village Floors, Flanders Music and Cal's Tog Shop.

Credit Union Dinner Meeting

Annual dinner meeting of the Tecumseh Products Employees Credit Union will be Feb. 22 at the United Products Workers Union Hall.

Evening will include dinner, election of officers, regular business meeting and entertainment.

Paul Lennon, a comedian, and Eddie DeSantis and his Singing Strings, eight piece orchestra, will entertain.

Door prizes will be given. Tickets may be purchased in advance.

For more information, readers may call the credit union at 423-7414.

Building Destroyed

Fire practically destroyed the paint building of Du-Ro Woodworking Products Monday night. Loss has been estimated upwards of $8,000 or more.

John Escott, Raisin Township fire chief, says his department was called shortly after 6 p.m. and was at the scene for two hours. Tecumseh department was called shortly afterwards when Raisin firemen learned that three 55-gallon drums of inflammable contents could explode and threaten the nearby main Du-Ro building.

Contents in the paint building included cabinets and other wood products plus paint, thinners and varnishes.

An employee of Richard Rogers, owner, was in the building at the time it caught fire.

Entry Gained into Office

CLINTON—Entry was gained to the Clinton superintendent of schools office sometime during Tuesday night and an attempt was made to open the safe.

Although the safe was damaged, it was not opened and apparently no other damage was done, according to Clinton State Police.

Closed

United Savings Bank, First Federal and post office will be closing Monday in observance of Washington's birthday.

Post office lobby, however, will be open to patrons, and mail deposited in boxes throughout the town will be collected as usual. There will be no deliveries to residences.

Property Rezoning Suggested

Rezoning of property along the west side of Wyandotte St. between Pottawatamie and Kilbuck Streets from residental to office use was suggested by Planning Commission to City Council Tuesday night.

A public hearing has been set by Council for March 3 at 7:45 p.m. to hear objections.

If rezoned to office service, an owner could still add to or remodel a residence existing there.

Foreign Guests

CLINTON—Nine foreign students at University of Michigan, from Columbia, Mexico, Egypt, Iran, Japan and Jordan, were guests in Clinton homes for the weekend.

Visit was arranged by the Ecumenical Campus in Ann Arbor.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Driscoll and daughter Julie, Mrs. Wayne Hulett, Mr. and Mrs. William Caroters, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Holt, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Fry and Mr. and Mrs. Harlin Frauman.

Six Republicans File for Three 2-year Positions

CLINTON — Six Republican candidates who have filed for the three two-year positions on the Clinton Village Council have submitted resumes of their backgrounds and brief statements of why they wish to serve on the council.

Because there are more persons seeking positions, than there are vacancies, it is necessary to have a primary election Monday, Feb. 17. Polls will be open in Clinton Middle School from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Only those three successful nominees at the primary election will have their names appear on the ballot at the annual village election, March 10, which makes the vote at the primary the crucial one.

Besides the trustee positions on the council, two candidates have filed for the two-three-year positions on the Smith-Kimball Community Center Board.

They are incumbents, Hollis Farley, editor of The Clinton Local and Genevieve Reilly, retired editor of an Ann Arbor publication.

Jean Magee's name was entered as a candidate without her knowledge. She does not choose to run.

However, her withdrawal was too late to have her name removed from the Feb. 17 primary ballot.

The trustee candidates resumes are following:

BERNARD ABRAHAM

Bernard Abraham resides with his wife and two daughters at 216 Sunset Drive. The family moved here three years ago from Detroit.

He is a high school graduate, and is employed with Ford Motor Co., Dearborn plant. He is a member of the Clinton Area Jaycees.

Mr. Abraham said he wants to get involved in the community, thinks there should be a younger man on the council and "doesn't want to see Clinton grow as fast as Saline."

CLIFFORD COBB

Clifford Cobb resides at 109 W. Church St., and is employed in the tool room at Peerless Gear Division.

He is a high school graduate and was in service.

Formerly of Detroit, the family moved to Clinton three years ago.

Besides one daughter employed in Saline, there is a daughter in Clinton Middle School and a son attending Eastern Michigan University.

Cobb said he likes a peaceful small town, and doesn't want to see the town "grow wild like Saline has." He thought it was "time to get involved."

CHARLES COOK

Charles Cook and his wife, both retirees from Ford Motor Co., moved to their home at 304 Marion St., three years ago from Ypsilanti. They have a grown son and daughter elsewhere.

He is a high school graduate and received his training in warehousing and mechanics during service with the Army.

Previously he was a Lieutenant in the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department. He has had FBI and State Jailers Association training.

He is a life member of the Washtenaw County Law Enforcement Association. He is a member of the Lenawee Council on Aging, and manager of the Clinton Senior Citizens bowling group.

Mr. Cook said he thinks a lot of Clinton and is a taxpayer with time to spend, and would "do my best to serve the people."

JOHN JANSEN

John Jansen, counselor, resides at 503 Tecumseh-Clinton Road.

A graduate of Michigan State University, he has been an agricultural teacher in Clinton High School since 1959, as well as advisor for Clinton Chapter FFA.

For the six years he has served on the village council, he has been on the water and sewer committee and is presently chairman of that committee.

He has been actively involved in plans for a new sewage treatment plant and application for a federal grant to build it.

Jansen said he found it interesting to work on the council. He would like to continue to serve the community and "do my part in making Clinton better."

RICHARD J. KOSTER

Richard J. Koster and wife and three children have resided at 210 Marion St. since 1971.

He was born and raised in Detroit, where he graduated from high school. He received a degree in business administration from University of Detroit in 1953.

He served in the Army in Korea and Japan then returned to U of D to receive a provisional secondary teaching certificate, and taught half a year.

He joined the Budd Co. Detroit plant as a management trainee in 1956. He served as quality control supervisor, and later as assistant labor relations manager.

He was labor relations manager at the Gary, Ind. plant for [illegible] years before coming to Clinton's Budd Co. plant in 1971 as personnel manager.

He is a member of the village council, present chairman of the finance committee.

Koster said, Clinton has "no big problems compared to Gary and Detroit." He considers the financing of the village as a problem to be faced soon because of inflation. He would like to continue his work with the forward planning for the village.

JOHN C. KNIGHT

John C. Knight resides with his wife and two children at 228 Sunset Drive.

He is a graduate of Clinton High School and a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and served two years in the Army.

He is employed at Kelsey Hayes where he has been plant manager, materials manager and purchasing manager.

Mr. Knight said he would comply with the majority desires of the people, based on "common sense, moral and business judgment."

School Board Approves Request

CLINTON—School board members approved a request by Clinton Chapter to take down the old storage building at the Middle School site for salvage materials to be used in a proposed pole barn on the high school site. Site when cleared could be used for playground, Supt. Richard Wegner said.

More plans will have to be brought to the board regarding additional materials needed for the barn before final approval of barn can be given.

John Jansen suggested the possibility of having a Farmers' Day for the community, and the board agreed it was a good idea.

Three substitute teachers have been added to the CETA program. Two of the substitutes are taking the place of teachers on maternity leave; one substitute works on a day to day basis. Daily rate of pay was set at $30.

County proposed calendar for the 1975-76 school year was reviewed and approved.

Board tabled the matter of transferring the Tonneberger property to Tecumseh School District, pending further investigation.

In the past, both Clinton and Tecumseh Schools have taken a negative view of property transfers.

Board approved the rental of a section of Gilbert's Automotive garage for a bus garage at a cost of $750 a year.

Suggestion was made that better facilities be provided for the bus drivers. Superintendent will check into the various possibilities, of a portable classroom or a used trailer, which could be removed if desired.

Richard Wegner, Glen Clark, Robert Way and Robert Werner will attend the MASB Mid-Winter Conference Saturday.

Official enrollment has now been changed to 1,216. Clinton Community Schools are now going with the second Friday of November count rather than the fourth Friday after Labor Day count.

Enrollment is up eight pupils over the fourth Friday count, which increases state aid by about $7,000.

Use of the tartan floor at the high school was discussed because the floor is looking bad. For this reason, the administration has decided to hold all school dances at the Middle School. Board members felt that the Spanish Carnival should also be held at the Middle School, even though this would mean disruption of the gym classes during the week. If the carnival is held at the high school, baseball practice would be disrupted.

A better sealer will be sought for the floor.

Friendship Night At OES

CLINTON — Recent friendship night, hosted by Golden Rod Chapter 85 Order of Eastern Star, was attended by 108 persons.

Among the guests introduced were Mrs. William Jeffries of Adrian, past grand matron of Grand Chapter of Michigan; Mrs. Harold Donnelly, past grand chaplain; Mrs. Delmar Manchester, past grand organist; Mrs. Nelson Dennis, grand committee member of the candle service.

Others present included president of Washtenaw County Association, second vice-president of Jackson County Association and assistant marshall of Hillsdale County Association.

Worthy matrons and patrons were present from Samaria, Fairfield, Morenci, Addison, Adrian and one sister chapter Bell Chapter from Liberty.

Lenawee - Monroe Association officers were introduced and president Mrs. Reno Busato explained her projects for the year which are working with retarded children and youth groups. A silver collection was taken to help these projects.

Return

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Pask have returned from two weeks in Florida. They attended the 50th anniversary reception for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pask at Plant City, Fla., on Jan. 25. Later they toured the west coast and southern half of Florida all the way to Key West, then back by way of the east coast to Miami.

Mrs. Richard Broniman, victim of an armed robbery in her home Dec. 14, told of her experience in the hope it would help to prevent others going through the same torture.

She suggested having burglar alarm systems installed and having telephone wires installed where they can't be cut easily.

Film Shown

The film, "Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman" was shown at assemblies for fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grade students Tuesday, and for the high school on Wednesday.

STORM OVER THE GULF

So far we have found Florida weather much like the little girl of the nursery rhymes. The one who had the curl in the middle of her forehead and, when she was good, she was very very good but, when she was bad, she was horrid. When good, the weather down here is dazzling and beautiful, when bad it is awful. And dreadful. And miserable.

We have not, and here's hoping we never do, see it as its very worst, but there are a couple of good things to be said about the cold rainy days.

The first, of course, is that they do not last too long. Always there is the hope of a sunny, warm tomorrow. And secondly, the most miserable days weatherwise have afforded us tremendous bird watching.

Gulls! Seldom if ever is the sky here completely empty or free of these magnificent flying birds. And if there are none in sight, a handful of bread or a few stale rolls tossed into the lake brings them wheeling and screaming in.

Which just proves I guess that their eye-sight is far superior to ours. Our first days here were cold and wet — very embarrassing to the native Floridians — and we were told that as soon as squalls kick up on the Bay or Gulf the gulls head slightly inland for a bit of extra protection. They certainly do!

But gulls are not the only birds flushed out by bad weather. Members of the blackbird family came trouping in too. I am tempted to say that there must be no grackles in Michigan this winter because each and every one of them must have followed us South.

However, I realize that would be a slight exaggeration. You must have a few even though we are over-run with them. Iridescent purple heads, evil, yellow eye-rings and all.

One bonus is that of this writing, they have not yet entered into the breeding cycle and so we are at least spared that rusty hinge, squeaky croak and the absurd "blowing up" performance of the courting male.

Late one afternoon a particularly bad storm had blown itself out and we were cheered by the sudden appearance of a quickly setting sun and some perfectly beautiful golden clouds.

Suddenly a swarm of black descended upon the vacant lot between us and our nice neighbors, the Dunbars. Quite truthfully I am not sure I ever remember seeing so many birds in one mass.

The yard was literally black. And when they took off, so much in unison that it were almost as though a sigh had been given, the beating of their wings was loud.

It was a mixed group, grackles, boat-tailed grackles, cowbirds and red-winged blackbirds.

After taking off they circled and then settled down again. Looking down the lake we were shocked to see that other yards were black and Mom reported that several places across the lake were in the same sorry state.

The flocks seemed to be restless and uneasy, settling down only to rise up again. Several times they exchanged yards, almost a game of musical chairs.

It was fun to watch but it was also a bit unsettling. So many, many birds we really don't need. I find cowbirds particularly upsetting because of their destructive habit of laying eggs in the nests of other, more desirable birds.

But to Mom goes the honor of having the very best stormy-day bird thrill. She looked out the back window just as a great blue heron landed on the island.

He was so close that she did not even get the binoculars — in fact, he was so close that they would have been a hindrance instead of a help.

The first and foremost thing about these birds is their size. Everything about them is big, huge, great, magnificent.

As it happened I was browsing through a bird book and, when Mom excitedly told me what she was watching, Dad turned to the color plate of this bird.

As she described him it was almost as though she were looking over my shoulder at the picture instead of through the window at Great Blue himself. His reddish-orange bill was huge, she said, his eyes almost a cruel yellow, his head primarily white with a dark stripe across the top of his eye.

The picture shows this stripe as a plume extending out from the back of the bird's head. The back of his long neck was tannish-gray shading into a dark steel gray on his back.

The front of his neck was light with dark streaks and, at it's base was a long filmy beard of feathers. [illegible] each wing was black with a trace of russet-red, his 'drumsticks' were the same red. What a bird!

So it is that, although we much prefer the sunny warm days, our spirits do not hit bottom when the weatherman begins his forecast with such words as "Storm over the gulf. . . ."

News of Local Troops

65th Anniversary of Scouting

United Methodist Men's Club hosted the Scout Trophy they sponsor for breakfast Sunday in observance of the 65th anniversary of Boy Scouts.

Fifty-one men, boys of Troop 272 and their fathers were served and a slide presentation of recent scout activities was given by Scoutmaster John Deming.

Included were a December trip to Grissom Air Force Base in Peru, Ind., the Jan. 4 Windsor-Pottawatamie Trail Hike at Wolverine Council Camp on Bruin Lake and the fall camp[illegible] outings.

Committee chairman John Van Ordsdol presented certificates of appreciation to Mr. Deming who has been scoutmaster since the fall of 1971 and assistant scoutmaster, Jim Dehring.

Active on the troop committee are Roger Merillat, institutional representative, John VanOrsdol, William Adams, Paul Hadsell, Ed Walters, Tom Maupin, Harry Snyder and Walt Wonderly. Charles Sullivan is also an assistant scoutmaster.

Scouts were included in the worship service for Boy Scout Sunday with members and leaders of the Troop seated in a body.

Tim Deming and Jeff VanOrsdol were acolytes; Joe Williams and Mark McLaughlin, ushers and Chris Sullivan and Greg Aranda [illegible].

A table tennis tournament under the direction of John VanOrsdol was held between breakfast and the worship service with Mark McLaughlin winner.

Officers of the mens Club are Ed Walters, president; Ken Wright, vice president; Harry Snyder, secretary and John Naylor, treasurer.

Scoutmaster Harold Tesch and Assistant Pat Donahue of Kiwanis sponsored Troop 102 presented a slide program and narrative for the Feb. 4 meeting of Kiwanis.

Pictured were the activities that the troop from Lenawee Institute had participated in during the past year: 1974 summer camp and Scout-a-Rama, rides at Calhoun School of Aviation, Special Olympics at both local and state levels with several scouts receiving medals for participation and wins.

Troops were shown at fund raising projects of making and selling craft items and collecting, sorting and selling data processing cards for recycling.

Some donations were given for driveway gravel for Camp Kanesatake of which slides were shown, also one of the boys participating in the Indian pageant by Order of the Arrow.

Visits were shown to an elderly blind lady and to Lenawee Historical Society. Society.

Kiwanis Club rechartered the Troop with 26 scout-members and Ed Walters, institutional representative. Russell Scott is committee chairman and Bill Feight and Bill Norris, committee members.

This is the 11th year of sponsorship for the Club.

Certificates of appreciation were presented to Harold Tesch recognizing seven years of leadership and Pat Donahue for this past years assistance.

Henry Vegter was a guest of his son at the meeting.

Kiwanis Club was awarded a certificate of appreciation at the annual Salvation Army dinner for th 1974 kettle drive. It was received by Ed Gilson, president.

Penny Mueller of Tecumseh is one of five coeds at Cleary College in Ypsilanti vieing for the title of 1975 Sweetheart Queen. Candidate who gathers the most votes at a student body election will be crowned Queen of the 1975 Sweetheart Ball on Feb. 15. The Ball is a traditional gala event sponsored by the student association.

Reports for Duty

Navy Equipment Operator Constructionman Apprentice Edward M. Paulson, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Menominee of 416 W. Logan St., reported for duty at the U.S. Naval Station, Argentia, Newfoundland.

Equipment operators operate heavy duty equipment used on Seabee construction projects.

A former student of Tecumseh High School, he joined the Navy in April 1974.

Wit and Wisdom Club Holds Regular Meeting

Mrs. Owen Merrill spoke during the meeting of Wit and Wisdom Club Feb. 3 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duhan.

Introduced by David Criss, the speaker told of the activities and goals of Tecumseh Historical Society and how other like cities have restored or contained its memorable architecture of the past for present use and pleasure. She stressed "use" as a valuable goal in the endeavors.

Ralph Comfort, president, welcomed members and Kenneth McElroy, president and chief executive of United Savings Bank, and his wife, Bonnie, who were guests.

Topics discussed were sugar price drop, light and telephone bill increases as well as food price increases.

There was a request for prayer regarding the Tecumseh Products and employees to reach an agreement which failing for 11 weeks has crippled the activity of the town and its inhabitants.

Mrs. John Lott and Mrs. James Feight served refreshments in keeping with Valentine's Day.

Home movies have long been the brunt of jokes and the focal point of numerous TV comedy skits.

Scene: A couple invites best friends over for a little Saturday night diversion which turns out to be the couple's movies they took on their summer vacation in Lower Schnectady.

"Look—there's Ethel unlocking the motel door." "Here's Fred taking the luggage out of the trunk." And Fred to the best friends, "Hey—you can't go yet. You haven't seen Ethel sleeping!"

My husband and I are novices in the home movie business, and while we haven't been to Lower Schnectady, our filming has been limited to holidays, birthdays and an occasional backyard romp.

We and the kids can sit for hours watching these "memories" that would make anyone but grandma yawn.

Still, if the house were on fire, we'd probably make a mad dash for the circular tin box on the closet shelf as their contents for us could never be replaced.

Last summer we ventured out of our livingroom with camera in hand and took some footage of Macon's community picnic, the Sesqui parade and our famous pie social.

They won't put anyone who has aired his flicks on the George Pierrot show to shame, but watching portions of these new historical events makes one feel like they're happening all over again.

We think it would be fun to share this and plan on showing the movies at the Macon Historical Society meeting here this Saturday night. We'll try to spare you Audra's birthday and Christmas '72!!!

If anyone else has movies, or snapshots for that matter, of the Sesqui activities, bring them along—the more the better.

Ninety Superintendents Attend Dinner at Vo-Tech

Ninety superintendents and board members were present at the Jan. 30 dinner meeting of Lenawee County school board members at Vo-Tech Center to hear State Representative Jack Mowat speak.

He outlined current legislative discussion on public bargaining and commented that two questions are basically what face the special study committee: Should a student be guaranteed 180 days of school each year and should the local boards be allowed to determine their own budgets?

A telecommunications demonstration, narrated by Cable Consortium Director Richard Egli was presented. Egli was introduced by Superintendent of Lenawee Schools Milton Porter.

Program moderator Robert Werner, president of Clinton school board, was introduced by Richard Wegner, president of Lenawee County School Superintendents Association.

Church Holds Fish Supper

BRITTON—United Methodist Women of Grace Church met at the church fellowship room last Thursday evening and announcement was made of the public fish supper set for Feb. 13.

Mrs. William Bailey was in charge of the program, offering many appropriate poems for the season, and reading scriptures from the Book of John.

Mrs. Fred Schoeber accompanied the group, on the piano, as they sang the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

Mrs. Stewart Niblack, opened the business meeting with a quiz on famous quotations and Bible verses. A new tank type sweeper was purchased for use in the church. Sixty-three sick calls were reported by 16 persons present.

Following the business meeting the group enjoyed a social time making colorful banners with symbols which will be displayed around the church.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Richard Linn and Mrs. Tom Judkins.

March meeting will be hosted by Mrs. Orville Cook and Mrs. Mirl Henry. Mrs. Charles Bishop will present the program.

Fantastic Females Fumble Faculty

BRITTON—Basketball fans saw action last night at the high school gymnasium when the all-female Arkansas Gems added to their winning steak, defeating the rough and tough Britton-Macon faculty, alumni and senior men.

Such outstanding alumni basketball stars as Nick Rowe, Phil Servoss, Chris Bates, Mark Maschino, Gary Judkins and Gary Maska were in uniform.

Leading faculty members were Mark Lewis, Jim Sweigart, Mike Pavloff, Randy Salisbury and Larry Jacobsen.

Seniors playing were Doug Armstrong, Dale Tiede, Don Korican, Doug Shiels, Werner Jahn, Jeff Geigler, Mike Taylor, Joe Cabla, Larry Hall, David Judkins, Craig White, Mark umd Doug Bush.

Seniors sponsored the game and netted a profit for their efforts.

Briefs

Carl Auten returned home Saturday after spending five weeks in Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Guest speaker at the Britton Bethel Baptist Church Sunday was Norman Barnard, missionary under appointment with ABWE to Hong Kong. Next Sunday's speaker will be the Rev. Tom Robinson of Grand Rapids.

Council Budget

BRITTON—Village council is presently setting up the budget for the fiscal. Councilman Henry Mastie, of the financial committee, urges the people of the village for better representation at the council meetings held the first and third Monday's of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the council room, above the village library.

Next meeting is scheduled for Feb. 17.

Foster Parent Speaks

BRITTON—Sunshine Circle of the Britton Congregational Christian Church heard Mrs. Duaine Murphy of Tecumseh speak on the Foster Parent Program at a recent meeting.

The Murphy's have had foster children in their home since 1968 and shared many experiences. Mrs. Murphy said there is a need for good clothing for children of all ages.

Mrs. LaVern Weyher, president, said donations for the supperless supper should be in this month to either the Circle treasurer, Mrs. Bill Exelby or fellowship treasurer, Mrs. Bud Auten.

This Circle would work in the dining room for the father-son banquet, a date to be announced. The mother-daughter banquet was also discussed.

Program for the Christmas Family Night was also decided, to schedule entertainment in advance. There will be a money making event to defray expenses.

To the Editor

To the Editor:

A review of last weeks article entitled, "What effect has strike on you," brings out the fact that no one has benefited.

The strike is too costly for everyone. It is too costly for the workers, the company, and the community. One quarter of a year has already been lost. Can more be afforded? Lets settle it some way now.

Cooperation brought the company here in the first place. Then hard work brought to Tecumseh the title, "Refrigeration Capital of the World." Hard work and cooperation by both sides can settle the strike. Lets do it now.

Program Featured Holidays

BRITTON—A casserole luncheon was served to 11 members and three guests at the February meeting of the Golden Rule Circle of the Congregational Christian Church. Meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Verla Albring with Mrs. Lillian Rodgers assisting as co-hostess.

Mrs. Susan Faust presented a program on the various holidays in the month of February.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Kathryne Cook.

The mother-daughter and father-son banquets were discussed.

March will be the Women's Fellowship meeting when all the circles meet at the church.

Circles Plan Banquets

BRITTON—The Mary Martha Circle of the Britton Congregational Christian Church made plans for the father-son banquet and the mother and daughter banquet, at a recent meeting.

The Golden Rule and Mary Martha Circles are the kitchen committee and the Sunshine and Priscilla Circles are the dining room committee for the father-son banquet.

March meeting will be held at the church with the Golden Rule Circle in charge of the Women's Fellowship Meeting.

Foreign Students Visit Families

BRITTON—Families at Grace United Methodist Church hosted nine foreign students over the weekend. The students were from the University of Michigan and are studying English.

Group arrived at the United Church of Christ in Clinton on Friday night and were brought to Grace Church to meet their host families.

On Sunday, after the church service, everyone enjoyed a potluck dinner in the church fellowship hall.

After dinner, each family introduced his student to the group and told a little about them.

The group sang songs accompanied by Mrs. Bob Westrick on guitar. Some students then entertained.

Frieda Fanni, from Iran, and Pedro Aguilar, from Guatemala, each played selections on the piano and Haruo Hondo, from Japan, played a selection on guitar.

Students returned to Ann Arbor Sunday evening.

Students and host families were Pedro Aguilar, Guatemala, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haas, Jr. and Larry, Dawn and Sherrie.

Salah El-Din Muhmoud Allam, Egypt, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Robison.

Bijan Bahremand, Iran, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Handley and Rita, Shelly and Barbara.

Toshio Deguchi, Japan, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower and Todd, Andrea and Scott.

Grieda Fanni, Iran, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bird and Denise.

Nikrouz Farough, Iran, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bortel and Malinda and Jackie.

Harico Hondo, Japan, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield.

Takao Terakado, Japan, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Schober.

George Varoutsas, Greece, and Mrs. Harry Wood Matt.

Star Player

BRITTON—Bill Laskey, Detroit Lions football player, will be the guest star player for the school faculty team at the seventh annual Booster-Faculty basketball game Feb. 22 in the high school gymnasium.

A volley ball game between the Tory Booster women and the women teachers will provide the entertainment at half-time.

Preceding the main event, the fourth, fifth and sixth grade basketball team will start the ball rolling at 6:30 p.m.

Cheerleaders

BRITTON—Britton-Macon Varsity cheerleaders and their sponsor, Mrs. Randy Salisbury participated in the State Cheerleading competition in Farmington Feb. 8.

Approximately 30 cheerleading squads from the state were represented and nine were picked to go to finals.

Jolly Good Birthday

BRITTON—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cook, Dawn, Donna and Gordie entertained at a birthday party Sunday honoring their daughter and sister, Danita, who was four years old Feb. 10.

Guests included Danita's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Cook of Tecumseh; and Mr. and Mrs. John Keran of Britton.

Danita opened many gifts.

On Monday evening Danita was further honored by a dinner at Howard Johnson's restaurant in Toledo. She received a birthday dinner and a cake, compliments of the restaurant.

Indian Cagers Win Two

By FRANK WEIR

Although the weather has been especially cold of late, the Indian cage squad has been anything but.

They came up with two wins in recent action beating Flat Rock Friday night in an exciting overtime game 70-60. Then on Tuesday evening, they played host again, this time to Jefferson. Final tally in that one was 61-52.

The wins leave Tecumseh tied with Grosse Ile and Monroe Catholic Central for second place in the Huron League.

The Flat Rock game was close from the beginning. John Burns got things off to a good start scoring Tecumseh's first eight points. The Indians took the first frame 13-12.

In the second quarter, Tecumseh stretched their lead to three points 18-15. And the third quarter saw more of the same. Tecumseh held command of the game.

At the start of the fourth period, the Indians maintained a seven point lead. But Flat Rock caught fire during the last four minutes of the period. Three foul shots and a goal allowed Flat Rock to take a two point lead with seconds left.

But Indian Bruce Hughes would have no part of that scoring a goal to tie it up at the final buzzer.

The Indians took command of the game again in overtime, partly through the fine efforts of Bruce Hughes, Brad Sisson and Linvel Lisenbee. Meanwhile, Flat Rock had grown cold and couldn't seem to get the ball through the hoop. They failed to score a single point while Tecumseh grabbed ten. Final tally stood at 70-60.

Tecumseh hit 30 of 72 attempts from the field for a respectable 41.7 percent and 10 of 17 from the line. Flat Rock dumped 23 of 58 from the floor for 39.7 percent and 14 of 23 fouls.

The Indians did a fine job in the rebound category grabbing 60 altogether. For their part, the Rams could only come up with 33. Tecumseh turned over the ball 27 times compared to Flat Rock's 20.

Tecumseh Junior Varsity won theirs 60-53.

Bruce Hughes was the Indian top scorer with an impressive 28 points.

In the Jefferson game, Tecumseh took the first quarter but lost the second to Jefferson. At the half, the tally stood at 19-18 in favor of the visitors.

In the third frame, the Indians came alive in a big way running up 24 points to Jefferson's 15. Tecumseh dumped 10 of 14 attempts from the field in the quarter.

In the final frame, the Indians grabbed 19 points to Jefferson's 18.

Tecumseh racked up a 52.2 shooting percentage from the field hitting on 23 of 44 attempts. From the line, they dumped 15 of 24 for 62.5 percent. Jefferson connected on 19-46 from the field for 41.3 percent and 14 of 21 from the line for 66.6 percent.

Jefferson beat the Indians on the board grabbing 31 rebounds to Tecumseh's 28. But the Indians turned over the ball 19 times to Jefferson's 25.

Tecumseh's JV squad registered a 54-36 win over Jefferson.

Ken Biscupski was top scorer for Tecumseh with 15 points.

Tories Lose

MADISON — Britton's cagers fell to Madison Friday night 66-54. The loss drops the Tories league record to 2-6.

Britton got off to a bad start in the first frame scoring nine points to Madison's 15. They rallied in the second period, racking up 16 points while Madison tallied 15.

Britton slipped again in the third period scoring 15 but allowing Madison to run up 25 points. In the final frame, the Tories cornered 14 points to Madison's 11.

Britton connected on 18 of 53 from the field for 34 percent while Madison dumped 22 of 59 for 37 percent. Britton outrebounded Madison 30-29 and suffered 17 turnovers to Madison's 11.

From the line, Britton connected on 18 of 28 and Madison hit 22 out of 35.

Mike Saxton was top scorer for the Tories with 16 points. Britton's JV squad won their contest 43-38.

Skins Win

ONSTED — Clinton's matmen defeated Onsted 31-24 last Thursday evening. The win leaves the Skins with a 5-7 overall record this season.

Chris Wojtowicz at 98 lbs. Brad Bowman at 105 and Terry Sell at 185 all scored pins for the Clinton squad.

Following are individual results of the match: 98 lbs.: Chris Wojtowicz (C) pinned Ed Emans at 3:29; 105 Brad Bowman (C) pinned Jim Rice at 1:19; 112 Jim Scoggins (C) decisioned Myron Gilbert 11-1; 119 Rich Warrick dec. Mel Galovich (C) 10-2; 126 Al Hively (C) dec. Ben Hill 12-4; 132 Mark Edwards pinned Ken Roberts (C) at 1:43; 138 Al Eveleth (C) dec. Larry Rodgers 5-2.

Finishing out the weight classes : 145 Steve Halchishak (C) dec. Mike Kozar 7-4; 155 Rudy Steffani dec. Dave Wolfe (C) 9-2; 167 Butch Norman pinned Ernier Stanish at 2:45; 185 Terry Sell (C) pinned Tim Damon at 3:59; Heavyweight Don McClure (O) won by forfeit.

Open Gym Nights

CLINTON — The Clinton School District has opened its doors to adult recreation.

As of February 5, the Clinton Middle School gym is open for women's physical recreation every Wednesday night.

Men will continue to have the use of the Clinton High School gym also on Wednesday nights. However, there will be men's open gym night on February 19 due to preparations for the district basketball tournaments.

JV Matmen Succeed

The Tecumseh High School Junior Varsity ran away with the sixth annual Lenawee County J.V. Wrestling Tournament at Hudson last Saturday.

The Indians dominated the tournament with ten wrestlers in the championship finals.

A total of 12 Tecumseh wrestlers came home with medals.

Ben Williams and Steve Bishop shared a tie for third place in the 101 lb. class.

Placing second were, Steve Charters at 112, John Silberhorn at 155, Victor Sanchez at 167 and Brad Sharp at 185.

Tecumseh's tournament champions were Dan Yoder at 119, Dave Cuellar at 126, Mark Johnston at 132, Tim Ries at 138, Kevin Eggleston at 155 and Eric Butsky at heavyweight.

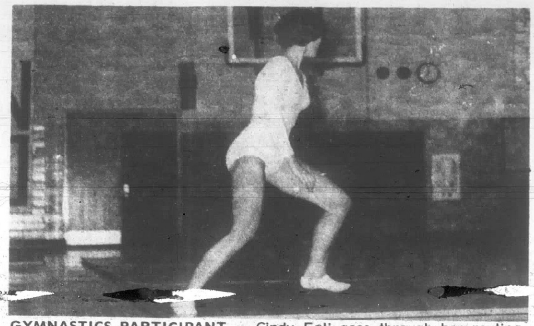
Squad Wins

Tecumseh's volleyball team continued its romp through the Huron League by defeating New Boston Huron last Wednesday night. The varsity now tallies a 9-0 overall season record and a 5-0 league record. The junior varsity posts one non-league loss.

The varsity squad took the match outright winning their first two games 15-3 and 15-3. Amy Montague was top scorer with six serving points followed by Sue Gould and Sue Brown each with five serving points.

The JV squad had a tougher fight winning their first game 15-8 but dropping the second 16-14. They came back strong in the third winning it 15-0. Tammy Downing earned 13 serving points in a row in that last game ending with 21 serving points for the night. Katie Heglin was next with nine serving points.

The Indians remain in undisputed first place in the Huron League.



GYMNASTICS PARTICIPANT — Cindy Egli goes through her routine Monday night at the first Tecumseh gymnastics tournament ever. Indians Host 1st Tourney

By FRANK WEIR

Tecumseh High School held its first ever gymnastics tournament Monday night. The Indians prevailed against a more experienced East Jackson High School team beating them 64.8-32.8.

Up to now, the Indians only had a gymnastics club. But — through the efforts of physical education [illegible] — the school plans to slowly build a team.

This season, the squad is allowed only three tournaments since they are not as yet certified and registered under the state. If all goes well, the program will build with each season.

But that's a big "if."

Since the Huron League — of which Tecumseh High School is part — does not offer interscholastic gymnastics competition, the Indians do not know what league they would be assigned once they reach certification.

Add to that the serious space problems facing the high school which might require a curtailment of activities, and one can see that the fledging program has an uncertain future.

But the girls were out in fine form Monday night defeating a two year old, more experienced team.

Gymnastics consists of six individual events; floor exercises, vaulting, beam, trampoline, uneven bars and tumbling. Final team scores are determined by the top three point tallies for team members in each event.

Coach Mary Wood was pleased with the squad's inaugural efforts. "They did a beautiful job for their very first time. They proved that they are capable of having a gymnastics program. They were all very emotional about this first tournament but afterwards they were ready for another."

Mrs. Wood believes strongly in the value of gymnastics. "It builds self-confidence, growth and will power. In addition, it develops coordination of the body, mind, and body movements."

The final tournament for the team will be with Columbia Central in Brooklyn on March 10. It proves to be a challenging one for the young team as Columbia Central participated in state competition last year. Coach Wood is hopeful of scheduling a tournament with another school between now and the March tournament.

Following are the results of Monday's competition in each event for Tecumseh participants: floor exercises — Gwen Vavrinek 6.1 points, Mary Kane 5.8, Cindy Egli 5.6; vaulting — Mary Kane 3.5; Sheryl Royal 3.1, Sandy Sprague 2.9; beam — Michele Jahner 3.4, Debbie Rodgers 3.4, Mary Kane 3.1; trampoline — Cindy Egli 3.1, Mary Kane 2.9, Nancy Kitson 2.7; uneven bars — Debbie Rodgers 2.6, Cindy Egli 1.7; Mary Kane 1.3; tumbling — Gwen Vavrinek 4.7, Cindy Egli 4.5, Debbie Rodgers 4.4.

Youth Hockey

The league leading Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department Youth Hockey team, the Tomahawk Bantams, skated to their 10th win Saturday afternoon as they outplayed the Hickory Cheesekings 4 to 1.

Team captain Dave Perry put two of the four Tomahawk goals in the nets. Al Mannick and Randy Vance accounted for the other two points, with assists on goals going to Tim Kirby (one), Steve Ahrens (one) and Chris Condon (one).

The Tecumseh Bantam's record is now 10 wins - two losses - 0 ties.

The second game of the weekend found the Tecumseh Mites suffering a loss as they were outshot 3 to 1 by Industrial Printing. Lone goal for the Tomahawks was made by Dan Lynch, with assists going to Dan Esch and Dale Earl.

In the final weekend game played Sunday afternoon the Tomahawk Pee Wees lost a close and well played game 4-3 to the Colgan Cougars of Sylvania.

Tomahawk goals made by Mark VanBuren (one), Wendell West (one) and Scott Johnson (one). Assists on goals were made by Scott Johnson (one), Tom Hamilton (one), Wendell West (one) and Mark VanBuren (one).

The Tecumseh PeeWees are in third place in their respective division.

This week all games will be played on Saturday, February 15th, with the Pee Wees playing at 9 a.m., the Mites at 11 a.m. and the Bantams playing the last game at 4 p.m.

Tory VB Squad Wins Two

BRITTON—The Britton-Macon Tory girls' volleyball team ended their Tri-County Conference play with a pair of victories over Whitmore Lake Monday evening.

After losing the first game by a score of 17-15, the junior varsity team played their finest games of the season and won, 15-2 and 15-7. Julie Schultz was the leading scorer with 11 service points.

The varsity team had no difficulty handling the Whitmore Lake girls, winning by scores of 15-5 and 15-8.

In a third "fun game," junior Joyce Cabla served 10 points to lead the team to a 15-3 victory.

The final match of the season will be played Tuesday, Feb. 18, with Clinton in the Britton gym.

Tory JH Cagers Go To Tourney

BRITTON—The Britton-Macon Jr. High basketball teams participated in the Madison Middle School Basketball Tournament last week.

The Tory seventh grade won the seventh grade championship and stretched their record to 11-0 this season.

The Ann Arbor St. Thomas Irish were the Tories first opponent in the tournament and after falling behind by as much as 13 points in the first half, the Tories stormed back to take a 29-26 victory, with Greg Fanslau scoring 19 points for Britton.

The Britton-Macon eighth grade lost to St. Thomas 44-18 with Terry Benedict scoring 10 points for the Tories.

The Britton seventh graders faced Deerfield in the second round of the tournament and defeated the Minutemen 26-24 in double overtime.

Greg Fanslau again led the Tories with 10 points, David Bruce had eight and Randy Dusseau chipped in with six points. The Tory eighth grade was defeated by Sand Creek in a very close game 35-27. Dennis Kimerer had 13 points for Britton.

The Tory seventh graders faced Ann Arbor St. Francis Saturday night in the championship game. Using an effective full and half court press, and a fast break on offense, Britton raced to an early 10 point lead and led throughout the rest of the game. The final score was Britton 38, St. Francis 32.

Greg Fanslau scored 16 points and dominated both backboards. Randy Dusseau and David Bruce each scored eight points and Troy Bailey had six points. Chris Kimerer didn't score, but played a fine floor game for the Tories.

Randy Dusseau and Greg Fanslau were selected to the All-Tournament Team.

The Britton seventh graders are now 11-0 on the season, Greg Fanslau and Randy Dusseau are leading the team in scoring and Fanslau, Troy Bailey and David Bruce are the team's leading rebounders.

The Tory eighth grade is 1-9 on the season. Terry Benedict and Dennis Kimerer are the team's leading scorers and rebounders.

The Britton Jr. High teams host Ann Arbor St. Francis Thursday night in their final action of the season.

Skins Bid For Win, Go Down in Defeat

CLINTON — Redskin cagers put in a strong bid for their first win of the season Friday night against Grass Lake. But they were foiled again in double overtime. The final tally stood at 82-76.

The loss gives the Skins a 0-18 season record.

Clinton nearly matched scores with Grass Lake through the first four periods. At the end of the first half, Grass Lake led by only one point, 35-34. Clinton picked up that deficit by the end of the third frame scoring 21 points to Grass Lake's 20.

Both teams were tied when the final buzzer sounded each scoring thirteen points in the fourth period.

In the first period of overtime, Clinton kept up their challenge matching Grass Lake's six points. But in the second period of overtime, the Skins fell behind scoring a bare two points to Grass Lake's eight.

Clinton connected on 30 of 57 attempts from the field for 53 percent and 16 of 28 free throws for 57.1 percent. Grass lake dropped 32 of 82 from the field for 39 percent and 18 of 32 from the line for 56.2 percent.

Grass Lake beat the Skins on the boards grabbing 44 rebounds to Clinton's 34. Clinton suffered 24 turnovers to Grass Lake's 22.

Warren Corwin was top scorer for Clinton with 25 points.

Coach Dave Arnold commented, "The game was as disappointing as it could possibly be. We had some free throw opportunities that we choked on. Grass Lake's Jim Herendeen couldn't miss in that second overtime period and that hurt us. He never went within 25 feet of the basket it seemed."

Clinton's JV squad beat Grass Lake's 68-45.

Matmen Beat Grosse Ile

GROSSE ILE — Tecumseh's matmen defeated Grosse Ile last week 25-23 boosting their league record to 5-1. The win leaves the Indians tied for first place with New Boston Huron and Monroe Catholic Central in the Huron League.

Heavyweight Don Heistand was instrumental in the victory as the Tecumseh squad was down 23-19 going into the final match. Heistand pinned his opponent to salvage the win.

Individual results of the meet include: 98 lbs., Kyle Thornley decisioned Ron Halasz (T) 9-7; 105 Bob Coats dec. Steve Bishop (T) 10-4; 112 Don Rapin (T) dec. Kevin Cowan 9-4; 119 Joe Castorena (T) and Jim Farrell drew; 13-13; 126 Dave Cuelar (T) dec. Dave Leark 4-2; 132 Brad Williams (T) dec. Bob Geist 7-6; 138 Jim Shough (T) dec. Chris Coolseat 4-3.

Finishing out the weight classes: 145 Dan Tilton (T) dec. Gordon Santiago 9-4; 155 Jim Jurecki pinned Kevin Eggleston (T) at :51; 167 Bill Emmerick pinned Tim Eggleston (T) at 4:32; 185 Mike Creswell (T) and Dan Gougherty drew 2-2; Heavyweight Don Heistand (T) pinned Paul McClain at 1:09.

Coach Pat Connors commented, "I was very pleased with the kids. Ten boys on varsity are wrestling for their first time with the first team and they've done a super job all season."

Concerning the Grosse Ile meet, "We made up for our inexperience by being gutter."

The squad travels to Airport this Saturday for the important league tournament.

Fiberglas takes a little care. It should be cleaned real good and then apply a coat of wax on it. Never use an abrasive scouring compound, as this will dull the finish. The same is true on any piece of plumbing ware.
"Iron Out" is a fine product to remove iron stains. It will not harm the fixture but should be used in a well ventilated room.
If your Fiberglas does become cracked, it can be repaired much easier than any other fixture.
Before starting any do-it-yourself plumbing projects it makes sense to come to CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121 for all your supplies. We will give you advice on how to handle the project and have both materials and tools. We also have electrical supplies including electric wire, conduit, fuse boxes, fuses, electrical switches, light bulbs and Miller Falls tools. Hours: Daily 8 a.m. - 5:30 p.m., Sat. until 5 p.m.
HANDY HINT: Constant care of Fiberglas is best for long lasting beauty.

Style Sense

Keeping your complexion youthful is an internal - external affair. When you have made it your habit to eat so that your blood stream contains all the elements necessary to nourish your skin, you insure youthfulness from the inside. Everytime you exercise, you send a fresh supply of blood to your face, and give yourself a beauty treatment. The great enemy of youthful skin is dryness. Protect your face against sunburn and windburn. Do not live in rooms that are overheated. Try to get out of doors in damp weather.
Hair is important, and your hair can be your crowning glory or among your greatest problems. Problem hair is generally so because of neglect. A scalp problem like dandruff, for example, is much worsened by refusal to do something about the difficulty immediately. If you are having any kind of problem, such as itchy scalp, dandruff, split ends, and so on, do not wait until the situation is too far advanced to be corrected. Consult an expert. Any member of our professional staff will be happy to help!

MONDAY CLUB VALENTINES—Eleven honorary members of the Tecumseh Monday Club are octogenerians celebrating long membership. Seated l to r, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, 63 years of membership; Mrs. Louise Bauman, 16; Bertha LaPointe, 18; Mrs. Frank Hoagland, 15 years; Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, 58; Mrs. Ethel Koch, 15; standing, Mrs. Ted LaBounty, 29; Mrs. Louis S. Schneider, 54; Mrs. Sarah Ridgeway, 14; Mrs. John Wintersteen, 30; Mrs. H.H. Hammel, about 40; Mrs. Mulvany was president from 1934-36 and Mrs. Waldron was president 1958-60.

11 Honorary Members Attend Meeting

Eleven honorary members of the Tecumseh Monday Club were present for the Feb. 3 meeting. Special guests were honored by president, Mrs. William Snook, who presented each with a token of the occasion and saluted them with an appropriate reading, "These Little Things."

The honorary member present were Mrs. Louise Bauman, Mrs. H.H. Hammel, Mrs. Frank Hoagland, Mrs. Ethel Koch, Mrs. Ted LaBounty, Bertha LaPointe, Mrs. Maynard Mulvaney, Mrs. Sarah Ridgeway, Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, Mrs. John Wintersteen and Mrs. Louis Schneider. Mrs. Mulvaney headed the list with 63 years of membership, followed by Mrs. Wilfred Waldron, 58 years and Mrs. Schneider, 54 years.

Honorary members expressed their appreciation of the cultural benefits of the club and the fellowship with other members over the years.

The program was concluded with a sing-a-long of old favorites and patriotic songs, accompanied by Dorothy Ruthruff at the piano and Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson on violin.

A Tasting Party preceded the meeting. Members prepared their favorite recipe, which resulted in a bountiful array of food.

A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Snook, during which the report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. Perry Hayden.

This was followed by the election of officers for 1975-76. Mrs. Melvin Ruettinger will serve as president; Mrs. Earl Caswell, first vice president; Mrs. John Stephenson, second vice president; Mrs. Miriam Nixon, secretary; Mrs. Donald Creger, treasurer; Mrs. James Tonneberger, corresponding secretary.

Named to the executive board were Mrs. William Snook and Mrs. David Watson.

Announcements were made of the Lenawee County Federation of Women's Clubs meeting to be held Feb. 19 at Christ Episcopal Church in Adrian with registration beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Reservations for the luncheon must be in by Feb. 14 to Mrs. Clarence Brock.

Also the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs' meeting in Lansing, Feb. 25 and 26.

Drama Troupe Visits Schools

Three Tecumseh Elementary schools and the Clinton Elementary school will be visited in February and March by the Heights College drama-in-eduction troupe.

Altogether, 17 Lenawee County schools will be visited during these two months.

In its fourth semester of operation, the drama-in-education experience is made possible through a grant from the Michigan Council of Arts.

The traveling troupe offers the children a creative experience.

Participation drama provides the children an opportunity to make group decisions and to see the results of those decisions.

From Feb. 3 through March 13, the troupe will visit from school to school with "An Adventure in 1775", a participation drama for third, fourth and fifth grade classes.

Transportation for an hour's time to Lexington, Mass., the children will work with a British loyalist, a minuteman who belongs to the Sons of Liberty, an innkeeper who is undecided as to commitment, and a Quaker merchant who does not believe violence is an answer to the need for independence.

They will explore the concepts of patriotism, dissension, and freedom as essentials to American heritage and history as a pre-Bicentennial experience.

Promoted to Spec 4

Michael Dloughy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Wood, 807 Shady Lane, was recently promoted from PFC to Specialist-4 in the Army stationed at Ft. Hood, Texas. He is a 1973 graduate of Tecumseh High School.

Closed

The Secretary of State office will be closed Monday, Feb. 17, due to the legal holiday of Washington's birthday, Ernie Oliver said.

Engagement of Lora Lee Baldwin to David Scott Durkee is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baldwin, 611 N. Evans St. Durkee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Durkee, 516 W. Logan St. Both young people are graduates of Tecumseh High School. She is currently studying at Siena Heights and he attended Kirtland Community College and is currently enrolled at Jackson Community College. A spring wedding is planned in First Presbyterian Church.

Insurance Workshop

A workshop on insurances will be presented by the Community Drop In Center on Tuesday morning, Feb. 18 at 9:15 a.m. at the Community Center.

Representatives from insurance companies will give a basic overview of a family's needs and than be available for specific questions after the coffee break at 10:30 a.m.

The panel will include Jim Records, State Farm Insurance; Charles Goodacre, Century Insurance; and Gene Simescue, Detroit, a specialist on health and life insurance also from Century Insurance.

Individuals are invited to bring questions regarding no-fault insurance, life and retirement, fire and liability, etc.

An interest group on hyperactive children will also meet at 10:30 a.m.

Free babysitting is available. Everyone is welcome to attend. Polly Judd is program chairperson.

Senior Citizen Housing Needed

Representing Tecumseh Kiwanis Club, three members received the blessings of Council Monday evening to determine the need for senior citizen housing in Tecumseh.

Council met informally with Bill Norris, past Kiwanis president, Carl Lamb and Ward Eardley, members who approached council with the idea.

They told council that Adrian Kiwanis succeeded with a similar project after 10 years of effort and said it might take as long to accomplish it here.

Approximately 20 percent of those occupying the senior citizen housing in Adrian are Tecumsehites, the trio said. Adrian has a waiting list of 150.

Structure that the group has in mind would be 50 to 60 units for those 62 years and older.

Lamb explained that the state constructs the building and the federal government subsidizes the rent 40 percent, according to income, so long as 60 percent of occupancy is nearly paid.

He said that the building would require a corporation that could extend outside the inquiring Kiwanis group.

The three men said that their group can benefit from the Adrian Kiwanis as resource persons. The two groups have already met to discuss the Adrian project.

A survey of about 40 people interested in the need for senior citizen housing in Tecumseh was presented to the mayor and council.

Drop Sick Pay

City council decided to drop sick pay benefits from the city life insurance plan.

Coverage was $35 per week for sickness and $42 per week for department heads for 13 weeks.

Cal Zorn, city manager, said that sickness benefit "was turned back in anyway since the employees get regular pay and in most cases it doesn't mean any gain for the employee."

Eat, Drink, Sex And Live Long

Salad. Scotch. And Sex.

These are the three short cuts to longevity professed by Dr. Robert J. Samp, University of Wisconsin.

Some rather unconventional advice given to members of the Michigan Press Association at the 34th All Michigan dinner, Feb. 1 during the 107th convention.

Eyebrows dropped considerably when Dr. Samp interpreted the three S' as a balanced diet, savoring all earthly delights in moderation and [illegible] necessary for survival.

For those who think of eating morning, noon and night, Dr. Samp suggested a king's breakfast, a poor man's lunch and a pauper's diet.

Smokers, drinkers and other indulgers were also on the doctor's list for reform. Moderation was the idea he tried to implant.

Real prescription that Dr. Samp had for everyone was "love". He claimed it was a cureall for which there is no substitute. "For without love, the psyche cannot exist."

He cited neglect of time with our families as the major cause of poor health and misunderstanding between the generations.

Attending the convention from the Tecumseh Herald were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt, Mr. adn Mrs. Lyle Grigg, Kay Chapman, Cortland Hunt and Kathy Kulczyk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Jesche of Blissfield, former Tecumsehites, also attended.

The All Michigan dinner this year was a tribute to Italian Americans. Italian menu featured all Michigan foods and a sampling of 27 Michigan foods to take home.

"What can you get for making a great deal with The Dodge Boys? A check for $500 from Dodge."

Joe Garagiola

Listen to ol' Joe G. I'm gonna tell you how to make the deal of a lifetime on the "Dodge of the Week." Right now, during the Car Clearance Carnival at the Dodge Boys.

Here's how:

Every week from now till February 16, the Dodge Boys will pick one gorgeous Dodge as "Dodge of the Week." Could be a Monaco. A Dart. A Coronet. Even a pickup or van. Now you hustle down and make the Dodge Boys give you their deal on that Dodge. Then, find out how you collect your check from Dodge for at least $300. But there's more. Trade in the right car on the "Dodge of the Week," and you get a $200 trade-in bonus. That's a total of $500.[1]

But there's more to the Car Clearance Carnival than "Dodge of the Week" deals. Through February 28, the Dodge Boys are offering other great deals on all '75 Dodges. They've got a lot of cars to move. And they're gonna move 'em.

And – even if you don't end up buying a new Dodge, you might end up driving one. Just by entering the Dodge Boys' Clearance Sweepstakes.[2] Each sweepstakes winner (and there'll be plenty – so one could be you) gets free use of a brand-new Dodge for one whole year. You've got nothing to lose. You've got nothing to buy. All you gotta do is come in for full details.

But hurry. If you're not driving a new Dodge by the end of the Car Clearance Carnival, it won't be the Dodge Boys' fault.

[1] Sorry, only one "Dodge of the Week" deal per customer. Retail customers only.
[2] Sweepstakes ends February 28, 1975. Void in states where prohibited by law. Open only to licensed drivers 18 years old or older.

Competes Book on Law

Richard Pearson, professor of law at Boston University, has completed with another law teacher, James Henderson Jr., a book entitled "The Torts Process" to be published this spring.

He is the son of Mrs. Neil Pearson of Tecumseh.

"The Torts Process" is a casebook designed to achieve an objective beyond the scope of traditional torts material - to convey to students an understanding and appreciation of the various processes by which rules of tort law are applied in resolving disputes in our legal system.

Already in use in its unpublished form, the tome has been favorably accepted as a teaching help, especially at George Washington Law Center and Washington and Lee University School of Law. Professors from these schools commented that their students found the book to be excellent "probably the best that they have used this semester."

It is the first book on Torts Process to be written in over 25 years.

Pearson and Henderson have spent three years together and Pearson was on sabbatical leave for the last semester while completing the volume on legal wrongs.

Little, Brown and Co. of Boston is the publisher of the teachers' manuel, which was Recently presented to the annual law convention in St. Louis, Mo. It will be sent to all the law schools in the country.

Pearson has been teaching law at Boston University for eight years and at University of Connecticut before that.

4-H Equestrians Hold Meeting

The Father's Day Horse Show was discussed and committees were formed at the January meeting of the Tecumseh Equestrians 4-H Club Jan. 14 at Jon Anglin's home.

General chairpersons of the show are Jon Anglin and Jana Tuckerman.

Members decided to visit Tandy Leather Co. Feb. 1 to purchase leathercraft projects.

Next meeting will be Feb. 11, at Linda Emery's home. Leathercraft workshop is planned for the meeting.

Members interested in judging attended the Washtenaw Co. 4-H Judging Competition, Jan. 18.

Members placed on the Lenawee Co. Judging Teams for the day were Junior team, Gay Service, Anne Tuckerman, Jr. Smith.

Senior team was Jana Tuckerman, Kathy Underwood, Jon Anglin and Tami Estey.

Senior team also was high point team over all of the other teams entered in the competition. Kathy Underwood was 10th, highest point earner, and Jana Tuckerman was sixth.

Kim, Janice and Michelle Jahner participated in a horsemanship clinic on Jan. 11. They demonstrated various showing techniques, riding their own horses.

Accepts Bid

City Council accepted the bid of Servicemaster of $330 per month for the janitorial service at city hall.

Present contract is with P & R for $350, but they called in with a late bid that was not accepted.

Other bidders were; Lenawee Janitorial $595 per month, and Betty's Cleaning $725 per month.

Lighting Aproved

Monday night Council approved changes in the street lighting contract.

Three of the new lights will be on Spring Street, one at Cree Street and Standish Dam.

The cost of underground installation for five lights will be $787.50.

The city manager requested that Consumers wait until spring to make the installation rather than pay an additional winter charge of $1,050.

Students Entertain

Tecumseh area exchange students gave a program for Women's Circle One at the First Presbyterian church in Tecumseh, recently.

Participating students were from Sweden and Finland.

Mat Jacobson from Sweden, is presently staying with the Fred Shumaker family of Clinton and is looking to being placed in a home for the remainder of the school year.

His father was an exchange student with the 4-H in 1950. Both father and son shared the nickname "Jake," as exchange students here.

Ritta Kara, Finland, is also with the Shumakers.

Jussi (Juha) Mansukoski of Helsinki, Finland is a student with the George Heimerdingers of Clinton.

Leena Jacksen, Finland, is a student with the Dr. Carlton Cook family of Tecumseh.

Anyone who would like to be an exchange student or who would like to have one as a family member in their home for one school year should contact Mr. Shumaker or Mrs. Cook, now.

ADULT—FICTION

SOMETHING HAPPENED: Bob Slocum, when we first meet him, seems almost a nice guy, scared of his job, his bosses, uncertain and baffled in his marriage, confused about his children, but in terms we can understand and to which we can relate. If he always takes the easy way out, he is only doing, after all, what so many others of us do every day of our lives in order to survive and to persuade ourselves that this kind of survival is really living. When the "something" does happen, it is true horror. Joseph Heller has written a true novel of our times, and every minute of the television news with its revelations of what America has become confirms his insight.

OUR JOHN WILLIE: In this powerful story of the unselfish love between two brothers and the emotional awakening of a once austere and isolated young woman, Catherine Cookson has once again demonstrated her unparalled gift for storytelling. She also displays an authentic knowledge of the social climate of shameful 18th century England.

THE RICHARDS: Agnes Turnbull returns again to her beloved Western Pennsylvania in this pleasantly old-fashioned novel of men, women and the land. A sentimental journey to the bygone days of a century or so ago, the homespun tale is told with affection and simplicity.

THE LAKE: Yasunari Kawabata's book is the history of an obsession. It traces a man's sad pursuit of an unattainable perfection, a beauty out of reach, admired from a distance, uncomsummated. It is made all the more astonishing for the skill with which these fragments are re... within the compact ... story.

BEAUTIFUL: This brief novel starts off as sweetly as spun sugar. Very soon, however, a more tart note enters and one realizes one is observing sophisticated Londoners under superkeen microscope. Rachel Billington writes with a clever style and a cool degree of clarity.

THE ABBOTT'S HOUSE: Regency romance and suspense make for entertaining reading in Laura Conway's new woman's novel. A letter and package from the heroine's mother, discovered after her death, instructs her to send the package to a Marquesa in London. The Marquesa sends for the young girl and she receives some long-sought information about her family origins. Mysteries spring up. Love, avarice and danger aplenty.

SARNIA: Hilary Ford has taken a shopworn Gothic formula and fashioned it into a novel that captures the speech and manners of post-Regency London and Guernsey. Her nice-Nelly heroine is a thoroughly likable character.

Tecumsehite Heads New Cancer Treatment

DR. MALCOLM BAGSHAW

(Editor's Note—The following is a description of a radiation device developed by Tecumseh native Dr. Malcolm Bagshaw and associates for the treatment of cancer. Dr. Bagshaw is professor and chairman of Stanford University's department of radiology. Special thanks go to Mrs. Fred Feight who alerted us to a recent announcement concerning the experimental device.)

Stanford University scientists recently announced that they have developed a new tool for cancer treatment, and will soon begin testing it in living cells and laboratory animals.

Called a medical pion generator, the new tool will use a stream of pimesons, subatomic particles generated by a high-energy accelerator, to kill cancer cells with miniature nuclear explosions.

The experiments will take three to five years before the treatment is available to patients, but if pion beam therapy becomes a reality, it would mark a milestone in ... radiotheraphy, they pointed out.

It would enable physicians to attack more successfuly some cancers now difficult to treat. These include cancers of the mouth and throat, certain tumors of the brain and lungs, or those which presently go untreated because they are resistant to conventional radiation.

The pion generator is the brainchild of Drs. Malcolm Bagshaw and Henry S. Kaplan of the Department of Radiology, and three members of the Physics Department—Prof. H. Alan Schwettman, Dr. Douglas Boyd, and Prof. William Fairbank.

The five men have worked for nearly four years to bring the pion generator to this stage of development.

What is ... ...rapy and why is it so exciting to radiotherapists? Pions (also know as pimesons) are small particles found in the nuclei of atoms. They make up the "glue" or "cement" that holds protons and neutrons together in the nuclei.

Pions can be generated by the newest, most powerful high-energy particle accelerators of the type used in nuclear research. When pions strike living tissue, they slow down and are eventually captured by nuclei in atoms of living cells. A nucleus which captures a pion explodes. This miniature nuclear explosion is known as "star formation."

"Because," Bagshaw explains, "the nuclear fragments produced in this explosion cause such great destruction, pion therapy is expected to be about five times as effective in killing tumor cells as X rays giving a comparable radiation dose."

Furthermore, pions can be stopped quite precisely in a target region by varying their momentum. Thus, tissue damage can be confined entirely to the tumor volume. X rays, on the other hand, may pass through the body, damaging healthy as well as malignant tissue.

Another advantage of pions is that the radiation released during the miniature ... explosion within the cells can be detected, and therapists expect to see exactly where cell destruction is taking place.

Finally, the Stanford medical pion generator involves a radical new approach for delivering cancer killing radiation which should further improve treatment with little or no damage to nearby healthy organs or other tissue. Dr. Kaplan calls this approach "absolutely unique."

The generator is a large tank about 17 feet long. It is the crucial part of the system. Its interior consists of 60 individual superconducting magnet coils at each end, placed like photographic slides in a circular slide tray. In this case the tray is in a vertical position.

The machine is connected to a 500-Mev linear accelerator. Pions are produced when the powerful accelerator beam hits a titanium target. The pions produced in this way escape from the target in all directions, are collected by the magnets, and are channeled into 60 separate beams.

At the other end of the tank a second set of magnets takes the 60 beams and aims then at the patient. Slits along the circumference of the tank, midway between the ends, can be adjusted to change the intensity of the pion beams striking the patient's tumor.

The generator is cooled by liquid nitrogen and liquid helium to make the wire windings of the magnets superconductors.

The Stanford pion generator was designed and built in the High Energy Physics Laboratory with approximately $1 million in grant from the Research Applied to National Needs program of the National Science Foundation. The planned experiments with living cells and laboratory animals will be supported with new funding from the National Cancer Institute.

If medical pion generators like the current prototype are installed in a hospital, four could be operated off a single accelerator. Such an accelerator for hospital use has not yet been fulfi. For testing purposes, the present pion ... ...ergized by a relatively large and expensive accelerator constructed originally for physics research.

But the scientists are confident that once the pion therapy is proven superior to conventional radiotherapy, a scaled-down version that would fit into a hospital could be constructed.

The accelerator, four pion generators, other equipment and the building might cost about $8 to $10 million at today's prices, which isn't far from building and equipping a radiotherapy facility in a large medical center, the scientists said.

Fairbank feels the medical pion generator should make radiotherapy much more like surgery. Not only will cancer therapists have a much better "knife" at their disposal—but for the first time they will really have "eyes" to see where it is cutting.

Raisin Reports 116 Alarms

ANNUAL REPORT OF RAISIN TOWNSHIP FIRE DEPT.

The Raisin township fire department responded to 116 alarms, 15-building fires, 21-grass fires (careless burning, without permit), 12 grass fires (along railroad right of way), 3-truck fires, 2-car fires, 1-tractor fire, 8 assists to other departments, 9-tornado watches, 5-to Stauffer chemical, and 20-rescue calls (to homes), 20-P.I. accidents.

Building losses amounted to $55,000. Content loss amounted to $55,350. Total losses $110,350.

In Sept., 1974, the Raisin Township Board agreed to order, for the department, a C-900 truck chassis equipped with a 534 cu. in. gasoline engine, with a Detroit allison 4-speed transmission, gross vehicle weight of 35,000 lbs., from Underwood Ford, Clinton.

A tentative delivery date of April, 1975 was given. Bids to build and equip the chassis are being distributed at this time.

Officers for 1975 are Chief, John Escott; assistant chief Station 1, Tom Swift; assistant chief-Station 2, Ronald Bolz; president, Carl Wagner; vice-president, Kenneth Kendall; secretary, Michael Hannah; Treasurer, Roger Smith.

There are 31 men on the department. Bill German Elden Lawhead, Allen Ross, Alton Mathis, Danny Scher, Harry Withrow, Charles Rodabaugh are taking the 66 hour firemanship training course, given at Madison Township Fire Department. Nine other men on the department have already completed this training.

Tom Swift, Ron Bolz, Allen Ross are now taking the standard emergency medical technican course at Bixby Hospital.

Robert Wetherell and Charles Hannah have completed the course.

Three member of the ladies auxiliary-Karen Bolz, Lois Withrow and Marilyn Escott, completed training in the course of Standard immediate assistance to burned out victims and one family disasters.

In January, a radio seminar was conducted for members of the department by Sgt. Bruce Lucey, of the Lenawee County Sheriff's department.

Finalist

Tecumseh has nurtured a number of professionals including doctors, professors, historians and now one local miss is budding into a story writer that -- who knows -- might rival Han Christian Anderson or Lewis Carroll.

Third grader Kristine Henige, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Henige, 2729 Coachlite Drive, was one of nine state finalists in the Young People's Radio Festival sponsored by Michigan State University.

Kristine, the authoress of several short stories, was guest of WKAR radio at MSU Monday where she received a certificate and was interviewed for a show broadcasted Feb. 2.

Kristine submitted three short stories on tape and one was selected for the national finals.

"The Halloween That Almost, Wasn't" is the story of Ersha Morgenstanis, who moved to Christmas Island where there was no Halloween. Her parents surprised her with a Halloween celebration.

Kristine learned about the contest through Herrick Park school. Her teacher is Mrs. Jean Anderson.

Jaycees Collect Clothes

Tecumseh Jaycee Auxiliary will collect clothes for Adrian Training School and the Coldwater State Hospital for three months of February, March and April.

Adrian Training School needs mostly clothes for the Teenage groups.

Pants, shirts, blouses, sweaters, skirts, shoes, boots, etc. are welcome contributions.

Coldwater, which also services Lenawee County, can use anything from infant sizes to adults.

When cleaning closets, remember the clothing drive.

Readers may drop off items at the homes of Terry DeMoss, 305 Cairns St., 423-7773; Pat Hoover, N. Adrian Hwy. Tecumseh, Mary Moulton, 9103 N. Union St. or call 423-4645 for pick-up.

Earns Degree

Barry Williamson, 6893 Mill Hwy., has completed necessary degree work at Siena Heights College to join the list of December graduates.

Williamson earned a bachelor of science degree. He is presently teaching automotive courses at Monroe Community College. His wife, Patricia, teaches in Onsted.

Michael Poppe has also earned his bachelor of science degree at Siena.

On Dean's List

Paula Macbeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Macbeth, was named to the dean's list for the fall term at Hope College, Holland. She is a freshman majoring in religion.

ORDINANCE NO. 7.401

REGULAR MEETING OF the Common Council for the City of Tecumseh, held on the 3rd day of February, 1975, at 7:30 p.m. in Council Chambers at 309 East Chicago Boulevard, Tecumseh, Michigan.

PRESENT: Mayor Easton, Councilwoman Bowers, Councilmen Cook, Mead, Palmer and Whiting.

ABSENT: Councilman Puffer.

An ordinance to amend City of Tecumseh Ordinance No. 7.401 dated 21 October 1974, wherein the City of Tecumseh did adopt by reference the Basic Building Code and to provide for certain modifications thereto and its application to the City of Tecumseh.

The City of Tecumseh ordains:

That Section 1. Code Adopted. is hereby amended to read and be effective as follows:

Section 1. Code Adopted. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 8 of the State Construction Code Act (Act 230 of 1972, Compiled Laws 1948, Section 125.1501 et seq.) the Basic Building Code as published by Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., 1973 edition, and the Basic Building Code as published by Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., 1970 edition, and the Basic Building Code as published by Building Officials and Code Administrators International, Inc., and 1973 Accumulative Supplement is hereby adopted by reference subject to the modifications contained in this ordinance.

That Section 2. References in Code. is hereby amended to read and be effective as follows:

Section 2. References in Code. References in the Basic Building Code and 1973 Accumulative Supplement to "state" and name of state shall mean the State of Michigan; references to "municipality" and name of municipality shall mean the City of Tecumseh, references to the "municipal charter" shall mean the charter of the City of Tecumseh and references to "local ordinances" shall mean the City of Tecumseh Ordinances.

In all other respects except for the amendments herein contained, the City of Tecumseh Ordinance No. 7.401 is hereby ratified and affirmed.

The foregoing Ordinance was offered by Councilman Cook and supported by Councilman Palmer.

AYES: Mayor Easton, Councilwoman Bowers, Councilmen Cook, Mead, Palmer and Whiting.

GIVING ALL HE HAS—George Ruhl became a three gallon blood donor recently at the Tecumseh Bloodmobile. The human body has only five quarts of blood. In a manner of speaking, through several donations, George has given his all more than twice.

Three Gallons of Blood Donated by Ruhl

George Ruhl gave blood Friday bringing his donations up to three gallons, when the Bloodmobile visited the city.

Janet Matthews and Marjorie Rohrback each completed two gallons and Keith Auten, Tony Ford and Jerry Grant have each given one gallon.

There were 20 first time donors, many of them high school students from Tecumseh, Britton or Clinton schools.

Dan Francouer and Chuck Rose came from Britton and Ron Duda, Al Hively, Sue Frolich, Meg Truesdale, Daryl King, Dave Roup, Brian Newhouse, Ken Harrison, Jamie Perry and Barb Blom from Clinton while Kathy Beck, Roxanna Cook and Bill Binder were the THS students.

Four pints of O negative and seven pints of A negative, the much needed blood was drawn in the 78 pints collected.

Eleven persons were rejected and three attempts were unsuccessful.

Volunteers were from Jaycee Auxiliary, Welcome Wagon and Iota Epsilon Sorority assisting during the afternoon.

Iris Gage assisted by Kathy Beck with the Girl Scout Cadet troop 307 helped.

The girls are Vickie Wilson, Cindy Schiller, Jennie Bick, Mary Vredeveld, Becky Hamilton, Margie Hollis and Kim Nag.

High school students helping were Nancy Pinkard, Karen Moll, Molly Poppe, Vicky Manley, Cheryl Sheldon, Mary Prettyman, Sharon McFadden and Debbie Benjamin.

ALERT PUPILS—Glen Mills (second from left) and Angie Schultz both four years old, listen closely as Lisa Baker (far left) and Marty Gagneur explain the workings of their instruments. The two children were part of a group of 4-from the Little Indian Co-op Nursery that visited the Tecumseh High School band last week. Mrs. Howard Oesterling -- one of the nursery teachers -- explained that the youngsters have been studying sounds and the five senses and the band visit was in conjuction with those studies. Lisa is a junior at the high school and Marty is a sophomore. (Photo by Frank Weir)

What's Valentine's Day to You?

By Chrystal Roe

"Worlds may come,
and worlds may go,
But love is constant and can only grow."

In this ever-changing, ever-busy world we live in, there is one day which, no matter how many changes occur in our society, or how many centuries pass, it will probably be special to someone somewhere.

Traditionally, Valentine's Day has always been a day for sweethearts to send flowers, candy, cards and other tokens to prove their love.

Today, although still a day for sweethearts to some, and absolutely nothing to a few, Valentine's Day has taken on a different for many.

Many students, when asked what Valentine's Day meant to them, didn't restrict it only to their sweethearts, but included friends and relatives also.

"To me, Valentine's Day is," [illegible] Pearson, 18, senior, commented, "a special day for showing others how you feel about them."

Sophomore Kathy Lewis, 16, following the same track, stated, "It's a day of celebration for the people you love."

Other comments were:

Glenda Heistand, 16, "It's being together with the ones you love."

Kathy Rundell, 16, "Sharing feelings of love and embarassing people with Valentine's cards."

Pat Hoehn, 15, "A time for love."

Laurie Righter, 17, "It's a day you show care for somebody special."

Jim Egbert, 16, "Finding your honey and kissing her on the cheek."

Jody Kahl, 24, senior, Social Studies and Journalism teacher. "A very special time for special people."

Randy Meadows, 15, "It doesn't mean very much except when you have a sweetheart."

Raymond Jackson, 16, "A time to receive candy from others and time to make a Valentine box."

Joan Webb., 16, "Doing something special for someone special."

A school counsellor who wished to remain anonymous, said, "I don't want to brag, but it's my birthday." Wehen asked if maybe he'd tell his a[illegible] commented with a smile, "Oh, my age is a secret."

Pam Kinsely, 16, "Having fun with someone special."

Joan Upell, 18, "It only means something in grade school."

Roger Young, 25, Physical Education Teacher, "Just another day on the calendar." This opinion was shared by less than one-third of all surveyed.

Aubrey Schroeder, 17, junior, "Another day of seeing lovers."

Pam Watters, 16, junior, stated her feelings in one word, her sweetheart's name.

Mark Klein, 16, said with uprolling eyes and trying to sound romantic, "Amour and cupid!"

Lynne Wikle, 15, "It's when you can be totally irrational."

Marcy Prettyman, 15, "I remember when we used to get prizes for the best Valentine's box in grade school."

Laurie Rudd, 15, "Cards, friends, love, and getting something from someone you like."

The opinions of Valentine's Day varied from nostalgia, to parties to love to insignificance.

Of everyone interviewed, only one student seemed to capture the real meaning of Valentine's Day.

"Any day of the year you can tell someone you love them," stated Roxanna Cook, 17, a senior, "but Valentine's Day is the time to [illegible] all kinds of love."

Valentine's Day hasn't changed, nor will it probably ever, because this day—this one special day—is based on love, and love no matter what else in this world is temporary, love is constant and lasts forever.

College Presents Recital

The Adrian College music department will present a piano recital by Richard Reid at 8 p.m. Sunday in Dawson Auditorium.

Reid, a native of Michigan, holds a bachelor's degree from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music.

Presently pursuing a gradute degree at the Juilliard School in New York City, he comes to Adrian with a long list of performance honors including recen[illegible] prizes in the M[illegible]land [illegible] Piano Competition and the Grinnell Auditions.

His impressive background includes recital and concerto performances in Michigan, Ohio, Tennessee, New York, Massachusetts and Colorado.

The program inludes works by Scarlatti, Robert Schumann, Aaron Copland, Frederick Chopin and Alexander Scriabin.

Admission is free and the public is invited.

Series Offers More for 75-76

The Adrian College 1975-76 Celebrity Series offers change in these inflationary times.

Season ticket prices will remain the same and the series will feature five, rather than the traditional four, outstanding attractions.

The new series will include the George Shearing Quintet Nov. 6; Paul Lavalle and the Band of America, Jan. 28; The Eastman Quartet , in February; William Windom, March 9, and duo-pianists Whittemore and Lowe., unannounced date.

Joan Stepp, the college's director of special events, announced the sale of renewal tickets will continue through March 3.

Survey to be Completed

Survey of homes, by the Tecumseh Area Historic District Study Committee, could be completed this spring, allowing evaluation and writing of a historic district ordinance in time for the Bicentennial year, Cecil Eby, survey committee, told an informal meeting of the Study Committee last Tuesday.

No actual date for the survey has been set.

Survey area will be north from Red Mill Pond, south to the railroad, east to the Community Center and west to the business strip along M-50.

Surveyors, from the ranks of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society, will survey only the outside of every house from the 19th century, but nothing after 1900.

If any owner is willing to show an interesting interior feature such as a staircase, fireplace, nook, etc., the committee would be interested.

Committee also welcomes data on homes.

Eby said that his group has compiled its own evaluation-description forms, after studying prototypes.

Style, date, builders, owners, types of windows, roof, and other pertinent architectural details will be recorded, along with a photograph, provided by the photograph committee.

A qualitative evaluation will be made on the basis of architecture, setting, condition and total environment and homes will be grouped into four categories of distinction.

Survey will also include the two block downtown business section, "simply to remind the merchants of the unmined, historic treasure there," said Eby.

These recommendations will be studied by the ordinance committee and city attorney, who will write a city ordinance.

Historic District Study Committee is an extension of the Tecumseh Planning Commission and was appointed by City Council to study and recommend a historic district and an ordinance in Tecumseh.

Mrs. Carlton Cook is chairwoman of the Study Committee and also a member of the Planning Commission.

COMPANY, UNION CONTINUE NEGOTIATIONS

TP Strike Near Settlement?

A three-month-old strike at Tecumseh Products Company may be nearing its end, an optimism shared by many after the Company and Union Board resumed negotiations Tuesday morning at the Ha[illegible]House Motel.

Bargaining started at 10 a.m., breaking off 18 hours later at 4 a.m. Wednesday morning. There were no statements or releases about this 18-hour session.

However, negotiations resumed again Wednesday morning at 8:30, and they were still at the bargaining table at press time. If the negotiators can reach an agreement, the new contract would then go to the Union membership for a vote.

Tuesday's meeting was the first between the Company and Union in nearly three weeks. Last bargaining session occurred Jan. 31.

Last week Judge Rex Martin enjoined the Union from interfering with traffic in and out of the plant and limited the number of pickets at each plant entrance to four. Twice, striking members had parked trucks from leaving the plant and the last such incident resulted in four tractors bombarded with rocks.

Nearly 3,000 employees of the Company have been out on strike since Nov. 15, when the old contract expired. Numerous bargaining sessions have been held since, some with considerable progress.

Many hope that Tuesday's marathon session, coupled with the fact that both sides returned to negotiating early Wednesday, indicates that a settlement is near. The economic effects of the strike is widespread, involving the strikers, their families and many others.

Board May Hire Officer to Patrol THS Parking Lot

Recent public outbursts of profanity and scuffles in the parking lot at school functions has prompted the school board to investigate hiring someone, possibly an officer, to direct parking lot traffic.

Principal Dermont Poley said at the board meeting Monday night that the school already hires two off duty officers who assist at functions.

"This is a small element of students who spoil the reputation of the large number of good students that we have," said Eugene Cooley, assistant superintendent.

"Unfortunately these same students are those who are alienated from their own peers. Many students don't appreciate this kind of behavior. In a case such as this, peer pressure is not effective," said Jimmie Rice, music teacher, adding to the board's discussion.

"This kind of behavior should not be tolerated by teachers in the classroom," said board president Bill Brown. "But the school alone is not the place to teach respect. Obviously there are a lot of parents who are not doing their job in disciplining their children."

Other board members agreed that the major responsibility belongs to the parents.

Applicants Sought for City Positions on Organizations

"Give us a few good people" is the request of Council, which has had a difficult time lately in filling various city boards with qualified people.

Lack of names has caused Council to postpone several appointments at past meetings to find someone willing to take the time-consuming jobs. Problems resulted in one immediate resignation due to an overlooked candidacy requirement.

Council has begun to take a more cautious approach to these appointments.

At the last council meeting, Councilman James Palmer recommended that the city advertise for candidates. Only one response came to an advertisement.

Council decided Tuesday night to repeat the ad. "We have to get people aware of the need for community involvement. By no means should we decide on only one nomination. This is not the way of a community," said Palmer.

"We have to grope around for even one candidate," complained Councilman Carlton Cook.

At its meeting, Council received the resignation of Thomas Ball, who was recently appointed to the Board of Review. Ball is not a property owner, a prerequisite for appointment.

One appointment was made by Council. Harrison Gonser, 600 Murray Drive, was appointed to the unexpired term of Planning Commissioner, LeRoy Betzoldt, who resigned.

Council felt Gonser, a teacher here for 17 years would balance the commission.

Gonser was the only reply to the newspaper ad for the Planning Commission. Other names, including the Planning Commission's recommendation of John Long, were proposed; however, Council decided to consider them for future appointments.

A resume of other city board positions is:

Board of Review—three, 3-year terms, set assessments, hears complaints and makes adjustments.

Election Commission — two, 1-year terms, with the clerk as chairman, the commission appoints election board workers and certifies petitions.

Recreation Board — five 3-year terms, board meets as necessary to give advice and set fees.

City Council — seven 2-year terms, elected by electorate, three members elected on the even years and four on the odd, legislative body, adopts all ordinances, budget, sets millage rates.

Planning Commission — nine 3-year terms, prepares the Master Plan, hear zoning requests, sets priorities for public works.

Hospital Board — six 6-year terms, hires administrator and cooperates with him in the administration of the hospital.

Retirement Board — only one member at large for a 3-year term, two members are elected by employees and two councilmen are appointed, handles city retirement plan, invests money and determines eligibility for members.

Board of Appeals — five 3-year terms, board meets as needed to hear grievances on zoning decisions. If complainant is still aggrieved, the next step is appeal to Circuit Court.

Electrical Board — five indefinite terms and the city manager meet as needed to intervene in disputes and interpret codes, recommend ordinances.

These appointments are not paid except the Board of Appeals, which receives five dollars per meeting, and the Board of Review which is paid for the four to six days that they must meet annually.

Two basic requirements are two years residency and be a registered voter of the city of Tecumseh.

Cal Zorn, city manager, said that these positions often require extra time besides the regular meeting.

Too Many Students, Not Enough Space

Drastic curriculum cutbacks can be stalled, and the present program maintained by either renting rooms or getting relocatable classrooms. Supt. Robert Duhan recommended to the School Board Monday night.

Duhan said that pre-registration will begin to determine necessary classes, facilities and staff.

School administrators will make a cost benefit analysis on the choices.

The 1975-76 school year housing problem is being created by 60 more students in the eighth grade which will enter Tecumseh High School as freshmen in September.

There are presently 230 seniors and 293 eighth graders. Present seventh grade class is 297 students. The high school has 1,177 students in attendance.

During second hour, 200 of these cannot otherwise be accomodated in the school, and incidentally attended Vo-Tech for four hours in shifts.

During the sixth and seventh hours when they return and others are released there are no vacant rooms.

Rental of facilities or relocatables would enable the school to maintain its schedule from 7:30 a.m. to 2:40 p.m. without extending the school day.

Split shifts were vetoed by the board since it would be inconvenient to families and costly for the district in terms of salaries for additional staff and transportation.

At the present time four teachers are paid to work during their conference hours to accomodate the numbers of students at the present high school.

Duhan said that the junior high school program will continue with no changes now.

If the best way to accomodate students is to rent facilities, Duhan suggested that approximately 120 ninth grade students would be bussed for basic English, math and social studies classes to the rented facilities.

Dr. Donald Phelan, school board member, told the board that he unofficially approached the St. Elizabeth school board, which said it saw no problem in a rental arrangement.

St. Elizabeth's board is interested in being of service to the public and is not interested in a profit, Phelan said. That board said it would still like to use the facilities at night.

There are eight rooms in the parochial school building, and Duhan said that although the tables and desks were intended for use by elementary students, the school could be adopted since the present junior high school had been adopted for grades three to 12 at another time.

Dermont Poley, high school principal, said that an administrator for discipline, attendance and guidance and a part-time secretary should be considered to administer rented facilities.

Duhan said that at the present time six relocatable classrooms are being used at Herrick Park School and four at Sutton School with no difficulty.

Open House Feb. 26-27

Parents of Tecumseh Senior High School students are invited to the school's annual open house on Wednesday, Feb. 26 and Thursday, Feb. 27.

This is the first open house held during the school day, to acquaint parents with the daily study and work conditions that students and teachers experience.

Each student's schedule and a letter have been sent home. Parents are invited to follow the school day with their students and may sit in on any class for any period of time.

Parents of students whose last names begin with letters A through M are invited to come Wednesday. Thursday is for parents with students whose last names begin with letters N through Z. If this schedule is inconvenient parents may attend either day.

Parents and teachers will have the opportunity to meet informally in the teachers' lounge, where coffee and donuts will be served all day.

Student will be available to direct parents to the classes they wish to visit.

Protest Breakage

Tecumseh Public School board members and administrators protested the amount of money spent monthly to replace broken glass in the schools.

Several breaking and enterings in January, were responsible for more than half of the $782 cost. From July 1974 to January 1975 the average cost per month was $511, said Eugene Cooley, assistant superintendent.

The problem of glass breakage is one which confounds every school board, leaving administrators scratching their heads for a solution.

Most vexing is that school districts cannot insure for glass breakage. "Some recoveries are made in restitution and we do track down the source as much as possible," said Dermont Poley, high school principal.

The thousands of tax dollars spent on glass means a loss to other academic and enrichment programs that benefit students.

As one member said, "It is a horrible waste of money and resources. The only solution seems to be cooperation with students, parents and administrators to arrest the problem."

Labor costs as much as the glass in most cases. Some replacements in the Tecumseh schools have been made with a non-breakable glass. Fire standards necessitate some glass be breakable for escape in fires. Double glass is usually used, sometimes plate glass.

Most breakages occur in the high school and junior high school.

92% of Taxes Are Remitted

Vera Gardner, city clerk, reported that 92 percent of the county taxes have been collected to date. Last year by Feb. 22, 93 percent had been collected.

From now to Feb. 28 there is a three percent penalty on unpaid taxes. After March 1, the penalty is four percent and one half of one percent per month until paid.

Deliquent taxes are payable to the county treasurer after March 1, although the city clerk will continue to accept payments here until her books are taken to the county treasurer's office, sometime after March 1.

3 Recipients of Scholarships

Three Tecumseh Junior High School students are recipients of the David Day Scholarship presented Tuesday night, after auditions.

Winners are Alison Phillips, clarinet, two thirds music camp cost; Angela Marcotte, flute, one third of cost; and Eileen Campbell, alto clarinet, two-thirds of music camp cost.

2 May Join on Problems

Henry Mastie, Britton councilman, spoke with Tecumseh Council Tuesday night about the possibility of Britton joining Tecumseh in waste water treatment projects to resolve common problems.

Mayor Harold Easton told Mastie "Tecumseh is here to cooperate, but the initiative must come from Britton."

Mastie said he thought such cooperation would make a better working relationship between the Village of Britton and City of Tecumseh.

$27,259 Cut in State Aid

The governor's executive budget cut order has resulted in a $27,259 cut in the 1974-75 state aid to Tecumseh Public School district, or approximately one-third of a mill. Board levied 23½ operational mills for this year.

Tecumseh schools, like others in the state, are feeling the pinch as a result of decreasing revenues from sales tax and a growing burden on the welfare system, the board members discussed.

"If there are more cuts," said assistant superintendent Eugene Cooley, "we'll have to do more than sharpen our pencils, gentlemen. Within our adopted budget, we are protected, but another cut would mean more belt tightening," Cooley told the board.

Eighty-five percent of the school board's fixed costs are payrolls; budget would be reduced by letting improvements and repairs slide, board's discussion.

4 Suspected in Assault, Robbery, Theft

Edwin Clark, 72, badly beaten in a robbery attempt Tuesday night of last week at Jerry's Market, has been moved from intensive care at University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

His condition remains serious. He has regained some of his memory and has recognized family and friends.

Four youths are suspected in the assault. One, Mark Raymond, 19, of 10878 Wisner Hwy., Tipton is in the county jail. Others are juveniles, two are 16 years old and one only 15 years of age.

According to the State Police, Raymond was charged with armed robbery and auto theft and placed originally under $7,000 bond, $5,000 for armed robbery and $2,000 for stealing a car.

He was arraigned Tuesday and demanded examination, which will be held Feb. 27. His bond was lowered to $3,500, but it was not posted and he remains in jail.

One of the juveniles reportedly wielded a club - a sawed off cue stick used in pool - in the assault on Mr. Clark, a long time Tecumseh businessman who sold his business on N. Evans and recently began working at Jerry's Market for Delbert King, store owner.

He suffered a severe blow to the back of his head, a cut which reportedly once threatened the loss of his left eye, and a blow across his stomach.

Although few details have been released, he was apparently accosted shortly before closing time of 10 p.m. at the store. When the store's lights were still on at 10:15, his daughter, Lois Cheever, happened to be driving by and investigated.

She found her father lying on the floor near the front door. He was taken first to Herrick Hospital and then to Ann Arbor. State police still have not been able to question him.

In the meantime the youths had stolen his car, abandoning it on Allen Road and then walked to the market, using Clark's automobile to return.

The youths were foiled in their robbery attempt as it's believed that Mr. Clark refused to open the cash register, one designed to prevent just anyone opening it.

3 Are Charged in 7 Accidents

Seven accidents were handled by the Tecumseh police during the past week, but none was serious and involving personal injury.

A resume is:

Feb. 13 - Betty J. Meyers, Clinton, reported her car damaged while parked outside her doctor's office, just east of the hospital.

Feb. 14 - Douglas L. Grady, 65, Britton ran into the rear of a car operated by Carma J. Wiesinger, 36, Adrian, at the intersection of Chicago Blvd. and Evans.

Feb. 14 - Marilee E. Purse, 210 W. Pottawatamie backed into a parked car owned by Carole L. Poley, 2003 E. Monroe Rd., at Patterson Elementary School.

Feb. 15 - Jose Fuentes Jr., 17, of 212 Cairns, was cited for violation of basic speed law after sliding on Red Mill Dr. and hitting a tree.

Feb. 15 - Lorraine J. Ruhl, 21, of 1316 Southwestern Dr., was charged with failure to yield after mishap with Timmie L. Rodgers, 26, of 313 Maple, at the intersection of W. Pottawatamie and Cairns.

Feb. 17 - Mark T. Cheevers, 18, of 125 Park, was cited for driving under the influence of alcohol after running into the rear of a truck at Tecumseh High School. Darrel D. Shewman, 34, Adrian, was unloading milk about 1:45 when the accident occurred. Cheevers also left the scene, police report.

Feb. 18 - Richard D. Foster, Adrian, slid on icy N. Union St. and struck a sign post in front of St. Elizabeth Church.

Council To Try for Federal Funds

Tecumseh Council decided to make a stab in the dark Tuesday night for federal Community Act Development funds, to complete the Russell Road project from Adrian St. to Rogers Highway.

At a public hearing during the meeting, Cal Zorn, city manager, told council it could apply for $250,000 from HUD.

Tecumseh's contribution, which would come mostly through assessments, would be $40,000. City expects other federal contributions of $290,000, which could complete the $580,000 project.

Whether or not community development funds are received, Zorn said that he hopes the city can complete the urban segment of the project from Adrian St. to Mill.

Total cost of that portion is $200,000 with $107,000 available in federal aid urban funds, $20,000 from other funds, and the balance of $73,000 to be raised by the city. Zorn said that this amount could be raised in two years.

"I haven't been encouraged right from the beginning that Tecumseh would get any more money, but we can make a stab at it," Zorn told Council about the Community Development Funds.

These funds are basically to renovate housing for poor and needy people. Zorn said, according to the 1970 census, only 1.7 percent of the homes or 39, lacked some kind of plumbing facility. But these figures do not identify what they are.

Zorn has tried to identify areas which appear to be low income and suggested that curb and gutter improvements in these areas be added to the application for Community Development Funds.

He said the rational is that street improvements encourage property improvements.

Application for these funds must be made by March 1 to qualify for this year.

Bicentennial Speaker to Visit

Historical projects for the Bicentennial will be Dr. Charles Lindquist's topic as guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Tecumseh Area Historical Society Wednesday, Feb. 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Tecumseh Public Library.

CHARLES LINDQUIST

Dr. Lindquist is director-curator of the Lenawee County Historical Museum. He is also coordinator of the county Bicentennial effort.

He received his Ph. D. in history at the University of Michigan in 1973 and did undergraduate and graduate work at both the U of M and the University of Wisconsin.

Born in the Upper Peninsula, he taught at Adrian College from 1967 to 1972. He became director in Oct. 1974.

He is an active member in the Amercian Historical Association, The American Association for State and Local History, the Lenawee County Historical Society and the Historical Society of Michigan.

Wednesday's agenda will also include a vote on the Historical Society's constitution, a short report from President Donald Berkley and committee reports on the first year's activities.

The Spafford-Kennedy house committee, Mike Havener, Elizabeth Wilson and Donna Flynn, will report on efforts to demonstrate a viable use for the home. Its preservation was rated a desirable project by citizens on the City of Tecumseh Capital Improvement Survey.

Volunteers are sought to study the natural typography of Tecumseh. The first survey map of 1827 and notes are available to whet the local historian's appetite.

The historic collections at the University of Michigan also offer material for review. Volunteers may give their names at the meeting Wednesday night.

In conjunction with the Tecumseh Historic Study Committee, appointed by City Council to recommend a historic district and ordinance, Professor Kingsbury Marzolf will speak here March 25, sponsored by the Historical Society and Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce.

Professor Marzolf compares slides of Tecumseh's historic buildings, commercial and residential, with others of the United States and Europe.

Professor Marzolf of the U of M school of architecture has cooperated in the Ann Arobr effort to preserve downtown commercial buildings.

Members of the Society are reminded that if they purchased a hard cover copy of the limited edition of "100 Years—A Country Town," it entitled them to one membership for a year. 1975 memberships are renewable now. Members are now seeking ideas for the Bicentennial celebration.

Principal Participates

Dermont Poley, principal of Tecumseh High School, was a member of the panel discussion held at the principal-counselor breakfast recently at Lenawee Vo-Tech Center when solutions to problems between the home, school and the Center were sought.

Placement director Paula Shirk stated that there are 250 students on co-op jobs and 21 coordinators working with them.

Nearly 3,000 students will take a tour of the Center this year, Dale Lane, Vo-Tech Counselor said. He stressed that every effort is made to match ability of the student to subjects available for study.

Blue & Gold Banquet

Cub Scout Pack 207 held the annual Blue and Gold banquet at St. Elizabeth School Feb. 3.

After the color guard ceremony led by the Webelos, Paul Hagar and Mike Brooks, Sam Compton gave the invocation.

Guests were Helen Morley, Al Bunting and John Deming. The wolf badge was presented to Tom Neitling and the bear badge to Roger Pyzik.

Robbie Fulop received the one year pin and Chris Crombez the silver arrow.

Among the Webelos, the following awards were presented: athlete award to Brian Baker; athlete, citizen and craftsman award to Bill Gross; aquanaut and athlete award each to Mike Brooks and Paul Hagar.

The den chief shoulder cord award was presented to Boy Scouts Andy Neilson and Terry Meyers, by leaders Al Bunting and John Deming for work as assistants to den mothers.

Dick Heglin reminded all the Cub Scouts to have their Pinewood Derby cars ready on Feb. 22, for the preliminary race. The finals will be at the March 3 pack meeting.

There are 26 grandchildren.

Dolores Ruttkofsky Weds William Wallace Kukral

Dolores Kay Ruttkofsky and William Wallace Kukral were united in marriage Feb. 14 in Gloria Dei Lutheran Church by Dr. Laszlo assisted by Rev. Warren Paulson.

The couple lighted a candle to solemnize their vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ruttkofsky of Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. William Kukral of Tipton.

In a gown made and designed by her sister, Mary, the bride approached the altar on the arm of her father.

Pink eyelet lace trimmed the neckline, sleeves, hem and cathedral train. Bodice and bishop sleeves were of brocade satin and a bow of the same satin secured her fingertip veil.

She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Mary Ahearn was matron of honor in a gown of pink pastel chiffon over a taffeta lining. Bridesmaids were Dixie Gerken, cousin of the bride, Ida Dermyer and Bonnie Kukral, sisters of the groom, and Connie Ruttkofsky, sister-in-law of the bride.

They were attired in mint green dresses fashioned as the matron of honor.

Wanda Kukral, sister of the groom, was junior bridesmaid.

Laurie Martin, cousin and god-child of the bride, was flower girl.

They carried heart shaped bouquets in the Valentine theme.

Ted Tiede was both best man and soloist. Guests were seated by Joseph Kukral, brother of the groom and Earl and Rick Ruttkofsky, brothers of the bride, and Dee Dermyer and Buddy Bolyard.

Joshua Ruttkofsky, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Buffet dinner was served to 300 guests at the United Products Workers Union Hall where Bonnie Tiede registered the guests.

Joy Wooden, Annette Bolyard, Sheri and Stacey Morgan assisted with serving.

Both bride and groom are graduates of Tecumseh High School. The bride is employed at Ken-Ray Drugs and the groom at Budd Co., Clinton.

Following a brief honeymoon to Northern Michigan, they will live at 216 S. VanBuren St.

MRS. WILLIAM KUKRAL

Engagement of Beth Darlene Gove and Byron Arthur Parker is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gove, Eccles Road, Clinton. Mr. Parker is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Parker and the late Mr. Parker of Charlotte, N.C. Wedding will take place April 26 in Tecumseh Friends Church.

Released in Heroin Charge

Ramon D. Diaz of DeLeon Dr. was released by order of the State Court of Appeals after conviction of possession of heroin.

His wife turned him in to Tecumseh Police during a domestic dispute. She turned him in to prevent his return with her to their home in Texas.

Diaz's limited command of English prevented him from fully understanding questions put to him.

No charges were pressed against Mrs. Diaz.

Named to Dean's List

Lee Catalano was named to the Dean's list of Adrian College for the fall semester.

He is a junior earth science major and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Catalano, 6875 Colonial Drive.

Music Club Holds Meeting

Lynn Seforte and Richard Lolley of Eastern Michigan Research Foundation led group singing for the February meeting of the Music Club in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson and Dorothy Ruthruff.

Lolley sang Stephen Foster's "Red Rose" and "Gentle Annie" accompanied by Miss Seforte.

Mrs. Wilfred Waldron was co-hostess. Mrs. Perry Hayden will be the hostess for the March meeting.

Style Sense by Evel

Beauty is more than skin deep, Grandma used to say. Today more than ever we know that beauty is what we eat. Witness the rage of nature foods and organic gardening. Back to nature food for wheat germ, yeast tablets, and black molasses. And beauty is what we think. Even our thoughts can make us beautiful or ugly. Beauty culture needs all the help it can get. Professionals do it best.

Manicures are a must if your hands are to look their very best. However, you don't have to take valuable time from your day to keep your hands looking nice. Simply put together a manicure tray and keep it in a handy spot. Break up your daily chores by sandwiching between them steps of your manicure: take the old polish off at one time, file the fingernails of one hand or both at another, use cuticle remover, soak, and polish. By the time your housework is done, you'll look beautiful!

Boosters -vs- Teachers

BRITTON—Tory Booster cagers are out to defeat the Britton-Macon school teachers in the game of the year, as they play for the championship Saturday in the high school gymnasium.

Teachers will be assisted by Bill Lasky, Detroit Lion's line backer, as they tangle with the Boosters.

Opening the entertainment, which will begin at 6:30 p.m., will be basketball games by the fourth, fifth and sixth graders. Volleyball will be played by the Tory Booster women against the women teachers at half-time.

Proceeds will go towards the promotion of the Jr. High Football Program.

Remodeling Is Finished at Church

RIDGEWAY—Ridgeway Baptist Church, 7760 E. Monroe Road, which met for its first Sunday services Nov. 24, has been remodeling.

A commercial building has been extensively renovated and baptism facilities were added. Last Sunday seven persons were baptized.

The congregation has also established a parsonage, a three bedroom home, occupied by Pastor and Mrs. Charles J. Mellring, Jan. 25. Most of the remodeling has been done by the congregation.

First annual meeting of the congregation will be Saturday evening following a fellowship supper at the church.

To The Editor

To the Editor:

People of Britton voice your opinion!

Lets get rid of 1½ mills which is destined for sewer and drain only. Do you want to be hung with this?

I feel it is not needed at this time.

Councilmen will act on the budget Feb. 25.

Better attendance at the meetings is urged. At the last meeting there were only three citizens who attended.

B-M Cheerleaders Host Competition

BRITTON—Britton-Macon Cheerleaders are hosting an All-League Cheerleading competition for JV and Varsity Cheerleaders Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Britton gymnasium. This is the first year for such an event among the league cheerleaders.

Cheerleaders from Britton have invited all the schools in the Tri-County League to participate. Schools include Summerfield, Madison, Whitmore Lake, Deerfield and Ann Arbor St. Thomas.

Six trophies will be handed out, three for each group. Girls are required to have two floor cheers, three sidelines and a pom-pon routine.

Winners will be judged by Adrian College cheerleaders.

A small admission is charged. Public is invited.

Britton Wins by Three

Britton squeaked by Whiteford Saturday night on the Tories' floor, winning by three points, 72-69.

The Tories led by 10 points at half, 34-24, but a 25-point third quarter by the visitors narrowed the difference to 51-49. Both teams finished in a flourish with Tories picking up 21 points in the final eight minutes to 20 for Whiteford.

Dan Exelby was top scorer with 19 points. Mike Saxton collected 15 as did Craig Wagenschutz.

Assembly Lines Depend on Electric Lines

Electricity is essential to industrial production. Without it, everything stops.

Unfortunately, Michigan is facing a real energy crunch. If electric utilities cannot obtain money from investors to build new power plants, there'll be a shortage of generating capacity a few years from now.

The problem is: our revenues haven't kept pace with inflation. Now, earnings have declined to the point where today we cannot sell our securities. That's bad for us. And it's bad for every worker in Michigan.

That's why we have asked for authorization to increase the price of electricity. Without it, we would have to stop building. And that would mean a real power shortage tomorrow.

We don't like price increases any more than you do. But we'd like power interruptions even less.

JASON and ROGER PROCTOR

Valentine Baby, Jason Proctor

CLINTON — Jason A. Proctor, 16-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Proctor, South Lyon, formerly of Clinton, was named winner of the Jaycee Auxiliary sponsored Valentine Baby Contest.

Presentation of the $25 prize to the winner and announcement of the runners-up was made at Clinton State Savings Bank, Feb. 14.

Jason was entered in the contest by his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lauer, 106 Gibson St. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Proctor of Tecumseh.

Second place was won by Brent Alan Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keith, of Britton.

Third place was won by Angela Rae Blatchford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blatchford, 12919 Tipton Hwy.

Clinton Hosts Tournament

CLINTON — District basketball tournament will be held in Clinton High School at 7 p.m. next week, Monday, Feb. 24, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday, March 1.

Attend Show in Kentucky

CLINTON — John Jansen, Allen Dull, Terry Kershner, Terry Calhoun and George Heimerdinger attended the National Machinery Show at Louisville, Ky. last weekend. They also called on Tim Zick, who is stationed with the Army at Ft. Knox, Ky., and toured the horse farms around Lexington, Ky.

Heart Attack Film Shown

CLINTON—A film on reviving heart attack victims was shown by Miss Hill of the American Heart Association, Adrian, for members of St. Dominic's Altar Society, Feb. 10.

Miss Hill also demonstrated the cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) technique.

Meeting was attended by 14 members and Fr. James Lee. Hostesses were Mrs. E. J. Kehoe and Mrs. Charles Still. Mrs. E.J. Kehoe won the lucky lady prize.

Plans were made to have a salad supper at the March meeting.

Each member will be asked to bring a new member and a dish of food to pass. Supper will be at 6:30 p.m. in the Community Center.

Breakfast Meeting Held

CLINTON—At a recent breakfast meeting of the Retail Division of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce, plans were made for one merchant to sponsor a raffle on each holiday with tickets to be sold at a nominal fee.

Roost's Ceramics will have the St. Patrick's Day drawing.

A food basket will be given away by the merchants on Good Friday, as a pre-Easter promotion. Court Nighswander is in charge of publicity for this.

Jean Magee has invited a HUD representative from Chicago to present a slide film program on how other communities have improved their areas.

Breakfast meetings are 8 a.m. first Wednesday of each month. At the March 5 meeting a county newspaper editor will speak on uses of publicity to promote the community.

Middle School Hosts PTS

CLINTON — A visit to the Paleontology Zoo in the library preceded the Feb. 11 meeting of Middle School Parent-Teacher-Students (PTS).

On display at the meeting was some $400 worth of athletic equipment purchased by the PTS for the playground. There were tumbling mats, utility balls, footballs, basketballs, volleyballs, tennis rackets and frames and a climbing rope.

Mention was made of the newly painted gym walls and the new stage curtains.

At the meeting conducted by Sharon Shanty, a pancake supper and fun night was planned for May 8. Volunteers are asked to sign up to help at this event.

Mrs. John Eddy is chairwoman of the nominating committee.

Seventh and eighth grade choir, under the direction of Henry Shade, sang several numbers.

The seventh and eighth grade band entertained with selections directed by Robert Calkins.

Prize winners were Richard Wegner, Joan Fuller, Cassie Ragay, Carol Fisk and Mary Quick.

HOMEOWNERS CORNER

Time to clean the humidifier again! The cold weather makes it that much more important. Your humidifier will operate much more in cold weather thus leaving more lime deposits to be cleaned out. Change the media if yours is crusted over. Some types you can soak in vinegar solution and get part of the scale out. If you have the plate type that hangs inside the furnace, it should be checked very often as they have a tendency to run over occasionally and this can damage your furnace.

Your needs are important to us. For installations, repair or remodeling jobs on heating or plumbing call on us at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121. Our many years of experience enables us to guarantee you satisfaction on every job we do. There is a display on bathroom fixtures including cast iron tubs, fiberglass tubs and stall showers, vanities with marble tops, decorator medicine cabinets, soap dishes, towel racks, glass holders and waste baskets in chrome, nickle, or brass. Hours: 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. daily, until 5 p.m. Saturdays.

HANDY HINT: Do not turn the humidifier valve on all the way. This will eliminate "chattering" in certain models.

Woman's Club Holds Fun Day

CLINTON—Fun Day program of Clinton Woman's Club last Wednesday, was directed by Mrs. Dan Reilly assisted by Mrs. Thomas Pence.

Mrs. Richard Broniman led members in group singing accompanied by Mrs. Frank Allen at the piano.

Bingo games were played with packages of sugar for prizes. A cover-all prize was an arrangement of cut flowers donated by Mrs. [illegible] patrick and won by Mary Scully.

The meeting at the Smith-Kimball Community Center was attended by 16 members and a guest, Mrs. Celia Rice of Lyons, Ohio.

Mrs. George Wolf presided and appointed Mrs. Max Stamats and Mrs. Anna Mae Waterman to the nominating committee. A third member will be named to the committee.

Since the safe containing the papers of the club must be moved from the Lenawee County Library, Mrs. Wolf and Mrs. Harlon Ruhl were delegated to review the contents.

Some of the papers may be housed in the Michigan Historical collections at North Campus, Ann Arbor, and the iron safe may be sold.

Refreshments were served by the social committee, Mrs. Ina Basham and Mrs. Elvinn Witherell.

The centerpiece was an unusual heart-shaped red vase filled with Christmas roses, flanked by red candles and circled with old-fashioned valentines.

Mrs. Broniman presided at the tea service.

Next meeting is March 12 at 1:30 p.m. in the center.

Chamber Dinner Meeting Upcoming

CLINTON—Monthly dinner meeting of Clinton Chamber of Commerce will be Monday, Feb. 24 at 6:30 p.m. in Clintonian Inn.

There will be an election of officers to fill three three-year terms and one two-year term.

Nominees for directors are Court Nighswander, Jean Magee, Gary Couture, Richard Wegner, Dr. Alan Ellerholz, Gary Service and Mrs. Jean Hebert.

Program will be presented by representatives of the Institute of Cultural Affairs on community culture.

Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a St. Patrick's Dance, March 15 in Peerless Gear Union Hall. Eddie Jacob's band will play for dancing from 9 to 1 p.m.

Committee for the dance includes chairman, Joe O'Donnell, Mrs. Court Nighswander, Charles Peart and Kathy Thomas.

Proceeds of the dance will go to the Fall Festival advertising fund.

Monday's Vote Only 269

CLINTON — Only 269 voters braved the ice and snow Monday to vote in Clinton's primary election out of some 934 who are registered.

Names as Republican nominees for the March 10 village election are incumbents, John Jansen 150; Richard Koster 147, and newcomer, Clifford Cobb 150.

Other candidates and their votes are Charles cook 113; John Knight 102; Bernard Abraham 98; and Jean Magee 22.

Unopposed nominees for trustee positions on Smith-Kimball Community Center Board are Hollis Farley 157; and Irene Karapas 204.

Camp Fire Magazine Sale

CLINTON—The Camp Fire Girls have started their magazine sale in Clinton. This is an opportunity for each family to renew, extend or order new magazines. While this is not a planned door to door campaign; the girls are permitted to canvass neighborhoods if they wish.

Purchasing the magazines through Camp Fire means the all council organization will receive a 40 percent profit of the magazine sale.

Prizes will be awarded to the Camp Fire Girls for their efforts. A superstar button is given for one sale, the button and flocked kitty poster for three sales and the button, poster and Camp Fire drinking mug for five sales.

If five sales are made, that girl is eligible for the National Disney Tripstakes, an all expense paid four day and three nights trip to Disney Land or Disney World with her parents and guest.

The Tuchabatchee Council will also award a $50 savings bond to the girl in the council who sells the subscription with the highest dollar value.

The magazine sale, which is sponsored by QSP, the fund raising division of Readers' Digest, ends Feb. 24.

Critical Need To Read

CLINTON — We live in an age of anxiety about reading.

According to the U.S. Office of Education, 43 percent of elementary-school children today are in critical need of help with reading.

About 20 percent cannot stay abreast of their age groups because they simply caanot read. Millions of average ability still read tragically below their potential.

In a laudable attempt to overcome the problem, some specialists have tried reading skill segments, exercises, teaching machines and others.

Happily, there's a low-budget reading program now operating in 43 states which concentrates exclusively on doing just that.

Called "Reading is FUNdamental," the program is: give youngsters attractive, cheap paperback books to start them forming personal libraries. By emphasizing the pleasures of reading, RIF encourages children to use and expand the skills they already have.

Locally, Max Steffens of Clinton is interested in getting a RIF program started in Clinton. Anyone interested in knowing more about it may call him at 456-4458, evenings.

RIF's average cost per book is about 50 cents. Publishers and distributers usually give reduced prices because of the volume involved.

RIF began in Washington in 1966, when former teacher, Margaret McNamara, wife of then Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, was a volunteer reading-teacher aide in the D.C. schools.

She was appalled to find that the only reading materials available for the fifth-graders she was trying to help were second-grade "See Johnny run" primers.

Children should be challenged, RIF feels. If they select a difficult book, and want to read it badly enough someone will help them get through it.

Comments from parents and teachers were revealing: "She reads all the time, even in bed until she falls asleep"... "They sit and explain to each other what they have read"... "They read for amusement, then for information, then critically, evaluating what they have read."

She obtained a Ford Foundation grant for a pilot program distributing quality paperbacks to 61 D.C. schools, where family income averaged under $5,000.

Teachers were asked not to direct children's selections but to emphasize that these were books to enjoy.

Modestly, Mrs. McNamara insists, "We don't try to teach how to read that's the schools' job. We work on reading motivation." But technique and motivation are two sides of the same coin. Neither works without the other.

RIF is now operating in 130 cities and towns, with 46 more starting up, and has given away four million books to more than 800,000 children.

If the momentum keeps up, the total could double in the coming year. At a time when a lot of intricate, costly educational reforms have somehow gone sour, this easy-to-start and relatively inexpensive program offers possibilities.

Breakfast Enjoyed by First Graders

CLINTON—Mrs. Carol Poppe's first grade children enjoyed breakfast together Jan. 23. The menu was cold cereal, toast, juice and milk.

This was the climax to the children's better breakfast unit of study. Later the same day, Mrs. Gerald Marion, Lenawee County health nurse, with the help of a puppet, "Mimi the Cow," gave a demonstration of the four basic food groups.

Rick Irving's first and second graders enjoyed a pancake breakfast on Feb. 7. On hand to help the children flip their pancakes and pour their syrup were Mrs. Martin Scott, Mrs. Colter Phipps, and Mrs. John Duede.

CLINTON—Annual Valentine parties were held at the elementary school on Friday. Mrs. Nancy VanMatre, new third grade teacher, took her class to the Middle School Wednesday to prepare their own cookies for their parties. Several mothers were around on Friday to help the teachers with the parties.

Feb. 23 MIA Prayer Day

CLINTON—Michigan MIA Prayer Day, proclaimed by Gov. William Milliken is designated for Feb. 23. This day commemorates the second anniversary of the return of 556 American Prisoners of War.

The Clinton Area Jaycee Auxiliary has sent letters to the seven churches in Clinton, and to approximately 40 churches that are members of the Adrian Council of Churches, urging the pastors to join with the rest of the nation in remembering the 1300 servicemen who are still listed as Missing In Action, particularly the 50 who are from Michigan, on this day.

MIA Prayer Day is made possible through the combined efforts of the Michigan Jaycees, Voices In Vital America and the National League of Families who have been effortless in preventing American from forgetting the plight of these men and their families.

Included in the letter is the suggestion that a special Prayer, song or lighting of a candle be included during the Feb. 23, Sunday morning service. And, that at the conclusion of the service, the National Anthem, or "America", be sung by the entire congregation.

Class Raised $19 at Swap

CLINTON—Priscilla Class members raised $19 at a swap shop during their meeting last Thursday in the United Church of Christ.

Mrs. Lewis Blaisdell hosted the meeting attended by 12 members.

Mrs. Harold Keibler presented the devotions on the Lenten theme.

Mrs. Clayton Stroile presided at the meeting which was mainly concerned with plans to serve the annual father-daughter dinner, on March 22.

Macon Dialog

by Linda Phillips 423-5213

"Macon Historical Society is now in motion," this is from newly-elected President Bob Bush after the productive Saturday night meeting attended by 12 area residents.

The meeting was indeed productive—Sharon Connors, Linda Phillips and Marilyn Bagby were elected vice-president, secretary and treasurer, respectively, under the presidency of Bob Bush; [illegible] were designated one dollar per person due annually; two major projects were decided upon, and one outing was tentatively planned.

Following the example set 1876 by Macon people who planted rows of oaks and maples in the Township to commemorate the county's Centennial, members of Macon Historical Society will undertake the planting of donated trees along the community's roads free of charge on consenting landowners' property to celebrate our up-coming Bicentennial.

The other project to begin very soon will be the restoration of the 100 year-old plus Mills School on the property of Bob Bush, who is donating the Township's first frame school for the Society's use. Restoration will begin with a new roof for the historic structure on the first-weather permitting Saturday in March.

Otto Miller related to the group that the woods behind his Welch Road home contained two whitewood trees which may be the only survivors of Macon's once abundant supply. Historical Society members plan a picnic or similar outing this spring in Mr. Miller's woods to have a look at these trees.

[illegible] Bagby and Linda Phillips will attend the Saline Area Historical Society meeting this week to hear a lecture given on reconstructing local history in conjunction with the Bicentennial to help formulate Macon's plans for the super celebration.

In Play at Alma

Ray Lovett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond T. Lovett, plays Mr. Marlow a friend of the starring role, Kate Hardcastle, in the Alma College production of "She Stoops To Conquer" on the campus this weekend.

Majoring in English and music, Lovett will also be seen with the Alma College Chorus Friday, Feb. 28, on Channel 9 TV when the singers visit Detroit Arena during their concert tour.

The Tecumseh man sings tenor. His parents and sister, Connie, will attend the play.

Performs at Western

Lance Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tucker, played the role of Alonso, the king, in "The Tempest" in the Laura V. Shaw Theatre on the Western Michigan University campus Feb. 13, 14 and 15.

A junior, Lance is majoring in communications, arts and science. Previous roles with the University Players include Noble Roman, a cadaverous personage in "HIM" and Billy in "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tucker spent the weekend with their son, seeing him play the Shakesperian production on Saturday night.

Member in Symphony

D. Paul Bush, senior at Tecumseh High School, is a member of the trumpet section of the 110 member Michigan Youth Symphony to perform Sunday, March 2, in Monroe at 4 p.m. in St. Mary's Academy auditorium.

Sponsored by the University of Michigan School of Music and Extension Service, the orchestra is directed by Dr. Robert Petters of the School of Music.

Now in its 26th season, the orchestra is formed of talented high school musicians from lower Michigan, with rehearsal held twice each month throughout most of the school year.

Tickets for the concert are available from Paul or at the door.

THROUGH MY WINDOW

by Marda Gene Duncan

CORMIE

There is a very sound reason for it. We are not being anthropomorphic, we do not name every wild bird that comes our way, thus turning them into feathered people. It is simply a case of practicality. By the time we can holler that there is a cormorant in the lake he is gone. However, a shout of "Cormie" and there is a reasonable chance of someone getting to the window in time to see him. This bird, you see, spends almost more time under water than he does on it.

Cormie is a double-crested cormorant who suddenly appeared on the lake several weeks ago and apparently found the fishing good. At least he has been a regular since that first day. He is a rather odd looking character.

For all practical purposes he is black with a light throat which indicates he is an immature bird. Adults are just all-over black. He has an orange patch under his bill which most books call a pouch but in no way does it resemble the pouch of the pelican. His bill is long, quite slender, with a wicked looking hook at the end.

On that first afternoon he spent with us Mom saw one of his better tricks. Although water birds, cormorants are not too well waterproofed and after a good session of fishing, they must dry their wings before flying. Not too efficient an arrangement but one that affords bird watchers quite a show.

Cormie, like all his kin-folk, stands or lifts his body off the water and stretches his wings into a spread-eagle position when he wants them to dry. Often he indulges in some wing flapping to hasten the process. Fun to watch.

He is a large bird, some 32 inches long with a wing span of 51 inches, and it is no little chore to become air-borne. A short fast run on the water, accompanied by some frantic wing beating, and he is off.

Before sailing away, however, he makes several passes over the lake. As he circles he gains altitude and then usually he heads in a southerly direction. We wonder where he goes?

In the "National Geographic's book "Water, Prey and Game Birds" they say that usually when a cormorant takes off from an above the water perch, such as a stump or cliff, he dips down low to the water before flying away thus giving rise to a local saying that the cormorant, or shag, must wet its tail before it can fly.

Cormie is an expert fisherman. He glides along on the surface of the water, head held high with his bill pointing upward and all of a sudden that head jerks backward then flashes forward, dunks into the water and he is out of sight.

He will stay out of sight for a surprisingly long time too. And where he will re-surface is anybody's guess. It would be most interesting to follow him unde water. He must be a superb swimmer. That is how he catches his fish.

The books disagree on his swimming technique, the "Audubon Bird Guide" says he uses his wings to "fly" under water, whereas the "National Geographic" claims his webbed feet are the main propellents. Possibly he uses both — doesn't it seem that catching fish by swimming after them would require both feet and wings?

Once caught the prey is brought to the surface to be gulped down. The other day I glanced out just as Cormie came up with a fairly large fish. It was not a case of his eyes being bigger than his stomach but for a few minutes I fear his eyes were perhaps bigger than his mouth and throat.

He had quite a time juggling and maneuvering his finny tidbit but finally it was head first in his mouth and with much head twisting and throat stretching, down it went. He had to take several drinks to help it along though.

When flying Cormie has quite a distinctive silhouette. His wedge-shaped tail straight behind and his rather long neck extended straight ahead—he is a long bird. His bill is held above the horizontal and his wings are surprisingly narrow.

At rest, perched on a limb or stump, he is also easy to identify. Because his legs and feet are placed far back on his body his sitting posture is very upright. Again that hooked bill is usually tilted upward and although his long neck may be straight, it more usually is held in a comfortable looking "S" position.

So it is that a double-crested cormorant on our lake is the cause of much excitement and looking—because his name is long and takes a few seconds to shout, we feel justified in shortening it to "Cormie."

Members Welcomed

New members welcomed into the Town and Country Garden Club at the February meeting in the home of Mrs. Gerald Nelson were Mrs. Toni Schneider, Mrs. Linda Herman, Mrs. Kathy Bandlow and Mrs. Irene Piskoti.

The club's gift of an outdoor bench has been delivered to the Lenawee Institute.

Mrs. Philip Marcotte presented printed materials on wildflowers, cultivated plants and Michigan's morels.

Seed packets were distributed to be used for next month's workshop.

Dr. K.S. Xaviar of Adrian College gave a slide presentation on "Plants of Lenawee County."

A "Growing Flowers from Seed" workshop will be featured at the March 5 meeting at the home of Mrs. Bert Gagler. A seed catalog will be exchanged.

What's Up at THS

by GWEN VAVRINEK

This week at THS, approximately 200 students were given the opportunity to learn more about their future in careers.

Students collected information from various colleges and armed forces at the annual L.C.C.A. Career, Trade and Tech Day.

Program was held Feb. 11 at the Vo-Tech Center and included three 45 minute sessions.

Juniors and [illegible] throughout Lenawee County were able to attend the program.

This Friday at THS, a field trip to see the play, "The Taming of the Shrew" is planned. The play will be held at Siena Heights College and the cost will be 50 cents.

The 220 students will leave the school at 12 p.m. and return to the school at 2:30 p.m.

Another recent activity was the district FFA leadership contest. Tecumseh competed in parlimentary procedure, ag forum, public speaking and job interview.

Onsted, Morenci, Sand Creek and Blissfield were also entered in the contest. Tecumseh and Blissfield got a gold rating but Tecumseh will represent Regional 2 in parlimentary procedure.

THS Lunch

Rotarians Give Money to Band Students

Three Tecumseh High School music students were presented with $100 checks each to aid in financing of their trips to Europe.

Lisa Baker will travel to Europe with Musical Youth International, a group based in Saline. She will sing first alto in the chorus.

The 50 piece band and a 50 member choir will hold a first concert in Adrian March 9, at 2:30 p.m. in the Francoeur Theatre at Siena Heights College. Public is welcome.

Lisa leaves June 31 for Holland, Denmark, France, Germany, Switzerland and Italy; she returns Aug. 5.

She is a member of the varsity band and plays flute, bassoon, mallet percussion and piano.

Marty Perkins and Andrea Phillips will tour Denmark and Sweden this summer with the 80 piece Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp International Band.

This is a summer camp located in Twin Lakes, about 10 miles north of Muskegon. The camp will also take a choir and youth symphony.

The band will attend camp the week before its departure and will also give a concert on June 7.

Group will leave June 16 and return July 18.

Marty plays cornet and is a member of the junior varsity band. Andrea plays flute and is a member of the high school varsity band.

$300 FOR TRIO—Tecumseh Rotary Club presented three Tecumseh High School music students with $100 checks to help each finance his or her trip to Europe with various youth musician tours. Students are l to r, Lisa Baker, Marty Perkins and Andrea Phillips. Rotarians are the Rev. David Fox and the president Les Proctor.

Reminder to Return Information

Sharon Raske, information and referral supervisor of the Region II Commission on Aging, issued a reminder to all organizations, agencies and clubs concerning a resources questionnaire sent out recently.

"To date, there has been about a 30 percent return on the questionnaires," Mrs. Raske continued, "and I'm afraid some of them aren't being returned because the organization doesn't consider itself a 'service provider'."

Information on anything that an organization or an individual might do that concerns older Americans, would be useful in making the Resource File complete.

"Volunteers are sought to help research and compile information helpful to older Americans. For further information about the questionnaires or volunteering services, phone Mrs. Raske at 263-2161, Ext. 287.

Lenten Service

Tecumseh United Methodist Church will participate in the first Lenten service of the Cluster Group to be held at Clinton United Methodist Church, Sunday, Feb. 23, at 7 p.m.

The Rev. Allen Gray will be the speaker and the Macon United Methodist Church will provide the music.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Franklin Township Planning Commission will hold public meetings on Saturday February 22nd at 1:00 PM and Thursday February 27th at 8:00 PM at the Township Hall in Tipton, Michigan to answer all questions and clarify the new zoning ordinance, zoning map and land use plan which will be subject to referendum on March 6, 1974. Additional copies of the zoning ordinance may be obtained from the Township Clerk. You are urged to attend one of these meetings and become informed on this important matter.

Memoriams

In loving memory of our Mother and Grandmother Elizabeth Creger, who passed away February 21, 1974. "We do not need a special day to bring her to our minds. The days we do not think of her are very hard to find. Within our store of memories she holds a place apart. For no one else could ever be more cherished in our hearts."
Sadly missed by her children and grandchildren. 2-20p

Tournament Games Drawn

Unless near-miracles are performed all three local schools will finish the 1974-75 basketball season next week in tournament action.

Tecumseh has drawn highly touted and state ranked Class B power, Jackson Lumen Christi, for action next Tuesday night at Columbia Central.

Clinton, hosting tournament play on its own floor, will face Blissfield next Thursday evening.

Britton was unlucky in its pairing, drawing Ann Arbor St. Francis next Tuesday at Madison. The Ann Arbor team, like Lumen Christi, is ranked in the top 10 of Class D schools.

Eighth Grade Concludes Season

CLINTON — Clinton's eighth grade basketball team concluded its season last week with the best record since Tom Sharpe, Bob Vogel, and Danny Jurasek played six years ago.

The record for 10 games was a fine 7 wins and 3 losses. Nine out of 10 games were very exciting from the fans standpoint that either team had a chance of winning in the last minute of play.

At home the little Redskins were 4 and 1 and all games provided the fans and players with many thrills. Clinton won one game in overtime, another by 1 point, wone one by 3 and one by 5. Their only loss at home was to a very tall Dundee team by 3 points.

The eighth graders were an excellent shooting team making one-third of all their shots and shooing 46 percent from the free throw line.

The starting team consistes of Terry Carlton, who ran the offense and was the best defensive player on the team — Terry led the team in foul shooting with a fine 54 percent, was third in assists and third in scoring with 62 points.

Mike Karapas led the team in assists, was third in rebounding, and second in scoring with 73 points. Mike was the most improved player on this years team.

Jeff Porterfield led the team in scoring with 75 points, was second in rebounding and assists. Jeff had the best jump shot on the team.

Dave Porter improved greatly over last year as he led the team in rebounding with 105 (44 more than anyone else) and he was fourth in scoring with 61 points. He had the high game of the year, scoring 16 points.

Sue Richter led the team in field goal shooting, percentage hitting on 40 percent of her shots. Sue was fifth in scoring with 46 points. She was also a fine defensive player. She should be a valuable addition to next years girls varsity team.

Mark Dettling scored 18 points as the sixth man on the team, had 43 rebounds and he improved greatly during the year.

The second team also did a fine job when called upon and those players were: Andy Hoag, Rudy Weirich, Doug Mowery and Bernie Hough. Other members of the eighth grade team were: Phil King, David Pulsipher, Steve Charboneau, Frank Breese, Mark Carnell, Jeff Simison, John DeKany, Bill Van Tuyle, Clayton Semanski, Ken Witherow, Ed Foreman, and Ralph Hoelzer.

Jets Ground Indian Hopes

Although the Tecumseh Indians had faint hopes of moving up a notch in the Huron League, they vanished at Carleton Friday night when the Jets nipped the Indians, 60-48.

A poor third quarter spelled doom for the Indians, who trailed Airport 26-25 at half-time. The Jets dominated the third stanza, flipping in 17 points to Tecumseh's eight, and boasted a 10-point lead going into the final eight minutes.

Ken Biscupski paced the Indians, collecting 21 points. Other Indian in double figures was [illegible] 13.

Two Tecumseh varsity players sat out the game because of discipline action from the school.

The Indians go into Friday night's game with a 8-5 league mark.

by Dorothy Grigg

Lunch with the men at United Products Workers Union Hall was a heartwarming experience Friday. Cornbread made by Mel South and Bean stew by Frank Marsh, Bill Kovacs and others in the huge kitchen was delicious and filling, probably as tasty as when the ladies made it the past few weeks.

The loud speaker proclaimed gratitude to Race Track Inn for their generosity in sending roast beef and ham sandwiches a few days earlier as well as coffee.

Others that the men spoke about who have sent offerings of beans, vegetables, meat, donuts, etc. are Vescios, Midway Market, Kapnick Orchards who have sent bushels of apples and Acklin Stamping Co. in Toledo who supports the strike here.

Donuts have been brought from Hillsdale and Blissfield and the guys appreciate it. As one Union member said "Ray Herrick would have enjoyed the warmth of the true Products family. It was what he always wanted."

Manchester Beats Clinton

A slow start for Manchester set the scene for an upset-minded Redskin team Friday night.

Clinton, on the efforts of the Warren Corwin, Barry Clark scoring combination, took a 14-13 first period lead only to fall victim to a hot second quarter 23 point Dutchmen effort.

It was all Manchester the second half as the Dutchmen outscored Clinton 38-29 behind the fine outside shooting of Paul Tassie whose 20 point second half of a game total 27 was too much despite the pinpoint scoring of Warren Corwin. Corwin connected for 17 points in the second half for a varsity season and personal point high 27 on 11 field goals and 5 for 5 from the foul line, Barry Clark also finished in double figures.

Mark Carlton turned in a high leaping effort on the boards, Clinton with 8 rebounds.

Clinton connected on 23 of 64 from the floor for 36 percent and 7 of 11 from the line for 64 percent. Clinton hosts Hudson in the season finale at home Friday.

Matmen Finish Third in League

New Boston continued to dominate Huron League wrestling Saturday night with a first place in league matches at Carleton.

Tecumseh Indians finished third behind New Boston and Grosse Ile, but by combining the Indians' record in dual matches and Saturday's third place finish, Tecumseh ended up the wrestling season in second behind New Boston.

Jim Shough was Tecumseh's lone winner. Wrestling at [illegible] won [illegible] matches with a pin and 16-sided decisions of 14-0 and 13-0.

Dan Rapin nearly gave Tecumseh a second winner, losing in the finals of the 112-pound bracket in an overtime decision.

Three Indian wrestlers also gained second place finishes. Dan Yoder at 119 pounds, Tim Eggleston, 167, and Don Heistant, heavyweight division, all were in runner-up positions.

Dan Tilton took a third.

Drop Second

CLINTON — The Clinton JV Redskins dropped their second basketball game to the Dutchmen of Manchester by the score of 77-64.

Tim Sharpe led all scorers with 17 points.

Dave Tallman converted 11 points and Phil Martiny made 10 points.

Clinton was cold from the floor, only hitting 32 percent compared to Manchester's 51 percent.

Tories Top Summerfield

Britton, loser to Summerfield earlier in the season, bounced back Friday night to win 63-56.

The Tories, paced by Dan Exelby's 22 points, jumped off to a 31-25 half time lead, but saw that margin slip away in the third period when Summerfield tallied 20 points to Britton's 14.

Other top performances for the winners were Mike Saxton with 17 points and Jim Cradit with 13.

B&E, Vandals Close School

A breaking and entering, probably Sunday afternoon, followed by malicious destruction of property closed Herrick Park elementary school Monday.

Main hallways were cluttered with contents from students' lockers, two offices, teacher's lounge and two classrooms that were vandalized.

Discovery was made shortly after 1 a.m. Monday by a deliveryman of milk to the school.

Entry was gained by breaking out a window in the gym and then reaching through and opening a door. The party, probably three, then apparently went through a desk in the kindergarten room.

Later, they ransacked the office of Lois Fleming, principal; her secretary's office of Mrs. Wallace MacGeorge, the teachers' lounge and two classrooms.

Mrs. Otto Bufe's sixth grade classroom received the brunt of the vandalism. Not only were records and other papers scattered and thrown about the room, but several instruments, owned by students, were badly damaged.

One clarinet was simply broken into and left on the floor. A snare drum apparently was the object of a well placed foot.

In Mrs. Jerry Heath's fifth grade classroom, records and papers also were strewn about, a drum stick was stuck through a snare drum and a skeleton from an animal display in the room was extensively damaged. Paint was smeared on blackboards.

Practically every locker belonging to students had been opened, and in many cases, contents dumped into the hallway. A bottle of black ink also was smashed and puddles of water undoubtedly came from a fire extinguisher which was left upright in the hall.

In the teachers' lounge, a typewriter had been dumped on the floor, ruining the machine, and a coffee machine, ripped open, is probably beyond repair.

Desks and cabinets had been ransacked and records scattered in the two main offices. Small objects, such as jars, terrarium, and like were broken or dumped on floors.

Three small cartons of milk had been drunk and discarded, and a gym bag filled with approximately 12 cartons of milk was left near a door. A clock in the gym had been unplugged and a damaged clock in the teachers' lounge indicates the breaking and entering occurred shortly after 4:00 Sunday afternoon.

Actual loss has yet to be determined but items missing from the school include four cassette unit players, four cassette headsets, three electric adapter plugs for the cassettes, seven cassette tapes, an American flag, radio and a small amount of cash, estimated between $15 and $20.

Teachers reported to work Monday and pitched in to clean up the mess. Classes were resumed Tuesday.

Road Construction Agreement Reached

A tentative agreement was reached in the reconstruction of Clinton-Macon Road in Circuit Court Tuesday with Judge Kenneth Glaser presiding.

Pending no further delays, three miles of the road from the Clinton-Macon Township line to Britton Highway will be gravel standard for 1975. Resurfacing is set for 1976.

Only 30 trees are specified for removal of the some 250 that now exist in the right of way. Some easements are necessary, said attorney James Sheridan, for the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs include about eight families, some affiliated with the Macon Preservation Society, a group interested in preserving the environmental and aesthetic nature of the area.

In 1973, the plaintiffs filed a complaint against the Road Commission who planned to cut several sizeable trees to finish the road.

An injunction prohibiting the cutting of trees was issued and virtually halted all work on the road.

This agreement apparently meets the satisfaction of all concerned with the case.

"No one won or lost in this case," said attorney Sheridan. "A great deal of time and detail went into it a lot of common sense. The solution is a practical one. A quality road can be built and the environmental quality of the area can be preserved."

The case will remain open until April 1 to allow other residents a chance to object to the plan, which has been filed with the county clerk.

Larceny Losses Top $700

Three larcenies and a stolen automobile were investigated by Tecumseh police since Friday with estimated losses over $700.

Early last Friday morning, a breaking and entering occurred at McCarty's Market but only known loss being a case of beer and pack of cigars. A window was broken out to gain entry.

Sometime between 3 a.m. and 4 a.m. a window at Wolf's Appliances was kicked out and two pieces of radio-stereo equipment were taken. Estimated loss is $329.

Monday, Lois Wilson, 401 Cairns St., reported a vacuum cleaner, bathroom articles and her purse taken from her car in the post office parking lot. Value was set at $400, including $86 in her purse.

Also Monday, Mrs. Gerald Fox, Tipton, reported her car stolen from the Tecumseh High School parking lot. The car was recovered Tuesday evening, off Dillingham Dr. in a field, with some damage to the front end.

MARATHON BARGAINING FAILS

Products, Union Board Resume Negotiations

It was back to the bargaining table Wednesday morning for the Union Board and Tecumseh Products Company after marathon negotiating sessions last week failed to settle the strike at the local plant.

Federal mediator Harry Weber, of Toledo, called the two parties back for further bargaining at 10 a.m.

The strike is nearly 16 weeks old, or almost three and a half months. Last week there was optimism that a settlement would be reached. The Company and Union met for 36 hours with some differences resolved.

According to a Union release, the contract expiration date has been changed from Nov. 15 to the date that workers return to work. Also, an additional penny in wages was given in the second and third year of the contract.

Differences not settled, as indicated in the Union Board's release, include cost of living, holiday pay for sick leave employees, past pension credits and "30 and out" plan.

The Company has asked the Union Board to take "this revised package back to the membership for a vote by secret ballot." The Union Board apparently rejected this request, and in its statement, said:

"The membership made it clear at the Feb. 3rd meeting, not to bring it back to the membership for a ballot vote until more progress or movement has been made by the Company than has been shown so far."

At that meeting held at Tecumseh High School, the Union membership by a voice vote overwhelmingly rejected the Company's offer.

A statement from the Company points out concessions made last week in what it considered major differences. It cites resolvement in language, new contract date, revision of holiday schedule, modifications relative to pension plan and increased wages.

The Company feels the revised package offer deserves a ballot vote from the membership.

COMPANY STATEMENT

Ballot Vote Is Requested after Concessions Made

As a result of the marathon meeting which was adjourned by the Federal and State Mediators, the Company made concessions in what it thought to be the major problem areas. This was done in an attempt to resolve the strike and put an end to the work stoppage that is affecting the employees, the community, the Company and our customers.

Contrary to the Union statement, valuable time was diligently spent meeting in separate sessions with the mediators, and time was also spent in joint session trying to solve the problems that exist between the parties.

The primary differences in language that existed prior to the meeting were resolved.

The Company proposed a new termination date which would be the date of settlement of the new contract.

The holiday schedule was revised to correspond to the new contract termination date.

A modification was made by the Company relating to future credited service for eligibility in the pension plan, and the Company offered increased wages during the term of the contract.

At the conclusion of the marathon meeting and while in joint session, the Company respectfully requested that the Union Bargaining Committee take the Company's completely revised offer of settlement to the membership for a secret ballot.

The Company feels the revised offer justifiably deserves a presentation to the employees and a vote by secret ballot by the people who have a stake in the future of the community and the Company.

Victim Worsens, Then Improves

Eddy Clark, beaten victim of an armed robbery attempt at Jerry's Market on Feb. 11, has been returned to the intensive care unit at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

The 72-year-old former Tecumseh businessman slipped into a coma last week and was considered in critical condition for several days. Latest report indicates he has regained consciousness and is improved.

Clark was reportedly beaten about the head with a club by a juvenile, who was accompanied by two other juveniles and 19-year-old Mark Raymond of Tipton. Raymond, only one of the four held in custody, demanded an examination last week and is scheduled for a court appearance Thursday.

Truck, Trailer Tab Deadline Is Feb. 28th

Friday is the last day for owners of trucks and trailers to get their 1975 license tabs at the Tecumseh Secretary of State office.

Ernest Oliver says auto owners have until the last day in March to obtain their tabs. His office is open from 9:00 to 5:00, Monday through Friday, and is closed on Saturdays.

Car owners are reminded that 1975 tabs go in the lower left corner of the license plate and not over the '74 sticker.

Seniors Have Hot Dog Day

Hot Dog Day for Seniors will be offered as a new program for older citizens at the Community Center by the Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Department. A generous donation by the American Legion Post will defray costs.

This Hot Dog day will begin in march. It will be offered twice a month, once on Wednesday and once on Thursday, with dates to be announced.

SNO-MO-CHUTING — Residents along Russell Road had a look at a new sport. Craig VanCamp, Dave Ward, Rick Graf, and Gary Easton decided to strap a parachute on their back and be pulled by a snowmobile via 100 foot rope. Did it work? It sure did. They were air bound in about 30 feet and 50 to 75 feet off the ground. (Photos by Cortland Hunt)

Newsstand Opening March 5th

Mr. and Mrs. James Lenz are opening the newest business in the city, the Tecumseh Newstand at 114 N. Pearl St., formerly occupied by Bob Goedert.

With their sons, Dale, 12, Jeffery, 10 and Brian, 8, the Lenz's expect to open the newsstand on March 5 with hours to accommodate most customers.

"We want to especially welcome the kids at noon, but we do expect them to be orderly," Mrs. Lenz remarked.

Besides newspapers, paperbacks and magazines, the store will also handle tobacco, candy and popcorn; no obscene magazines, the couple said.

James Lenz is a carpenter for Krieghoff and will continue in their employ. His wife, Barbara, has worked as a secretary at Tecumseh Products and Stauffer Chemical.

The boys have already had some experience handling a newstand in Carl Lamb's Pharmacy. He is their grandfather.

Their other grandfather is Elmer Schultz, owner of Al's Farm Market. Mrs. Lenz often helps her father with the produce, but this is the first that the Lenz's have ventured on a business of their own.

You Told Us

Friends of Mrs. Frank Nyland will want to remember her day March 7 with a card we are sure. Wonder if the President will send the usual greeting for the country's centurians? Whoever handles such things for the president made a boo-boo last year and Mrs. Nyland promptly ripped the greeting to pieces.

An avid Republican, she wasn't going to add to his fallacies by letting Mr. Nixon's card go any further. She said she wasn't 100 yet anyway.

[illegible] Bathbun, a recent returnee to the old home town, brought the news of the centurian and it was pleasant to visit with her, too. She has lived in the East for a long time.

ROAST PORK FOR UNION MEMBERS — Manuel Davila, left, brought his huge handmade rotisserie to the United Products Workers Union Hall Monday when a 160 pound hog, raised by Union member Charlie Erie of Petersburg, was put on the spit and roasted all night by Davila, Mike Gomez on the right and Harrell Brown. Al Thomas, Frank Marsh, Mel South, Jan Ery and others served up the pork to nearly 250 members with potato salad, tossed salad, baked beans, Spanish rice, gelatin and green beans. Ten Are Honored

Ten past presidents of the Tecumseh Business and Professional Women's Club were honored at the February meeting of the Club, Monday evening in First Baptist Church.

Those present were Naomi Sallows, Cecile Smith, Mabel Lockwood, Lela Colson, Ethel Hammack, Myrna Tingley, Josephine Wegner, Ella Mary King, Gerry Pobuda and Janet Robinson.

An original tribute in prose was given the honored guests by President Betty Flanders. A candlelight service, accompanied by the prayer of St. Francis, was given by Mrs. Cecile Smith for deceased past presidents.

Dinner was prepared by the ladies of the Church and served by members of the Baptist Youth Group.

A nominating committee was appointed by Mrs. Flanders composed of Mrs. Sallows, Mrs. Herbert Dillon and Mrs. Robert King.

A report on the recent meeting of the Federation of Women's Clubs was given by Mrs. Cecile Smith. She advised members to bring Betty Crocker coupons and old eye glasses to the annual meeting April 9 in Tecumseh.

The Health and Welfare Department of the Federation requests layette items. Mrs. Katherine Redman will receive them from local members.

Mrs. Carol Nelson was named chairwoman of a newly formed committee who will write letters of protest of prices in the consumer's market.

Helen Bendes, program chairwoman, presented Lisa Baker, a piano student, who played the selection, "Pastorale" by Dominico Scarlatti. Miss Baker will join a group of musical students who will tour Europe this summer.

Miss Bendes accompanied the members in a sing-a-long beginning with songs of the 1930's up to the present time. She narrated important events occurring in each decade.

The floral centerpiece, topped with a gavel, on the past president's table was won by Mrs. Homer Colson.

Next meeting, March 10, will be a visit to Adrian College for a Don Cooper travelogue.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

A deer adopted Herrick Park subdivision Saturday afternoon and literally bumped into a couple of friends along the way.

Mrs. Tom Phelps reported that her 15 year old son, Stuart, was shoveling the driveway when the deer dashed about two feet in front of the teenager. Stuart said that he had never been closer to a deer in all his life.

The Herrick Park deer then ran into Allie Luckhart's picture window but did not break it; he stood back, a little dazed, and then ran off into the woods for another adventure.

Esch to Speak

Congressman Marvin Esch, Ann Arbor, will be principal speaker at the annual Lincoln Day dinner of the Lenawee County Republican Committee, March 14, at Adrian College.

The Republican executive committee adopted a six-point work goal program to concentrate on during the next 18 months in preparation for the 1976 elections.

Executive committee also elected DJ Mitchell, Adrian based advertising and public relations firm owner, as chairman of the county communications committee.

Revival

Youth revival begins at the Tecumseh Lower Light Church Saturday, March 1 to March 9 at 7:30 p.m. each night. The evangelist is Ronald Baughey. All youth are welcome to attend.

Accidents

Despite icy streets during the past week, only six accidents occurred and just one was directly due to slippery street conditions.

A resume is:

Feb. 21 - Meredith A. Green, Onsted, struck Gerry E. Greene, 500 Outer Dr., while he was northbound on N. Pearl St. Mrs. Green was leaving a parking lot.

Feb. 21 - Michael Jurkowski, 62, of 211 E. Pottawatamie, was cited for disregarding a red traffic light at the intersection of Chicago Blvd. and Evans St. He collided with Marvin O. Lipp, 57, of Clinton.

Feb. 22 - June L. Day, 809 Russell Rd., was sideswiped while attempting a turn into a private drive. She was hit by Dee Akright, Coldwater, who continued on to strike a mail box and garbage can.

Feb. 23 - Charles Stevens, 513 S. Occidental, reported his car damaged while parked on S. Occidental Rd. Other driver is unknown.

Feb. 24 - Orville Rose, 26, of 805 Murray and Douglas F. Nelson, 29, of 406 Seneca, bumped on Adrian St. as Rose was attempting a turn.

Feb. 25 - Carl L. Lagore, 27, of 1104 Sunset Dr., told police he slid on icy N. Ottawa St. and struck a guard rail.

AN INTERESTING FAMILY

Cormie, the double-crested cormorant who was the subject of last week's article, had more tricks than I realized. Actually today I had scheduled another bird but things changed quickly. However, the last column signed, sealed and delivered to the postman than all sorts of excitement erupted in the middle of the lake. What in the world? Water was flying everyplace. In the midst of the boiling fountain was something dark thrashing about.

I quickly called Mom and Dad but they were outside checking the sunshine on the patio. Fortunately my view was unobstructed. A double-crested cormorant was circling about three times tree-top height over the lake. He was not flying fast but showed no signs of landing either. After the second circle he changed course and headed toward the Gulf.

Just as soon as the bird changed course, the "eruption" in the middle of the lake ceased. There was Cormie. He settled his wings back in place, shook his long-billed head and settled himself as if nothing unusual had happened.

I can only guess but could Cormie have been trying to invite the other bird down to his lake? All the books comment on the ludicrous performance of the male double-crested as he tries to impress a female. He beats the water with his wings, this is about the nicest way it is described.

Well, Cormie was certainly thrashing his wings about and causing a great commotion. We know he is a young bird because of the light color of his throat and perhaps, his courting technique needs a bit more polishing. Or maybe the other bird just wasn't in the mood. Or perhaps I interpert the whole performance wrong. Anyway it was quite a show and I am sorry the folks missed it.

While carefully checking the bird books for a possible explanation of Cormie's behavior I found that this is indeed an interesting family. Cormorants are found world-wide wherever there is water and, of course, different members of the clan favor certain localities.

Perhaps the most famous of all the cormorants are those of the Orient. For hundreds and hundreds of years the fishermen of Japan, China and India have domesticated cormorants. They use long leashes and outfit each bird with a collar which prevents him from swallowing his catch. When the bird has a full catch of fish in his throat and mouth the handler hauls him to the boat, and then 'relieves' him of his catch and tosses him overboard for another try. Sort of a dirty trick.

Another branch of the family has been the main-stay of Peru's economy since early in the last century. Off the coast of this South American country are islands, which for untold years, have been used by the cormorants as breeding grounds. Their droppings accumulated until it was estimated that at one time they "lay 150 feet deep."

The "National Geographic" book of "Water, Prey and Game Birds" further states that when this guano became big business, man's greed asserted itself with the usual results. The fertilizer was mined so extensively and thoughtlessly that the birds' breeding cycle was violated.

Fortunately the Peruvian government saw what was happening and stepped in with stringent regulations. It seems assured that there will be a continuing supply of fertilizer and a safe family-rearing area for future generations of cormorants.

As so often happens the ancient people were very conservation-minded. The Incas protected the cormorant with a death penalty for invasion of the breeding area.

But 'modern man' is not all wrong. The famed bird-man, Robert Cushman Murphy, considered the guanay cormorants the worlds' most valuable wild birds. And actually most people now recognize the value of all the cormorants.

They are expert fishermen but usually take only trash fish, the kind of no value to either the commercial fisherman or sportsman. Their culling leaves room for the expansion of the more desirable fish population and their mineral rich fertilizer aids the growth of the acquatic plants which are so important in the chain-of-life sequence.

So it is that plans changed abruptedly but who cares — because of Cormie's peculiar performance I was led to a more detailed reading of the bird books and thus found that our double-crested cormorant is a member of a large and interesting family....

Ivan W. Gorr, corporate controller of Cooper Tire & Rubber Company, Findlay, Ohio, has been elected to the firm's board of directors. Prior to joining Cooper in 1972, he gained broad accounting, financial, and managerial experience as an audit principal with the accounting firm of Arthur Young & Company, Toledo, Ohio for 18 years. At that time, he serviced several accounts in the Tecumseh area.

Mini Courses Scheduled

Kathy Kelso and Paul Cunningham have scheduled mini courses at Tecumseh High School to be conducted in April in lieu of three days of academic courses.

The regular instructors, principals and guidance counselors will present the 30 some courses with each student taking subjects of his choice, strictly non-academic.

Included will be horse back riding, candlemaking, life saving, art appreciation, real estate and many more said to help in career making.

15 YEARS AT GM — Harold L. Roback, left, was honored recently by William J. Polk, plant manager, right, and other plant and union officials on his retirement from Fisher Tecumseh. Roback began his career as a millwright at Fisher Ypsilanti and in 1966 was hired at Fisher Tecumseh. He was instrumental in development of the local plant's Union Apprentice Committee. He served as its chairman since it started here. He is the first Fisher Tecumseh hourly-rate employe to retire from the local plant under the GM-UAW pension plan. He and Mrs. Roback reside in Weston.

What's Up at THS

By GWEN VAVRINEK

After a recent teacher's meeting last week, it was decided that there would be stricter enforcement on the swearing policy at THS.

Until presently, there was a rule against swearing in school, but few students obeyed it and little enforcement action was taken. Now, students caught swearing will be reported to the administration to be punished accordingly.

Several juniors at the high school are continuint to rehearse their upcoming play, "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown." The play, directed by J.S. Pinsky, includes six cast members who are Matt Binder, Char Rentschler, Val Egli, Bill Viers, Richard Yerebeck and Bob Miller.

Performances for the public will be held March 20, 21, and 22 at 8 p.m.

The new student identification cards for THS students were recently received. These I.D. cards can be used at school activities such as games and dances. Students also must carry them at all times during school.

Guest Speaker Heard

Mrs. Carlton Cook was the guest speaker for the Kiwanis Club breakfast meeting Tuesday.

Introduced by Carl Lamb, program chairman, she spoke relative to the proposed senior citizen housing.

As past secretary and member of the City Planning Commission, now taking graduate courses in landscaping at University of Michigan, Mrs. Cook said that some thoughts for consideration by the Club might be central location to provide availability to shopping and civic activities and recreational facilities with a balance of the landscape aspect.

Mrs. Cook said that there is a need for a close working relationship of all units of government, local, state and federal since the project would involve all of them, at least in the area of financing.

Four members, President Ed Gilson, Bill Feight, Don Partridge and Dr. Robert Murray, will represent the Kiwanis Club Wednesday at the District 8 meeting at Siena Heights.

Little Garden Club Holds Meeting

The Little Garden Club held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Furry.

Mrs. James Randall was welcomed as new member.

Mrs. Judson Miles reported that the nursery has acknowledged the tree order 230 trees to arrive this spring.

Mrs. Owen Merrill and Mrs. Hal Weakly will represent the group and place an arrangement at Hudson's in Briarwood for a show which will be open to the public March 20, 21, 22.

Mrs. Hal Weakly and Mrs. Carlton Cook presented "Abstract Designs." A workshop followed the discussion.

Mrs. Laszlo Gero and Mrs. Carson House were assistant hostesses.

Indians, Skins, Tories, Bombed in Districts

Jackson 67 Tecumseh 49

By FRANK WEIR

BROOKLYN — After playing a determined first quarter and half of the second, the Indian cage squad just couldn't overcome a tough Jackson Lumen Christi team rated third among Class B [illegible]. Final tally in the first and last round of district competition for the Indians was 67-49. The action took place Tuesday night at Columbia Central high school.

The loss ends Tecumseh's basketball season and dropped their overall record to 11-10.

At the beginning of the contest, it looked like the Indians had upset on their minds. Although the Titans scored first, Tecumseh's starting five fought to a 6-2 advantage. Jackson soon caught up but the Indians continued to keep the game within reach. The quarter ended with Jackson taking the lead 16-11.

In the second quarter, the Indians continued to battle gallantly paring Jackson's lead to just 24-21 midway through the quarter. But suddenly Tecumseh grew cold while Jackson came alive with the scoreboard showing a 34-24 Indian deficit at the half.

The third stanza was a virtual disaster for Tecumseh. They could find the hoop only three of 17 times from the field and that sealed their fate. Jackson grabbed 16 points in the frame while the Indians could only manage seven.

In the final frame the Indians grabbed 16 points to Jackson's 15.

Tecumseh could manage only a 29.2 shooting percentage connecting on 17 of 58 shots from the field and 15 of 30 from the charity line. Jackson hit 31 of 66 from the field for an impressive 53 percent. Jackson had only nine foul shots and they dropped five of that number.

The Indians were clearly outrebounded by Jackson 40-23 and that definitely hurt their game. Jackson suffered 15 turnovers to Tecumseh's 13.

Coach Ron Spagnoli said after the contest, "The game was still close in the second quarter, we made a good effort. But Jackson is a good ball club. They were stronger on the boards. We were really cold in the third quarter and that hurt us. We couldn't score so we could get into our press."

Tecumseh 11 13 7 18—49
Jackson 16 18 18 15—67

Tecumseh: Burns 0-2-2; Biscupski 2-4-8; Hughes 6-2-14; Lisenbee 4-3-11; Sisson 0-3-3; Schafer 4-1-9; Vaughn 1-0-2. Totals 17-15-49.

Lumen Christi: Slack 7-2-16; Driscoll 5-1-11; Konopka 7-0-14; Odowd 2-0-4; OConnell 5-0-10; Holda 4-1-9; Harris 1-1-3. Totals 31-5-67.

Blissfield 78 Clinton 47

CLINTON--The Redskins found themselves overwhelmed in district competition Tuesday night losing to the Blissfield Royals 78-47. The loss caps off a winless season for the Clinton squad.

The Royals came out hot in the very first quarter giving the scoreboard a workout with 26 markers. Clinton had the scoring opportunities in that first frame but could come up with only seven points.

The second stanza was more even with the Skins totaling 11 points to Blissfield's 12. In the third quarter Clinton earned 15 points to the Royal's 16.

The Royals were hot again in the fourth grabbing 24 points to Clinton's 14.

Blissfield connected on 33 of 55 for an excellent 60 percent from the field and that says it all. From the line, the Royals dumped 12 of 18 for 67 percent. Clinton hit on 18 of 63 from the field for 29 percent and 11 of 30 from the charity stripe for 37 percent.

The Royals outrebounded the Skins 39-30 and suffered 18 turnovers to Clinton's 13.

Redksin coach Dave Arnold commented, "They were a big, strong team with a height advantage inside and their shooting put the game away. We couldn't connect from the outside at all. We had a flat night, not the kind you want in a district game."

St. Thomas 76 Britton 55

MADISON--The Britton Tories fell to tough Ann Arbor St. Thomas in Class D district competition Tuesday night 76-55.

The Tories gave them a tough fight allowing only a five point 20-15 deficit at the end of the first quarter. In the second frame, St. Thomas picked up 26 points to the Tories' 18.

The game was still within reach of the Tories at the end of the third stanza with St. Thomas holding only a nine point advantage 55-47. But Britton grew cold in the finale getting only eight markers to St. Thomas' 21 points.

Britton dropped 22 of 55 from the field for 40 percent and 11 of 22 from the line. St. Thomas outrebounded the Tory five 39-29 while turning the ball over 17 times to Britton's 16 times.

The loss gives Britton an 8-12 overall record for the season.

Coach Jim Sweigart commented after the contest, "The game wasn't as lopsided as the score would indicate. St. Thomas was red hot from the field in the first half."

Ninth Grade Cagers

The Clinton ninth grade basketball team has finished its finest season with an 11—3 record.

The Redskins finished in second place behind Hudson in the LCAA.

Taking a look at the season, Clinton defeated each team in the league at least once and defeated four of them twice.

The biggest winning margin was against Sand Creek, 58—23 and the closest game was a come- from- behind two point victory over Hudson. Clinton also had an eight game winning streak and was undefeated at home.

Individual highlights of the season included Bob Santure scoring 23 points in one game and Wally Pike and Richard Brown each scoring 16 points. Jeff Voorhees held the spot for most rebounds in a single game with 17.

The best freethrow shooter was Mike Reisner who connected on 20 of 32 for 63 percent and the best fieldgoal shooters were Bob Santure who connected on 75 of 176 for 43 percent and Mike Reisner who connected on 37 of 87 for 43 percent.

Bob Santure was top scorer for the season with 185 points. He also led in total rebounds with 174 followed by Jeff Voorhees with 130.

Other players who saw action were Terry Keith, Dave Gibbard, Bill Willis, Gary Henry, Rick SMith, Dennis Venia, Bill Zimmerman, Lee Spencer, Tracy Pratt, Bob Mastle and Ernie Lutz.

Indian JV'S Triumph

Tecumseh's junior varsity cage squad finished up their season Friday night with a 60-48 win over New Boston Huron.

The victory gave the Indians a 15-5 season.

Top scorer for Tecumseh was Scott Macbeth with 12 points followed closely by Dan Dranginis and Dave Bohannon.

Each player scored at least two points in the game.

Skin VB Squad Loses

Clinton's varsity and junior varsity volleyball squads finished out their first season in LCAA competition with a loss to Britton last week. Final season record stood at 3—7.

Players on the varsity team were Kim Porterfield, Laura Markham, Ruth King, Karen Busch, Sherrie Miller, Linda King, Sandy Simpson and Joci Faulhaber.

Track Results

The Clinton winter track club sponsored the first annual Polar Bear Run recently.

The top three winners in each of the four divisions were as follows: seventh and eighth grade boys one mile run, Casey Thilo, Scott Thilo and Devin Schindler; girls one mile, Sue Richter, Lori Pike and Bonnie Cobb; ninth and tenth grade boys two mile run, Jerry Cline, Wally Pike and Tracey Pratt; eleventh and twelth grade boys two mile run, Dan Schindler, Jim Klanke and Dave Steinmetz.

Matmen Succeed

The Clinton wrestling team flexed its muscle at parents night last week and defeated Jonesville 53—8.

The Comets remain winless while the Redskins finished their dual meet season with a 6—8 record.

Clinton won nine, tied one and lost only two matches in its last victory. The Skins recorded four falls and four forfeits while amassing their highest point total of the year.

A summary by weight classes: 98, Chris Wojtowicz (C) won by forfeit; 105, Brian Porterfield (C) won by forfeit; 112, Brad Bowman (C) won by forfeit; 119, Ron Henrich (C) won by forfeit; 126, Dan Doherty dec. New Class

The Tecumseh Recreation Department is interested in starting a new class in the art of stained glass. This class will offer instruction in glass cutting, lamp shade and leading and all forms of this craft.

Class will start Thursday, March 13, and will continue for eight weeks. Registration is $10 and does not include materials. Pre-registration is required and class must have at least 12 students.

The Recreation Department has had inquiries about starting chess and checkers clubs. The department is very interested in doing this, however it must have at least enough members to start, plus someone who is willing to volunteer to help teach these games. Please contact the Recreation Department.

Also, there has been some interest in organizing a Model Airplane Club, anyone that is interested in this should contact the Recreation Department. Contact the Recreation Department at 423-5602 daily, Monday through Friday.

Skins Are Winless

CLINTON — With the end of their regular season, Clinton's hopes for a cage win have been dashed.

3 Matmen Advance

CHARLOTTE — Indian matmen traveled to Charlotte last Saturday to participate in Class B district competition.

The team placed 10th out of 18 teams with 11 points. Top winner was Eaton Rapids with 22½ points.

Three of Tecumseh's wrestlers will go to regional competition this Saturday at Sturgis. They are, Don Rapin at 105 pounds, Jim Shough at 132 and heavyweight Don Heistand.

Each wrestler participated in two matches. Rapin won his first with a pin at 1:34 and his second by decision 5-2. Shough also won his first match with a pin at 3:10. He won by decision in the second match 4-2. Heistand won both his matches with pins at :58 and 2:14 respectively.

Head coach Pat Connors, was pleased with the outcome. "Ten of our 12 wrestlers are first year varsity participants and experience is a big factor (in tournament competition). The three boys who are going to regional competition are all seniors and I'm happy about that since this is their last chance in the tournaments."

Slo-Pitch Organizes

Nothing is more dreary than a cold, snowy week in the middle of the flu season, right?

Well take heart sports fans and think SUMMER!

In keeping with that attitude, Tecumseh's Department of Parks and Recreation recently announced that slo—pitch softball leagues are now being organized.

The format will be the same as last year with three leagues of six teams each. Those teams from last year have first priority to enter.

A team has the first priority to enter if it has the same sponsor - or a new sponsor - with nine or more players from the official 16 players roster from last year.

The Skins went down in defeat at the hands of the Hudson Tigers Friday night. Final tally stood at 76-66 and the loss leaves Clinton with a winless 0-14 league record.

The Skins had trouble getting started in the first frame scoring a meager 11 points to Hudson's 23. They put it together in the second quarter grabbing 21 points to the Tigers' 18.

Clinton slipped again in the third stanza dropping it 18-14 but took the fourth 20-17. Try as they might, the Skins just couldn't make up that first quarter deficit.

Clinton hit 27 of 65 attempts from the floor for 42 percent add 12 of 14 from the line. The Tigers connected on 35 of 73 from the floor for 48 percent and six of 15 from the line. The Redskins turned the ball over 16 times to Hudson's 10 times.

Wendel Corwin and Barry Clark each scored 12 points followed by Mark Carlton and John Ruhl each with 10 points for the Skins.

Clinton out-rebounded Hudson 34-30.

Hudson: Luma 8-1-17; Garr 3-0-6; Salamin 8-2-18; Mullaly 3-0-6; Hackett 3-0-6; Barrett 2-3-7; M. Hackett 8-0-16; Totals 35-6-76.

Indians Down Chiefs, Finish in Third Place

Tecumseh's Indian cage squad finished out their regular season in fine form Friday night by beating New Boston Huron 71-55. The victory boosts the Indian's league record to 9-5 and that tally ties them up with Grosse Ile for third place in the Huron League.

Tecumseh demolished the Chief in the second frame with a 21-8 scoring margin after an equally successfull 18-11 first quarter showing. The Indians took the third quarter as well 18-17 but dropped the final stanza 19-14.

The Indians had no trouble finding the hoop connecting on 32 of 62 attempts from the floor for 51.6 percent and 7 of [illegible] from the line. Huron could muster a shooting percentage of only 30.2 with 19 of 63 from the floor and 17 of 30 from the line.

Bruce Hughes was tops for Tecumseh with 18 points followed by Brad Sisson and Ken Biscupski each with 11 points.

The Indian JV squad was also victorious 74-48.

Tories Lose

BRITTON — The Tories dropped one to Deerfield 60-55 in cage action Friday night. The loss leaves Britton with an 8-11 overall record as they finish their regular session.

Britton took the first stanza 16-13 but allowed the Minutemen to tie up the game at the half 27-27. A poor third quarter showing by Britton gave Deerfield the chance to pull ahead. The minutemen picked up 17 points in that frame to Britton's 11. In the final stanza, the Tories grabbed 17 points to Deerfield's 16.

Britton connected on 25 of 63 attempts from the field for 39.5 percent and 5 of 7 from the line for 71.4 percent. For their part, the Minutemen dumped 22 of 57 for 38.5 percent from the field and 16 of 22 from the line for 72.7 percent.

Deerfield outrebounded the Tories 40-31 and committed 19 turnovers to Britton's 14.

Britton's JV squad won theirs, 54-38.

Mike Saxton was top scorer for the Tories with 21 points followed by Dan Exelby with 14 and Mike Servoss with 10.

2 Advance

Clinton's wrestling squad traveled to Pontiac last Friday to compete in the Class C district tournament. Two members of the team will advance to regional competition this Saturday at Williamston.

The two seniors are Al Eveleth at 138 pounds and Steve Halchishak at 145.

As a team, Clinton finished 10th out of 13 teams at the tournament.

Winter Track

The Clinton winter track club participated in the third annual Jackson Community College High School track meet Friday night.

The club competed against Class A and B schools.

The mile relay team of Jerry Cline, Jim Klanke, Ron Duda and Keith Pernie placed fifth.

Freshman Jerry Cline was sixth in the 600 yard run.

Bob Mende put in his best performance ever hitting 42 feet in the shot put.

Other participants included: Dan Schindler, two mile run; Jeff Bean, 50 yard high and low hurdles; Dave Steinmetz, one mile run; John Juenmick, 600 yard run; Ed Erickson, 50 yard and 300 yard dash; Ron Duda, 440 yard run; Keith Pernie, 440 yard run; Jim Klanke, 50 yard dash.

Hockey Results

Tecumseh's Recreation Department's Tomahawk youth hockey teams skated to two victories and one defeat this past weekend.

In the first game played Saturday, the Tomahawk PeeWees outplayed Mid—State Salvage North Stars 6—1.

Goals for the local PeeWees were made by Wendell West—one goal and one assist; Scotty Johnson—one goal; Mark VanBuren— one goal and one assist.

Tim Eardley received his second hat trick of the season with three goals and one assist.

Other assists go to Tom Hamilton, Jeff Meyers and Todd Bakewell all with one each. The Tomahawk PeeWees are sponsored by Raynor Snyder Reality of Adrian.

In the second game, Hammil Mfg. Mites skated to a 2—1 victory over the Dave White Chevrolet sponsored Tomahawk squad. Andy Davis made the lone goal for the Tecumseh Tomahawks.

In the lone game played Sunday afternoon the league leading Tomahawk Bantams, sponsored by Tecumseh Products, kept their victory string intact as they outskated the Bliem Steel North Stars 5-1.

Randy Vance received his first hat trick of the season as he accounted for three goals.

Other goals and assists go to, Dave Perry, one goal; Bob Simpson, one goal; Steve Gibbs, two assists; Tim Kirby, one assist; Dave Ballish and Steve Hites both scored one assist.

The Bantam's record is now 11—2—1 for the season which only has four games remaining.

CLINTON — Middle School students are preparing a production of a fairy tale "Sunshine for the Queen" under the direction of Mrs. Pat Schneider and Mrs. Donald Geiger.

Originally scheduled for the elementary school, plans are now for a showing one evening to parents and the public, and the Middle School students will also see the play.

Cast includes Queen, Lisa Gilbert; King, Phil King; Prince, John Bradley; Flower, Wendy Hunt; Liliana, Bimie Bowman; Astrologer, Devin Schindler; Magician, Gary Gibbard; flower vender, Della Ford; lackey, Lance Traves; maid, Carol Clark.

Rex Geiger will be technical director assisted by Bill VanTuyle and Bernie Hough. Kris Duda is properties chairman and Carolyn Hartung is in charge of makeup.

The play will be produced late February or the first of March. Date to be announced.

Memberships Growing Fast

CLINTON — Membership of the Clinton Historical Society continues to grow each month and the society continues to receive original photographs or copies of historical documents, for preservation by the Society.

One unusual item is a letter written by Civil War General Clinton B. Fisk, a friend of Abraham Lincoln.

Written the night before a Civil War battle, it was addressed to his mother, the late Mrs. Robert Powell of Bridgewater Township.

Gen. Fisk was a founder of Fisk University in Nashville, Tenn. He came to Clinton as a young boy with his parents in the early days of Clinton's settlement.

A geneology of the Fisk family was written by the Clinton Historical Society's president, Lawrence M. Bailey.

Next regular meeting of the Society is March 4 at 8 p.m. in the Community Center, Clinton. Visitors are welcome.

Students will be directed by Pat Schneider and Peg Geiger. Public is invited.

Katherine Hertler, Don Osgood Wed

Katherine Ann Hertler, daughter of Mrs. Harold Hertler, and Donald Lee Osgood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osgood of Morenci are living at 102 Litchfield St., following their marriage on Valentine's Day.

The Rev. George Geiger performed the ceremony in St. James United Church of Christ, Saline.

Pink carnations, purple iris and white snapdragons enhanced the altar.

On the arm of her brother, Delos Hertler, the bride wore full length gown of white crepe with an aqua pinafore, both trimmed with lace. They were designed and made by the bride assisted by Mrs. Russell Hushes.

She carried a colonial bouquet and a cluster of the same blooms secured her veil.

Elizabeth Dearing of Pontiac was maid of honor in cranberry crepe.

Robert Osgood, brother of the groom, was best man and guests were seated by John and Steve Dearing.

Mrs. Melvin Armbruster and Mrs. Leland Dicks, aunts of the bride and Mrs. Ronald Potoczak, sister of the bride, assisted with serving for the reception in the church.

A June 1974 graduate of Eastern Michigan University, the bride is employed by Adrian College.

Her husband spent three years in the United States Army and is employed by Pacific Finance in Wayne.

Rehearsal dinner was given by the parents of the couple in their home in Clinton.

Childrens Rights Heard by PTO

CLINTON — Sister Anthontia Porta, head teacher at Montressir Children's House, spoke on the "Rights of Children" at the Clinton Elementary PTO on Monday.

She emphasized parents must not have a double standard, one for themselves and one for their children. Guidance, patience, understanding, respect and good example are the guides she suggested for raising children.

"Reading Is Fundamental" program, RIF, was presented to the PTO by Max Steffens. RIF gives youngsters paperback books to help them start libraries and spark interest in reading books they like. RIF can be an inexpensive community program if interested people contact Mr. Steffens.

Dale Perry, PTO president announced that playground equipment has been purchased and has been delivered through the help of Harry Spencer. Parents are needed to help erect the new equipment when the ground thaws.

A muscleman apparatus was purchased for the main playground and balanced beam and swing gate for the kindergarten for over $1,000 total.

Each of 17 classrooms in the elementary building may spend $50 to purchase non-consumable material.

Margaret Bless invited parents to "Good Parenting" a new program offered Wednesdays March 12 through April 2, from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. For more information, the school may be contacted.

Nominating Committee for the 1975-76 PTO officers will be Joann Schrader, Joann Goodman, Neilia Wolf and Janice Cowby.

The April PTO meeting will feature the children in an art fair-talent show. Parents will be needed to help in this also.

PTO is selling Redskin Sweatshirts for adults and children.

Contest Nets $240

CLINTON—Total profit for the Clinton Jaycee Auxiliary was $240 from the Valentine Baby Picture Contest.

Area merchants who allowed a canister to be placed on their counters are thanked.

Parents who entered their babies are also thanked, especially the parents of Jason Earl Cook. Even thought their son's canister came up missing during the contest, they were kind enough to supply another picture to keep their son in the contest.

All parents who have not had pictures returned can contact Anita Nagel, 456-7886.

41 Attend Demonstration

Forty-one members and three guests, Mrs. Fred Gaulin, Mrs. Terry Lighthall and Mrs. David Robison, were present for the Easter candy making demonstration at the Feb. 20 meeting of Welcome Wagon Club.

Joy Felan and Sandy Titus made the candy and samples were served to the group.

Carol Rohrbacker demonstrated cake decorating on a two tiered cake, American style using decorator tips on the lower tier and Australian method, all hand molded, on the upper one.

The cake was served with refreshments.

Notice of Public Hearing

Notice is hereby given that the Village of Clinton will hold a public hearing on the proposed Facilities Plan for the purpose of receiving comments and views of interested individuals and groups. The hearing will be held at 7 p.m. March 18, 1975 at the Clinton High School auditorium located at 400 E. Michigan Avenue, Clinton, Michigan.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive comments on the facilities plan and the environmental impact of the proposed alternatives for treatment and disposing of wastewater generated in the Village of Clinton and adjacent areas in Clinton and Bridgewater Township. The alternatives include the use of activated sludge or rotating biological discs with discharge to the River Raisin and the use of spray irrigation for land disposal of the treated wastewater.

A copy of the report discussing alternate methods of treatment will be available for public inspection at the following addresses:

World Day of Prayer

The World Day of Prayer is Friday, March 7.

At this time, Tecumseh and area church people are invited to join millions of women around the globe in prayer for unity.

This day marks the 89th celebration of World Day of Prayer and will be observed in a thousand languages, and dialects by Protestant, Orthodox and Catholic Christians in 169 lands.

This year, World Day of Prayer will be held at St. Elizabeth Church, Tecumseh, at 1:30 p.m. Friday, March 7.

The worship sevice will be followed by a social hour at St. Elizabeth's Center.

The theme for 1975 is "Become Perfectly One," a search for the meaning of Christian unity in the broader context of a pluralistic society.

The worship service liturgy has been prepared by the Women's Ecumenical Prayer Fellowship of Egypt.

A working committee of seven women, Mrs. Cyril Desmet, St. Elizabeth; Mrs. Richard Egli, First Presbyterian; Mrs. Elmer Spreeman, chairwoman, St. Elizabeth; Mrs. Vern Manwaring, First Baptist; Mrs. Baaske, Gloria Dei Lutheran; Mrs. William Goodrich, United Methodist; Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, St. Peter's Episcopal; are organizing the day of prayer, representing an ecumenical effort.

World Day of Prayer provides an occasion for a nationwide offering which goes into a fund called "Intercontinental Mission." Church Women United carries forward its stewardship through annual grants to agencies around the world in these five major concerns; to educate women overseas; prepare and distribute Christian literature for women and children of Asia, Africa and Latin America; the American Indian youth; to minister among migrant workers; to support Christian ministry in national parks.

For further information call Mrs. Elmer Spreeman, chairwoman, 423-2741.

Palm Sunday Concert Planned

A Palm Sunday concert of great religious beauty to include top vocalists of area high schools is being planned at Siena Heights College by Dennis Kisor, director.

Kisor is asking music directors of each highschool to select a balanced quartet from among the school's vocal students for performance with Siena students of Faure's "Requiem."

The concert will be at 4 p.m. on Palm Sunday, March 23, at Lumen Chapel. There will be two Saturday afternoon rehearsals, Feb. 22 and March 8, plus the final dress rehearsal March 22.

Players Hold Tryouts at Center

Tecumseh Players will conduct tryouts March 24 and 25 in the Glass Room of the Community Center at 7:30 p.m. for the mystery comedy "Exit the Body."

There are parts to be filled for five men and five women, ages 20 to 60's.

Also lots of off-stage volunteers are needed.

For further information call Judy Crombez 423-7670.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Franklin Township Planning Commission will hold public meetings on Saturday February 22nd at 1:00 PM and Thursday February 27th at 8:00 PM at the Township Hall in Tipton, Michigan to answer all questions and clarify the new zoning ordinance, zoning map and land use plan which will be subject to referendum on March 6, 1974. Additional copies of the zoning ordinance may be obtained from the Township Clerk. You are urged to attend one of these meetings and become informed on this important matter.

Boy Scout Troop Holds Meeting

Tecumseh Herald
February 27, 1975
— page 7

James Erb, Mark McLaughlin and Mark Schiller were welcomed into Boy Scout Troop 272 during the Feb. 10 meeting in United Methodist Church.

The Court of Honor with investiture service was conducted by Scoutmaster John V. Deming and Scout Chris Sullivan and Jeff Dehring.

John Beardsley opened the parents night event leading scouts and guests in repeating the pledge of allegiance.

Chuck Sullivan led group singing and short skits were presented by patrols followed by a slide presentation of troop activities given by James Dehring.

Assistant Scoutmasters Dehring and Sullivan helped Scoutmaster Deming in the presentation of awards earned by troop members: Mark Hedley, tenderfoot pin and citizenship skill award; Jack Scheirer, second class pin; John Beardsley, second class pin and camping skill award; Gregory Aranda, tenderfoot pin and citizenship skill award; Chris Sullivan, first class pin and cooking, environment and conservation skill awards.

Troop committeeman Ed Walters presented merit badges to David Erb, stamp and coin collecting and rifle-shotgun; Gregg Forsthoefel, citizenship in the world; Mark Hedley, [illegible]; Jack Scheirer, first aid; Scott Stubbs, swimming; and, Chris Sullivan, citizenship in the community and personal fitness.

Scouts also receiving skill awards were: Lee Prettyman, citizenship, swimming and cooking; Chris Smith, swimming and Jeff Van Orsdol, first aid skill award.

Gregg Aranda was presented a one year service pin; Jack Scheirer, two year and Scoutmaster John Deming a six year pin.

In recognition of Chuck Sullivans' new leadership position as assistant Scoutmaster, Scoutmaster Deming presented him with his assistant Scoutmasters patch and welcomed him into the troop activity.

Mrs. Deming and Mrs. Dehring served refreshments.

Tax Freeze Gets No Support

An attempt to freeze the 1974 state equalized tax assessments for 1975 received no support from other commissioners last week and County Commissioner Raymond Jackson's, D-Tipton, motion was defeated, 14-1.

If it had been approved, the county commissioners would have requested the state legislature to freeze assessment on a statewide basis.

Jackson thought the freeze would relieve real estate owners in the current economic hardship.

He said it would not freeze county revenues since assessments would rise because of new construction and outside sources, such as federal revenue sharing.

One commissioner said high cost property sales are the reason for high assessments. Another said a freeze and other rising costs would necessitate a millage increase.

In other business, appointments were made.

Jackson was appointed to three positions, as Lenawee County's representative to the Southeastern Michigan Tourist Association (SEMTA), county library board to replace former Commissioner Oscar Hauch and county planning commission.

Commissioner Martin Halley, R-Tecumseh, was appointed to a term expiring in 1977, for the county airport authority.

Liaison representative appointments, named by the committee on committees, to seven boards are the following commissioners: health board, Lamb; planning commission, Trahu; airport, Hadden; veteran's affairs, Pilar Leon; library, Jackson; mental health, Nancy Nichols; and Michigan Township's Association, Gould.

Lieutenant Sends News

Navy Lieutenant William J. Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo B. Wallace of 8950 Carson, visited Mombasa, Kenya, on the east coast of Africa, as a member of Tactical Electronic Warfare Squadron 137.

He is embarked with the squadron aboard the nuclear-powered attack aircraft carrier USS Enterprise, on a deployment in the Indian Ocean.

Coffey is also scheduled to visit Singapore later this month.

He is a 1971 graduate of U.S. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, Calif., with a Master of Science degree.

The engagement of Kay Kitson to David Lay is announced by parents Mr. and Mrs Kenneth Kitson and Mr. and Mrs. Ogland Lay, both of Tecumseh. Mr. Lay is a 1973 graduate of Tecumseh High, a former student of Michigan Technological University, and is employed at Stauffer Chemical Co. Miss Kitson is a senior at Tecumseh High and is employed at the Herrick Hospital. A July 26 wedding is planned.

Carnival Held

A winter carnival held this weekend raised money to help pay off the debt of the Pickerell Lake Campsite on Round Lake Highway for the Lenawee County Tuckabatchee Council Camp Fire Girls.

The two day event was held at Lenawee Conservation League on Sutton Road.

The Camp Fire Girls from Tecumseh, Clinton, Britton, Adrian and Morenci participated.

Style Sense

by Evel

When you go walking, travel light. Wear comfortable shoes with broad heels. Walk briskly. Make your steps long and swinging. Hold up your head and breathe deep. When walking for exercise, breathe deep walk quickly, and don't stop to window shop (your husband hates it anyway). If you reach a hill, let the body lead the feet, and you will find climbing faster and easier. A quarter of a mile is enough for a starter, if you are not used to walking for exercise.

Brushing your hair is one of the most important things you can do to keep your locks shining. But did you know that brushing is also an important method to use in styling hair. Only a hair brush can get rid of roller marks and make a style hold its shape. Brushing blends the hair and makes it hold together as you wish it to. Some back-combing can add height to your style, but today's carefree look calls for as little back—combing as possible.

Department Adds Lines for Service

In an effort to provide better communications and improve service to the county, the Lenawee County Sheriff's Office, has changed its telephone system and added some incoming lines.

It is attempting to separate emergency and non-emergency calls.

Effective immediately, calls for police service or any kind of an emergency will be handled on emergency lines.

Business calls, such as payments, paper service, inquiries, jail, or to certain employees will be handled on business lines.

Emergency calls from toll areas can still be called toll free by asking the operator for Enterprise 8701.

Lenawee County Sheriff Department, Emergency 263-4684; Business calls 263-0524.

Engagement of Beverly Lynn Hendricks to Rick Keobbe is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hendricks, 1783 E. Monroe Road. Parents of Mr. Keobbe are Donna Koebbe of Clinton and Ellsworth Keobbe of Saline. Miss Hendricks will graduate from Tecumseh High School in June and expects to attend Jackson Community College in the fall. Keobbe was graduated in 1974 from Clinton High School and is an operator at Addison Wastewater Treatment Plant. He will go to Jackson Community College, too. A June wedding is planned.

MRS. DAVID HAWKINS

Catherine Rohn and David Hawkins Wed

St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church was the setting for the nuptials of Catherine Jane Rohn of Tecumseh and David Carl Hawkins of Britton. The Rev. Msgr. Vincent Howard officiated the vows on Feb. 21.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rohn of Route 2, Tecumseh and Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins, Britton.

On the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of satin and rose lace trim, fashioned with an empire waistline and Juliet sleeves of sheer moire.

She wore a picture hat with floor length veil, edged with matching lace. Gladiola blooms and peach and yellow pom-poms composed her bouquet.

Cheryl Vallie of Britton was the maid of honor in a peach print, wrap around gown with full sleeves and wore a picture hat. She carried a bouquet similar to the bride's in peach.

Mrs. Sam Skelton and Candy Cowen of Britton were bridesmaids in blue and yellow print gowns similar to the honor attendant's. They carried matching bouquets, and also wore picture hats.

Kelly Crittenden was a junior bridesmaid and Terry Harvey was the flower girl, both are cousins of the groom.

Randy Rietz was best man. Ushers were Steven Hawkins, brother of the groom, Jim Studnick of Britton and junior usher was David Rohn, brother of the bride. Ringbearer was Jay Crittenden, cousin of the groom.

A reception for guests was held in the auditorium of the church school. The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents at Don's Beef Buffet.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins will reside at Mill Valley Apartments in Saline, where Mr. Hawkins is employed at the Ford Motor Co.

We Stand Corrected

A statement in last week's You Told Us column in the Tecumseh Herald read, the "Acklin Stamping Co. in Toledo, who supports the strike here."

It should have read, "the Acklin Stamping Co. whose workers are out of work because of the strike here."

It was the workers of the Acklin Stamping Co., Toledo who sent some food offerings to the union men of Tecumseh Products Co.

The Acklin Stamping Division is one of a family of plants owned by the Tecumseh Products Co. The reference to the company supporting the strike was incorrect.

Contract Reached

Tecumseh Products Company and Local 525 of the United Plant Guard Workers of America reached a contract settlement last Thursday. The labor agreement, [illegible] Jan. 4, however, the employees worked while negotiations were in progress.

The contract was unanimously ratified over the weekend.

It provided retroactive increases in wages, plus additional increases in insurance, pension, holidays, and changes in contract language. The contract was settled without any disruption of operations and without work stoppage.

Deal with Feelings

Occasionally children are troubled by a new situation they do not understand or with feelings which bother them. Parents who must confront a young child's confusion are sometimes at a loss how to get to the root of the problem. Often parents can help their children better understand their feelings if they read and discuss a book which shows another child in a similar situation.

Tecumseh Public Library has a number of new books which can be helpful at these times. Eight books published as a series by Children's Press, are designed especially to be used with children from about age four to eight.

Each is written from the point of view of a single child, showing his or her ambivalent feelings in various relationships. However, the positive value of these relationships is always emphasized.

The vocabulary is so simple that the books could be read alone by a child in elementary school. But colorful, sensitive photographs on every other page easily enable an adult to discuss the books with a younger child.

The titles in the series are: "Feelings Between Kids and Grownups," "Feelings Between Kids and Parents," "Feelings Between Friends," "Feelings Between Brothers and Sisters," "A Friend Can Help," "Big Sister, Little Brother," "A New Baby," "Being Alone, Being Together."

Another excellent series recently acquired by the library discusses feelings and relationships within families. Some of the books explain reproduction and family rearing among animals and humans. Here sexuality and reproduction are seen as part of an individual's total development.

The books in this series, the "Follett Family Life Education Program,"

I am to receive a child support payment every week. But it seems the enforcement officer at the Friend of the Court office, doesn't think this money is important to me.

I have written and called many times with little response.

Are other women in the county having the same problem? If so, maybe we should get a petition going, to do somtehing about the problems.

If so write the editor.

Volunteers Needed for Tag Day

Mrs. William German spoke of Band Tag Day at the February meeting of Tecumseh Band Boosters in the Junior High multi-purpose room recently.

She said that volunteers are needed for May 2 and 3 and anyone interested may call her.

May 15 has been set for the band potluck dinner honoring seniors. Mrs. Richard Egli and Mrs. Jack Ries are co-chairwomen of the event to be held in the high school cafeteria.

Jimmie Rice announced that the eighth grade band has recently given a concert in each elementary school in the district.

March 1 will be the date for the junior high band festival and March 15 for the high school one.

The marching band will attend band camp Aug. 11-15 at Alma College.

Rice said that the marching band will participate May 17 in the Tulip Festival at Holland, July 11 in the Cherry Festival at Traverse City and tentatively will march July 4 in the Adrian Sesquicentennial parade and in the Lenawee Fair parade in August.

Lisa Baker, Andrea Phillips and Marty Perkins spoke briefly and thanked Band Boosters for the $50 donation toward the expenses their visits to Europe this summer.

Next meeting will be March 20.

Do With What You've Got

Making do with what you've got is the prevailing attitude these days, especially for the Tecumseh Public School Board.

"But the adding of a music area to the high school is needed [illegible] be needed if the building is continued to be used as a high school or converted in the future to a junior high school," said Robert Duhan, school superintendent.

"This is one of the areas we are lacking, and we are not doing as good a job as we might if we had the facility here," Duhan specified.

At the present time, the music department has all classes in the school cafeteria for five periods of the school day, except during the lunch hours 10:30 to 12:30 p.m.

Taking down eating tables and setting up chairs and instruments also takes time from classes; and music practices disturb adjoining classes.

The buildings and grounds committee of the school board will study the feasibility of adding a band room and financing it.

Common Cause Holds Meeting

Members of Lenawee County Common Cause met Feb. 23 at Christ the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Adrian to learn about an upcoming petition drive for political reform in Michigan.

Adrian resident, Pam Ross, fourth congressional district coordinator of Common Cause, introduced the guest speaker, Doug Ross, executive director of Common Cause of Michigan.

Ross emphasized that the need for political reform in Michigan is still necessary, despite passage of a campaign finance bill last year.

Common Cause's reform package, Ross stated, would close loopholes and make sure the law is enforced. The package contains four major provisions: disclosure of campaign finances, removal of conflicts of interest, regulation of lobbyist activities, and establishment of an independent enforcement commission.

The petition drive to put these issues on the ballot will begin in early April, said Ross.

Cancer Program Presented

A program on "Cancer in Women" will be presented at the Community Drop-In Center on Tuesday, March 4 at 9:15 a.m. at Tecumseh Community Center on M-50.

Mrs. Ruth Carter, director of the Adrian Chapter, Michigan Cancer Society, will present a film on this topic. Also she will present a guest speaker who has had breast cancer and who will speak on her experiences.

After a coffee break at 10:15 a.m., two discussion groups will be held at 10:30 a.m. One will be a follow-up discussion on "Cancer" and a second group will discuss "Parents Have Rights."

Mrs. Martha Poppink, Tecumseh, is the program chairman for the morning and also the coordinator for the Drop-In Center for the month of March. Mrs. Nancy Phelan is March Publicity Chairman.

Everyone is welcome to attend the informal discussions at the Drop-In Center. Free babysitting is provided.

The adult planning committee has announced coming programs for the Community Drop-In Center for March and April. March 11, Lenawee County Volunteer Service Programs; March 18, Parents Role in Guidance (Junior and Senior High); March 25, Crisis Walk-In and Call Someone Concerned; April 8, Flowers and Gardens; April 15, Juvenile Court Services; April 22, Crafts - Ideas for Children for Summer; and April 29, Teenagers Rap with Parents.

Youth Dance

St. Peter's Episcopal Church Senior High Youth will sponsor a Junior High dance from 8 to 11 p.m., Saturday March 1.

There will be free refreshments.

Committee in charge of arrangements are Jim Manley, Greg and Mike Corley.

Tickets will be sold at the door.

Honored

Lee P. Dollison and Diane L. Stevens were honored for scholastic excellence during the fall quarter at Ferris State College.

Lee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray P. Dollison and Diane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stevens.

Holloway Happenings

by Helen Smoll

HOLLOWAY — The 4-H Clubs of Lenawee and Fulton counties sponsored a rally at Adrian mall that was well attended. Displays, projects and a mini-float parade were featured.

Among the 15 floats, the Raisin Slickers of Holloway were one of five winners who received a blue ribbon and five dollars.

The members presented a show explaining what 4-H means. Mrs. David Irwin is teaching gardening this year. Clarke Wilson is leader of the Raisin Slickers.

Lenten services of the Raisin Presbyterian Church of Holloway were held at the home of Mrs. Elwyn Green. The group will meet with Mrs. Wilson Sawyer Feb. 19.

Jason Rule was guest of honor on his fourth birthday at the home of his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cortland Rule and Hillary.

A decorated cake was the feature of dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rule, Lyle Calhoun and Gini, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiesmann, Lance and Lisa, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Van Buren, Kurt and Dawn of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Green and daughter, Jodi of Westland, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Green.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sackett of Clinton, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sackett and granddaughter, Amy Jo have returned from a two week vacation in Tucson, Ariz. where they visited their children, Mark, Merrill, Marty and Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Marianne) Carmody.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Green and Mrs. Dorothy Kopke had dinner Thursday at the community Sand Creek Church and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kopke.

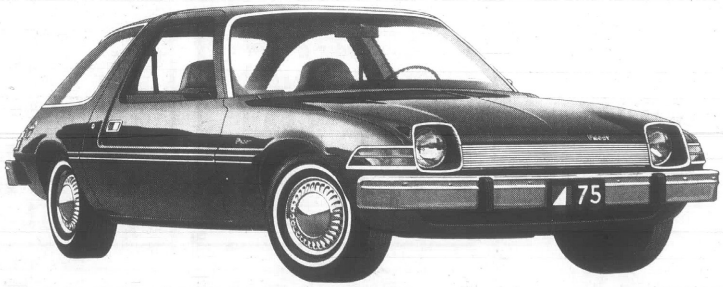
Pacer is here!
See it at your AMC Dealer today!


Ten good reasons to buy Pacer, the first wide small car:
1. Pacer is the first wide small car. (Wider than Chevelle, Duster, Nova—even Granada!) You'll notice a big difference in room, ride and handling compared with conventional small cars.
2. Pacer's got an economical 6-cylinder engine and a 22-gallon gas tank. That's larger than any small car—so you can go a long way between fill ups.
3. Pacer is wider than any other small car so you get an unusual amount of room. In fact, Pacer gives you more leg room, front and rear, than the two-door Torino or Fury.
4. Pacer's passenger door is 3.6 inches wider than the driver's. So you can get in and out of the back seat that much easier.
5. Pacer's sloping hood, wide windshield and wrap-around rear windows give you room with a view. More visibility, in fact, than any other American-built sedan—large or small!
6. Pacer's wide stance and isolated suspension give you an incredibly smooth and stable ride.
7. Pacer's hatch opens wide and the rear seat folds down. This gives you lots of wide-open cargo space.
8. Pacer's quick, precise rack-and-pinion steering, and wide stance makes it steer and handle like a sports car.
9. Wide, wide coverage. Pacer is backed by all the benefits of the exclusive AMC BUYER PROTECTION PLAN.™

15 Attend Club Meeting

BRITTON — Britton Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Leland Bush, Feb. 18 with 15 ladies bringing a packed lunch.

At the business meeting Mrs. Elmer Eberhardt, president, appointed Mrs. Edward Kanous and Mrs. Julian Strong to the nominating committee to pick officers for next year.

Afternoon was spent making Easter favors, from egg cartons, for patients of Herrick Memorial Hospital. The colorful cartons were put to further use by making an array of colorful flowers for the village library.

Plans were made for the March 18 meeting, at which time the ladies will hold a luncheon at the Rock Inn, followed by a tour of the Goodwill Industries, in Adrian.

Fashion Show

Spring will be emphasized March 5, when Ridgeway PTO sponsors a fashion show at 7:30 p.m. in the school with spring styles modeled by PTO members and Ridgeway teachers.

Clothing ordered will be delivered before Easter.

A dessert potluck will follow the fashion show when those attending may make a closer inspection of garments as they socialize.

Survey Shows Yes on Addition

BRITTON — Report on the survey blanks received thus far, by the school, on "yes" or "no" to build an all-purpose room addition was 136-81 in favor, announced Superintendent William Saxton at the recent board meeting.

Saxton asks that those who have not returned the blanks to do so before the next board meeting March 13.

Board was authorized to hire a qualified person to act as coach and all-around help for the junior high football schedule for next year.

Principal John DeLine, reviewed a letter from Dr. Alexander Nelson of the University of Michigan Bureau of Social Services, in regards to the accreditation visit to the school.

Board members approve the junior class plans to hold their prom at DEMI Acres in Petersburg, and the banquet at the Britton School.

Approval was given the athletic department to purchase $2,500 worth of football equipment for the athletic department, and, Schneider's Frame and Axle Service of Blissfield was contracted for a 60-passenger school bus.

Results from Performance

BRITTON — The Britton-Macon High School Band travelled to Addison on Feb. 15 for their Solo and Ensemble performance. The members were rated I for superior, II, excellent and III, fair.

Ratings received were:

I-Laura Miller and Jean Dulinski, flute duet; Laura Miller, Janine Squires and Tammie Mashino, flute trio; Paul Bush, cornet solo; Paul Bush and Jon Hintz, cornet duet; Janine Squires, flute solo.

II - Jeanne Dulinski and Joyce Cabla, woodwind duet; Beth Bigelow, piano solo and tenor sax solo; Anna Lutz, piano and flute solo; Patty Childs, Joyce Cabla and Liz Anaya, clarinet trio.

III - Tammi Mashino and Liz Anaya, woodwind duet; Jeanne Dulinski, Liz Anaya and Joyce Cabla, woodwind trio.

Class Meets

BRITTON — The Dorcas Class of the Britton Congregational Christian Church met at the church Feb. 20, 1975 with 12 members and three guests present.

The potluck dinner planned by Mrs. Lillian Rodgers and Mrs. Nell Gray included a birthday cake for Mrs. Effie Gibson whose birthday was the following day.

In the afternoon a business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Theo Willis, vice-president. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Lillian Rodgers gave the treasurer's report. Mae Wiliis gave the sunshine committee's report. One communication was read.

Mrs. Helen Osterhout was in charge of devotions and the program. She read a few biographical selections on George Washington and some interesting items from a "Brittonian."

Britton Menu

March 3-7

MONDAY — Hot dog on bun, carrot sticks, green beans, applecrisp, milk.

TUESDAY — Ground bologna or cheese sandwich, tomato or choice soup, crackers, cake, chocolate milk.

WEDNESDAY — Taco's, lettuce, cheese, bread and butter, whipped gelatin, milk.

THURSDAY — Turkey and noodles, buttered corn, bread and butter, sweet rolls, milk.

FRIDAY — Macaroni and cheese or tuna noodles, tossed salad, bread and butter, pineapple, milk.

10th Grade Takes Tour of Vo-Tech

BRITTON — The 10th grade class toured the Vo-Tech Center in Adrian on Feb. 19. Students interested in attending Vo-Tech were given applications.

Not all of these students will be accepted; since Britton is a smaller school, openings are proportionately smaller in number.

Some of the classes offered include child care, food preparation, electronics, ..ming, auto body and mechanics, farm mechanics, horticultrure, drafting, health occupations, and welding.

Nominating Committee Holds Meeting

Ridgeway PTO nominating committee met Wednesday morning in the home of Glenna Stroud to select a slate of officers to be presented to the membership.

Other committee members are Dolores Thompson and Betty Kline.

They are seeking nominees for the positions of president, recording secretary, treasurer and publicity — membership for the 1975-1976 school year.

Parents of Ridgeway School children who would be interested in serving in any of these offices are encouraged to contact Mrs. Stroud 423-3342 or Mrs. Thompson 423-7565.

Celebrates

BRITTON — Suzi Oswald ...celebrated her 11th birthday Saturday with 15 friends at a party hosted by her sister and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Oswald.

An ice cream birthday cake with "Lucy" roller skating with "Woodstock" was a feature of the refreshments.

Games were played with prizes awarded.

No Election

BRITTON — Residents of the Village of Britton are reminded by the village clerk, Jean Tiede, that there will be no election of village officers in March this year.

Present officers were elected last March for a two-year term.

JOIN WITH US IN SAYING 'THANK YOU' MAL LINEHAN

Tuesday, March 4, has been set aside at First Federal Savings of Lenawee as "THANK YOU, MAL LINEHAN DAY" in recognition of the many contributions to the success of First Federal Savings during his 33 years as a member of the board of directors, five of which were as chairman of the board. Mr. Linehan retired as a director in January.

The board of directors, officers and staff of First Federal Savings invites Mr. Linehan's many friends to join with them at a reception in his honor from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. that day in the Main office of First Federal Savings at 202 North Main Street, Adrian. Refreshments will be served.

Rare Special Opportunity

Students especially are offered a rare opportunity by the board of directors of the Lenawee Community Concert Association who has set March 10-15 as membership campaign week for the 1975-76 season.

They may purchase memberships for the series of four concerts headlined by Scotland on Parade at a reduced price.

Also to appear will be Ingstreth and Escosa, [illegible] harpists, and Addiss and Crofut, folk singers. The fourth in the series will be selected after the close of the drive.

During the 28-year history of the Association, members have seen many exciting performances given by such artists as the Johann Strauss Ensemble of the Vienna Symphony Orchestra, Ferrente and Teicher, Little Angels of Korea and the DeCormier singers.

Mrs. Carlton Cook and Mrs. Robert Crudder are on the staff of the concert series and have information and tickets for students and adults.

Kiwanis Club Hears Ag Speaker

Max Brandt, inspector-sealer for Michigan Department of Agriculture Bureau of Consumer Protection, food inspection division, was the speaker for Kiwanis Club Feb. 18.

Presented by Del King, program chairman, Brandt explained his work with company personnel to improve conditions and procedures for food handling in problem areas.

The inspector also purchases samples for random, thorough testing at the Department's laboratory for such things as illegal ingredients, adulterated products, evidence of food poisoning organisms and improper labeling.

Brandt noted that consumers should feel free to contact field offices in Detroit or Lansing.

Frances Wilson and Russell Collins were married March 2, 1935 in the Methodist parsonage in Angola, Ind. by the Rev. Tomas L. Davies. They have lived in Macon since that time and are the parents of five sons, Russell Jr. of Carmichael, Calif., Jack of Fair Oaks, Calif., Dean of Saline and Tim and Jim of Tecumseh. There are 11 grandchildren. Dean, Tim and Jim and their families are hosting an open house Sunday, March 2, to honor the 40th wedding anniversary of the couple in Tecumseh Missionary Baptist Church from 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Collins ask that gifts be omitted.

Students To Compete at State Level

A number of Tecumseh High School Band students will compete at the state level in early April, after receiving high ratings in the District 8 Solo and Ensemble event at Addison recently.

Musicians are rated on a one to five basis in the Michigan State Band and Orchestra Association sponsored contest; one for excellent and five poor.

One ratings were earned by a flute trio - Connie Lovett, Margaret Furry and Pam Star; trombone duet - Marty Gagneur, Dave Bunge; flute quartet - Lynn Wikle, Andrea Phillips, Jan Wilson, Linda Staples; flute solo - Andrea Phillips; woodwind quintet - Andrea Phillips, Jan Wilson, Barbara Henning, Ann Wilson, Rick Hand; trombone solos - Dave Bunge; piano solo - Tina Feesel; flute solo - Jan Wilson, Andrea Phillips.

Two ratings were awarded for piano solos to Marcia Bale, Lisa Baker and Barbara Henning; cornet solo, Marty Perkins; flute duet, Kathy Bick, Linda Staples; flute and clarinet duet - Leslie Geisen, Lois Pence; tenor saxophone solo - Tim Ries.

A three rating went to Margaret Furry and Connie Lovett for a flute duet.

Fun Day at Acres

Children of Tecumseh Acres School are selling tickets for Fun Day to earn prizes, including a colored TV, for the sale of 1,200 tickets.

New games, handmade by Joel Rutherford and Dyke Helms, will be featured for the event Saturday, March 8, from 4 to 8 p.m.

Door prizes of $100, $50, and others donated will be available.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Helms and Mr. and Mrs. J. Rutherford and Mrs. Don Judd are co-chairing Fun Day this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Marvin are door ticket co-chairmen. Mrs. Helms and Mrs. Judd have other tickets.

Mrs. Gerald Eaton is publicity chairwoman and Mrs. Rutherford has charge of door prizes.

Theater Play for Children

A play which children from ages four to nine will especially love is the "Bremen Town Musicians," coming March 7-8-9 to the Laboratory Theatre of Siena Heights College.

Weekend performances are 2 o'clock matinees.

Sr. Trudy McSorley is director.

"The Bremen Town Musicians" tells the story of a cat, a dog, a rooster, and a donkey who run away from home one morning because their mistress is cross. They plan to go to Bremerhaven and be musicians. Their journey is filled with adventures, capped by the rescue of their mistress from blood-thirsty robbers, making a happy ending.

During a children's play in the lab theatre, part of the action takes place in and around the audience. Children who attend usually sit on the floor on pads rather than in regular chairs.

Mary Root of Tecumseh, has the role of the animals' mistress.

The only evening performance is Friday, March 7, at 7:30 p.m. Both performances on Saturday and Sunday are at 2 p.m. Reservations may be made by phoning 313-263-0731, ext. 255, weekdays before 5.

Macon Dialog

by Linda Phillips 423-5213

Here's some good news from Macon Historical Society regarding the planned restoration of Mills School: The roof isn't in as bad condition as was first thought. A couple of rolls of tar paper, some nails and a little muscle should put it in ship-shape. Repair of the floor will be the next priority. Let's hope this un-Februaryish weather continues into March . . .

We in Macon are fortunate to have at our disposal the talents of Tim Gilreath, 7504 Hack Road. Tim has employed Old English lettering in the printing of Macon Historical Society's membership cards, and has embellished them with scroll work that he designed himself.

The result is a card with such a neat, "old-timey" look that it will almost be a shame to tuck them away in wallets.

Tim is printing his own graduation announcements and has been commissioned to print, among other things, stationery and wedding invitations. All the work he's done is unique and quite professional looking.

News from Macon Lighthouse this week includes the announcement that a Christian charm course will be offered Fridays at 7 p.m. beginning Feb. 28. According to Brenda Miller, spokeswoman for the group, the course will be "an exciting and fulfilling alternative in light of today's manners and mores."

Girls eight years old and up are invited to join. Lighthouse members also extend an invitation to the community to hear the Rev. Dane Ruff, pastor of the Tecumseh Friends Church, speak at the Lighthouse's Bible study Tuesday, March 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Wilma and Ed Clark and their card playing friends are more weight conscious now than they were a few years back. Seems there was tons of food left over from their recent euchre party. Half of Macon would have converged on the Clark home if only Wilma had let the word out sooner!

Macon United Methodist Church members who served the annual Tecumseh Products Credit Union dinner Saturday night almost floated into the dining room due to the unseasonal rains that poured into the kitchen. Lois Jordan abandoned her pot washing because of two wet feet.

Huron Valley Youth for Christ presents Dave Boyer at Pioneer High School in Ann Arbor Saturday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. There will be an admission price per person or for a family.

Water softeners are almost a must these days and they do save on soap, your tea kettle will not get full of lime, and you won't have the bath tub ring. Soft water prolongs the life of your clothes. The Automatic is much preferred over the manually operated model. You never seem to regenerate it until you run out of soft water, then your water heater is full of hard water that will have to be used before the water is soft again.

Handymen can get their own supplies or we at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121 can do plumbing jobs for you. We cater to contractors, builders, commercial firms and individuals. Free estimates are provided on plumbing and heating jobs including new installations, or repair or remodeling jobs. We service what we sell. Open: Daily 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m., Saturdays until 5 p.m.

Handy Hint: If your power is off for any length of time, reset the clock on your softener so it will not regenerate during the day.

Which CRUMBLES First?

Here stands what remains of a Grecian temple dating to 300 B.C.

Which crumbles first — the civilization or its religion? Do spiritual foundations collapse because a culture is in trouble? Or do cultures deteriorate because their spiritual foundations are collapsing?

To historians it's like the question about the chicken or the egg.

My main concern is our own civilization. This involves my family and the contribution we can make. We have a Bible — we read it! We have a Faith — we try to live it!

My religion makes me conscious of the dangers of today's civilization. Yet, I am an optimist . . . especially on Sunday when my family is at church . . . and when we see your family there too!

A Message

To All Employees Of Tecumseh Division Tecumseh Products Company

We want you to know that during the lengthy bargaining sessions concluded on February 19th the Company offered the following:

CONTRACT ANNIVERSARY DATE — The Company offered to adjust the contract anniversary date to the date the agreement is reached.

HOLIDAYS — The Company offered a complete 3 year holiday schedule (39 in all) to comply with the new contract termination date.

PENSIONS — Future Credited Service - For the purpose of eligibility credit, 1,000 hours per year will constitute one year of credited service. Sick leaves or lay off will be credited as time worked in a calendar year for the purpose of eligibility, provided the employee has been actively employed during the calendar year. For the purpose of benefit credit, the current 1,700 hours will remain unchanged.

WAGES — The Company offered increased wages as follows:

Office Employees
$.16 effective upon return to work.
$.16 effective the 2nd year, 1976.
$.16 effective 3rd year, 1977.

Hourly Rate Non-Incentive Employees
$.16 effective upon return to work.
$.16 effective the 2nd year, 1976
$.16 effective the 3rd year, 1977.

Skilled Trades Employees
$.21 effective upon return to work.
$.21 effective the 2nd year, 1976.
$.21 effective the 3rd year, 1977.

Time Study Employees (Incentive)
$.12 effective upon return to work.
$.12 effective the 2nd year, 1976.
$.12 effective the 3rd year, 1977.

Scheduled Rates Employees (Incentive)
$.12 effective upon return to work.
$.12 effective the 2nd year, 1976.
$.12 effective the 3rd year, 1977.

The above increases for incentive employees will be included in the base rates and factored into the piece rates. In that the first years increase will take some time to factor into the piece rates, a sixteen cent ($.16) per hour add-on will be paid to incentive employees from return to work until this can be accomplished, up to a maximum of sixty (60) days.

The Company has offered additional wage adjustments in several classifications the first year of the new agreement.

LANGUAGE — The Company withdrew its proposal on paragraph 36A and the issue was settled on the basis of its being withdrawn.

The Company withdrew its proposal on paragraph 156 and the issue was settled on the basis of current language.

INCREASES in INSURANCE and WAGES — The Company offered to make any insurance and wage increases effective immediately upon return to work.

The Company has respectfully requested that the Union Board take this revised package back to the membership for a vote by a secret ballot. The Company feels such a move would be justified considering the major concessions offered as outlined above and in light of the improved benefits offered previously.

Listed here are some of the most significant benefits offered previously:

LIFE INSURANCE — The Company offered increases from the $9,000 currently to $11,000 over the life of the new agreement.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH & DISMEMBERMENT — The Company offered increases from the $7,500 currently to $9,000 over the life of the new agreement.

WEEKLY SICK & ACCIDENT BENEFITS — The Company offered increases from the $85 paid currently to $105 per week over the life of the new agreement.

ADDITIONAL INSURANCE BENEFITS — The Company has offered increases in diagnositc X-Ray and laboratory expense, and major medical to active employees. The Company has offered significant improvement in insurance benefits to current retirees.

PENSIONS — The Company offered increases from the present $7.25 basic benefit to $8.75 per month per year of credited service over the life of the new agreement.

VOLUNTARY EARLY RETIREMENT — (30 AND OUT) — The Company offered to increase the current supplemental benefit from $3.00 to $6.00 per month per year of credited service over the life of the new agreement.

ADDITIONAL PENSION IMPROVEMENTS — The Company offered substantial improvements in deferred vesting provisions and permanent and total disability benefits for active employees and increased the basic benefits and payment toward Medicare part B to current retirees.

COST of LIVING — The Company offered an improved cost of living formula. The current cost of living now in effect will be continued ($1.20). the 12c cost of living that would have been due December 1, 1974 is contained within the Company offer, making a total of $1.32 effective immediately upon return to work. The cost of living will be continued during the term of the new agreement and the first adjustment will be effective at the end of the first full quarter following the settlement of the contract.

STRIKE ENDS with 3-YEAR PACT

Happy Days Are Here Again

Tecumseh High School gym has had many thrilling moments but none more rewarding than that which occurred there Saturday.

Membership of the United Products Workers voted 1,359 to 567 to accept a three-year contract with the Tecumseh Products Company, ending a three and a half-month-old strike.

Nearly 3,000 employees were idled during the strike, affecting practically every Tecumseh and area rural resident in one way or another. It was probably the most crippling strike, for Union members, their families, Company and residents - in the history of Lenawee County.

After marathon sessions last week, the Company and Union were called together to renew efforts for a settlement. Early last Thursday morning after the two had been bargaining for hours, it became known that settlement was eminent and likely to occur after negotiations resumed at 11 a.m.

That afternoon at four o'clock, the Union Board and Company agreed. The next day a vote for ratification was announced with a Union meeting scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday at the high school.

Guy Cox, Union Board president, related contents of the Company's offer at the meeting to approximately 2,000 members. After the Union attorney commented about the offer and a brief floor discussion, the Union moved to vote by secret ballot.

First employees to return to work occurred Sunday night. Others began returning Monday and Tuesday and all were expected to be back by next Monday, although a large layoff has been rumored for the near future.

There is no question that the Tecumseh Products Company and its employees are the backbone of this community and area, and one could extend it to the county without much exaggeration.

While the Union members lost millions in wages, during the strike, the Company undoubtedly lost millions in business, and possibly more in future contracts. The overall effect may never be known.

Many employees for the first time had to seek outside assistance, in many cases, food stamps, to keep going. Some admitted to being behind in loan and mortgage payments. The Union held depression-type cookouts at the Union Hall, and members demonstrated and paraded to emphasize their cause.

There were stormy moments, notably when four trucks were literally rocked when leaving a Company parking lot. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Residents and business not involved generally kept a middle-of-road attitude, hoping that negotiations would result in a satisfactory settlement for both parties.

After Saturday's vote and settlement, the restlessness among the citizenry vanished. Happy days are here again.

Approximately 2,000 striking members of the Tecumseh Products Company packed the local high school gym long before a scheduled 10 a.m. meeting Saturday. About an hour after the meeting started, members cast secret ballots to end a 15-week strike at the Company. Final vote was over two to one to accept the Company's offer. First workers recalled were back to work Sunday night with many others returning Monday and Tuesday. All were expected to be back by next Monday. (Photo by Frank Weir)

Parking Plan Runs into Snag

By KATHY KULCZYK

Policing an unmetered parking system, cost to merchants and the effectiveness of limited, unmetered parking to boost business for downtown merchants were the major complaints voiced by business people against a special assessment plan. Council held a public hearing Monday night.

The program, developed by the Downtown Redevelopment Committee, would place a one year assessment of four cents per square foot per store for each business in the downtown blocks from Ottawa to Pearl and Logan to Pottawatamie. The assessment, amounting to over $7,000, would compensate for loss of meter revenues.

Sixty spaces would be 10-hour free parking, 135 would be two-hour limited parking, and the others would remain metered.

Monopoly of free parking spaces by merchants, employees and downtown apartment tenants was the major objection to the plan. There are 63 businesses on the assesment plan and 60 ten-hour parking spaces.

"One of the fallacies of this plan is that it would provide parking for customers," said Councilwoman Mary Bowers. "There are not enough free spaces to do any good except for the people who live and work in downtown Tecumseh."

"The free parking is backwards," objected another concerned property owner. "The free parking should be put closer to the shops instead of in the back of the lots."

Mayor Harold Easton explained that the 10-hour spaces were put in the back of the lots to discourage merchants from picking choice spots.

Jim Lincoln, editor-publisher of The Herald, pointed out that whether or not the space was close to the building, the merchant would be most likely to park in the 10-hour space since the merchant would be downtown all day.

"If the plan were for free parking, any merchant would support it, but not the plan as it is now," said Lincoln.

Easton said that an assessment of six cents per square foot would remove all meters. A few in the audience agreed that they would rather be assessed for removing all meters and have a completely free parking system.

Others in opposition complained about hard economic times or protested that their type of business would not benefit from the present plan.

Taking a different approach, Don Smith, restaurant owner, said, "I would sooner keep the meters and have assessments, too, for improvements. I feel that if people had to pay for parking and could say it was really worth paying for, complaints would be fewer."

Ron Baxter, of Green's Clothing, said in reference to the opposition, "Seven of eight dissenters are in services. The way the merchants view the plan is that it is cheap advertising. It is up to the merchant to enforce abuses by employees."

Councilman James Palmer, also a downtown merchant, said that the original plan was to create a traffic flow in the downtown area to enable merchants to compete with shopping malls.

"We need free parking if main street merchants are to continue to prosper," said Bill Feight of Baldwin Hardware.

Kenneth McElroy, president of United Savings Bank, said that although the bank would not directly benefit, its board of directors basically agrees with free parking as a deterrent to competing shopping centers.

Smith, originally in favor of the plan, decided at the meeting that he opposed the system since it would give free parking to the merchants and employees and would not benefit customers.

DJ Martin of Gambles said that he had changed his mind about the plan, too. "We have 18 employees, and I know what they would do."

Before telling the business people that Council would take it under advisement, both Easton and Bowers pointed out that free parking stalls now available are currently being used by merchants, their employees and tenants, and not by customers.

Councilman Aden Mead and Palmer reported that a poll showed that most of the businesses favored the assessment plan. The poll was questioned, however, when it was explained that the poll was taken before the off-street parking plan was finalized and made known to the property owners and business people.

Other businessmen speaking in favor of the plan included Carl Lamb, Wes Proctor, and Bill Flanders. Voicing opposition also included Jim Lawson, Gaylon Robinson, Julia Ternak, Chuck Des Dermia, Cliff Jackson and Forest Abner.

Court Date March 13

Three juveniles, charged in a robbery attempt and assault of Edwin Clark, 72, at Jerry's Market on Feb. 11, are scheduled to appear in Probate Court next Thursday, Harvey Koselka, prosecuting attorney reports.

The juveniles, one 15 and two 16, have only been questioned by authorities and have not been held or detained. They were questioned the day after the incident and then released.

Koselka says charges against the juveniles will depend on whether Mr. Clark recovers or not. He says his office is continuing to investigate the case and has looked into the possibility of trying the juveniles as adults.

Mr. Clark, well known in Tecumseh and a retired businessman, is 'not doing well' at University Hospital in Ann Arbor, according to family sources. Since his admission there, he has been in and out of intensive care and has failed to recognize members of his family. He was in a coma for several days.

As of this week, he does not recall the assault and his condition has not permitted questioning by authorities. His condition is reported critical.

He suffered a heavy blow to the back of his head, a severe laceration just missing an eye, and a severe blow across his stomach. A sawed off cue stick, used in playing pool, is said to be the club used in the attack.

A fourth youth, 19-year-old Mark Raymond, of Tipton, was originally charged in the attack but charges against him were dropped last Thursday in District Court for lack of evidence.

Koselka says charges will be refiled only if new evidence is obtained.

3 Are Held for Vandalism

Three juveniles, ages 13, 15 and 16, have been apprehended and charged with the breaking and entering and vandalism which occurred last week at Herrick Park elementary school.

All three, detained at the Youth Center since last Thursday, have a hearing scheduled in Probate Court on March 13.

Local police, who handled the investigation, report they received a tip as to the identities of the youth.

Set for May

Cal Zorn, city manager told council that the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation will let contracts in May of 1975 for the resurfacing of M-50 from Sunset to Wyandotte Streets and widening to three lanes from the west city limits to Sunset Street.

4 Injured in Accident

A traffic accident Monday night, one mile east of Clinton on US-12, sent four people to Herrick Hospital.

The collision occurred at 9:44 p.m. when Lawrence Eston Gunn, 53, of 11204 Tecumseh-Clinton Rd., struck a car backing out of a driveway at 14107 US-12.

Russell Charles Barnes, 46, of 2629 Bragg Road, in Deerfield, was backing out and apparently did not see the Gunn vehicle, according to the State Police report. Gunn was unable to stop in time and struck the side of the Barnes vehicle.

Barnes and two passengers, Chester Wright and Tommie Barnes, were injured and taken to Herrick Memorial Hospital for treatment. A passenger in the Gunn vehicle, Wanda Gunn, 52, was also injured and taken to Herrick.

Hospital authorities report she was the only person to be admitted. No report on her condition was available.

No citations were issued, pending further investigation.

Council OKs Rezoning for Doctors

After a public hearing and no objections, city Council approved the rezoning of property located on west side of Wyandotte Street between E. Kilbuck and E. Pottawatamie Streets from residential, RM-1, to office service, O-S.

Investigating Cherry Picker

City manager Cal Zorn received the consensus of Council to further investigate the possibility of purchasing a high-lift or cherry picker. It would be used for trimming trees, hanging Christmas decorations, and assistance to the fire department.

Tentative Factors Charged to City, Rural Property

Tentative factors, released by the county director of equalization, will increase assessments on real estate throughout the county from over five percent to over 57 percent.

Recommended factor for Tecumseh is .1131 percent; Tecumseh Township - .1371 percent; Clinton - .2095 percent; Franklin - .1213 percent; Macon - .1526 percent; Raisin - .233 percent; and Ridgeway - .0811 percent.

Tecumseh, Clinton and Franklin have no factors, but Tecumseh Township has .1158 percent; Ridgeway - .0795 percent; Raisin - .002 percent; and Macon - .0002 percent.

Largest tentative factor is .5788 percent on real estate in Cambridge Township, while Rollin Township's factor of .0566 percent is the smallest. Tecumseh Township's factor on personal property is the largest in the county.

The tenative factors are not necessarily the same as those recommended by the individual assessors.

Factors in recent years have nearly doubled assessments in the city on real estate. A house assessed at $10,000 ten years ago, for example, would be assessed now at nearly $20,000, if the new tentative factor is applied.

Final factor determination will probably not be made until late fall.

Furniture Store Losses Are $3,300

Two local furniture stores were broken into last week, resulting in a loss of around $3,300 in merchandise.

Both the Hitching Post, at 1322 E. Monroe Rd., and Michael's Home Furnishings at 5315 Occidental Hwy., were broken into sometime Wednesday evenign or early Thursday morning.

According to the sheriff's office, entry was gained into the Hitching Post on the east side of the building by breaking a window and unlocking a door. English furniture, clocks, lamps and dishes were taken. Estimated value was placed at $3,000.

Michael Osburn told police Thursday that furniture was taken from his business after entry was gained by sawing a hole into a fiberglas overhead door at the rear of the building. Value of lost merchandise was placed at $300.

Deputies are continuing their investigation.

Denise Kash Weds John Baugh

Denise Lynn Kash and John Wayne Baugh were married Saturday evening in St. Peter's Episcopal Church by the Rev. David C. Fox.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kash and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Baugh, all of Tecumseh.

On the arm of her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of silk organza featuring a high neckline, accented with Venice lace and long bishop sleeves with lace motifs.

The A-line skirt bordered at the hemline with matching lace featured a full sweep cathedral train. Her Camelot headpiece of lace secured her three tiered veil of French illusion also trimmed the lace.

Terrie Kash was her sister's maid of honor in a ruby velvet floor length gown with white lace trim on bodice and matching jacket.

Linda Henderson of Rochester, aunt of the bride, and Diana Mattis, sister of the groom, were the bridesmaids attired in pastel pink dresses.

Joe Eaton was best man and guests were seated by Bob German and Keith Mattis.

Reception for 300 guests was held at Peerless Gear Hall in Clinton where Kathy Anderson, sister of the groom, cut the groom's cake and Pauline Chie, the bride's cake.

Sandy Murry and Nancy Lickfelt served beverages.

[illegible] honeymoon to Niagara Falls, the couple will live in Tecumseh. Both are 1974 graduates of Tecumseh High School. The groom is manager of E&B Gulf.

The grooms parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Country House.

MRS. JOHN BAUGH

Amy Davis, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mrs. Richard E. Heritage, was chosen "Little Miss" of Lenawee County at the pageant held in Adrian last week. Amy received a gift certificate, flowers, a story and record set and necklace in addition to a trophy and her crown. She competed with 20 other girls in modeling and in interviewing with the judges. Amy is now eligible for state competition in Ann Arbor on April 17 and 18.

Engagement of Jill Ann Jorsch to William Kenneth Dustin is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leland J. Jorsch of Tracy, Calif. William Dustin is the son of Dr. and M. Davis, 2780 Dustin. He is a 1967 graduate of Tecumseh High School, spent four years in the United States Navy and is a senior at Ferris State College. A May 31 wedding is planned in Tracy.

Golden-Aires to Meet for Lunch

Wednesday, the Recreation Department Golden-Aires will meet at noon for a sack lunch. All older citizens are invited.

The Drop-in for Seniors with card playing and snacks is hosted at the Community Center on Thursday at 1 p.m.

Hostesses for March 6 meeting will be Mrs. Bauman and Mrs. Schumm for the regular drop-in lunch.

All area senior citizens are cordially invited to attend either or both of these weekly functions that are sponsored by the Tecumseh Recreation Department.

For further information, contact the Recreation Department at 423-5602 daily Monday through Friday.

Last week, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Waldron were hosts for the Thursday meeting.

Girls Have Fun But Go in Red

BY KATHY KULCZYK

The Camp Fire Girls Tuckabatchee Council went in the red with last week's Winter Carnival at Sutton School, but the girls still had fun.

"But the most wonderful thing was the way people worked together and had fun. The showing was especially good from Tecumseh," said Dorothy Evans[illegible] counselor.

The Tuckabatchee Council hoped the carnival would raise money to help pay the $35,000 debt on its Round Lake Highway campsite in the Irish Hills. An additional $120,000 more could complete the site with a building.

Yet the council hasn't given up the dream which means so much to Camp Fire Girls. There are some 250 in the Tecumseh area alone.

Next fund raising effort will be the May 4 Arts and Crafts show in Adrian. The Camp Fire Girls are forming a choral group to debut at the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Campbell, 4212 Hunt Road, Adrian, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary March 15 at an open house given by their children. Relatives, friends and neighbors are welcome at 6 p.m. to join them at the VFW Post 4187, Tecumseh. The couple were married at the Chapel in the Gardens in Angola, Ind. by the Rev. Glenn L. Tellerback. They have three children, Mrs. Ronald (Melody) Bice, Martin, and Deborah Vincze, and seven grandchildren. Mr. Campbell is employed at Tecumseh Products Co. and Mrs. Campbell at Herrick Memorial Hospital.

Council Makes Appointments

Among appointments made by City Council Monday night, Donald Woods was named Marshal of the Day for Memorial Day, Donovan Morsé was named assistant.

Marvin Watkins was appointed to succeed himself as a member to the Board of Appeals.

Ted Ehinger was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Thomas M. Ball on the Board of Review.

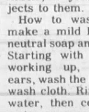
Style Sense by Evel



Owning a wig makes better sense than you might think. The wig is great for all sorts of uses. If you swim a great deal, you can just towel dry your own hair, and then put your wig on. If you get wind blown or just plain worn out, or if you are sick in bed, you can have the morale building effect of beautiful hair, without the bother. If your life is full of last minute social events, a wig is just what you need to keep looking beautiful - and it saves the incurls and roller hassle, if your husband objects to them.

How to wash your face: make a mild lather of pure, neutral soap and warm water. Starting with the neck and working up, including the ears, wash the face with a soft wash cloth. Rinse with warm water, then cold. Dash cold water on eyes and chin. Pat dry with a soft towel, and be sure to pat up. Dry thoroughly or your skin will become rough. Then use a mild cleansing lotion.

Our phone number is 423-4250, by appointment only.

You Told Us

by Dorothy Grigg

Betty and Lonal Bishop finally made it to Las Vegas for their 25th wedding anniversary, returning Saturday after a week in the bright lights.

Plans have been extensive for this anniversary special and judging from the happy smile on the Jolly Green Giant's face, it was worth it. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mattoon and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheeler of Macon.

Wayne Newton, Hugh O'Brien with Phyllis McGuire were all there and Johnny Carson didn't disappoint them either and those running horses that didn't go anywhere. Well, that must have been something to see, right in the middle of a night club????????

Garland V. Osburn returned to his home in Macon Friday after a 10 day stay as a patient in Bixby Hospital. He is improving slowly.

Mrs. Clyde Bailey had her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Beal, of Farmington Hills as guests in her home Friday.

Mrs. Bailey's nephew, James Dunnigan, 46, of Jackson died in Gaylord and services were last Tuesday in Jackson. His wife found his body when she went to see if he was finished shoveling snow at the weekend residence of the family in Gaylord. He is also survived by seven children.

Coxswain Dave Hall arrived in the city last Friday from North Carolina after a weeks stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Hall, who apparently are still most happy with their move from here, Boo Hoo.

Dave is staying with his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ron O'Neil and will return to North Carolina before going to San Diego for another tour of duty in the Japan and Thailand areas. He operates a landing craft.

Marionettes Are Fantastic

By Dorothy Grigg

What a festival of fantasy Daniel Llords presented Monday evening for his audience in Francoeur Theatre, Siena Heights, the third in the Community Concert Series. Small in stature, the solo marionettist proved himself to be treetop tall in talent for classical entertainment.

Using the music of Mendelssohn, Stravinsky, Mozart and others as background or maybe as foreground with intricate light, smoke effects, fountain and fireworks, Llords International blends together all of the fine arts to delight the audience with a variety of changing moods.

From tranquility in the bubble enhanced ocean scene to fire and brimstone as Goodness triumphs over Evil, personified by the ogre Kastchei, the performance is filled with satirical delights.

A virtuouso in many arts but especially in transferring emotions through his dexterous hands into the "souls" of the magnificent wooden heads, the artist is always within view of his audience, obviously delighted in the pleasing with his entertainment.

Modesty precludes pride as Llords introduces himself from the stage and describes Llords' "International" as music, marionettes, two hands and one man.

He kept his audience filled with wonder Monday evening that one man could physically acomplish the feats of dexterity needed. Exertion shows occasionally, too, as perspiration appears on the artist's goateed face.

Following the presentation, patrons flocked to the stage to inspect the two foot tall figures, all handmade and magnificently costumed, and the stage and accoutrements, all made by Daniel Llords.

Gladly answering questions, he said that his first introduction to puppetry came when he was a child and was denied the opportunity to go behind the scene. He went home and made his own little wooden head.

Much more could be written about the intricacies of this performance such as the pouring of wine from a tiny jug, the tiny puff of smoke as one Parisian continuously drew on his pipe and the playing of the fiddle by Nero as Rome burned. Llords also sang as the dainty coloratura soprano filled her tiny breast to render the aria.

This one concert was enough to convince us that tickets for next season are a must. Donna Crudder and Lynn Cook have tickets and information. We are going to make sure that we get ours.

Adults are admitted to the concert only with a Community Concert membership card. Student tickets are also available.

NAOMI DOWDY

Missionary Convention

Tecumseh Assembly of God spring missionary convention starts Sunday, March 9 at 7 p.m. with Naomi Dowdy, missionary to Micronesia.

In the nine years of ministry, Miss Dowdy has served as Evangelist, director of radio and producer of a weekly broadcast in the Marshallese language, literature director as well as actively involved in the translation of the Old Testament, tracts and Bible correspondence courses.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. John Harris, missionary appointee to Chile, will be at the Church. Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. will be the Rev. Steve McCullough, pastor of the new Home Missions Church at Grass Lake.

The pastor and congregation invite everyone to these special meetings.

PAT MANNINO

Musician Football Player

Many know that Patricia Mannino is an accomplished musician, but few back home know that she is an avid football player.

Pat, a junior attending Eastern Michigan University is majoring in special education of the physically handicaped.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mannino, 114 Park St.

Pat is an honor member of the EMU marching band and Tau Beta Sigma, the national honorary band sorority. She will soon be a member of Kappa Delta Pi, the honor society of students of education.

Named to Head NMSS Campaign

Tom Moulton, 1105 W. Maumee, youth advisor to the Michigan Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society was named to head the 1975 MS Education Month Campaign of the Adrian College Circle K club.

The special annual campaign, which runs the month of March, is aimed at making the public more aware of the disease known as the mysterious crippler of young adults.

"Many families are affected emotionally and economically by MS, which generally strikes between the ages of 20 and 40," Moulton said.

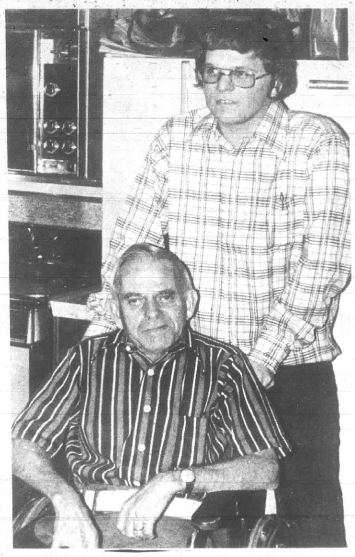
"It is important for everyone to know the latest about this chronic disease of the central nervous system and to be aware that this is everybody's fight," he added. "It is equally vital for the public to know what Lenawee county's patient services are available and what volunteers can do to help."

Moulton, a four-year member of Circle K, has been active in the MS program for several years. He emphasized that much still remains to be done before this major health problem can be licked. At the present time, there is no known cause or cure.

The Circle K club continuously contributes its leadership to benefit the county's MS patients. Moulton explained that MS is a young adult disease. Not too long ago, he added, the fight waged against the disease consisted primarily of adults.

"This can not be," he said "MS doesn't discriminate against the young or the old. If we join the fight, young and old alike, the combined resources are sure to be the winning force."

Further information about MS can be obtained by writing Circle K MS Drive, 1105 W. Maumee, Adrian.



ANNUAL MS DRIVE — Tom Moulton accompanies Tecumseh MS patient Marion Morse to a local Lenawee County meeting for area MS patients and volunteers. Moulton was recently named to the 1975 MS campaign sponsored by the Adrian College Circle K Club.

"Never out, never over, going on all the time" as the carnival barker shouts. This will be the case during Fun Day, March 8, in Tecumseh Acres School.

From 4 to 8 p.m. new games will be available for only 10 cents a time to play. Many prizes will be awarded from a $100 door prize right down to a small one for the tiniest child.

Room chairman for the event are Don Judd, Kathy Cubberly, Mr. and Mrs. John Day, Mrs. Coleen Brooks, Mrs. Mary Eardley, Jinny Walters, Eleanor Hull, Norma Wonderly and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Rose.

Jackie Painter, Sharon Montbriand, Carolyn Carter, the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Boyd, Priscilla Killingbeck, Mrs. James Fliss, Phyllis Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rupert, Sam Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robison, Cheryl Withrow, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Russell, Nancy Morrison and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Furry are also chairmen.

Foundation Names Recipients

Christine Fliss was among recipients of outstanding awards presented recently by the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation for efforts on behalf of lung damaged children.

Gene Riley, state chairman for the campaign, said, "Dedicated support of volunteers is absolutely necessary to our continued progress in combating CF and other children's lung diseases. We are deeply grateful for their generous concern and continued support."

Nichols Is Named

Nancy Nichols and Fay Whelan are members of the board of Lenawee County Mental Health Services.

An election of officers was held recently and committee appointments made. Nancy Nichols is a member of the Planning-Budget Committee.

Puppets to Entertain

Hey kids! "Meet us at the treehouse - March 29!" A rally will be held March 29 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the treehouse in Dawson Auditorium, Adrian College.

Kim Regnier Weds Christopher Tybor

Kim Therese Regnier and Christopher Allan Tybor were married Valentine's Day on Easter Michigan University campus in Holy Trinity Chapel by Fr. Patrick Jackson, assisted by Fr. Michael Guimon of Detroit and Fr. Malloy of Taylor.

Parents of the couple are Richard J. Regnier of Brooklyn and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tybor of Taylor.

Brian A. Regnier, brother of the bride, attended his sister to the altar. She wore a gown of satin crepe with lace at the neckline, wrists, and the hem of the cathedral train and mantilla.

She carried a rosary of white rose buds.

Paula Huczer of Ann Arbor was maid of honor and Susan Phillips and Kathleen Tybor, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids.

Richard Morofski was best man and Mark T. Regnier, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

The bride is a graduate of St. Thomas High School, Ann Arbor and attended Eastern Michigan University. She is employed at Bimbo's in Ann Arbor.

The groom was graduated from Taylor High School and works for Rich-Wall Cabinetry.

Following a Caribbean cruise, the couple will live in Belleville.

TEA-TIME EVERY AFTERNOON

Until a week or 10 days ago they came every afternoon. They were not quite regular enough to set the clock by but sometime around 3:30 p.m. the clan would gather. We always knew they were around by the noise. Exempting grackles, gulls are far and away the noisest birds who regularly come to our lake. They scream, laugh, cry, holler and well, sometime just read a birdbook's interpretation of gull talk. I'll just be satisfied to say that they are loud and raucous. And fun. And confusing.

A man who works in a nearby restaurant deserves the credit for the gull's tea-time visits. He saves the left-over bread and rolls and, on the way home from work, dumps them into our end of the lake. Ostensibly he is feeding the fish but, although we see them get some, most of the free hand-outs are gobbled up by the gulls.

While it is fun to see a scrap of bread disappear under the water, it is much better to watch the gulls wheeling and diving and snatching bits from the surface. Sometimes they splash down and get tummies wet but usually they are c. er enough to scoop it up with their bills. And, of course, if one happens to snatch a particularly large piece, his buddies are not above trying to steal it.

For some reason people are quite definite about gulls. They either like them or they don't—there seems no room for anything in between. No doubt about to which group the Duncans belong but I fear there are a few in our park who are perhaps members of the opposition.

It is rumored that there were a few complaints about the regular feedings and the man was asked to stop. If true, this will be a shame. I admit that the birds are noisy and messy but a little cleaning up seems a slight price to pay for such good entertainment.

However, the birds' benefactor might possibly be on vacation. That is a positive approach to which we shall cling—the gulls too. They are not coming around in great numbers anymore but a few still appear. Just checking I suppose.

It is amazing how accurately they judge the time. From quarter after three to a quarter of four and that, for those who wear no wrist-watches, is being right on time in my book.

Of course, we are not bereft of gulls. It just takes someone with a handout to appear on the bank of the lake. The birds flock in from all directions. If the offering is tossed just slightly up into the air it has only a 50-50 chance of ever reaching the water.

These are surprisingly large birds when seen up close; they are magnificent fliers and perform every sort of aerial maneuver imaginable. Catching food on the wing is kid stuff.

Just how keen a look-out is kept by the gulls is shown by the game our neighbors, Bill and Joan, play. They wait until no gulls are in sight and then sneak out with bread scraps for the blackbirds. We all know how eagle-eye sharp grackles and cowbirds are when food is involved but rare indeed are the occasions when they beat the gulls to the Dunbar's handouts. When a flock of gulls is scraping over food it takes a very brave grackle to sneak in and grab a crumb.

Now comes the part I have been dreading. Naming the gulls. Herring gulls, ring-billed gulls and just lately the black-headed laughing gulls are part of the gang. What makes the remainder difficult, if not downright impossible, to identify is that most gulls do not acquire their adult plumage until three or four years old. And a one year bird is marked differently than a two year old, a two year old differently than a three year old, etc.

Then there is the difference between the summer and the winter plumage—February seems early to struggle into spring outfits but they are doing it. Not to be overlooked, in this complicated matter of sorting out who is who, is the fact that none of these free-loaders seem too interested in landing on the porch doorstep and standing 'at attention' while we check to see whether he has brown flecks on his head, how many white spots mark the black wing tips or what is the width of the band on his tail.

So it is that although naming names is a problem, we nevertheless enjoy the excitement of the gulls' visits and hope that soon again we will be having these birds drop by at tea-time every afternoon.

Talent Show Presented to PTO

The regular meeting of the Tecumseh Acres Parent-Teacher Organization was followed by a talent program. Each student who performed received a certificate of achievement.

Cadet teacher Lisa Lee from high school has taught the fifth and sixth grade girls several cheers which have proved to be a morale booster at school ball games.

Those who shared their talents were: fifth grade cheerleaders Sheila Lynch, Toni Vargas, Carrie Kanous, Katie Bagby; Wendy Holdridge, and Kecia Parrish.

Joel Rutherford played piano; Jane Cattell sang; Grace Ann Carlson, piano; David Compton, piano; Kim Herr and Kevin Bordine, comedy act; Dean Gezelman and Chene Tripp, duet; Rhonda Winsky, piano.

Lynda Sprague and Lori Seal, duet; Susan Compton, piano; Jeanne Johnstone, pantomine; and sixth grade cheerleaders, Kassandra Hill, Janet Blaser, Lynda Sprague, Julie Beesley, Lori Seal and Torri Leveille.

NFO Hold Dinner Dance

Two-hundred sixty members from Lenawee, Monroe and Washtenaw counties attended the National Farmers Organization annual dinner dance Saturday evening in United Products Workers Union Hall.

George Anton, vice-president of Lenawee county, conducted the meeting in the absence of President Gene Frost who is a patient in Ann Arbor for tests.

The Rev. Fr. John Keefer of Siena Heights gave the invocation. Al Montri, chairman of Monroe county, presented a plaque for five years of service to Delano Desy and to George Anton for seven years service to the grain department.

Mrs. Nick Thompson and three daughters sang, accompanied by Karen Frost.

Don Graff of the national dairy department spoke and Devere Noaks, national director from Jackson county, spoke on the disposal system of farm commodities.

Tom Conrad, national director from Ohio, said that since there is no other place that the price burden can be cut, it will again to to the farmer.

Mention was made of the wholesale food coops by consumers.

Band Gets Three Rating

Tecumseh Junior High School eighth grade band participated at the Michigan School Bandand Orchestra Association Festival for District 8, Saturday at Lansing's Hannah Middle School.

Fifty-five band members and director Jimmie Rice received a three rating, or average for their performance. Rice said that the rating was a disappointment to the students, but that judges were also hard.

Three numbers were performed in the public arena and rated by judges on a scale from one to five.

The group was also rated on performance of unknown piece and final scores were computed.

Bantams Finish At Top of League

The Tecumseh Tomahawk Bantams of the Tecumseh Recreation Department Youth Hockey program clinched first place in the Sylvania Metropolitan Amateur Hockey League by beating Hickory Farms Cheese Kings 2-1 last weekend.

Steve Gibbs scored one goal and assisted Randy Vance for the second Tomahawk score.

In other games involving Tecumseh teams, the Pee Wees lost a 2-1 game to the Chandler Aces. The Pee Wees are currently in third place in the league standings. Tim Eardley scored the lone goal.

A three goal hat trick by David Stoll combined with goals by Andrew Davis, Mike Foley and Daniel Lynch powered the Tomahawk Mites over Industrial Printing 6-1.

In games this weekend at Tam-O-Shanter Arena in Sylvania the Bantams play Sylvania Savings Bank Saturday at 8 a.m. The Pee Wees go at 1 p.m. Sunday against Reeb and the Mites take to the ice at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon. All times are Ohio time.

Marine Pvt. Daryl G. Thompson, son of Mrs. Donna M. Thompson of Tipton, graduated from recuit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. Physical conditioning, discipline and teamwork are emphasized during Marine recruit training. Classes include instruction in close order drill; Marine Corps history, first aid, uniform regulations and military customs and courtesies.

TOP DRIVER — David Whelan of Tipton is pictured above with some of the trophies he has won in snowmobile competition around the state this season. Riding a John Deere 295-S, Dave took first place in four different categories at Marble Lake in Hillsdale County. The races included, stock and superstock drag and stock and superstock oval. All Class A. At Center Lake in Michigan Center, Dave captured first and second place in the Class A modified drag and stock drag respectively as well as the ten lap feature race. He also won a second and third place at Devils Lake, a first place at Glendale Downs in Hillsdale and a third place at Vineyard Lake in Brooklyn. His latest accomplishment was a second place finish in his class at Glennie International Speedway at Glennie, Michigan on March 2. Dave is backed by the Hoyt E. Whelan Co. in Tecumseh and he's quickly becoming one of the outstanding drivers in this area. (Photo by Frank Weir)

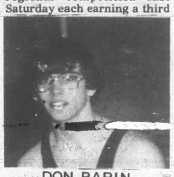
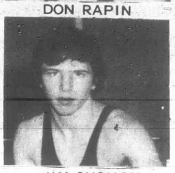
2 Indian Matmen Will Travel to State Finals

STURGIS — Two Tecumseh wrestlers participated in regional competition last Saturday each earning a third place in their respective weight classes. Both matmen qualified for the state finals to be held in Grand Rapids this Friday and Saturday.



DON RAPIN



JIM SHOUGH

Taking a third place in the 105 pound class was Indian Don Rapin. His season record stands at 23 wins — including 17 pins — seven losses and one tie. He was a state qualifier last season as well.

The other Tecumseh wrestler to qualify was Jim Shough at 132 pounds. His season record is now 23 wins, including eight pins, and four losses.

Heavyweight Don Heistand also participated in regional competition representing Tecumseh but lost two matches. His first loss came at the hands of the number two heavyweight in the state last year.

Thirty two teams were represented at Sturgis High School and Tecumseh finished in the 13th position. Sturgis won the tournament.

Coach Connors commented on the tournament, "Our wrestlers did an outstanding job in a field loaded with quality wrestlers. Jim Shough lost his first match on a 2-2 tie referees decision. Don Rapin lost his second round match, 4-0 to the regional champion. Both boys came back to win three matches during the tournament. Don Heistand lost twice in the tournament but wrestled extremely well.

"We can all be very proud of the performance our wrestlers delivered. They were a credit to their school and themselves."

Wrestling in the state finals begins at 12 noon this Friday and continues through Saturday March 8 at Grand Rapids' Kentwood High School.

Coaches Needed

Coaches are needed for Tecumseh Parks and Recreation Youth Baseball Program.

Any people interested are asked to contact the Tecumseh Recreation Department at 423-2107 Ext. 25.

CJHS Cagers

CLINTON — The fifth and sixth grade boys and girls have been having the opportunity of playing basketball on Saturdays under the coaching of Dave Arnold, Clinton Varsity coach, and several high school athletes.

They are presently having tournaments.

On Friday, March 7 the parents will have the opportunity to see the children in the championship game. On Friday night beginning at 7 p.m. the public may see an exhibition game between the 7th and 8th grade girls and the championship game between the 5th and 6th.

All youngsters who have participated in the program will be introduced and receive certificates. The public is invited to come to the sports event.

Skins Sports Banquet

CLINTON — The All-Sports Banquet will be held in the high school cafeteria next Tuesday for all male athletes who participated in any fall or winter sport. Dinner is to begin at 6 p.m.

The girls All-Sports Banquet will be held in April although the date has not yet been set. The two banquets are being held as the accommodations at the school just wouldn't hold everyone at one event.

Cager Honored

It was recently announced that John Ruhl, varsity basketball player for the Clinton Redskins, received All-League honorable mention honors for 1975.

HOMEOWNERS CORNER

by Vic Clauda

With some experience you can sharpen any garden tool. But you will need a sharpening file for a power mower. You can use this tool not only for your mower, but on assorted grass cutting tools as well as some digging tools. Use a small round file on your mower blade if it has some small nicks. File each nick sharp. A mower that is not sharp, shreds grass ends and makes a lawn look brown instead of green. Safety rule: Never touch a blade of a power mower unless the ignition wires are completely disconnected.

The best and easiest way to find all your plumbing and electrical supplies is to shop at CLAUDA PLUMBING & HEATING, 1108 W. Chicago Blvd., 423-3121. Do-it-yourself plumbers are welcome to come in for advice on how to handle a project and we have the materials and tools you need. Electric wire, conduit, fuse boxes, fuses, electrical switches, Miller Falls power tools and other electrical supplies are stocked. Hours: Daily 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m., Friday until 9 p.m., Sat. until 5 p.m.

HANDY HINTS: Spades are great transplanting and trenching tools.

Volleyball Squad Undefeated, 3 Players Win League Honors

By FRANK WEIR

Tecumseh's volleyball team ended a triumphant undefeated season by winning their last three matches in as many weeks. They recorded victories over Carlson (15-4, 8-15,15-5), Adrian last week (15-3, 15-8) and Blissfield Monday night (15-2, 15-10).

The victory over Carlson gave the Indians first place in the Huron league. They ended with a league record of 7-0 and an overall record of 13-0.

Sharon Phelps and Jane Faulkner were tops in the Adrian game with seven and six serving points respectively. Sue Brown and Julie Anderson each earned seven serving points in the Blissfield game for top honors.

It was announced Monday night, that Jane Faulkner and Julie Murphy were named to the All-League first team and Julie Anderson to the second team after voting by league coaches.

The junior varsity squad also won their last three bringing down Carlson, 15-9, 15-10, Adrian 15-13, 15-7 and Blissfield 15-2, 15-10. Tammy Downing was top server in the Adrian game with 11 serving points and Tori Iffland took that same honor in the Blissfield game with 13 serving points. The JV unit finished the season with a 5-1 league record and a 12-1 overall tally.

It goes without saying that coach Sue Allen is happy with her teams' performance this season. "I'm really pleased and proud with the season. We're only losing two girls, Becky Stormes and Julie Murphy. Tammy Downing and Tori Iffland will probably move up to the varsity squad next year so we should be quite strong. We are looking forward to next season and the beginning of state volleyball tournaments."

Hold Picnic for Area Florida Visitors

Residents and visitors in Florida from the Tecumseh area held a picnic Feb. 26, at Citrus Grove Estates in Bradenton which proved to be a day filled with good food, greeting old friends, and becoming reacquainted with others.

The new officers elected were James Barton, president; Lawrence Hoagland, vice-president; and Katharine Dickinson, secretary-treasurer.

Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Linger, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warren, Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Linger and Lori, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howe, Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Russell, Mrs. E.J. Aebersold, Mrs. Louis S. Schneider, Mrs. James Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Everhart, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ambacher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartle, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Frost, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Oliphant, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Truesdale, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Herford, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Kendell Kaufman, Mrs. Earl Schomburg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCrate, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Pask, Mrs. Anna Pawson, Mrs. Ruth Tanis, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Bilby, Mrs. LeRoy Titly, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Lendall Milheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Westgate, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hubbe, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Klappich, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fairbanks, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Gillespie, Mrs. Margaret Gillespie, Mrs. Lawrence Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hurlburt, Mrs. Orville Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Haight, Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Helm, and Hazel Helm.

Roger Gillespie conducted the business meeting and it was agreed to meet at the same place Feb. 25, 1976 with dinner served at 12:30 p.m.

Gather for Prayer

Women from twenty-nine area churches in Tecumseh, area will come together at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, Tecumseh, on Friday, March 7, 1975, at 1:30 p.m. to celebrate the World Day of Prayer.

Special speaker for the service will be Sister Rosemary Ferguson, O.P., spiritual leader of the more than 1,800 religious women of the Adrian Dominican Congregation. The topic of Sister Rosemary's presentation is "Ecumenism and Women."

Protestant, Orthodox and Catholic Christians in 169 countries throughout the world will unite in prayer to observe the 89th World Day of Prayer.

"Become Perfectly One" is the international theme for the service which was prepared by the Women's Ecumenical Prayer Fellowship of Egypt. A special offering will help support the Intercontinental Mission Fund of the Church Women United.

The worship service will be followed by a social hour at St. Elizabeth Center.

Chairman Appointed

Ray Jackson and Frank Crosby of Franklin Township were appointed chairmen of Township and Precinct organization and Young Democrats, respectively by Hugh Flippo recently.

Crosby is also chairman of finance committee.

Flippo is Lenawee County Democrat Chairman.

Chairmen will appoint their own committee members.

SISTER ROSEMARY FERGUSON

Librarian to Speak

Mrs. Cleon Mason, Tecumseh Public Library librarian will be guest speaker at the Child Study Club meeting Monday, March 10 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Basinger of 806 River Acres.

Co-hostesses for the evening are Mrs. John Basinger and Mrs. Howard Schrader. Favors for the children will be furnished by Mrs. Ray O'Toole and Mrs. James Johnson.

Anyone wishing information about the club may call Mrs. Larry Peoples, 423-8135.

Slo-Pitch Teams Sign Up

Due to error on our part, some information concerning the organization of slo-pitch softball — sponsored by Tecumseh's Department of Parks and Recreation — was omitted in an article last week.

Here is the entire article.

The format for slo-pitch softball will be the same as last year with three leagues of six teams each. Those teams from last year have first priority to enter.

A team has the first priority to enter if it has the same sponsor or a new sponsor with nine or more players from the official 16 players roster from last year.

The managers of each team from last year have been contacted by mail regarding their team.

Should new teams be needed they will be taken on first come first served basis from a waiting list. Any teams wishing to get on the waiting list should contact the Recreation Department beginning Monday, March 3.

All players must be residents of Lenawee County.

Tipton Topics

TIPTON — Tipton Grange will meet Friday, March 7, at 7:30 p.m. with North Adrian Grange as guests, bringing the gavel.

Potluck supper will be served with North Adrian members furnishing dessert.

Youth Fellowship of Tipton Community Church met Sunday evening in fellowship hall. Social activities were discussed. Refreshments were served by Becky Buell. Games were played. Mr. and Mrs. Tim Rinehart are leaders of the group.

Director Is Drop-In Guest

Lynn Schultz, director of Volunteer Services from the Department of Social Services, will be the speaker Tuesday, March 11, at Community Drop-In Center in the Community Center.

He will explain the services and answer questions concerning them.

To cover the subjects and give ample time for questions, the committee asks that those attending be present promptly at 9:30 a.m.

A coffee break at 10:15 a.m. will precede special interest groups at 10:30 a.m., a question and answer period on the program and a discussion on the hyperactive child.

Mrs. Sandy Titus will be chairwoman. Mrs. Martha Popponk is coordinator for March.

Free babysitting is made available by high school students.

Extension Club Meets For Lunch

MACON — The Macon Extension Club met at the home of Mrs. Verna Swick for a 12:30 luncheon recently.

Her assistant hostess was Mrs. Beatrice Gilmore.

Two lessons were given by Beatrice Gilmore and Doris Schober. First was women's rights under the law and the second was the metric system.

A business meeting was called by the president Delta Croll. Nine answered roll call.

Next meeting is at the home of Beatrice Papworth with Betty Hamilton as assistant hostess, Tuesday, March 25, 12:30 p.m.

Projects Are Topic

CLINTON—State vice-president, Keith Hoyt, spoke Monday night to Clinton area Jaycees about community projects. He asked support in his bid as national director for Michigan Region J. Clayton "Stub" Fryer is now vice president.

Jaycees are selling tickets for a gas raffle. Proceeds are for the Institute of Burn Medicine. Drawing is March 17. Prizes include 50 gallons of gas, an oil change and a 10 gallon gas fill-up.

District 27 basketball tournament will be Saturday at Clinton school.

Clinton Jaycees voted $150 to send Explorer Bill Stout to Washington, D.C. to observe government.

Max Steffens, Rotary club member, explained the Reading Is Fundamental, RIF, program and asked for support.

Dave Pray was elected Jaycee of the month.

Easter Egg Hunt co-chairmen are Al Ellerholz 456-4747 and Terry Calhoun 456-4512. Anyone who is interested in donating prizes or eggs may call.

Jaycee Auxiliary will invite the Jaycees to the next meeting, March 10.

A joint board meeting will be March 24.

Take a Teen to Work program is underway. This year chairman Terry Calhoun will call area businessmen to provide 9th grade Clinton students with an opportunity to observe different businesses.

Methodists Dedicate New Church Organ

CLINTON—The new Allen digital computer organ was dedicated at a memorial service in the Clinton United Methodist Church Sunday.

Mrs. Martin Scott led services. Mrs. Paul Hawkins, chairwoman of the organ committee, gave a presentation accepted by Dr. Richard Dixon, chairman of trustees.

Soloist Mrs. Richard Scheer sang "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," with the church choir. A guest barbershop quartet composed of tenor Del Sparks of Manchester, bass, Charles Knorp of Manchester, bariton, Thomas Cushman of Brooklyn and leader, Dr. Nixon, sang "Near My God To Thee."

Mrs. Lillian Price, Mrs. Frank Allen and Mrs. Paul Hawkins organists were presented with gifts during the fellowship hour.

A memorial plaque on the organ remembered Bob Alonzo, Emma Louise Bailey, Ruth Irene Bailey, Grace Helen Boutilier, Ellen Bonney, Ernest Bonney, Christine Boyd, Ann Englehart, Bessie L. Greenfield, Mark H. Harrington, Byrdelia Hull, Michael Kussmaul, Harry Martin, Everette Philo and Robert Price.

Parent Aid Is Offered at Meetings

CLINTON — In cooperation with Pat Elkins, the Clinton school's social worker, Susan Lambecht from Lenawee County Cooperation Extension Service will offer some help for parents.

As a starter four meetings have been scheduled for March 12, 19, 26 and April 9. Sessions will be held in the middle school - room 110, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. All parents are welcome.

Mrs. Bless would like to be contacted by interested parents. If you are interested, readers may call 456-7441 ext. 34.

Sell 'Smile' for Project

CLINTON—Clinton High will sell Smile candles for the 1975 project for Muscular Dystrophy.

Smile Saturday is April 5. On this day members of the student government will conduct this project in Clinton designed to raise funds to support medical research and patient service programs at the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Festival March 15

CLINTON—The Senior High Band Festival will be held in Clinton High School from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. March 15. Area bands will perform, read for performance ratings.

Public is invited to the high school auditorium.

Band Booster meeting will be changed to March 11 at 8 p.m. due to the band festival in Clinton.

Parents may attend the meeting in the band room.

Vote Monday for Trustees

CLINTON—Village residents go to the polls Monday, March 10 to select two village trustees for two-year terms.

Candidates for trustee are Clifford Cobb, Richard Koster and John Jansen.

Unopposed nominees for trustee positions on Smith-Kimball Community Center Board are Irene Karapas and Hollis Farley.

Polls open at 6:30 a.m. and close 8 p.m. at Clinton Middle School on Clinton-Tecumseh Road.

Short Day for Students

CLINTON—Schools will close at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, March 6 for a teachers' in-service work day. Buses will return the students to their homes at 11:30 a.m.

Seek Reply from Village

CLINTON — At the regular meeting of the Township Board, the board decided it will send a letter to the village president, stating the township's and it's attorney's opinion, that responsibility for the inhalator service be shared by the village and township. The service is performed by the Clinton Fire Department. A written reply from the village was requested.

Richard Peterson, village councilman, discussed further plans for a park that could be a joint effort of the township and village.

Township board supported the nomination of 12 new members approved by Clinton Fire Board for the Fire Department.

Robert Winder and Mary Hull will represent the township on a village citizens' committee to find a physician for Clinton. The village invited them to a meeting Monday, March 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Charles Wilson, building inspector reported that no permits were issued for the month.

Doctor To Visit This Weekend

CLINTON — In a meeting of Clinton's village council Monday night, Joe O'Donnell - spokesman for the Chamber of Commerce - announced progress in the village's search for a doctor.

O'Donnell reported to the council that an ad had been placed in the American Medical Journal resulting in several inquiries from different physicians. An inquiry from a doctor in South Carolina seemed most promising and O'Donnell told the council that this doctor and his wife would be visiting Clinton and the area this weekend.

In other business, Ken Chichester, district manager for Consumers Power, asked the Council to consider the renewal of a thirty year franchise renewal between the village and Consumers Power.

Village attorney Melvin Smith, citing street repair problems and a "lack of communication and no cooperation at times" with the company, suggested that the Council consider something other than a 30 year "blanket franchise."

The Council decided that Chichester should meet with the village committee later in the month to discuss further the proposed franchise.

The Council also held a budget hearing Monday night and announced a budget of $286,709 which included $137,534 in taxes and $149,175 in other revenue.

In other action Monday night:

-- The Council agreed to meet with a potential new owner of Hunt's Place. The Hunt's requested that the Council transfer the liquor license to a man from Westland who intends to take over Hunt's Place and move to the area. No decision will be made on the transfer request until the potential new owner has met with the zoning commission.

-- Council denied a request by EJ and Kathy Thomas for a rezoning of a portion of Rail Road Street from residential A to residential B. If granted, the rezoning would have allowed the Thomas' to build multiple dwellings in that area. Council stated that this would be too dense in denying the request.

-- Councilman Hill proposed that council members and the village clerk receive a pay raise. Hill said that this would be the first change in six years and the increased work load along with higher phone rates and other factors necessitated a raise. Council passed the motion raising council salaries to $25 a month and the clerk's salary to $175 a month.

Depict 'Jonah'

CLINTON — Sharon Scott had the program on Jonah for the United Methodist Church women recently. Sharon Kussmaul did drawings of an ostrich depicting the story of Jonah called "Jonah's pride."

Penny Thompson, as ticket agent, and Sally Sheer as Jonah did a modern version of Jonah's story. Sharon Corl read poems on Jonah.

Devotions were given by Sue Phipps. She read from "Prayer in My Life," by John Powell, a priest, who after much education found prayer to be the most important part of his life. He came to the conclusion life should be an act of love instead of an act of self glory.

Recipes should be received by May for the recipe book.

Ten books were purchased for the church library from the money earned from the book fair.

The April program will be on helping the elderly. Norma Zimmerman and Penny Thompson will host the meeting.

Marjean Satterla will be president for the next three months beginning April 1.

A card was signed for Janet Greenleas who is at Mt. Carmel Hospital in Detroit.

Banquet for Cubs

CLINTON — Clinton Cub Scout Blue and Gold Banquet was held Feb. 25 with approximately 250 people attending.

The pledge of allegiance was led by Cubmaster Dave Dough, invocation was given by the Rev. Charles Sanders and guest of honor was Steve Bowman, president of the Clinton Jaycees, the pack's sponsor.

Awards were presented to Dan Kunkle, two year pin; Guy Daskell, wolf badge. Dan Kunkle and Dan Rudd entered into Webelos.

Boys with the largest sales in the recent Tom War project received $10 gift certificates. Winners were:

Den 1, Eric Korte, Den 2, Peter Wolf, Den 3, Guy Haskell, Den 4, Dale Cozart, Den 5 Alan Payne and Webelos, Vaughn Shatter.

Dave Gibbard played taps.

Next meeting is March 18 for the Pinewood Derby.

New President

CLINTON — Jean Magee is the newly elected president of the Clinton Chamber of Commerce. Also elected were Charlie Pert, vice-president, Gary Service, treasurer and Kathy Thomas, secretary.

New board directors are Court Nighswander and Gary Srrvice.

Notice of Public Hearing

Notice is hereby given that the Village of Clinton will hold a public hearing on the proposed Facilities Plan for the purpose of receiving comments and views of interested individuals and groups. The hearing will be held at 7 p.m. March 18, 1975 at the Clinton High School auditorium located at 400 E. Michigan Avenue, Clinton, Michigan.

The purpose of the hearing is to receive comments on the facilities plan and the environmental impact of the proposed alternatives for treatment and disposing of wastewater generated in the Village of Clinton and adjacent areas in Clinton and Bridgewater Township. The alternatives include the use of activated sludge or rotating biological discs with discharge to the River Raisin and the use of spray irrigation for land disposal of the treated wastewater.

A copy of the report discussing alternate methods of treatment will be available for public inspection at the following addresses:

Clinton Village Offices

UNITED IN PRAYER — These seven women are preparing for the World Day of Prayer, March 7. Working committee women are l to r back, Mrs. Cyril Desmet, St. Elizabeth; Mrs. Richard Egli, First Presbyterian; Mrs. Elmer Spreeman, St. Elizabeth, chairwoman; Mrs. Vern Manwaring, First Baptist; front l to r, Mrs. Art Baaske, Gloria Dei Lutheran; Mrs. Lynn Hubbard, St. Peter's Episcopal; Mrs. William Goodrich, United Methodist. St. Elizabeth Church is host this year. This marks the 89th celebration of all Christian women in the world joining their prayers to express unity with God. Same prepared liturgy will be used worldwide. Area churches are invited to attend and join in this day of prayer.

To Participate in Program

Twelve year old Mary Lynne Hedley, will enjoy the rare opportunity as a Girl Scout her age to participate in the National Wider Opportunity program this summer in Florida.

Along with approximately 35 other girls from across the nation, she will attend Sanibel Shelling, July 14 to July 28 and study marine plants and marine animal life.

Girl Scouts usually selected for the event are ages 13 or older. They are selected on the basis of their exceptional special interests and interest in the Girl Scouts. Every year different opportunities are given.

MARY HEDLEY

Each of the girls in Mary Lynne's group will bring swaps, small mementos that represent the girl, her city and the state where she lives. The girls will trade these to learn about other areas of the country. Mary Lynne will contact the Tecumseh Chamber of Commerce for ideas.

Over the last several years, Mary Lynne has corresponded with noted experts in the field of Oceanography and Marine Biology. She has received much encouragement in her studies from Institute Oceanographique, Musee Oceanographique, Monaco and the Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution, Woods Hole, Mass.

In her correspondence with Dr. Jacques Cousteau and the Woods Hole Institute, she has received reading lists, research project suggestions, and career guidance.

She has also been asked to join the Oceanic Society of San Francisco. This organization seeks to protect the oceans and ocean life for the well-being of oceanic cultures, education in maritime arts and sciences and marine research.

This year is the first time in five years that any girl from the Irish Hills Girl Scout Council has attended a National Wider Opportunity event.

Entertains Garden Club

Mrs. Robert Frye, 1008 Red Mill Drive entertained the Tecumseh Garden Club in her home on Feb. 19 at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. Harry Jobes cohosted. A refreshment hour preceeded the business meeting opened by the president Mrs. Harry Jobes.

Sixteen members answered the roll call with "May favorite vegetable."

Mrs. Neil Pearson read a provocative article on the month of March.

Anne Carson gave a program on organic gardening and plants and vegetables for 1975.

1975 garden catalogs were passed around and added to the general discussion.

JUDY SLAGH

Recipient of Scholarship

A freshman at Eastern Michigan University, Judy C. Slagh is the recipient of the Board of Regents Scholarship, the Michigan Higher Education Scholarship and the Order of Eastern Star Educational Scholarship.

She is planning a nursing career.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Slagh of 726 N. Union, Judy believes her education will make her a better person and a degree is her personal goal.

Makes sense to $ave heat

When you save heat, you're saving dollars and scarce energy. Fortunately, there's something all of us can do to help save this energy and our heating dollars.

- Install at least six inches of insulation in your attic.
- Install weather-stripping, storm windows and doors, and caulk cracks.
- Keep damper closed when fireplace is not in use.
- Set thermostat to lowest comfortable daytime temperature, down to at least 65 degrees for sleeping.

To learn more about how to use energy wisely, call or stop in and pick up our free booklet.

As an independent agent we answer to one boss — our hometown people

We represent several firms, but we work for only one boss—you. That way we can always place you with a company which we think is best for each line of insurance you need. Naturally, we prefer companies like Auto-Owners who look at a loss and take care of it right away, without haggling or delays. That's one of the reasons we're part of the Altogether Family. Like us, they're always there when you need them.

1975-76 Season Starts for LCCA

"Scotland on Parade" is the headline attraction for 1975-76 season of the Lenawee Community Concert Association. This group of 30 singers and dancers from Scotland offers an evening of colorful and authentic music of the land of heather and kilts. Included are such Scottish specialties as the "Sword Dance" and bagpipe music.

Also appearing in next year's series are Addiss and Crful, who have been called the "true troubadours of the 20th century." They play an array of musical instruments and add commentary on people and places for audiences all over the world.

The return of Longstreth and Escosa, duo-harpists, is the third concert offered next season. This program ranges from the flowing music of "Clair d'Lune" to "hot harp."

A fourth concert will be announced at the end of the membership campaign, March 10-15. Memberships for students and adults are available. Concerts are held at Croswell Theater and Francoeur Theater, Siena Heights College.

No single performance tickets are available and memberships must be purchased before March 15, 1975. Tecumseh area residents may phone 423-2393 for more information and memberships.

Mr. & Mrs. Abner Celebrate 35th

Forest Abner and his wife, Ruth, celebrated their 35 wedding anniversary March 2 with a family gathering of four of Ruth's brothers and her five sisters at the Abner residence on Saturday evening.

The couple moved to W. Logan St. in 1942. He owns Abner's Service furnace repair, 122 N. Evans. He has been in business for himself for many years.

The Abners have two children, Jane Hebert, operator of a floral shop in Clinton and Gary who with his wife, Nancy, who operate the only licensed Grade A Goat Dairy farm in the state of Michigan. There are six grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner hope to further celebrate their anniversary with a trip to Florida or Arizona to visit her other brother.

Receive BS Degree

Kay Stolte Luck received a bachelor of science degree in occupational therapy at fall commencement of Western Michigan University.

Her home address is 9254 Tonneberger Dr.

Seaman Graduates

Navy Seaman Recruit Michael F. Cote, son of Leonard F. Cote Sr. of 213 S. Pearl St., graduated from recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The training included instruction in seamanship, military regulations, fire fighting, close order drill, first aid and Navy history.

"Red Cross Month"

Mayor Harold Easton signed a proclamation Tuesday to make the month of March "Red Cross Month."

Now in its 58th year of service, the proclamation stated that Lenawee County Chapter of the American Red Cross is constantly evaluating the community needs and is there in case of crisis and emergency.

Receive BS Degree from WMU

Thomas G. Sears, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sears, 6507 Smith Road, received his bachelor of science degree from Western Michigan University at the fall commencement.

He is presently the industrial arts teacher in Utica High School and part owner and working foreman of Target Fabricating and Machine Inc. of Rochester. He and others of the corporation helped in getting the business in operation from its beginning. Target employs coop students, some from the Utica High School.

Sears, a 1968 graduate of Tecumseh High chool, and his wife, Diane live in Utica.

Macon Dialog

by Linda Phillips 423-5213

You think you've got problems — Clorice has been comatose for two months and is a mere shell of her former self; Alphonse has a rare, debilitating illness and is slowly losing the use of his extremeties; Babette, who has always been too pretty for her own good, has a social disease, and poor Miss Teasdale has recently become infested with a most-unpleasant looking insect which was at first misdiagnosed as dandruff [illegible] things from him. We m[illegible] try harder and do better when we're encouraged to do so. That Zebra will produce a gorgeous golden bloom before you can say Jerry Baker!

One more tip - don't generalize about your plants. It is tempting but can be very dangerous. Just because the Mother-In-Law Tongue you have already raised to maturity thrives on warm beer and an occasional cigarette butted into her soil doesn't mean your newly-acquired one will. Respect each plant's individuality.

Even though your plants may be demanding and alter your lifestyle drastically (no more sleeping until noon because the shades must be raised for morning sunbaths, securing a sitter at the last moment so you can take a weekend trip, etc.), raising your family is most rewarding.

Oh, the feeling that is yours when you pull your Christmas Cactus back from the brink of death by Nov. 26! It's kind of hard to put into words, and a lump is forming in my throat. When your Rabbit-eared Cactus makes you a grandma, you'll know what I am talking about!

Must run now. Joyce and Jim Conrad presented us with an exquisite Kalanchoe in full bloom for our anniversary. She will be called Simone, and it's time to introduce her to her new sill-mates . . . Yes, Babette, you're just as pretty as Simone. Of course I'll still love you, Alphonse!!

We have ways to make you talk.

We have the elegant European-style Cradlephone, for continental chit-chat. And the nostalgic Candlestick Phone, one of the few practical inventions of the Roaring 20's.

We also have the Stylcline® Phone, cleverly disguised as a piece of modern sculpture.

Finally, there's our handsome, wood-grain Chestphone, the only phone in the world that comes with a place to keep it.

If you'd like to have one of these special phones, we have ways to make it easy. Just call our business office.

Boy Scout Birthday

BRITTON—"Happy Birthday Boy Scouts 65th year—Cub Scouts 45th year," was the theme of the Blue and Gold banquet held last week by Cub Scout Pack 23 at the high school study hall.

A large crowd assembled for the potluck dinner and awards night, which opened with the pledge to the flag by Den 3.

A decorated cake in blue and gold, depicting Cub Scouting was featured at the banquet. Cake was baked and decorated by Ada Marie Scholl, assistant den mother.

Special guests for the evening were the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Porter. The Rev. Porter gave the invocation and closing prayer and represented the pack's sponsor, the Grace United Methodist Church.

Other guests honored by Cubmaster Lewis Gilbert were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zeemer who were presented an appreciation plaque for past services. Mr. Zeemer also received a 3-year pin for duties as past committeeman and treasurer. Mrs. Dean Pilbeam also received an appreciation plaque for one-year service as assistant den mother.

Ronald Fenelon received a 4-year pin for his services as a committee chairman, and announced that he has accepted the job as new scoutmaster for the local Boy Scout Pack 23.

A 3-year pin was also received by Cubmaster Gilbert for his services.

Other awards were 3-year pins to den mother's, Geri Gilbert, Linda Fenelon, Pat Irvin and to Janet Pickell, assistant den mother and committee treasurer.

Bobcat badges were received by Dale Evans, David Below, Jeff Stewlow, Brian Valllie and Steve Bailey.

Boys who joined the pack last September received membership into the pack were Keith Derryberry, Ronald Briggs, Robert Lewis, Todd Bower, Todd Papworth, John Monagin, Clarence Murdock, Tom Barron and Greg Stotler.

New den mothers receiving their membership cards from Cubmaster Gilbert were Mrs. Nina Bower and Mrs. Ada Marie Scholl.

Presenting awards from their den mothers were: Mrs. Pat Irvin, Den 2 - Todd Papworth, denner; Steve Bailey, assistant denner; Steve Scholl, 1-year pin and gold arrow; Bobby Bixler and Bobby Pratt, 1-year pins.

Mrs. Nina Bower, Den 3 - Todd Bower and John Monagin, denners; P.J. O'Neil and Jeff Stewlow, assistant denners.

Mrs. Geri Gilbert, Den 5 - Tim Gilbert, Ron Pickell and David Irvin, 2-year pins.

Mrs. Betty Stotler, Den 1 - Kent Kimerer, 1-year pin.

Webelo leader, Kermit Pickell, presented Webelo awards to Gary Wilcox, activity badge, 2-year pin, and Klondike badge for attending camp last month; Richard McWilliams, 1-year pin, moved up to Webelo and received Webelo braids.

Dennis the Webelo is Gary Wilcox and Chuck Barron, assistant denner.

Den 2 closed the evening's program by leading the group in singing the happy birthday song to Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts for their 65th and 45th year in scouting.

The Village of Britton

EDITOR MARY MASKA — Please Phone 451-2161 — Evenings & Weekends

Businessmen Hold Meeting

BRITTON—Ideas for promoting business in the village were discussed at the Feb. 24 meeting of the Britton Businessmen's Association when nine of the local merchants met at the fire hall.

Wayne Dunbar was appointed to meet with the Village Council and Ridgeway Township board regarding the construction of the sewerage system in the Britton-Ridgeway area, and give full support from the merchants.

The BBA discussed incorporation papers and community business newsletters were given the members.

Next scheduled meeting of the association will be in December, unless something important comes up before that time.

New Commander for Scouts

BRITTON—Ronald H. Fenelon, committee chairman of Cub Scout Pack 23 for the past two and a half years and Webelo den leader last year, assumes command as Scoutmaster for Troop No. 23.

Fenelon lives at 9250 Smith Road with his wife, Linda and four sons. He is employed by the Ford Motor Co. quality control office.

Fenelon said that he wants to help provide a quality scouting opportunity for the young men of the Britton area, with special emphasis on developing each boy's skills.

Fenelon is currently participating in the Cornerstones Leadership Training offered by the Wolverine Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Assisting Fenelon with troop activities are William Raeburn and Lewis Gilbert, Cubmaster of Pack 23 in Britton.

RONALD FENELON

Upcoming events are the annual pancake supper at Britton-Macon school cafeteria on March 26, summer camp Kanesatake beginning June 22 and a summer honor trip around Lake Michigan for Scouts who have advanced in rank.

BRITTON—The following news was taken from the "Principal's Letter":

Local chapter of the National Honor Society of Britton-Macon High School will be held at 7:30 p.m., April 15, in the school gymnasium. Seniors, juniors and sophomores who have demonstrated academic superiority, service to the school, leadership qualities and good character will be elected by the faculty members.

Chuck Bissett, back-up man for the singing group "The 5th Dimension," appeared at an assembly program in the high school gymnasium on Tuesday, March 4 at 10 a.m.

The Student Council sponsored the program.

May 12 is the date set by the seniors for the annual senior trip. Their destination is Florida. They will be accompanied by their class advisors.

Spring vacation date has been set for March 27, at 3:15 p.m. and will reconvene 8:30 a.m., April 7.

Church to Observe World Prayer

BRITTON—World Day of Prayer will be observed Friday, March 7 at 9 a.m. in the parsonage of the Congregational Christian Church.

Rev. G.O. Hannevik invites persons in the are to attend this special service.

Honored on 2nd Birthday

BRITTON—Debbie Sturtevant celebrated her second birthday Saturday evening when her parents and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sturtevant, and Scott, entertained at a birthday supper in her honor.

Following the supper a panda bear birthday cake baked by Mrs. Walter Furgason, and ice cream was served the guests which included her grandparents, Mrs. Agnes Sturtevant, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Alcock, Tipton and an aunt, Mrs. Terry Alcock and Todd and Troy of Ridgeway.

10% Granted to Employees

BRITTON—A contract was signed granting a 10 percent increase for village employees at Monday night's council meeting.

The village of Montgomery was contacted regarding an exchange of mayors on Mayor Exchange Day May 19 during Michigan Week.

Montgomery has a population of 400 and is located in Hillsdale County.

Council also voted to donate $25 toward the Boy Scouts annual petunia planting project.

Wayne Dunbar, representing the Britton Businessmen's Association, attended the meeting to assure the council of the BBA's support for the sewerage project.

16th Celebrated

BRITTON—Fifty friends gathered at the "Cow Palace" Saturday night to celebrate the 16th birthday of "Yogi" Connie Price. A large Yogi bear cake centered the refreshment table.

The friends danced to the music of the Jamis Four, featuring Steve Gilmore, Jeff Brown and Jon and Mike Hintz.

Clarence and Rosemary Schroeder donated the "Cow Palace", which proved to be fun for all. Black lights provided atmosphere.

Guests were from Britton, Tecumseh, Blissfield, Sand Creek and Adrian.

Britton Briefs

Following Sunday School and church services Sunday at the Tecumseh Assembly of God Church, in Tecumseh, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bower, Todd, Andrea and Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Crutchfield were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Crutchfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mastie left over the weekend to spend some time with his sister, Mrs. Julius Bruen at Caspian. While visiting in the Munising area the Masties visited the Walter Millers, Fred Millers, and the Lawrence Ashs.

Church to Show Film

BRITTON — The film "Deceiver," a Ken Anderson film, will be shown Sunday, March 9 at 7 p.m. in the Congregational Christian Church.

The "Deceiver" may well be one of the most important films ever released. The film deals with the renewed interest in the occult, which we are seeing all around us and should be of interest to everyone.

Public is invited and also the entire youth groups are welcome.

To The Editor

To the Editor:

The fiscal budget of the Village of Britton for the coming 1975 and 1976 year is still unresolved. There is an excess of $10,000 plus from the '74 and '75 budget.

The 1½ mill issue destined for new sewer construction is not needed at this time and should be returned to the overburdened tax payers.

Property valuation is up and we need to cut taxes and plug the loopholes.

Only four citizens were in attendance at the last village finance meeting held Feb. 25.

Henry Mastie
Village Councilman

A MAN WHO IS NOT ALONE

Prayer has always been a mystery. But through the centuries millions have turned to it, believed in it, and been strengthened by it.

Prayer doesn't solve our problems . . . it helps us find right solutions. It doesn't make trouble go away . . . it gives us courage to face our trials. Prayer is never a "safe conduct" through the lines of danger . . . it simply gives a man the bold assurance that he is not alone in his crucial hour.

You don't have to go to church in order to pray. You do have to want to be with God.

Worship and Christian education have long been the mainstays of continuous communication with God. Families who build their home and happiness on a spiritual foundation find Sundays in church the natural expression of their faith and fervor.

A man who cherishes the bold assurance that he is not alone makes being with God a way of life—not a last resort.

VOL. 124 OUR 125th YEAR — NO. 26 | THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1975 | FOURTEEN PAGES—20c

2-Year Goals Are Adopted

by KATHY KULCZYK

Determining a six-year capital improvements program, updating the land use and analysis of the master plan in 1976 are the immediate goals adopted by Tecumseh's Planning Commission for Region II planners for the next two years.

Senior Region II planner, Allan C. Hooper, presented the work schedule in response to the Commission's question about what services the city might receive for its annual membership contribution of more than $1,600.

The priorities for the six-year capital improvements plan will be developed with the city Planning Commission and suggestions from the department heads, council, and public survey.

"This is to be a very flexible plan which will give the Planning Commission a full year to work on priorities to recommend to Council and the city manager. Priorities will be continually updated. When priorities change, they can be added or deleted from the schedule," said Chairman Richard Eggleston.

"This is a project plan of capital expenditures which will include projects that can be completed with local funds, assessments, and grants," said Eggleston.

Since the capital improvement priorities have been established for the 1975-76 budget, these programs would be worked into the 1976-77 and 1977-78 budget years.

Downtown redevelopment would be included under the capital improvements plan. However, Hooper told the Commission that extra time involved in details for sites, services and expenditures would cost the city more.

City Manager Cal Zorn told Planning Commission this budget year's priorities were: the Russell Road project from Adrian to Mill, and the completion of the bridge, if Community Development Funds are received; lighting of tennis courts, baseball diamond improvements from $2,500 United Fund contribution, and an addition to city hall.

Region II will also update the 1968 master plan including the land use book, which shows existing and future land uses, and update population figures.

Revision of the master plan in the second year will also include analysis of residential neighborhoods, recreation and community facilities, central business district, industrial areas thoroughfare plan and overall future land use plan.

Recommendations for changes based on conditions will be made to the city.

DAVID CRISS

Dave Criss Leaving City

David E. Criss, manager of the Tecumseh facility of Proctor Funeral Homes of Tecumseh and Clinton, has assumed co-ownership of the Truesdale Funeral Homes of Kalamazoo.

He joined Proctor's on July 5, 1965, and has been active in the United Methodist Church, the Masons, Knights of Pythias, the Wit and Wisdom Club and is a past president of the Tecumseh Kiwanis Club.

Criss will assume his new duties in Kalamazoo on March 17.

"I am very happy for Dave to be able to advance his professional career in his new position. As a good community leader, and as an asset to our service operation, he will be sorely missed. We wish him the very best of luck," said Les Proctor, owner of Proctor Funeral Homes.

A congratulatory open house for David and his wife, Dorothy, will be held March 16, from 2 to 4 p.m., at the Tecumseh United Methodist Church.

GT Changes Code to 517

General Telephone will change the area code from 313 to 517 for some of its southeast Michigan exchanges, including Adrian, Blissfield, Britton, Clinton, Hudson, Tecumseh and Tipton, according to Andy Johnson, customer service manager for the company. Change is effective March 15.

"It is important to remember that you dial the area code 313 for all calls to the 313 area, beginning March 15," Johnson said.

350 in Layoff

A layoff of 350 employees at the Tecumseh Products became effective Wednesday, March 12.

Men with upwards of seven and eight years in seniority, going back to Jan. 30, 1967, were involved.

Reasons for the layoff were lack of work and a reduction in orders.

The Company and Union just recently settled a three-and-a-half-month strike.

TOTALS CAR—A speeding car, driven by Richard Sterling, sent a fire hydrant - in foreground - some 50 to 60 feet from its original location and then wrapped itself around a utility pole. Neither driver nor passenger were injured.

2 Escape in Crash

Two Tecumseh youths, Richard J. Sterling, 19, Occidental Rd. and his passenger, Mark Kelly, miraculously escaped injury Wednesday morning when their speeding car clipped a fire hydrant in front of the library and then slammed broadside into a utility pole.

Fortunately, the accident occurred shortly before junior high school students would have been on the street and possibly in the path of Sterling's car. The mishap was directly across the street from the junior high.

A witness heard Sterling shift gears just before he lost control. Northbound on N. Ottawa, he first hit curbing at the library driveway and then clipped the hydrant, knocking it some 50 to 60 feet away.

The impact at the pole shoved the front seat nearly a foot outside the driver's door. Kelly, sitting in the passenger seat, somehow avoided being injured as the impact crushed his side of the car.

Sterling has been cited by the Tecumseh police for speeding. Speed limit in the area is 20 mph.

Four other accidents the past week were minor. A resume is:

March 7 — Jennifer Jo Cook, 140 Brown, and Michelle Jahner, 52220 E. Monroe Rd., were backing in the high school parking lot when their vehicles bumped.

March 7 — Allen M. Partee, 19, Manitou Beach, was cited for running a stop sign after an accident with Larry A. Wilson, 28, of 511 W. Cummins, at the intersection of S. Union and Kilbuck.

March 10 — A car owned by Robin L. Nickelson, 702 E. Chicago Blvd., was damaged while parked on N. Maumee.

March 11 — Ruth A. Fielder, 21, of 208 N. Pearl St., and Randall Maynard, 26, of 820 Waskin Dr., were involved in a minor accident at the intersection of E. Chicago and Maumee.

DEER VANDALISM—A saying that "nothing runs like a deer" was nothing but the truth Wednesday morning when one smashed a window at Lawson TV in downtown Tecumseh, and then skipped over a couple of blocks to drive through an office window at Long Motor Sales and then out another office window, pictured here. The deer, cut in the two incidents, fled east on Logan St. and then north and across Herrick Park Dr. and into the lowlands at River Raisin.

Fire Started in Burglary

Three larcenies and a breaking and entering above Eggleston's Jewelry were investigated the past week.

The B&E at Eggleston's could have been disastrous as a fire was started on the floor above the shop. Fortunately, it went out and caused little or no damage. The second floor above the jewelry store is used for storage of records and displays.

As to the larcenies, Weldon Bordner, apartment resident at 1325 Southwestern Dr., reported a rifle, shotgun and some change missing after returning Saturday from vacation. Estimated loss is $300.

Karen Miller, 115 W. Logan, told officers that her bicycle was stolen from her back porch. Loss was $99.95.

Roberto L. Anaya, Britton, told police that a spare tire was removed from his pickup while parked at the Products parking lot.

Assessor's Hike Much Less Here Than Proposed

Assessments on real estate in Tecumseh will rise only slightly, if Robert Hamden, city assessor, has his way.

Although the county equalization director has recommended a factor of over 11 percent, Hamden has completed his study of local property with the Board of Review and has projected an increase of six percent from last summer and only two percent from just last winter.

A hike of four percent was made in assessments last summer and is included in the six percent assessment.

Hamden is also hopeful that legislation before the legislators in Lansing will be approved that will, in many cases, freeze assessments for periods of several years.

Such legislation also would prevent the county equalization board and director from attaching factors to local assessments. Although the city and schools have not required additional millage in recent years, the factors which have been applied actually provide both with additional tax monies.

In the past the city has reduced millage to compensate for the assessment increases that were applied by the county factors.

The Board of Review will review assessments for property owners who question them, starting March 24 at city hall.

Property owners will not receive assessment notices but may obtain such information by calling or visiting the city assessor.

Members of the board include T.J. Wagner, James Freckleton and Ted Ehinger.

Two Rob Assistant

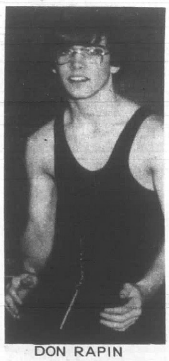
CLINTON — Monday evening at 9:15 p.m., Vescio's assistant manager, Michael Taylor, 23, of Saline, was greeted by two men wearing nylon stockings over their faces and carrying a sawed-off shot gun, as he approached his automobile in the parking lot after closing the supermarket.

The men, apparently young and white, forced Taylor into his automobile and took him out Kehoe Road to the Murphy Road intersection and, after relieving him of the store's receipts of $1,300, some checks and food stamps, they tied his hands and left him beside the road.

The Taylor car was found shortly afterward, abandoned in Clinton.

Clinton State Police are continuing the investigation of the holdup which occurred in a parking lot filled with cars, while the Colonial Lanes bowling lanes were still open in the basement of the market.

Trooper Zimmerman said officers hope that anyone who may have seen the incident will come forward with information.



DON RAPIN

Wins Spot in State

GRAND RAPIDS — Wrestling at 105 pounds, Tecumseh senior Don Rapin captured a sixth place berth in state competition over last weekend. He now becomes only the second Indian wrestler to ever place in the state tournament.

The other wrestler was Armand Ternak who was state champ in his weight class in 1973.

Rapin ended the season with a record of 25 wins, including 18 pins and 10 losses. In the state tournament, he won two matches and lost three.

Previous to state competition, Rapin was second in his weight class in the Huron League, was district champ and was third in regional competition.

Teammate Jim Shough - wrestling at 132 pounds - also participated in the state tourney but failed to place after winning one match and losing two. Shough was first in the league and district and finished third in regional action.

Buys Company

Morse Lumber Co. of Adrian has been purchased by Marty Wallich, owner of Tecumseh Plywood.

It will mark the third outlet for Wallich, who also owns a similar business at Dexter besides the one here in Tecumseh.

BEHIND PAGE ONE

All parts for the Tecumseh Players' production, "Exit the Body," have been filled. The report in last week's Herald said that parts would be open until March 24 and 25. Actually they were closed Feb. 24 and 25. Rehearsals are now in progress. Performances will be given April 11, 12, 13, 17, 18 and 19, in the Glass Room of the Community Center.
